P R E F A C E.

THIS Edition of the Scriptures is a FAC-SIMILE REPRINT, WITH LARGER TYPES, of the "ENGLISH VERSION of BAGSTER'S POLYGLOT BIBLE." It corresponds page for page, and line for line, with the two Pocket Editions.

All who have been accustomed to the regular use of any particular edition of the Scriptures, must be aware how much their ability to refer from one passage to another depends on their remembrance of the position of the passages upon the particular parts of the pages where they occur; so that while they are able to turn with ease to the passage they wish to consult in their own Bibles, they are often quite at a loss in searching for the same truths in a Bible with which they are not familiar. This of course depends upon the local memory induced by the constant recurrence, during the daily reading, of the same passages upon the same pages and parts of the pages.

It is accordingly found by those whose failing sight obliges them to relinquish the use of their smaller Pocket Bible for a larger type, that the different arrangement of the matter in the newly adopted copy produces very considerable inconvenience, and materially hinders their accustomed enjoyment of the Sacred Word.

A Bible, therefore, that might supersede the smaller Pocket Companion, without destroying the valuable assistance of this local memory, and without the inconvenience of a new form and arrangement, has been long a desideratum.

Such a Bible is the present Edition.

It has been prepared more expressly for the readers of the "ENGLISH VERSION of BAGSTER'S POLYGLOT BIBLE," with both sizes of which it exactly corresponds, as well as with the various other Languages of the Series: and the numerous Bible readers accustomed to the use of either of these editions may now obtain the occasional relief of a larger print, or permanently lay aside their well remembered pages, without the least confusion or inconvenience, or the fear of losing the advantage of their previous research and familiarity with the Text.

The present Volume is, as it were, simply a magnified picture of the smaller editions.

A UNIFORM SERIES of Bibles is thus furnished by the publication of this edition; and those who have not hitherto become very accustomed to other editions, may with much advantage adopt either of the smaller copies for present use, secure of another similar copy with type of increased size, to suit the varying powers of the sight throughout the whole period of life.

The Contents of this Edition are too well known to require lengthened description.

The TEXT is that of the Authorised Version, printed with the utmost attainable accuracy.

The REFERENCES are original in plan and arrangement. They have been selected with laborious care,—to exhibit the harmony of the sacred writers on the subjects of which they treat: to show the connection of all the Divine attributes, and the holy uniformity of God in His government, both of His people and the world: to help those who are seeking the way of salvation, by pointing out the repeated invitations of mercy: to exhibit the constant reference of all the sacred writers to our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom give all the prophets witness: to connect the threatenings of God's holy law with sin, and with His infinite mercy in Christ: to demonstrate the concurrence of the Old and New Testaments, and the relation of the types and prophecies with their fulfilment: and to manifest respecting the gracious and indispensable operations of the Holy Ghost, the Sanctifier, that as He gave by inspiration the Scriptures for our use, so to Him are we indebted for all we have learned or may learn of them.

“It is incredible to any one who has not made the experiment, what a proficiency may be made in that knowledge which maketh wise unto salvation, by studying the Scriptures with reference to the parallel passages without any other Commentary, or Exposition, than what the different parts of the Sacred Volume mutually furnish for each other. Let the most illiterate Christian study them in this manner, and let him never cease to pray for the illumination of that Spirit by whom these books were dictated, and the whole compass of abstruse philosophy and recoudite history shall furnish no argument with which the perverse will of man shall be able to shake this learned Christian’s faith.”—Bishop Horsley.

The Marginal Readings are all those which usually accompany the largest editions of the authorised Version.

The Tables of Weights, Measures, etc., and the account of the Political and other divisions of the Jews, are from the best authorities.

The Comparative Chronological arrangement of the contemporaneous history of the kingdoms of Judah and Israel will, it is hoped, materially decrease the difficulty of understanding this portion of the Scriptures.

The HISTORY of the period between the close of the Old Testament Canon and the times of the New Testament, will furnish much desirable information of the political state of Judea during the life of our Lord and his Apostles.

The TABULAR HARMONY of the Four Gospel Narratives, and the Synopsis of the Itinerary of the Israelites according to the latest investigations, etc. will afford some assistance to the student.

The COMPARATIVE VIEW of the QUOTATIONS from the Old Testament by the New Testament writers, is entirely new, and, it is believed, is more complete than any other similar list. It may be remarked, in connection with these quotations, and to illustrate the value of such a help as is here offered, that in every case in which we can establish an undoubted reference of the Spirit of God in the New Testament to previous revelation in the Old Testament, we have, as it were, a nucleus of infallible interpretation around which to accumulate further light, and by which to estimate the soundness of our own understanding of the Scriptures.

The Maps have been prepared with the utmost care, both as regards their geographical accuracy and their artistic execution, and contain the newest information.

CHAPTER I.

IN the beginning^a God created^b the heaven and the earth.

2 And the earth was^c without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit^d of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 And God said,^e Let there be light:^f and there was light.

4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided^g the light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light^h Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning wereⁱ the first day.

6 And God said,^j Let there be a^k firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament,^l and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above^k the firmament: and it was so.

8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

9 And God said,^m Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earthⁿ bring forth^o grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding^p fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

14 And God said, Let there be^q lights in the firmament of the heaven, to divide the^r day from the night; and let them be^s for signs, and^t for seasons, and for days, and years:

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lights; the greater light^u to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven, to give light upon the earth,

18 And to^v rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the^w moving creature

21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas; and let fowl multiply in the earth.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image,ⁿ in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that [^]moveth upon the earth.

29 And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb ^μbearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed;^p to you it shall be for meat.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, where in there is ^πlife, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

CHAPTER II.

THUS the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 And^t on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it; because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created^σ and made.

4 These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

5 And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But γ there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the LORD God formed man δ of the^d dust of the ground, and ^ebreathed into his^f nostrils the breath of life; and ^gman became a living soul.

8 And the LORD God planted^h a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; theⁱ tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the^k tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

11 The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth^m the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold;

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of^k Ethiopia.

14 And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: ^othat is it which goeth ^lto-ward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

15 And the LORD God took ^uthe man, and ^qput him into the garden of Eden, to dress it and to keep it.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden ^vthou mayest freely eat:

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil,^s thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou ^wshalt surely die.

18 And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone;^t I will make him an help ^pmeet for him.

19 And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and ^ubrought them unto Adam^o to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

20 And Adam gave^o names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.

21 And the LORD God caused a^z deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;

22 And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, ^vmade he a woman, and ^bbrought her unto the man.

23 And Adam said, This is now bone^c of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called ξ Woman, because she was taken out of β Man.

24 Therefore shall a man leave^d his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, β Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said,^a Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 And the serpent^b said unto the^c woman, Ye shall not surely die:

5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened; and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant ζ to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.

7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked:^t and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves γ aprons.

8 And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the ^ocool of the day: and Adam and his wifeⁿ hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God, amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid,^p because I was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldst not eat?

12 And the man said,^r The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

14 And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field: upon thy belly shalt thou go, and ^odust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between^w thy seed and^z her seed;^y it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow, and thy conception: in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be x to thy husband, and he shall^a rule over thee.

17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life:

18 Thorns also and thistles shall it bring^y forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field;

19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.

20 And Adam called his wife's name

Eye;^β because she was the mother of all living.^α

21 Unto Adam also, and to his wife, did the LORD God make coats of skins, and^b clothed them.

22 And the LORD God said,^c Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life,^d and eat, and live for ever;

23 Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden,^e to till the ground from whence he was taken.

24 So he drove out the man: and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden, cherubims,^f and a flaming sword^g which turned every way, to keep the way^h of the tree of life.

CHAPTER IV.

AND Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare^θ Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.

2 And she again bare his brother^κ Abel. And Abel was^λ a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 And^μ in process of time it came to pass, that Cain broughtⁱ of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD.

4 And Abel, he also broughtⁱ of the firstlings of his flock,^σ and of the^k fat thereof. And the LORD had^l respect unto Abel, and to his offering:

5 But unto Cain, and to his offering, he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not^τ be accepted? and if thou doest not well,^ο sin lieth at the door. And^χ unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and^α slew him.

9 And the LORD said unto Cain,^τ Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?

10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's^ψ blood^ι crieth unto me from the ground.

11 And now^α thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand:

12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, My punishment^ξ is greater than I can bear.

14 Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass,^υ that every one that findeth me shall slay me.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

16 And Cain^υ went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden.

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare^ξ Enoch: and he builded a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch.

18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat^γ Lamech.

19 And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

20 And Adah bare Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ.

22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubalcain, an^δ instructor of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tubalcain was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice; ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for^ξ I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man^η to my hurt.

24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.

25 And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name Seth:^υ For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew.

26 And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name Enos:^π then began men^ρ to call upon the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER V.

THIS is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in^m the likeness of God made he him;

2 Maleⁿ and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.

3 And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness,^p after his image; and called his name Seth:

4 And the days of Adam, after he had begotten Seth, were eight hundred years; and he begat sons and daughters:

5 And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years:^σ and he died.

6 And Seth lived an hundred and five years, and begat Enos:

7 And Seth lived, after he begat Enos, eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters:

8 And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.

9 And Enos lived ninety years, and begat^β Cainan:

10 And Enos lived, after he begat Cainan, eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters:

11 And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years: and he died.

12 And Cainan lived seventy years, and begat^γ Mahalaleel:

13 And Cainan lived, after he begat Mahalaleel, eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters:

14 And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.

15 And Mahalaleel lived sixty and five years, and begat^δ Jared:

16 And Mahalaleel lived, after he begat Jared, eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters:

17 And all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.

18 And Jared lived an hundred sixty and two years, and he begat Enoch :

19 And Jared lived after he begat Enoch eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters :

20 And all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty and two years : and he died.

21 And Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat γ Methuselah :

22 And Enoch^b walked with God after he begat Methuselah three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters :

23 And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years :

24 And Enoch walked with God ; and he was not,^c for God took him.

25 And Methuselah lived an hundred eighty and seven years, and begat δ Lamech :

26 And Methuselah lived after he begat Lamech seven hundred eighty and two years, and begat sons and daughters :

27 And all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine years : and he died.

28 And Lamech lived an hundred eighty and two years, and begat a son ;

29 And he called his name ϵ Noah, saying, This same shall comfort us concerning our work and toil of our hands, because of the ground^f which the LORD hath cursed.

30 And Lamech lived after he begat Noah five hundred ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters :

31 And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy and seven years : and he died.

32 And Noah was five hundred years old : and Noah begat^g Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

CHAPTER VI.

AND it came to pass,^h when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

2 That the sons of God saw the daughters of menⁱ that they were fair ; and they^m took them wives of all which they chose.

3 And the LORD said, "My Spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh : " yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

4 There were giants in the earth in those days ; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men, which were of old, men of renown.

5 And GOD sawⁿ that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every θ imagination η of the thoughts of his heart was only evil κ continually.

6 And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man, whom I have created, from the face of the earth ; λ both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air ; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 These are the generations of Noah : Noah was a just man, and μ perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt ; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah,^a The end of all flesh is come before me ; for the earth is filled with violence through them : and, behold, I will destroy them χ with the earth.

14 Make thee an ark of gopher wood ; β rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of : The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above ; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof : with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And, behold, I, even I,^d do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven ; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant : and thou shalt come into the ark ; thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives, with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two^e of every sort shalt thou bring unto the ark, to keep them alive with thee ; they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind ; of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind ; two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee ; and it shall be for food for thee and for them.

22 Thus did Noah ;ⁱ according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

CHAPTER VII.

AND the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark ; for^j thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

2 Of every^k clean beast thou shalt take to thee by ζ sevens, the male and his female ; and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female ; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights ; and every living substance that I have made will I η destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives, with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass, after ν seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains^r of the great deep broken up, and the π windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them,^a into the ark;

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every β sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.^b

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth;^c and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains^d were covered.

21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man:^e

22 All in whose nostrils was γ the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Noah^h only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

24 And^j the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

CHAPTER VIII.

AND Godⁿ remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the^o cattle that was with him in the ark: and God made a wind^p to pass over the earth; and the waters asswaged;

2 The fountains^q also of the deep and the windows^r of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained;

3 And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.^a

5 And the waters^l decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 And it came to pass, at the end of forty days, that Noah opened^c the window of the ark which he had made:

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth^u to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground:

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and^v pulled her in unto him into the ark.

10 And he stayed yet other seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark:

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf, pluckt off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days, and sent forth the dove, which returned not again unto him any more.

13 And it came to pass, in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the face of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

15 And God spake unto Noah, saying,

16 Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and^e be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth.

18 And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their δ kinds, went forth out of the ark.

20 And Noah builded an altar unto the LORD; and took of^g every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

21 And the LORD smelled a ζ sweet savour:ⁱ and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again^k curse the ground any more for man's sake; η for the^l imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again^m smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

22 While^o the earth remaineth,^s seed-time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, shall not cease.

CHAPTER IX.

AND God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them,^c Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 And the fear of you,^u and the dread of you, shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

3 Every^v moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the^w green herb have I given you^v all things.

4 But flesh^z with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat.

5 And surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it,^b and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man.

6 Whoso sheddeth man's blood,^d by man shall his blood be shed:^e for in the image of God made he man.

7 And you, be ye fruitful, and multiply; bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

8 And God spake unto Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, behold, I establish^f my covenant with you, and with your seed after you:

10 And^a with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth:

11 And I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a^d flood to destroy the earth.

12 And God said, This is the token^o of the covenant which I make between me and you, and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I do set^a my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud:

15 Andⁱ I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you, and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember^k the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

18 And the sons of Noah, that went forth of the ark, were Shem, and Ham, and Japheth: and^m Ham is the father of^o Canaan.

19 These are the three sons of Noah;ⁿ and of them was the whole earth overspread.

20 And Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted^o a vineyard:

21 And he drank of the wine,^p and was drunken; and he was uncovered within his tent.

22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw^q the nakedness of his father,^r and told his two brethren without.

23 And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward,^s and covered the nakedness of their father; and their faces were backward, and they saw not their father's nakedness.

24 And Noah awoke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done unto him:

25 And he said,^t Cursed be Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

26 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant.

27 God shall enlarge Japheth,^v and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant.

28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died.

CHAPTER X.

NOW these are the generations of the sons of Noah: Shem, Ham, and Japheth; and unto them were sons born after the flood.

2 The sons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

3 And the sons of Gomer; Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 And the sons of Javan; Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Rodanim.

5 By these were the isles^b of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

6 And the sons of Ham; Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan.

7 And the sons of Cush; Seba,^c and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtechah; and the sons of Raamah; Sheba and Dedan.

8 And Cush begat Nimrod,^e he began to be a mighty one in the earth:

9 He was a mighty hunter^f before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was ^g Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 Out of that land^h went forth Asshur, and builded Nineveh, and ⁱ the city Rehoboth, and Calah, 12 And Resen, between Nineveh and Calah: the same is a great city.

13 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Ananim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim, 14 And^j Pathrusim, and Casluhim, (out of whom came Philistim,) and Caphtorim.

15 And Canaan begat ^k Sidon his first-born, and Heth,

16 And the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgasite,

17 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite,

18 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite: and afterward were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

19 And the border^l of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar, unto ^m Gaza: as thou goest unto Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

21 Unto Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were children born.

22 The children of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and ⁿ Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.

23 And the children of Aram; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

24 And Arphaxad begat ^o Salah; and Salah begat Eber.

25 And unto Eber^p were born two sons; the name of one was ^q Peleg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Joktan.

26 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, 27 And Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these were the sons of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest unto Sephar, a mount of the east.

31 These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.

32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations: and by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

CHAPTER XI.

AND the whole earth was of one ^σ language, and of one ^φ speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from ^x the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there.

3 And β they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and γ burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.

4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city, and a tower^d whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a^e name, lest we be scattered^f abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5 And the LORD came down^g to see the city and the tower, which the childreu of men builded.

6 And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they haveⁱ imagined to do.

7 Go to, let us go down, and there con-found^k their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.

8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.

9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel; ^l because the LORD did there con-found the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face^m of all the earth.

10 These are the generatious of Shem: Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two years after the flood:

11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

12 And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat Salah:

13 And Arphaxad lived after he begat Salah four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 And Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber:

15 And Salah lived after he begat Eber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

16 And Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat ζ Peleg:

17 And Eber lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Ren:

19 And Peleg lived after he begat Ren two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.

20 And Ren lived two and thirty years, and begat κ Serug:

21 And Ren lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

22 And Serug lived thirty years, and begat Nahor:

23 And Serug lived after he begat Nahor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24 And Nahor lived nine and twenty years, and begat λ Terah:

25 And Nahor lived after he begat Terah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

26 And Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, ⁿ Nahor, and Haran.

27 Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran begat Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah, in the land of his nativity, in^o Ur of the Chaldees.

29 And Abram and Nahor took them wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai;^a and the name of Nahor's wife Milcah,^b the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah, and the father of Iscah.

30 But Sarai was barren;^c she had no child.

31 And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Haran his son's son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from Ur^d of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan: and they came unto Haran, and dwelt there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran.

CHAPTER XII.

NOW the LORD had said unto^l Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:

2 And I will make of thee a great^m nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great;ⁿ and thou shalt be a blessing:

3 And I will bless them^o that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee; and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.^p

4 So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Haran: and they went forth to go into the land of Canaan;^r and into the land of Canaan they came.

6 And Abram passed through the land unto the place of Sichem,^s unto the plain of Morch. And the Canaanite^t was then in the land.

7 And the LORD appeared^u unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land:^v and there builded he an^x altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.

8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Beth-el,^y and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and ^z Hai on the east; and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called^z upon the name of the LORD.

9 And Abram journeyed, ^θ going on still toward the south.

10 And there was a famine in the land: and Abram went down into Egypt to so-journ there; for the famine was grievous in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.

13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my^a sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

14 And it came to pass, that, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman that she was very fair.

15 The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh;^c and the woman was^d taken into Pharaoh's house.

16 And he entreated Abram well for her sake; and he had sheep, and oxen, and he asses, and menservants, and maid-servants, and she asses, and camels.

17 And the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai, Abram's wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me? ^a why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now, therefore, behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

20 And Pharaoh commanded ^c his men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

CHAPTER XIII.

AND Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the south.

2 And Abram was very rich, ^h in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

3 And he went on his journeys from the south even to Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Hai;

4 Unto the place of the altar, ⁿ which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called ^o on the name of the LORD.

5 And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.

6 And the land was not able ^q to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was a strife between the herdmen of Abram's cattle, and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: and the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelled ^r then in the land.

8 And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, ^s I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we be ^t brethren.

9 Is not the whole land before ^v thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the LORD destroyed ^z Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden ^b of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar.

11 Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated ^d themselves the one from the other.

12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched ^e his tent toward Sodom.

13 But the men of Sodom were wicked, and sinners ^f before the LORD exceedingly.

14 And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward:

15 For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and ^k to thy seed for ever.

16 And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered.

17 Arise, walk through the land, in the length of it, and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee.

18 Then Abram removed ^l his tent, and came and dwelt in the ^m plain of Mamre, ^q which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

CHAPTER XIV.

AND it came to pass in the days of Amraphel king ^b of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of nations;

2 That these made war with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, ^d and Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, which is ^e Zoar.

3 All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, ^f which is the salt sea.

4 Twelve years they served Chedorlaomer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer, and the kings that were with him, and smote ⁱ the Rephaims ^k in Ashteroth Karnaim, and ^l the Zuzims in Ham, and the Emims in ^h Shaveh Kiriathaim;

6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, unto ^j El-paran, ^m which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned, and came to Enmishpat, which is Kadesh, and smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites, that dwelt ^p in Hazezon-tamar.

8 And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela, (the same is Zoar;) and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim, 9 With Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings with five.

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of slimepits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there; and they that remained fled ^q to the mountain.

11 And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 And they took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who dwelt ^v in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

13 And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; ^a for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Esheol, and brother of Aner: and these were confederate with Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he ^r armed his ^h trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them ^e unto Dan.

15 And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and ^f smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus.

16 And he brought back ^h all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17 And the king of Sodom ⁱ went out to meet him, after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him, at the valley of Shaveh, which is the king's ^j dale.

18 And ^m Melehizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the ⁿ priest of the most high ^o God.

19 And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, ^p possessor of heaven and earth;

20 And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him ^r tithes of all.

21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the β persons, and take the goods to thyself.

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I^a have lift up mine hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the^b possessor of heaven and earth,

23 That^c I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich:

24 Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the meu which went with me, Aner, Esheol, and Mamre; let them take their portion.^d

CHAPTER XV.

AFTER these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram in aⁱ vision, saying,^k Fear uot, Abram: I am thy^l shield, and thy exceeding^m great reward.

2 And Abram said, Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go^v childless, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damasens?

3 And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house^g is mine heir.

4 And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine^r own bowels, shall be thine heir.

5 And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars,^t if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him,^u So shall thy seed be.

6 And he believed in the LORD; and he^v counted it to him for righteousness.

7 And he said unto him, I am the LORD that brought thee^z out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, Lord God,^y whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon.

10 And he took unto him all these, and divided^b them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but^e the birds divided he not.

11 And when the fowls came down upon the carcases, Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep^d fell upon Abram; and, lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him.

13 And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not their's, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict^e them four hundred years:

14 And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I^f judge: and afterward shall they come out with great^g substance.

15 And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age.^h

16 But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again; for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet^m full.

17 And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold, a smoking furnace, and ^a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.

18 In the same day, the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates:

CHAPTER XVI.

NOW Sarai, Abram's wife, bare him no children: and she had an handmaid, au^e Egyptian, whose name was^f Hagar.

2 And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold now, the LORD^g hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee,^h go in unto my maid; it may be that I may γ obtain children by her. And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt teu years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

4 And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress wasⁿ despised in her eyes.

5 And Sarai said unto Abram, My wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the LORD judge^o between me and thee.

6 But Abram said unto Sarai,^s Behold, thy maid is in thy hand; do to her^t as it pleaseth thee. And when Sarai δ dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face.

7 And the angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur;^z

8 And he said, Hagar, Sarai's maid, whence camest thou? and whither wilt thou go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai.

9 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and^a submit thyself under her hands.

10 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name η Ishmael; because the LORD hath heard thy affliction.

12 And he will be a wild^k man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwellⁱ in the presecue of all his brethren.

13 And she called the name of the LORD that spake unto her, Thou^k God seest me: for she said, Have I also here looked after him that seeth me?

14 Wherefore the well was called^o Beer-lahai-roi: behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.

15 And Hagar bare Abram a son; and Abram called his son's name, which Hagar bare, Ishmael.

16 And Abram was fourscore and six years old, when Hagar bare Ishmael to Abram.

CHAPTER XVII.

AND when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said unto him,^a I am the Almighty God:^c walk before me, and be thou^β perfect.

2 And I will make my^d covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 And Abram fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying,

4 As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be^e a father of many^γ nations.

5 Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but^f thy name shall be Abraham;^δ for^g a father of many nations have I made thee.

6 And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make^h nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee.

7 And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant;ⁱ to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

8 And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land^ς wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting^m possession; andⁿ I will be their God.

9 And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant, therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee, in their generations.

10 This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me, and you, and thy seed after thee; Every man child among you shall be circumcised.

11 And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token^q of the covenant betwixt me and you.

12 And^θ he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations; he that is born^r in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.

13 He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 And the uncircumcised man child, whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off^s from his people; he hath broken my covenant.

15 And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but^μ Sarah shall her name be.

16 And I will bless her,^ν and give thee a son also of her; yea, I will bless her, and^ν she shall be a mother of nations; kings of people shall be of her.

17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed,^ν and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?

18 And Abraham said unto God, O that Ishmael might live before thee!

19 And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.

20 And as for Ishmael, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly:^ς twelve princes shall he beget: and I will make him a great nation.

21 But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time^b in the next year.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

23 And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the selfsame day, as God had said unto him.

24 And Abraham was ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the selfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and Ishmael his son;

27 And all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

CHAPTER XVIII.

AND the LORD appeared unto him in the^k plains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day:

2 And he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men^l stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground,

3 And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight,^o pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

4 Let a little^p water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree:

5 And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and^q comfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on: for therefore^r are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said.

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said,^s Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetched a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hastened to dress it.

8 And he took butter,^t and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent.

10 And he said, I will certainly return unto thee^v according to the time of life; and, lo, Sarah^w thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were^x old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah^a after the manner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah^b laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed^c old shall I have pleasure, my^d lord being old also?

13 And the LORD said unto Abraham, Wherefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a surety bear a child, which am old?

14 Is any thing too hard for the LORD?^e At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life,^f and Sarah shall have a son.

15 Then Sarah denied, saying, I laughed

net; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh.^b

16 And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.^c

17 And the LORD said, Shall I^d lude from Abraham that thing which I do;

18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be^e blessed in him?

19 For I know him, that he will command his children^f and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.^g

20 And the LORD said, Because the^h cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous;

21 I will go downⁱ now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not,^j I will know.

22 And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom; but Abraham stood yet before the LORD.

23 And Abraham^k drew near and said, Wilt^l thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee:^m Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?

26 And the LORD said,ⁿ If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.

27 And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am^o but dust and ashes:

28 Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city for lack of five? And he said, If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it.

29 And he spake unto him yet again, and said, Peradventure there shall be forty found there. And he said, I will not do it for forty's sake.

30 And he said unto him, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Peradventure there shall thirty be found there. And he said, I will not do it, if I find thirty there.

31 And he said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord: Peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake.

32 And he said, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet but this once:^p Peradventure ten shall be found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake.^q 33 And the LORD went his way, as soon as he had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place.

CHAPTER XIX.

AND there^r came two angels to Sodom at even; and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom: and Lot seeing them, rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;

bt chap. 18. 22.

turn^a in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet; and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, Nay;^c but we will abide in the street all night.

3 And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house:^g and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat.

4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

5 And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night?^l bring them out unto us, that we may know them.

6 And Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him;

7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.^o

8 Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you,^s and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof.

9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn,^t and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut the door.

11 And they smote the men that were at the door of the house, with^u blindness, both small and great; so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place:

13 For we will destroy this place, because the^v cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and^z the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which married his daughters, and said,^a Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked^b unto his sons in law.

15 And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which^β are here; lest thou be consumed in the^γ iniquity of the city.

16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful^d unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

17 And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape^e for thy life;^f look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so, my Lord:

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast^a magnified thy merey, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain,^d lest some evil take me, and I die:

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one:^g Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.^h

21 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted *β*theeⁱ concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for *β*I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the name of the city was called ^δZoar.

23 The sun was *ζ*risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 Then the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah, brimstone^m and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew^p upon the ground.

26 But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became^q a pillar of salt.

27 And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where^s he stood before the LORD:

28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the country went up as the^t smoke of a furnace.

29 And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow,^u when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

30 And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the^v mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the firstborn said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth:

32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

33 And they made their father drink wine that night:^b and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also; and the younger arose, and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.^d

37 And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Moab: the same is the father of the Moabites^f unto this day.

38 And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Ben-ammi: the same is the father of the^h children of Ammon unto this day.

CHAPTER XX.

AND Abraham journeyed from thence toward the south country, and dwelled between Kadesh and^b Shur, and sojournd in Gerar.^c

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She^e is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah.

3 But^f God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is *γ*a man's wife.

4 But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, Lord,^k wilt thou slay also a righteous nation?

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself, said, He is my brother: in the θ integrity^l of my heart, and innocency of my hands, have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I alsoⁿ withheld thee from sinning^o against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now, therefore, restore the man his wife; for he is a prophet, and he^r shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine.

8 Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto ns? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom^v a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not^x to be done.

10 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God^z is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake.

12 And yet indeed she is my^a sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

13 And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; at every place whither we shall come, say of me, He is my brother.

14 And Abimelech took sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and womenservants, and gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold,^c my land is before thee: dwell *κ*where it pleaseth thee.

16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver; behold, he is to thee a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee, and with all other: thus she was^e reprov'd.

17 So Abraham prayed unto God: and God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they bare children.

18 For the LORD^g had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

CHAPTER XXI.

AND the LORD^a visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sarah as^e he had spoken.

2 For Sarah^e conceived, and bare Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

3 And Abraham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him,^f Isaac.

4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac, being eight days old, as God had commanded him.^g

5 And Abraham was an hundred years old, when his son Isaac was born unto him.

6 And Sarah said, God hath made me to laugh;ⁱ so that all that hear will laugh with me.

7 And she said, Who would have^l said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck? for I have born him a son in his old age.

8 And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned.

9 And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian,^o which she had born unto Abraham, mocking.

10 Wherefore she said unto Abraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son:^p for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with Isaac.

11 And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight,^q because of his son.

12 And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight, because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman: in all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for^u in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make a^v nation, because he is thy seed.

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent^w her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

15 And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lift up her voice, and wept.

17 And^y God heard the voice of the lad: and the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not;^z for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for^b I will make him a great nation.

19 And God opened her^c eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

20 And God was with the lad;^e and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer,^f

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran:^g and his mother^h took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 And it came to pass at that time, that Abimelech, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, spake unto Abraham, saying, God is with thee^b in all that thou doest:

23 Now, therefore,^d swear unto me here by God, β that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.

24 And Abraham said, I will swear.

25 And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelech's servants^g had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, I wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it but to day.

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech; and both of them^k made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What^m mean these seven ewe lambs, which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be aⁿ witness unto me that I have digged this well.

31 Wherefore he called that place, Beer-sheba;^y because there they swore both of them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

33 And Abraham planted a δgrove^r in Beer-sheba, and ^s called there on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God.^t 34 And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines' land many days.

CHAPTER XXII.

AND it came to pass after these things, that God did tempt^z Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham: and he said, βBehold, here I am.

2 And he said, Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of^a Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

3 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

5 And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering, and^d laid it upon Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife: and they went both of them together.

7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here nam I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood; but where is the θ lamb for a burnt offering?

8 And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb^a for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order; and bound^c Isaac his son, and^d laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

11 And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham:^e and he said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him:^f for now I know that thou fearest God,^g seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, from me.

13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns;^h and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place ⁵Jehovah-jireh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen.^k

15 And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven^l the second time,

16 And said, By myself have I^m sworn, saith the LORD; for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son;

17 That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the starsⁿ of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea^o shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies:

18 And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed;^p because thou hast obeyed^q my voice.

19 So Abraham returned unto his young men; and they rose up, and went together to Beer-sheba: and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

20 And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold, Milcah, she hath also born children unto thy brother Nahor;

21 Huz^r his firstborn, and Buz^t his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram, 22 And Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel.

23 And Bethuel begat^u ^θRebekah: these eight Milcah did bear to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

24 And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, she bare also Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maachah.

CHAPTER XXIII.

AND Sarah was an hundred and seven and twenty years old: these were the years of the life of Sarah.

2 And Sarah died in Kirjath-arba;^x the same is Hebron^y in the land of Canaan: and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her.

3 And Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spake unto the sons of Heth, saying,

4 I am a stranger^z and a sojourner with you: give me a possession of a buryingplace with you, that I may¹ bury my dead out of my sight.

5 And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him,

6 Hear us, my lord: thou *β*art a mighty prince^b among us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead: none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.

7 And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar,

9 That he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he hath, which is in the end of his field: for ^γas much money as it is worth he shall give it me, for a possession of a buryingplace amongst you.

10 And Ephron dwelt among the children of Heth. And Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the ^δaudience of the children of Heth, even of all that went in at the gateⁱ of his city, saying, 11 Nay, my lord, hear me: the field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee; in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee: bury thy dead.

12 And Abraham bowed down himself before the people of the land.

13 And he spake unto Ephron, in the audience of the people of the land, saying, But if thou will give it, I pray thee, hear me: I will give thee moneyⁿ for the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there.

14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying unto him,

15 My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.

16 And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron; and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named in the audience of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant.

17 And the field of Ephron,^r which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, and the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round about, were made sure

18 Unto Abraham for a possession, in the presence of the children of Heth, before all that went in at the gate of his city.

19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Maure: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan.

20 And the field, and the cave that is therein, were made sure^u unto Abraham, for a possession of a buryingplace, by the sons of Heth.

CHAPTER XXIV.

AND Abraham was old, and ^κwell stricken in age: and the LORD had blessed^z Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham said unto his eldest servant^a of his house, that ruled^b over all that he had, Put,^c I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh;

3 And I will make thee swear^d by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take^e a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell:

4 But thou shalt go unto my^a country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac.

5 And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou earnest?

6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou, that thou bring not my son thither again.

7 The LORD God of heaven,^d which took me^f from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land, he shall send his angelⁱ before thee; and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou shalt be clear^k from this my oath: only bring not my son thither again.

9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him concerning that matter.

10 And the servant took ten camels, of the camels of his master, and departed; for^l all the goods of his master were in his hand; and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia,^m unto the city ofⁿ Nahor.

11 And he made his camels to kneel down without the city, by a well of water, at the time of the evening, even the time that ^o women go out to draw water.^p

12 And he said, O LORD God of my master Abraham,^q I pray thee, send me good speed^r this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold, I stand here by the^s well of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

14 And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy piteher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink; and I will give thy camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and thereby^t shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master.

15 And it came to pass, before he had done^v speaking, that behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of Mileah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her piteher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel was^u very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her; and she went down to the well, and filled her piteher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy piteher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her piteher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also,^a until they have done drinking.

20 And she hasted, and emptied her piteher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man, wondering^b at her, held his peace, to wit whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden^q earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets^b for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold;

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee; is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Bethuel,^c the son of Mileah, which she bare unto Nahor.

25 She said moreover unto him, We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in.

26 And the man^e bowed down his head, and worshipped the LORD.

27 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God^g of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of^h his merey and his truth: I being in the way, the LORD led me to the house of my master's brethren.

28 And the damsel ran, and told them of her mother's house these things.

29 And Rebekah had a brother, and his name *was*ⁱ Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well.

30 And it came to pass, when he saw the earring, and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me; that he came unto the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in,^o thou blessed of the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.

32 And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him.

33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said,^t I will not eat until I have told mine errand. And he said, Speak on.

34 And he said, I am Abraham's servant.

35 And the LORD hath blessed my master greatly,^u and he is become great;^v and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses.

36 And Sarah, my master's wife, bare a son to my master when she was old: and unto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 And my master made^z me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell:

38 But thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.

39 And I said unto my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me.

40 And he said unto me, The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house:

41 Then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and said, O LORD God^c of my master Abraham, if now thou do prosper^d my way which I go;

43 Behold, I stand by the well of water and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed on^c for my master's son.

45 And before I had done speaking in mine heart,^d behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink; and I will give thy camels drink also. So I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethnel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him: and I put the earring upon her face,ⁱ and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I bowed down my head,^l and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led me in the right wayⁿ to take my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 And now if ye will deal^r kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bethnel answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD;^t we cannot speak^u unto thee bad or good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee; take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that when Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD,^x bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth jewels^y of silver, and jewels^z of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious^a things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night: and they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away unto my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us^b a few days, at the least ten; after that, she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not,^c seeing the LORD hath^f prospered my way; send me away, that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and inquire at her month.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man?^g And she said, I will go.

59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse,^h and Abraham's servant, and his men.

60 And they blessedⁱ Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them.

61 And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

62 And Isaac came from the way of the well^a Lahai-roi; for he dwelt in the south country.

63 And Isaac went out^b to^c meditate in the field at the eventide: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, behold, the camels were coming.

64 And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted^c off the camel.

65 For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: therefore she took a veil,^d and covered herself.

66 And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done.

67 And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent,^e and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Isaac^h was comforted after his mother's death.

CHAPTER XXV.

THEN again Abraham took a wife, and her name was^k Keturah.

2 And she bare him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian,^m and Ishbak, and Shuah.ⁿ

3 And Jokshan begat Sheba,^o and Dedan.^r And the sons of Dedan were Ashurim, and Letnshim, and Leummim.

4 And the sons of Midian; Ephah,^s and Ephraim, and Hanoeh, and Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

5 And Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac.

6 But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away^v from Isaac his son while he yet lived, eastward, unto^y the east country.

7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years.

8 Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died in a good^a old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered^b to his people.

9 And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre;

10 The field which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth:^d there was Abraham buried, and Sarah his wife.

11 And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac: and Isaac dwelt by the well Lahai-roi.

12 Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham.

13 And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,

14 And Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,

15 Shadar, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah:

16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles; twelve^k princes according to their nations.

17 And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, an hundred and thirty and seven years: and he gave up the ghost and died, and was gathered unto his people.

18 And they dwelt from^a Havilah unto Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou goest toward Assyria: and he ^βdied in the presence of all his brethren.

19 And these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham begat Isaac:

20 And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah to wife,^c the daughter of Bethnel^f the Syrian of Padan-aram, the sister to Laban the Syrian.

21 And Isaac entreated the LORD^g for his wife, because she was barren: and the LORD was entreated of^h him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

22 And the children struggled together within her: and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And she went to inquireⁱ of the LORD.

23 And the LORD said unto her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve^j the younger.

24 And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out red, all over like an hairy garment; and they called his name Esau.

26 And after that came his brother out, and his hand took hold on Esau's heel;^k and his name was called Jacob: and Isaac was threescore years old when she bare them.

27 And the boys grew: and Esau was a running^l hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a plain man, dwelling in^m tents.

28 And Isaac loved Esau, because he did eat of his venison;ⁿ but Rebekah loved Jacob.

29 And Jacob sod pottage: and Esau came from the field, and he was faint:

30 And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, ^owith that same red pottage; or I am faint: therefore was his name called ^pEdom.

31 And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright.

32 And Esau said, Behold, I am ^qat he point to die; and what profit^r shall his birthright do to me?

33 And Jacob said, Swear to me this day; and he sware unto him: and he sold his birthright^s unto Jacob.

34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat^t and drink, and rose up, and went his way. Thus Esau despised^u his birthright.

CHAPTER XXVI.

AND there was a famine in the land, beside the first famine^v that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went unto Abimelech^w king of the Philistines, unto Gerar.

2 And the LORD appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt; dwell in the land which I shall tell thee of.

3 Sojourn^x in this land, and I will be with thee,^y and will bless thee: for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all^z these countries; and I will perform the oath^a which I sware unto Abraham thy father.

4 And I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed^b shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; voice,^b and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.

6 And Isaac dwelt in Gerar.

7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife: and he said,^c She is my sister: for he feared^d to say, She is my wife; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah, because she was fair to look upon.

8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech, king of the Philistines, looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was sporting with Rebekah his wife.

9 And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.

10 And Abimelech said, What is this thou hast done^k unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and thou shouldest have brought guiltiness upon us.

11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth^m this man, or his wife, shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received ^γin the same year an hundred-fold: and the LORD blessed him.

13 And the man waxed great, and went forward,^δ and grew until he became very great.

14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of ^ζservants. And the Philistines^o envied him.

15 For all the wells which his father's servants had digged, in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.

16 And Abimelech said unto Isaac, Go from us; for thou art much^s mightier than we.

17 And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Isaac digged again the wells of water which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father; for the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham: and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them.

19 And Isaac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of ^μspringing water.

20 And the herdmen of Gerar did strive with Isaac's herdmen, saying, The water is our's: and he called the name of the well Eshek;^v because they strove with him.

21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it ^πSitnah.

22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it ^ρRehoboth; and he said, For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.

23 And he went up from thence to Beer-sheba.

24 And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father; fear not,^e for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed, for my servant Abraham's sake.

25 And he^g builded an altar there, and called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there: and there Isaac's servants digged a well.

26 Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Phicol^b the chief captain of his army.

27 And Isaac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate^d me, and have sent me away^e from you?

28 And they said, *γ*We saw certainly that the LORD was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath^f betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee;

29 That ^δthou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace: thou art now the blessed^g of the LORD.

30 And he made them^h a feast, and they did eat and drink.

31 And they rose up betimes in the morning, and sware one to another: and Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said unto him, We have found water.

33 And he called it *γ*Shebah: therefore the name of the city is ^θBeer-sheba unto this day.

34 And Esau was forty years old when he took to wife Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Bashemath^μ the daughter of Elon the Hittite:

35 Which were ^αa grief of mind unto Isaac and to Rebekah.

CHAPTER XXVII.

AND it came to pass, that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim,^ο so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest son, and said unto him, My son: and he said unto him, Behold, here am I.

2 And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not^ι the day of my death:

3 Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and take ^λme some venison;

4 And make me savoury meat, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; that my soul^ι may bless thee before I die.

5 And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 And Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD, before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice,^z according to that which I command thee.

9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats: and I will make them savoury meat^α for thy father, such as he loveth:

10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death.

11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy^β man, and I am a smooth man:

12 My father peradventure will^ε feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring a^d curse upon me, and not a blessing.

13 And his mother said unto him, Upon me^a be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them.

14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made savoury meat,^c such as his father loved.

15 And Rebekah took ^βgoodly raiment of her eldest son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son:

16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck:

17 And she gave the savoury meat, and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Jacob.

18 And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I; who art thou, my son?

19 And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau, thy firstborn;ⁱ I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, that thy soul may bless me.

20 And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because^k the LORD thy God brought it ^ζto me.

21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I may feel^ι thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau, or not.

22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 And he discerned him not, because his hands^ν were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him.

24 And he said, Art thou my very son Esau? And he said,^p I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed^r him, and said, See,^s the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed:^α

28 Therefore God give thee of^ε the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine:

29 Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and let thy mother's sons^z bow down to thee: cursed be every one that curseth thee;^y and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me.

32 And Isaac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy firstborn, Esau.

33 And Isaac ^μtrembled very exceedingly, and said, Who^ν? where is he that hath taken ^νvenison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before^ε thou camest, and have blessed him? yea,^a and he shall be blessed.

34 And when Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also,^b O my father!

35 And he said, Thy brother came with subtlety,^d and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 And he said, Is not he rightly named Jacob?^β for he hath supplanted me these two times: he took away my birthright;^c and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

37 And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, Behold, I have made him thy lord,^g and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and with eorn and wine have I *ζ*sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son?

38 And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father! And Esau lifted up his voice, and *ι*wept.

39 And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be θ the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above:

40 And by thy sword shalt thou live, and ι shalt serve thy brother: and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that thouⁿ shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

41 And Esau^ρ hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning^r for my father are at hand, then will I slay^s my brother Jacob.

42 And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah. And she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth^u comfort himself, purposing to kill thee.

43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee thou to Laban my brother,^{*} to Haran:

44 And tarry with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn away;

45 Until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou hast done to him: then I will send, and fetch thee from thence. Why should I be deprived also of you both in one day?

46 And Rebekah said to Isaac, I am weary of my life^b because of the daughters of Heth: if Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which we of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

unto Abraham.

5 And Isaac sent away Jacob: and he went to Padan-aram, unto Laban, son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

6 When Isaac saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Padan-aram, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan;

7 And that Jacob obeyed^f his father and his mother, and was gone to Padan-aram;

8 And Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan γ pleased not Isaac his father;

9 Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had, δ Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebajoth, to be his wife.

10 And Jacob^h went out from Beer-sheba, and went toward η Haran.

11 And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set: and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep.

12 And he^k dreamed, and, behold, a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and, μ behold, the angels of God ascending and descending on it.

13 And, behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, I am the LORD God of Abraham thy father,^o and the God of Isaac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed;

14 And thy seed^a shall be as the dust of the earth; and thou shalt *κ*spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed^t shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

15 And, behold, I am with thee,^v and will keep^w thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again^z into this land; for I will not leave^y thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.

16 And Jacob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is in^a this place, and I knew it not.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil^c upon the top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place Beth-el:^λ but the name of that^a city was called Luz at the first.

20 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me,^e and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

21 So that I come again to my father's house in peace; then shall the^f LORD be my God:

22 And this stone, which I have set for a pillar,^ν shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me, I will surely give the tenth^m unto thee.

CHAPTER XXIX.

THEN Jacob *π*went on his journey, and came into the land of the ρ people of the east.

2 And he looked, and, behold, a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it;^b for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place.

4 And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, Of Haran^d are we.

5 And he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him.

6 And he said unto them, *γ*Is he well?^e And they said, He is well; and, behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep.

7 And he said, Lo, *δ*it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone^k from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

9 And while he yet spake with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep: for she kept them.

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth,^m and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice,ⁿ and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's brother,^o and that he was Rebekah's son:^p and she ran and told her father.

13 And it came to pass, when Laban heard the *μ*tidings of Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed^q him, and brought him to his house. And he told Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said to him, Surely thou art my bone^r and my flesh. And he abode with him *ν*the space of a month.

15 And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art my brother, shouldst thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall thy wages be?

16 And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.^v

17 Leah was tender eyed; but Rachel was beautiful and well favoured.

18 And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 And Laban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Jacob served^z seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.^y

21 And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her.

22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.^b

23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in unto her.

24 And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah, Zilpah^a his maid, for an handmaid.

25 And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Leah: and he said to Laban, What is this thou hast done unto me? Did not I serve with thee for Rachel? Wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26 And Laban said, It must not be so done in our country, *β*to give the younger before the firstborn.

27 Fulfil her week,^c and we will give thee this also, for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years.

28 And Jacob did so and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also.

29 And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, Bilhah^f his handmaid, to be her maid.

30 And he went in also unto Rachel, and he loved also Rachel^g more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.

31 And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated, he^h opened her womb: but Rachel was barren.ⁱ

32 And Leah conceived, and bare a son, and she called his name *ζ*Reuben: for she said, Surely the LORD hath looked^j upon my affliction: now, therefore, my husband will love me.

33 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Because the LORD hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also: and she called his name *η*Simeon.

34 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined unto me, because I have born him three sons: therefore was his name called *θ*Levi.

35 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she said, Now will I praise the LORD: therefore she called his name Judah; ^κand ^λleft bearing.

CHAPTER XXX.
AND when Rachel saw that she bare Jacob no children,^μ Rachel envied^ν her sister; and said unto Jacob, Give me children,^ω or else I die.

2 And Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel: and he said, Am I in God's stead, who hath withheld^ν from thee the fruit of the womb?

3 And she said, Behold my maid Bilhah, go in unto her; and she shall bear upon my knees, that I may also *π*have children by her.

4 And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid^z to wife: and Jacob went in unto her.

5 And Bilhah conceived, and bare Jacob a son.

6 And Rachel said, God hath^a judged me, and hath also heard my voice, and hath given me a son: therefore called she his name *ρ*Dan.

7 And Bilhah, Rachel's maid, conceived again, and bare Jacob a second son.

8 And Rachel said, With *σ*grent wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed: and she called his name *τ*Naphtali.

9 When Leah saw that she had left bearing, she took Zilpah her maid, and gave her Jacob to wife.

10 And Zilpah, Leah's maid, bare Jacob a son.

11 And Leah said, A troop cometh: and she called his name *ξ*Gad.^c 12 And Zilpah, Leah's maid, bare Jacob a second son.

13 And Leah said, γ Happy am I, for the daughters^b will call me blessed: and she called his name δ Asher.

14 And Renben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.^c

15 And she said unto her, Is it a small matter^d that thou hast taken my husband? and wouldest thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with thee to night for thy son's mandrakes.

16 And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me; for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

17 And God hearkened^e unto Leah, and she conceived, and bare Jacob the fifth son.

18 And Leah said, God hath given me my hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband; and she called his name ϵ Issachar.^f

19 And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixth son.

20 And Leah said, God hath endured me with a good dowry; now will my husband dwell with me,^g because I have born him six sons: and she called his name ζ Zebulun.

21 And afterwards she bare a daughter, and called her name θ Dinah.

22 And God rememberedⁱ Rachel, and God hearkened to her, and opened her womb.

23 And she conceived, and bare a son; and said, God hath taken away^k my reproach:

24 And she called his name κ Joseph; and said, The LORD shall add to me another son.

25 And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Joseph, that Jacob said unto Laban, Send me away,ⁿ that I may go unto mine own place,^o and to my country.

26 Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served thee, and let me go: for thou knowest my service^p which I have done thee.

27 And Laban said unto him, I pray thee, if I have found favour^q in thine eyes, tarry: for I have learned by experience that the LORD hath blessed me^r for thy sake.

28 And he said, Appoint me thy wages,^s and I will give it.

29 And he said unto him, Thou knowest how I have served thee,^v and how thy cattle was with me.

30 For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now μ increased unto a multitude; and the LORD hath blessed thee^w since my coming: and now, when shall I provide for mine own house^b also?

31 And he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob said, Thou shalt not give me any thing: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock:

32 I will pass through all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and of such shall be my hire.^c

33 So shall my^a righteousness answer for me β in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me.

34 And Laban said, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.

35 And he removed that day the he goats that were ringstraked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons.

36 And he set three days' journey betwixt himself and Jacob: and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

37 And Jacob took him rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chesnut tree; and piled white strakes in them, and made the white appear which was in the rods.

38 And he set the rods, which he had piled, before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs, when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and brought forth cattle ringstraked,^g speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban: and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's cattle.

41 And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

42 But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feeble were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

43 And the man^t increased exceedingly, and had much cattle,^m and maidservants, and menservants, and camels, and asses.

CHAPTER XXXI.

AND he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this glory.^r

2 And Jacob beheld^s the countenance of Laban, and, behold, it was not^t toward him^u as before.

3 And the LORD said unto Jacob, Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be^v with thee.

4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field unto his flock,

5 And said unto them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father hath been with me.^z

6 And ye know, that with all my power I have served^a your father.

7 And your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages^c ten times; but God suffered him not to hurt me.^d

8 If he said thus, The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstraked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ringstraked.

9 Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.

10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the β rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstraked, speckled, and grisled.^b

11 And the angel of God^c spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: and I said, Here am I.^e

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and grisled: for I have seen^f all that Laban doeth unto thee.

13 I am the God of Beth-el,^g where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and returnⁱ unto the land of thy kindred.

14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?

15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath sold us,^k and hath quite devoured also our money.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is our's, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.

17 Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels;^m

18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram, for to go to Isaac hisⁿ father in the land of Canaan.

19 And Laban went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the δ images^p that were her father's.

20 And Jacob stole away ζ unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river,^r and set his face^s toward the mount Gilead.

22 And it was told Laban on the third day, that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead.

24 And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream^v by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou speak not to Jacob either η good or bad.

25 Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount; and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives^b taken with the sword?

27 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and θ steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs,^d with tabret, and with harp?

28 And hast not suffered me to kiss my sons^f and my daughters? thou hast now done foolishly in so doing.

29 It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the God of your father spake unto me yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

30 And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou stolen^a my gods?

31 And Jacob answered and said to Laban, Because I was afraid: for I said Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me.

32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live:^a before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent and into Leah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken^k the images and put them in the camel's furniture and sat upon them. And Laban γ searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 And she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot rise up^j before thee; for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

36 And Jacob was wroth,ⁱ and chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me?

37 Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set it here before my brethren, and thy brethren, that they may judgeⁿ betwixt us both.

38 This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bare the loss of it;^a of my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in thy house; I served thee fourteen^c years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle: and thou hast changed my wages^u ten times.

42 Except^v the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and^w the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. God hath seen mine affliction^z and the labour of my hands, and rebuked^a thee yesternight.

43 And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born?

44 Now, therefore, come thou, let us make a covenant,^c I and thou; and let it be for a witness^e between me and thee.

45 And Jacob took a stone,^g and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they took stones, and made an heap: and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And Laban called it κ Jegar-sahadutha: but Jacob called it λ Galeed.

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Galeed;

49 And μ Mizpah;^k for he said, The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another.

50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us: see, God is^a witness betwixt me and thee.

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have east betwixt me and thee;

52 This heap be witness,^b and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm.

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their father,^c judge betwixt us.^d And Jacob sware by the fear^e of his father Isaac.

54 Then Jacob β offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed^f them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place.^g

CHAPTER XXXII.

AND Jacob went on his way, and the angels of Godⁱ met him.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is God's^k host: and he called the name of that place^l Mahanaim.^m

3 And Jacob sent messengers before himⁿ to Esau his brother, unto the land of^o Seir, the^θ country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my^r lord Esau; Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now:

5 And I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants; and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find grace^v in thy sight.

6 And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed:^v and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands:

8 And said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.

9 And Jacob said,^y O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the LORD which saidst unto me,^a Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee:

10 I am^μ not worthy of the least of all the mercies,^b and of all the truth,^c which thou hast shewed unto thy servant: for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am^d become two bands.

11 Deliver me,^e I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother^v with the^f children.

12 And thou^g saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 And he lodged there that same night: and took of that which came to his hand a presentⁱ for Esau his brother:

14 Two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams, 15 Thirty milih camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bulls, twenty she asses, and ten foals.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, also he is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will appease^h him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept ofⁱ me.

21 So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company.

22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two womenservants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford Jabbok.^j

23 And he took them, and δ sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had.

24 And Jacob was left alone; and there wrestledⁱ a man with him until the^η breaking of the day.

25 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him.

26 And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let^x thee go, except thou bless me.

27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

28 And he said, Thy name shall be called no more^s Jacob, but κ Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with^t God and with men,^u and hast prevailed.

29 And Jacob asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore is it that thou dost ask^x after my name? And he blessed him there.

30 And Jacob called the name of the place λ Peniel: for I have seen God face to^z face, and my life is preserved.

31 And as he passed over Peniel the sun rose upon him, and he halted upon his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

AND Jacob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, Esau came,^k and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Leah, and unto Rachel, and unto the two handmaids.

2 And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindmost.

3 And he passed over before them, and bowed himself to the ground^k seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4 And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him,^b and fell on his neck,^c and kissed him: and they wept.

5 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those ^β with thee? And he said, The children which God hath graciously given^d thy servant.

6 Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.

7 And Leah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

8 And he said, What γ meanest thou by all this drove which I met? And he said, These are to find grace^h in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; keep ^δ that thou hast unto thyself.ⁱ

10 And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, thou receive my present at my hand: for therefore I have seen thy face,^j as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me.

11 Take, I pray thee, my blessing^m that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I have ε enough.ⁿ And he urged him,^o and he took it.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey; and let us go, and I will go before thee.

13 And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender,^r and the flocks and herds with young are with me; and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant: and I will lead on softly,^γ according as the cattle that goeth before me and the children be able to endure, until I come unto my lord unto Seir.^u

15 And Esau said, Let me now ^θ leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said, ^κ What needeth it? let me find grace in the sight^v of my lord.

16 So Esau returned that day on his way unto Seir.

17 And Jacob journeyed to Succoth,^z and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called ^λ Succoth.

18 And Jacob came to Shalem,^a a city of ^μ Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city.

19 And he bought^b a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of ^ν Hamor, Shechem's father, for an hundred ^π pieces of money.

20 And he erected there an altar,^c and called it ^ρ El-clohe-Israel.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

AND Dinah^σ the daughter of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob, went out^δ to see the daughters of the land.

2 And when Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the country, saw her,ⁱ he took her, and lay with her, and defiled ^τ her.

3 And his soul clave^k unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake ^φ kindly unto the damsel.

4 And Shechem spake unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel^l to wife.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled

Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field; and Jacob held his peace^a until they were come.

6 And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob, to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they were^c very wroth, because he had wrought folly^f in Israel, in lying with Jacob's daughter: which thing ought not to be done.^g

8 And Hamor communed with them saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us: and the land shall be before you;^k dwell and trade ye therein, and get you possessions therein.

11 And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.

12 Ask me never so much dowryⁿ and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully,^o and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister:

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for that were a reproach^s unto us:

15 But in this will we consent unto you, If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised,^t

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised: then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem, Hamor's son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight^z in Jacob's daughter: and he was more honourable^y than all the house of his father.

20 And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying,

21 These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only herein^d will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not their cattle, and their substance, and every beast of theirs,^e be our's? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all that^f went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each man his sword, and^m came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males.

26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with ^β the edge^a of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out.

27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain,^b and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field,

29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.

30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me,^c to make me to stink among^f the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites: and I being fewⁱ in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

31 And they said, Should he deal with our sister as with an harlot?

CHAPTER XXXV.

AND God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to Beth-el, and dwell there;^o and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee when thou fleddest^x from the face of Esau thy brother.

2 Then Jacob said unto his⁷ household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods^r that are among^x you, and be^v clean, and change your garments:

3 And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto God, who answered me in the day^z of my distress, and was with me^a in the way which I went.

4 And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand, and all their earrings^b which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by^c Shechem.

5 And they journeyed: and the terror of God^d was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

6 So Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is Beth-el, he and all the people that were with him.

7 And he built there an altar, and called the place [§]El-beth-el: because there God^g appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 But Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el, under an oak; and the name of it was called ⁷Allon-bachuth.

9 And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram, and blessed him.

10 And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel.ⁱ

11 And God said unto him,^k I am God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins;

12 And the land which I gave^l Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.

13 And God went up from him,ⁿ in the place where he talked with him.

14 And Jacob set up a pillar^p in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stone; and he poured a drink offering thereon, and he poured oil thereon:

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Beth-el.

16 And they journeyed from Beth-el; and there was but ^γa little way to come to Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour.

17 And it came to pass, when she was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not;^c thou shalt have this son also.

18 And it came to pass, as her^d soul was in departing, (for she died,) that she called his name ^δBen-oni: but his father called him ^εBenjamin.

19 And Rachel died,^g and was buried in the way to Ephrath,^h which is Beth-lehem.

20 And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachel's grave^k unto this day.

21 And Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower^l of Edar.

22 And it came to pass, when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben^m went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine: and Israel heard it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve:ⁿ

23 The sons of Leah; Reuben, Jacob's firstborn, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zebulun:

24 The sons of Rachel; Joseph, and Benjamin:

25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid: Dan, and Naphtali:

26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid; Gad, and Asher: these are the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Padan-aram.

27 And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto^s Mamre, unto the city of Arbah,^t which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac sojourned.

28 And the days of Isaac were an hundred and fourscore years.

29 And Isaac gave up the ghost, and died, and was^u gathered unto his people, being old and full of days: and his sons Esau^v and Jacob buried him.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

NOW these are the generations of Esau, who is Edom.^e

2 Esau took his wives of the daughters of Canaan; Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite;

3 And Bashemath, Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth.

4 And Adah bare to Esau,^h Eliphaz; and Bashemath bare Reuel;

5 And Aholibamah bare Jeshu, and Jaalam, and Korah. These are the sons of Esau, which were born unto him in the land of Canaan.

6 And Esau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all ^θthe persons of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his substance, which he had got in the land of Canaan; and went into the country from the face of his brother Jacob:

7 For their riches were more than that they might dwell together; and the land wherein they were strangers could not bear^m them, because of their cattle.

8 Thus dwelt Esau in mount Seir.^o Esau is Edom.

9 And these are the generations of Esau the father of ^κthe Edomites in mount Seir.

10 These are the names of Esau's sons; Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, 11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, ^βZepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz.

12 And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz, Esau's son; and she bare to Eliphaz, ^αAmalek: these were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.

13 And these are the sons of Renel; Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these were the sons of Bashemath, Esau's wife.

14 And these were the sons of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: and she bare to Esau, Jensch, and Jaalam, and Korah.

22 And the children of Lotan were Hori and ^κHeman: and Lotan's sister was Timna.

23 And the children of Shobal were these; ^λAlvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shepho, ^μand Onam.

24 And these are the children of Zibeon; both Ajah and Anah: this was that Anah that found the mules in the wilderness, as he fed the asses of Zibeon his father.

25 And the children of Anah were these; Dishon, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah.

26 And these are the children of Dishon; ^ξHemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

AND Jacob dwelt in the land ^γwhere- in his father was ^ca stranger, in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives: and Joseph brought unto his father their ^eevil report.

3 Now Israel loved Joseph, more than all his children, because he was the ^fson of his old age: and he made him a coat of ^θmany colours.^g

4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they hated ^hhim, and could not speak peaceably unto him.

5 And Joseph dreamed a dream, and he told ⁱit his brethren; and they hated him yet the more.

6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed:

7 For, behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance ⁱto my sheaf.

8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over ^kus? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.

9 And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, the sun, and the moon, and the eleven stars, made obeisance ⁱto me.

10 And he told ^lit to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What ^{is} this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow down ^mourselves to thee to the earth?

11 And his brethren envied ^ohim; but his father ^pobserved the saying.

12 And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in Shechem.

13 And Israel said unto Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in Shechem? come, and I will ^qsend thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I.

14 And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, see ^β whether it be well with thy brethren, and well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of ^δ Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

15 And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?^c

16 And he said, I seek my brethren: tell^d me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in ^eDothan.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired^f against him to slay him.

19 And they said one to another, Behold, this ^ξ dreamer cometh.

20 Come now, therefore, and let us slay him,^g and east him into some pit; and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

21 And Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him.

22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood,^h but east him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

23 And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stripped Josephⁱ out of his coat, his coat of many colours^k that was on him:

24 And they took him, and east him into a pit:ⁿ and the pit was empty, there was no water in it.

25 And they sat down to eat^o bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of^q Ishmeelites came from Gilead, with their camels bearing spicery and^r balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt.

26 And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and conceal^s his blood?

27 Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmeelites, and let not our hand^t be upon him; for he is our brother, and our flesh. And his brethren^u were content.

28 Then there passed by Midianites,^v merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph^v to the Ishmeelites for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt.

29 And Reuben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; and he rent^w his clothes.

30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child^a is not; and I, whether shall I go?

31 And they took Joseph's coat,^b and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood:

32 And they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no.

33 And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an evil beast^c hath devoured him: Joseph is without doubt rent in pieces.

34 And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth^d upon his loins, and mourned

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

AND it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was Shuah; and he took her, and went in unto her.

3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Er.

4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name Onan.

5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Shelah: and he was at Chezib, when she bare him.

6 And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was Tamar.

7 And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD;ⁱ and the LORD slew him.

8 And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto^m thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his: and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did^o displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew him also.

11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remain a widow at thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown: for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Tamar went and dwelt in her father's house.

12 And ⁿin process of time the daughter of Shuah, Judah's wife, died; and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his sheepshearers to Timnath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold, thy father in law goeth up^r to Timnath to shear his sheep.

14 And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a veil, and wrapped herself, and sat in ^uan open place,^v which is by the way to Timnath: for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

15 When Judah saw her, he thought her to be a harlot; because she had covered her face.

16 And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law.) And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me?

17 And he said, I will send thee^v a kid from the flock. And she said, Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it?

18 And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy signet,^c and thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thine hand. And he gave it her, and came in unto her; and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose, and went away, and laid by her vail from her, and put on the garments^b of her widowhood.

20 And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand; but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot, that was openly β by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

22 And he returned to Judah, and said, I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in this place.

23 And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we γ be shamed: δ behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

24 And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath played the harlot;^k and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and let her be burnt.^m

25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child: and she said, Discern,ⁿ I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and bracelets,^o and staff.

26 And Judah acknowledged them, and said, She hath been more^p righteous than I; because that I gave her not to^r Shelah my sou. And he knew her again no^q more.

27 And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, twins were in her womb.

28 And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came out first.

29 And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, ζ How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore his name was called η Pharez.^u

30 And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Zarah.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

AND Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and Potiphar,^z an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ishmeelites, which had brought him down thither.

2 And the LORD was with^a Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all that he did to prosper^b in his hand.

4 And Joseph found grace^c in his sight, and he served him: and he made him overseer^d over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand.

5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house^e for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was upon all that he had in the house,^f and in the field.

6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Joseph was a goodly^h person, and well favoured.

7 And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes^a upon Joseph; and she said, Lie^c with me.

8 But he refused,^d and said unto his master's wife, Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand;

9 There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness,^e and sin^f against God?

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day,^h that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her.

11 And it came to pass about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within.

12 And she caught himⁱ by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled,^j and got him out.

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and was fled forth,

14 That she called unto the men of her house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he hath brought in an Hebrew unto us to mock^p us: he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a δ loud voice:

15 And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got him out.

16 And she laid up his garment by her, until his lord came home.

17 And she spake unto him^t according to these words, saying, The Hebrew servant, which thou hast brought unto us, came in unto me to mock me:

18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice, and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me, that his wrath^v was kindled.

20 And Joseph's master took him, and put him into the^w prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison.

21 But the LORD was with Joseph, and shewed θ him merey, and gave him^z favour in the sight of the keeper of the prison.

22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison; and whatsoever they did there, he was the doer of it.

23 The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing that was under his hand; because the LORD was with him, and that which he did, the LORD^y made it to prosper.

CHAPTER XL.

AND it came to pass after these things, that the butler^f of the king of Egypt and his baker had offended their lord the king of Egypt.

2 And Pharaoh was wroth^g against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers.

3 And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison,ⁱ the place where Joseph was bound.

4 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them: and they continued a season in ward.

5 And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream^a in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were sad.^b

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore ylook ye so sadly^c to day?

8 And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no^d interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong^e to God? tell me them, I pray you.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream,^f behold, a vine was before me;

10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the elusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes:

11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it:^g The three branches are three days:

13 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh^h lift up thine head,^m and restore thee unto thy place: and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.

14 But think on me when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness,ⁿ I pray thee, unto me; and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house:

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews; and here also have I done nothing^p that they should put me into the dungeon.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three^q white baskets on my head:

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of^r bakemeats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets^s are three days:

19 Yet within three^t days shall Pharaoh^u lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh^v from off thee.

20 And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday,^w that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he lifted^x up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and he gave the cup^y into Pharaoh's hand:

22 But he hanged the chief baker; as Joseph had interpreted^z to them.

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but^a forgot him.

3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill favoured and leanfleshed, and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill favoured and leanfleshed kine did eat up the seven well favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and, behold, seven cars of corn came up upon one stalk,^β rank and good.

6 And, behold, seven thin cars, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full cars. And Pharaoh awoke, and, behold, it was a dream.

8 And it came to pass in the morning, that his spirit^γ was troubled; and he sent and called for all^δ the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret^ε them unto Pharaoh.

9 Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day.

10 Pharaoh was wroth^ζ with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker.

11 And we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; ^η we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, an Hebrew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they ^θ brought him hastily out of^ο the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said unto^α Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, that ^θ thou canst understand^α a dream to interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river:^α

18 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fatfleshed and well favoured; and they fed in a meadow.

19 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor, and very ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness:

20 And the lean and the ill favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine:

21 And when they had ^π eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke.

22 And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven cars came up in one stalk, full and good:

23 And, behold, seven cars, ^ρ withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them:

24 And the thin cars devoured the seven good cars. And I told this unto the^σ magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me.

25 And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is about^a to do.

26 The seven good kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one.

27 And the seven thin and ill favoured kine, that came up after them, are seven years; and the seven empty ears, blasted with the east wind, shall be seven^b years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: What God is about to do, he sheweth unto Pharaoh.

29 Behold, there come seven^c years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt:

30 And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; ^fand all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume^g the land:

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land, by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very ^ggrievous.

32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice; ⁱit is because the thing is ⁿestablished by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.^k

33 Now, therefore, let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint ^oofficers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plentiful years.ⁿ

35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land ^aperish not through the famine.

37 And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom^r the Spirit of God is?

39 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art:

40 Thou shalt be over my house,^t and according unto thy word shall all my people ^ube ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou.

41 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, See, I have set thee^v over all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh took off his ring^x from his hand, and put it upon Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in vestures of ^vfine linen, and put a gold chain^z about his neck:

43 And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had: and they cried before him, ^pBow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land^a of Egypt.

44 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I am Pharaoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt.

45 And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnath-paaneah;^z and he gave him to wife Asenath, the daughter of Poti-pherah, ^ppriest^c of On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

46 And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before^d Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seven plentiful years the earth brought forth by handfuls.

48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field which was round about every city laid he up in the same.

49 And Joseph gathered corn as the sand of the sea,^c very much, until he left numbering; for it was without number.

50 And unto Joseph were born two sons^d before the years of famine came; which Asenath, the daughter of Poti-pherah, ^ppriest of On, bare unto him.

51 And Joseph called the name of the firstborn ⁿManasseh: For God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house.

52 And the name of the second called he ^hEphraim: For God hath caused me to be fruitful ^hin the land of my affliction.

53 And the seven years of plentifulness that was in the land of Egypt were ended.

54 And the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said: ⁱand the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

55 And when all the land of Egypt was famished^m the people cried to Pharaoh for bread: and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph; what he saith to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth. And Joseph ^aopened all the storehouses, and sold^o unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt.

57 And all countries came into Egypt to Joseph for to buy corn; because that the famine was so sore in all lands.

CHAPTER XLII.

NOW whenⁿ Jacob saw that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another?

2 And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may^s live, and not die.

3 And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn in Egypt.

4 But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren: for he said, Lest peradventure mischief^u befall him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy corn among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

6 And Joseph was the governor^v over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth.

7 And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake ^rroughly unto them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Canaan, to buy food.

8 And Joseph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed^b of them, and said unto them, Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

10 And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come.

Simeon kept for a pledge.

11 We are all one man's sons; we are true men; thy servants are no spies.
 12 And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.
 13 And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one^a is not.
 14 And Joseph said unto them, That is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies.
 15 Hereby ye shall be proved; By the life of Pharaoh^c ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither.
 16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else, by the life of Pharaoh surely ye are spies.
 17 And he y^unt them all together into ward three days.
 18 And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; for I fear^d God.
 19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses:
 20 But bringⁱ your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die. And they did so.
 21 And they said one to another, We are verily guilty^l concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear;ⁿ therefore is this distress come upon us.
 22 And Reuben answered them, saying, Spake I not unto you,^o saying, Do not sin against the child: and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is^p required.
 23 And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for he spake unto them by an interpreter.
 24 And he turned himself about from them, and wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.
 25 Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way:^q and thus did he unto them.
 26 And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence.
 27 And as one of them opened his sack,^r to give his ass provender in the inn, he espied his money; for, behold, it was in his sack's mouth.
 28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and, lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart failed^s them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us?
 29 And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them, saying, 30 The man, who is the lord of the land, spake^t roughly^t to us, and took us for spies of the country.
 31 And we said unto him, We are true men; we are no spies:
 32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father: one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.
 33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, Hereby shall I know that ye are true men: leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone;

 34 And bring your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffic^b in the land.
 35 And it came to pass, as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack:^d and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.
 36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye bereaved^e of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things^f are against me.
 37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.
 38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is^h dead, and he is left alone: if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs^k with sorrow to the grave.
 CHAPTER XLIII.
 AND the famine was sore^m in the land.
 2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food.
 3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man^d did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.
 4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food:
 5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.
 6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?
 7 And they said, The manⁿ asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the^o tenor of these words: ^o could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?
 8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones.
 9 I will be surety^s for him; of my hand shalt thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever:
 10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned^t this second time.
 11 And their father Israel said unto them, If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present,^u a little balm,^v and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, nuts, and almonds:
 12 And take double money in your hand: and the money that was brought again^w in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight.
 13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man:
 14 And God Almighty give you mercy before^a the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin. ^β If I be bereaved^b of my children, I am bereaved.

15 And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin; and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler^c of his house, Bring these men home, and ^δ slay, and make ready; for these men shall dine ^ε with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Joseph bade; and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

18 And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in, that he ^η may seek^f occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses.

19 And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house, and they communed with him at the door of the house,

20 And said, O sir, ^θ we came indeed down at the first time to buy food:

21 And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the month of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand.

22 And other money have we brought down in our hands, to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, Peace^k be to you! fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: ^λ I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them.

24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them^μ water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender.

25 And they made ready the^ν present against Joseph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there.

26 And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and ^ζ bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their ^μ welfare, and said, ^ν Is your father well, the old man of whom ye^σ spake? Is he yet alive?

28 And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive. And they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his^μ mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son.^ζ 30 And Joseph made haste; for his bowels did yearn^ζ upon his brother: and he sought where to weep; and he entered into his chamber, and wept there.

31 And he washed his face, and went out, and refrained himself, and said, Set on bread.

32 And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians which did eat with him by themselves: because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews; for that is an^b abomination unto the Egyptians.

33 And they sat before him, the first-born according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth; and the men marvelled one at another.

34 And he took and sent messes^c unto them from before him; but Benjamin's mess was five times so much as any of their's. And they drank, and ^γ were merry^d with him.

CHAPTER XLIV.

AND he commanded the ^δ steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's month:

2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's month of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; ^ν and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil^h for good?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he ^κ divineth? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbidⁱ that thy servants should do according to this thing.

8 Behold, the money which we found in our sacks' mouths we brought again unto^j thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?

9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, both let him^m die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant;^o and ye shall be blameless.

11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they rent their^r clothes, and laded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

14 And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house; for he was yet there: and they fell before him^t on the ground.

15 And Joseph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? wot ye not that such a man as I can certainly ^π divine?

16 And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we^v speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the^v iniquity of thy servants: behold, we are my lord's servants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found.

17 And he said, God forbid that I should do^α so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

18 Then Judah came near unto him, and said, Oh, my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger^c burn against thy servant: for thou art even as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

21 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down unto me,^e that I may set mine eyes upon him.

22 And we said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

23 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Except your youngest brother come low with you, ye shall not see my face to more.

24 And it came to pass, when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

25 And our father said, Go again,ⁱ and buy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down:^k for our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, except our youngest brother be with us.

27 And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that my wife bare me wo^m sons:

28 And the one went out from me, and said, Surely he isⁿ torn in pieces; and saw him not since:

29 And if ye take this also from me, and mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

30 Now, therefore, when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad be not with us; seeing that his life is^a bound up in the lad's life;

31 It shall come to pass, when he seeth at the lad is not with us, that he will die: and thy servants shall bring down his gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to the grave.

32 For thy servant became surety^r for the lad unto my father, saying, If I ring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame to my father for ever.

33 Now, therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide instead of the lad,^s a bondman to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

34 For how shall I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me? lest peradventure I see the evil^u that shall come on^v my father.

CHAPTER XLV.

WHEN Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go up from me. And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.

2 And he θ wept aloud:^z and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.

3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I m Joseph: doth my father yet live? and his brethren could not answer him; for they were ^λ troubled^a at his presence.

4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold^b into Egypt.

5 Now therefore be not^c grieved, ^μ nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me thither; for God did send me^d before you, to preserve life.

6 For these two years^a hath the famine been in the land; and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be caring^b nor harvest.

7 And God sent me before you, β to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great^d deliverance.

8 So now it was not you that sent me hither, but^f God: and he hath made me a father^g to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not:

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen,^h and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast:

11 And there will I nourish thee, for yet there are five years of famine, lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to poverty.

12 And, behold, your eyes see,ⁱ and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaketh unto you.

13 And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; and ye shall haste, and bring down^o my father hither.

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck,^p and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover, he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that, his brethren talked with him.

16 And the fame thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come: and it γ pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye: lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan;

18 And take your father, and your households, and come unto me: and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat^t the fat of the land.

19 Now thou art commanded, this do ye; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

20 Also regard not your stuff: for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.

21 And the children of Israel did so: and Joseph gave them wagons, according to the ν commandment^z of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way.

22 To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five^y changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses κ laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she asses laden with corn and bread and meat for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See that ye fall not out by the way.

25 And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father.

26 And told him, saying, Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And ν Jacob's heart fainted, for he believed^a them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived:^b

28 And Israel said, It is enough: Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

CHAPTER XLVI.

AND Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to^d Beer-sheba, and offered sacrifices unto the God^e of his father Isaac.

2 And God spake unto Israel^f in the visions of the night, and said, Jacob, Jacob.^g And he said, Here am I.

3 And he said, I am God, the God of thy father: fear not to go down into Egypt; for I will thereⁱ make of thee a great nation.

4 I will go down with thee into Egypt; and I will also surely bring thee up^m again: and Joseph shall put his handⁿ upon thine eyes.

5 And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba: and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent^a to carry him.

6 And they took their cattle, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt,^r Jacob, and all his seed with him.

7 His sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and all his seed brought he with him into Egypt.

8 And these are the names of the children of Israel^s which came into Egypt: Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's firstborn.

9 And the sons of Reuben; Hanoeh, and Phallu, and Hezron, and Carmi.

10 And the sons of Simeon; ^eJemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and ^sJachin, and ^rZohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanitish woman.

11 And the sons of Levi; ^gGershon Kohath, and Merari.

12 And the sons of Judah; Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pharez, and Zarah: but Er and Onan died^w in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pharez were Hezron and Hamul.

13 And the sons of Issachar; Tola, and Phnvh, ^kand Job, and Shimron.

14 And the sons of Zebulun; Sered, and Elon, and Jahleel.

15 These be the sons of Leah, which she bare unto Jacob in Padan-aram, with his daughter Dinah: all the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty and three.

16 And the sons of Gad; ^λZiphion, and Haggi, Shnni, and ^μEzbon, Eri, and Arodi,^v and Areli.

17 And the sons of Asher; Jimnah, and Ishuah, and Isui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister: and the sons of Beriah; Heber, and Malehiel.

18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave^d to Leah his daughter: and these she bare unto Jacob, even sixteen souls.

19 The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife; Joseph, and Benjamin.

20 And unto Joseph, in the land of Egypt, were born^e Manasseh and Ephraim, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-pherah ^πpriest of On, bare unto him.

21 And the sons of Benjamin were Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera, and Naaman, ^ρEhi, and Rosh, ^σMuppim, and ^τHuphim, and Ard.

28 And he sent Judah before him unto Joseph, to direct his face^k unto Goshen; and they came into the land of^l Goshen.

29 And Joseph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Goshen; and presented himself unto him; and he fell on his neck,^o and wept on his neck a good while.

30 And Israel said unto Joseph, Now let me die,^p since I have seen thy face, because thou art yet alive.

31 And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, I will go up, and shew Pharaoh, and say unto him, My brethren, and my father's house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me;

32 And the men are shepherds, for their ^δtrade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.

33 And it shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, What^t is your occupation?

34 That ye shall say, Thy servants' trade hath been about cattle^u from our youth even until now, both we, and also our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination^v unto the Egyptians.

CHAPTER XLVII.

THEN Joseph came and told^s Pharaoh, and said, My father, and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and, behold, they are in the^y land of Goshen.

2 And he took some of his brethren even five men,^z and presented them unto Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, What is your occupation?^a And they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants are shepherds,^b both we, and also our fathers.

4 They said moreover unto Pharaoh, For to sojourn^c in the land are we come: for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks; for the famine is sore in the land of Canaan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

5 And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee:

6 The land of Egypt is before thee: in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell: in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over^f my cattle.

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh: and Jacob blessed^a Pharaoh.

8 And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, How old^β art thou?

9 And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are in hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and^c have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

10 And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as^c Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, ^ςaccording to their families.

13 And^k there was no bread in all the land: for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt, and all the land of Canaan, fainted by reason of the famine.

14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

15 And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we lie in thy presence? for the money faileth.

16 And Joseph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread ^{in exchange} for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses; and he ^ηfed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide ^{it} from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle: there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies and our lands:

19 Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us^ο and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh; and give us seed, that we may live and not die, lest the land be not desolate.

20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from ^{one} end of the borders of Egypt even to the ^{other} end thereof.

22 Only the land of the ^θpriests bought he not; for the priests had a portion ^{assigned} them of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them; wherefore they sold not their lands.

23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day, and our land, for Pharaoh: lo, ^{here} is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land.

24 And it shall come to pass, in the increase, that ye shall give the fifth ^{part} unto Pharaoh; and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for 26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, ^{that} Pharaoh should have the fifth ^{part},^δ except the land of the ^γpriests only, ^{which} became not Pharaoh's.

27 And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied^d exceedingly.

28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years: so the ^δwhole age of Jacob was an hundred forty and seven years.

29 And the time^f drew nigh that Israel must die: and he called his son Joseph, and said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, ^{πnt},^g I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me; bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt:

30 Butⁱ I will lie with my fathers; and thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their buryingplace. And he said, I will do as thou hast said.

31 And he said, Swear unto me. And he swore unto him. And Israel^k bowed himself upon the bed's head.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

AND it came to pass, after these things, that ^{one} told Joseph, Behold, thy father is sick: and he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

2 And ^{one} told Jacob, and said, Behold, thy son Joseph cometh unto thee: and Israel strengthened himself, and sat upon the bed.

3 And Jacob said unto Joseph, God Almighty appearedⁱ unto me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me,

4 And said unto me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a multitude of people; and will give this land to thy seed after thee ^{for}^m an everlasting possession.

5 And now thy two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, whichⁿ were born unto thee in the land of Egypt before I came unto thee into Egypt, ^{are} mine: as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine.

6 And thy issue, which thou begetteth after them, shall be thine, ^{and}^p shall be called after the name of their brethren in their inheritance.

7 And as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel^q died by me in the land of Canaan, in the way, when yet ^{there} was but a little way to come unto Ephrath: and I buried her thero in the way of Ephrath; the same is Beth-lehem.

8 And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, and said, Who ^{are} these?

9 And Joseph said unto his father, They are my sons, whom God hath given^r me in this ^{place}. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, unto me, and I will bless^s them.

10 Now the eyes of Israel were ^κdin for age, so ^{that} he could not see. And he brought them near unto him; and he kissed them, and embraced them.

11 And Israel said unto Joseph, I^t had not thought to see thy face; and, lo, God^υ hath shewed me also thy seed.

12 And Joseph brought them out from between his knees, and he bowed^v himself with his face to the earth.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand upon Manasseh's head, guiding his hands wittingly; ⁹ for Manasseh was the first-born.

15 And he blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom^k my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which^m fed me all my life long, unto this day,

16 The Angel^o which redeemed^p me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them^β grow into a multitude⁹ in the midst of the earth.

17 And when Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him; and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head unto Manasseh's head.

18 And Joseph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head.

19 And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but^t truly his younger^u brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a ^δ multitude of nations.

20 And he blessed them that day, saying, In thee^w shall Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasseh: and he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

21 And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die; but^v God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

22 Moreover, I have given to thee one portion above^b thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

CHAPTER XLIX.

AND^s Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you *that*⁹ which shall befall you in the last days.^h

2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob; and hearken unto Israel your father.

3 Reuben, thou art my firstborn, my might, and the beginning^k of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power:

4 Unstable as water, ⁷thou shalt not excel; becauseⁿ thou wentest up to thy father's bed; then defiledst thou it: ^θhe went up to my couch.

5 Simeon^a and Levi are brethren; ^{*}instruments of cruelty^r are in their habitations.

6 O^a my soul, come not thou into their secret; unto their assembly, mine honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their self-will they ^λdigged down a wall.

7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide^v them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

8 Judah, thou^{*} art he whom thy brethren shall praise; thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies: thy father's children shall bow down^v before thee.

CHAPTER L.

AND Joseph fell upon his father's face, and wept upon him, and kissed him.

2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to^e embalm his father: and the physicians embalmed Israel.

3 And forty days were fulfilled for him; for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed; and the Egyptians mourned^f for him^f threescore and ten days.

4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spake unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,

5 My father made me swear,^h saying, Lo, I die: in my grave which Iⁱ have digged for me in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 And Pharaoh said, Go up and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

7 And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones,^o and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen; and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshingfloor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning^a for his father seven days.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called Abel-mizraim, ⁷ which is beyond Jordan.

12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded^u them:

13 For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham bought^a with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father^d was dead, they said, Joseph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him.

16 And they ^β sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying,

17 So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee^g now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; for they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake unto him.

18 And his brethren also went and fell down before his face: and they said, Behold, we be thy servants.

19 And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: for am I in the place^k of God?

20 But as for you, ye thought^l evil against me; but God meant^m it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save mneh people alive.

21 Now therefore fear ye not: I will nourish you,ⁿ and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake ^δ kindly unto them.

22 And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years.

23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's^p children of the third generation: the children also of Machir^q the son of Manasseh were ^ζ brought up upon Joseph's knees.

24 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: and God will surely visit you,^r and bring you out of this land unto the land which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

25 And Joseph took an oath^t of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence.

26 So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old; and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

The Second Book of MOSES, called EXODUS.

CHAPTER I.

NOW these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into ^b Egypt; every man and his household came with Jacob.

2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,

3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,

4 Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

5 And all the souls that came out of the loins ^β of Jacob were seventy^d souls: for Joseph was in Egypt already.

6 And Joseph died,^e and all his brethren, and all that generation.

7 And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly,^f and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.

8 Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew^g not Joseph.

9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more aud mightier than we:

10 Come on, let us deal wiselyⁱ with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land.

11 Therefore they did set over them taskmasters, to afflict them^k with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure cities, Pithom and^l Raamses.

12 ^γ But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour:

14 And they made their livesⁿ bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick,^o and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.^q

15 And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives; of which the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah;

16 And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools, if it be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives feared^r God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men children alive?

19 And the midwives said unto^s Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them.

20 Therefore God dealt well^u with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.

21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that he^v made them houses.

22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

AND there went a man^a of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi.

2 And the woman conceived, and bare son; and when she saw him that he was goodly child, she hid^c him three months.

3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrush, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink.

4 And his sister stood afar off, to w what would be done to him.

5 And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side: and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion^d on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children.

7 Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.

9 And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me,^m and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses:^δ and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

11 And it came to pass in those days when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens:^p and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren.

12 And he looked this way and that way and, when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

14 And he said, Who made thee a prince ^ζ and a judge over us? intending thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

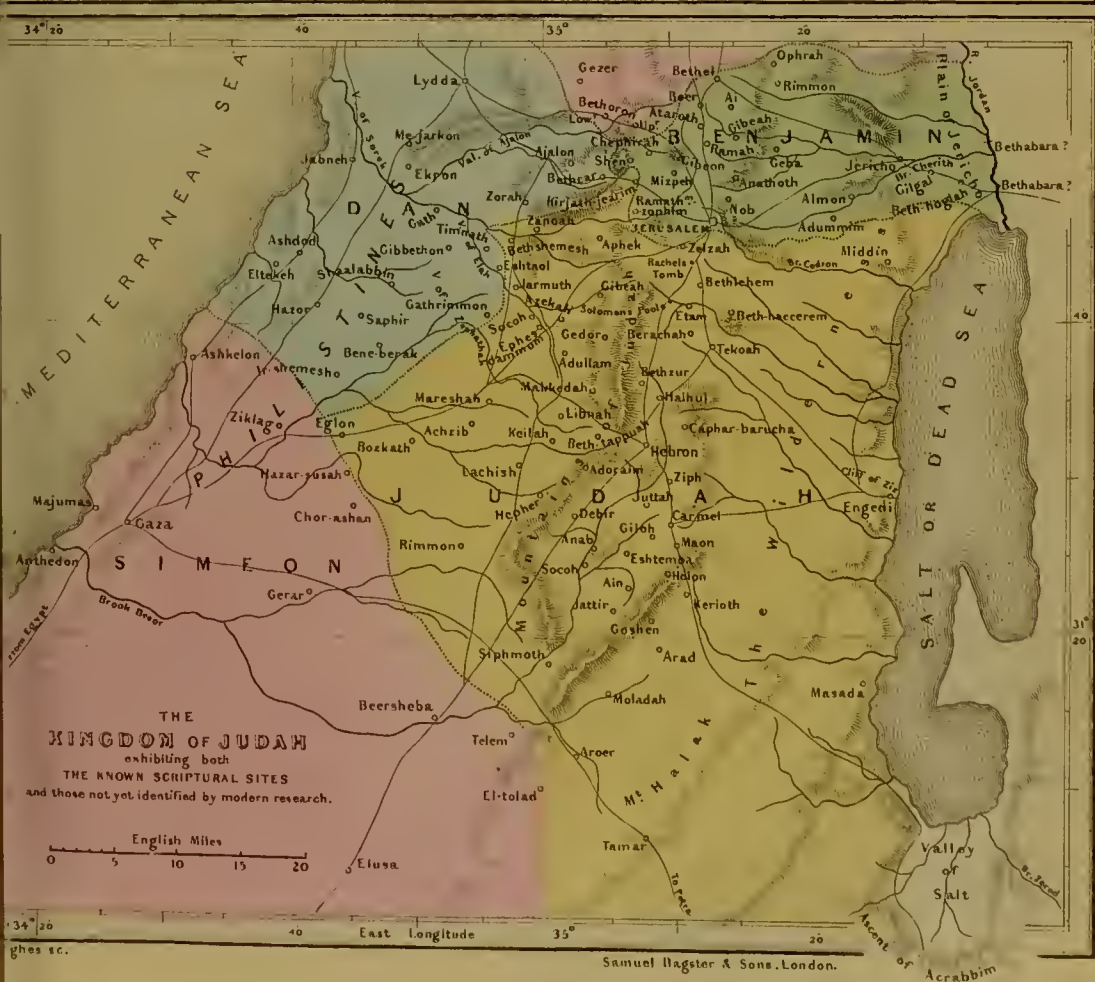

15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well.

16 Now the ^η priest of Midian had seven daughters: and they came and^t drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.

18 And when they came to ^θ Reuel their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to day?

19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.

20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left this man? call him, that he may^a eat bread.

21 And Moses was content^b to dwell with the man: and he gave Moses^c Zipporah his daughter.

22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name^β Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.

23 And it came to pass, in process of time, that the king of Egypt died; and the children of Israel^c sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God,^f by reason of the bondage.

24 And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant^h with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

25 And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God^γ had respect unto them.

CHAPTER III.

NOW Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God,ⁱ even to Horeb.

2 And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire, out of the midst of a bush:^m and he looked, and behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

3 And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt.

4 And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said,^o Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I.

5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes^a from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

6 Moreover he said,^t I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid^v to look upon God.

7 And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people^x which are in Egypt, and have heard their^y cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know^z their sorrows;

8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians,^b and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land^d and a large, unto a land^d flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

9 Now therefore, behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.

10 Come now, therefore, and I will send^e thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt.

11 And Moses said unto God, Who am I,^γ that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12 And he said, Certainly I will be with^h thee: and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?

14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM:^d and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you.

15 And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial^g unto all generations.

16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visitedⁱ you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt:

17 And I have said, I will bring^k you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.

18 And they shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hathⁿ met with us: and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

19 And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you^p go, ^δno, not by a mighty hand.

20 And I will stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my^r wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that^s he will let you go.

21 And I will give this people^u favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and it shall come to pass, that, when ye go, ye shall not go empty;

22 But every woman shall borrow^w of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and ye shall^a spoil the^ζ Egyptians.

CHAPTER IV.

AND Moses answered and said, Bnt, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.

2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, A rod.

3 And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it.

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand:

5 That they may^f believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.

6 And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom; and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprousⁱ as snow.

7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again, and plucked it out of his bosom; and, behold, it was^k turned again as his other flesh.

8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.

9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and the water which thou takest out of the river ^β shall become^c blood upon the dry land.

10 And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither ^δ heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

11 And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? ^ζ or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

12 Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach thee what^η thou shalt say.

13 And he said, O my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou ^ι wilt send.

14 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses; and he said, Is not Aarou the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he cometh forth to meet thee; and when he seeth thee, ^κ he will be glad in his heart.

15 And thou shalt speak unto him, and put words^λ in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do.

16 And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, ^μ even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and thou shalt be to him instead of God.

17 And thou shalt take this rod^ν in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do signs.

18 And Moses went, and returned to ^ξ Jethro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which ^π are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.

19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Midiau, Go, return into Egypt: for all the me^ρ are dead which sought thy life.

20 And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took the rod^σ of God in his hand.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, When thou goest to return into Egypt, see that thou do all those^τ wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in thine hand: but I will harden^υ his heart, that he shall not let the people go.

22 And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, Israel ^φ is my son, ^ω even my firstborn:

23 And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay^χ thy son, ^ψ even thy firstborn.

24 And it came to pass, by the way in the inn, that the LORD^ψ met him, and sought to kill^ψ him.

25 Then Zipporah took a sharp ^λ stone, and ^α cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast ^μ it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband ^α art thou to me.

26 So he let him go: then she said, A bloody husband ^α thou art, because of the circumcision.

27 And the LORD said to Aarou, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went, and met him in the mount^α of God, and kissed him.

28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which he had commanded him.

29 And Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel:

30 And Aarou spake^β all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people.

31 And the people believed:^γ and when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel, and that he had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads^δ and worshipped.

CHAPTER V.

AND afterward Moses and Aaron went in, and told Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold a feast^ε unto me in the wilderness.

2 And Pharaoh said,^ζ Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go.

3 And they said, The God of the^η Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence,^θ or with the sword.

4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, let the people from their works? get you unto your burdens.

5 And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land now ^α are many, and ye make them rest from their burdens.

6 And Pharaoh commanded the same day the taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying,

7 Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay^β upon them; ye shall not diminish ^γ ought thereof: for they ^δ be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

9 Let ^θ there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein: and let them not regard vain^ε words.

10 And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go ye, get you straw where ye can find it: ye yet not ought of your work shall be diminished.

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the taskmasters hasted ^α them, saying, Fulfil your works, your ^β daily tasks, as when there was straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick, both yesterday and to day, as heretofore?

15 Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants?

16 There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and, behold, thy servants ^α are beaten; but the fault ^β is in thine own people.

17 But he said, Ye ^α are idle, ye ^β are idle:

herefore ye say, Let us go and do sacrifice to the LORD.

18 Go therefore now, and work; for here shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in evil case, after it was said, Ye shall not diminish your bricks of your daily task.

20 And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh;

21 And they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; because ye have made our savour to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their and to slay us.

22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so evil entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak a thy name, he hath done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

CHAPTER VI.

THEN the LORD said unto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh: for with a strong hand shall I let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.

2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the LORD:

3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of Almighty; but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them.

4 And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers.

5 And I have also heard their groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant.

6 Wherefore say unto the children of Israel, I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments:

7 And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it you for an heritage: I am the LORD.

9 And Moses spake so unto the children of Israel: but they hearkened not unto Moses for anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.

10 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

11 Go in, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 And Moses spake before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Israel have not hearkened unto me; how then shall Pharaoh hear me, who am of uncircumcised lips?

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Israel, and unto 27 These are they which spake to^v Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel^z from Egypt: these are that Moses and Aaron.

28 And it came to pass, on the day when the LORD spake unto Moses in the land of Egypt, 29 That the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, I am the LORD: speak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt all^z that I say unto thee.

30 And Moses said before the LORD, Behold, I am of uncircumcised^a lips, and how shall Pharaoh hearken unto me?

CHAPTER VII.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god^c to Pharaoh; and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet.

2 Thou shalt speak all^d that I command thee; and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land.

3 And I will^e harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments.

5 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD,^a when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 And Moses and Aaron did as the LORD commanded them, so did they.

7 And Moses was fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.

8 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

9 When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, Shew a miracle^b for you: then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a serpent.

10 And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and^c the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.

13 And he hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD^e had said.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened,^f he refuseth^g to let the people go.

15 Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he goeth out unto the water; and thou shalt stand by the river's brink against he come; and the rod which was turned to a serpentⁱ shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say unto him, The LORD God of the^k Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go,^l that they may serve me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto thou wouldst not hear.

17 Thus saith the LORD, In this thou shalt know that I am^m the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned^o to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink of the water of the river.

19 And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their^p pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote^q the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.

21 And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink^r of the water of the river: and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the magicians of Egypt did^s so with their enchantments: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; as the LORD had said.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his^t heart to this also.

24 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river.

25 And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river.

CHAPTER VIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, Go unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 And if thou refuse to let them go, behold I will smite all thy borders with frogs:

3 And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into thy bedchamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy^β kneadingtroughs;

4 And the frogs shall come up, both of thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5 And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs^c came up, and covered the land of Egypt.

7 And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

8 Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said,^d Entreat the LORD, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD.

9 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, γ Glory over me: ^e when shall I entreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people ^ζ to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses that they may remain in the river only?

10 And he said, η To morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word; that thou mayest know that^η there is none like unto the LORD our God.

11 And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only.

12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses^η cried unto the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.

13 And the LORD did^θ according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

14 And they gathered them together upon heaps; and the land stank.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he^θ hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.^ι

16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17 And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became^κ lice in man and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18 And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not:^κ so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

19 Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is the^a finger of God: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.
20 And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve me:
21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send β swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

22 And I will sever^d in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will put a γ division between thy people and thy people: δ to morrow shall this sign be.

24 And the LORD did so: and there came grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt; the land was ruptured^ε by reason of the swarm of flies.

25 And Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice the abomination^κ of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?

27 We will go^κ three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us.

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very far away;^η entreat for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will entreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to morrow: but let not Pharaoh deal^θ deceitfully any more in not letting my people go to sacrifice to the LORD.

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and entreated the LORD.

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people: there remained not one.

32 And Pharaoh^ω hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let my people go.

CHAPTER IX.

WHEN the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 For if thou refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still,

3 Behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: here shall be a very grievous murrain.

4 And the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Israel, and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel.

5 And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, To morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and^b all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

8 And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil^c breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast.

11 And the magicians could not^e stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

12 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened^f not unto them; as the LORD had spoken^g unto Moses.

13 And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

14 For I will at this time send allⁱ my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

15 For now I will stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee and^m thy people with pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth.

16 And in very deed for^o this cause have Iⁿ raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

17 As yet exaltest thou thyself^p against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

18 Behold, to morrow^r about this time, I will cause it to rain^s a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now.

19 Seest thou therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come^t down upon them, and they shall die.

20 He that feared the word^v of the LORD, among the servants of Pharaoh, made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses:

21 And he that^θ regarded^w not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

22 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven; and the LORD sent thunder and^x hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground: and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail^a smote every herb of the field, and brake every tree of the field.

26 Only in the land of Goshen,^b where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

27 And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time: the LORD is righteous,^c and I and my people are wicked.

28 Entreat the LORD (for^d it is enough) that there be no more γ mighty thunders and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer.

29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands^f unto the LORD; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know how that the earth is the LORD's.^g

30 But as for thee and thy servants, I know that ye will not yet^h fear the LORD God.

31 And the flax and the barley was smitten;^k for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was boiled.

32 But the wheat and the rye were not smitten; for they were ^δ not grown up.

33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD; and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yetⁿ more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants.

35 And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken by γ Moses.

CHAPTER X.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh: for I have^p hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I might shew these my signs before him:

2 And that thou mayest tell in the ears of thy son,^r and of thy son's son, what things I have wrought in Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that ye may know how^s that I am the LORD.

3 And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to humble^t thyself before me? let my people go, that they may serve me.

4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to morrow will I bring the locusts^v into thy coast:

5 And they shall cover the ^κface of the earth, that one cannot be able to see the earth: and they shall eat the^z residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field:

6 And they shall fill thy houses,^z and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh.

7 And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be^a a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?

8 And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God but β who are they that shall go?

9 And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go: for we must hold a feast unto the LORD.

10 And he said unto them, Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go, and your little ones: look to it; for ever is before you.

11 Not so: go now ye that are men, and serve the LORD; for that ye did desire. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

12 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch^e out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left.

13 And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night; and when it was morning, theⁱ east wind brought the locusts.

14 And the locustsⁱ went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous were they; before them there were no such locusts^m as they, neither after them shall be such.

15 For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

16 Then Pharaoh ^ζcalled for Moses and Aaron in haste; and he said, I have sinned against^ρ the LORD your God, and against you.

17 Now, therefore, forgive, I pray thee, my sin only^q this once, and entreat the LORD your God, that he may take away from me this death only.

18 And he went out from Pharaoh, and entreated the LORD.

19 And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and ^θeast them^t into the Red sea; there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt.

20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness^ο over the land of Egypt, ^λeven darkness which may be felt.

22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days:

23 They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: but all the children of Israel had^z light in their dwellings.

24 And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and said, Go ye, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: let your little ones also go with you.

25 And Moses said, Thou must ^μgive us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God.

26 Our cattle^b also shall go with us; there shall not an hoof be left behind: for thereof must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD until we come thither.

27 But the LORD hardened^a Pharaoh's cart, and he would not let them go.
28 And Pharaoh said unto him, Get ace from me, take heed to thyself, see y face no more:^c for in that day thou est my face thou shalt die.
29 And Moses said, Thou hast spoken ell,^e I will see thy face again no more.

CHAPTER XI.

gypt shall die,^m from the firstborn of haraoh that sitteth upon his throne,

6 And there shall be a great cry^o through-

7 But against any of the children of 8 And all these thy servants^r shall the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it ^β in the evening.⁶

7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts, and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and ^d unleavened bread; and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

9 Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast with fire; his head with his legs, and with the prtenance thereof.

10 And ye shall let nothing of it^f remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning, ye shall burn with fire.

11 And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste; it is the LORD's passover.

12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the ^γ gods of Egypt^k
I will exeente judgment: I am the LORD.

13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to ^δ destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feastⁿ to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinanee for ever.

15 Seven days^p shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall pnt away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day,^r that soul shall be cut off from Israel.

16 And in the first day there shall be an holy^t convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every ^u man must eat, that only may be done of you.

17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.

18 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven days shall there be no leaven^w found in your houses: for whosoever eat-eth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take you a ^λ lamb according to your families, and kill the passover.^y

22 And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the ba-son, and strike^z the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the basou; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.

23 For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood^c upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and^a will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.

25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

26 And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you,^e What mean ye by this service?

27 That ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head, and^g worshipped.

28 And the children of Israel went away, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 And it came to pass, that at midnight, the LORD smote^h all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne, unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry^k in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 And he calledⁿ for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and^p bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians were urgent^q upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading-troughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment:

36 And the LORD^u gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required: and they spoiled the Egyptians.

37 And the children of Israel journeyed from Ramesses^w to Succoth, about^x six hundred thousand on foot, that were men, beside children.

38 And^y a mixed multitude^z went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.

40 Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was^c four hundred and thirty years.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It is^θ a night to be much^e observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Israel in their generations.

43 And the LORD said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance^b of the passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof:

44 But every man's servant that bought for money, when thou hast^c circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 A^d foreigner and an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

46 In one house shall it be eaten: thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone thereof.^f

47 All the congregation of Israel shall keep^β it.

48 And when a stranger shall sojour with thee, and will keep the passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 One lawⁱ shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.

50 Thus did all the children of Israel as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And it came to pass, the selfsame day, that the LORD did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt^m by their armies.

CHAPTER XIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Sanctify unto me all the^o firstborn whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine.

3 And Moses said unto the people, Remember this^r day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of^s bondage; for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place: there shall no leavened bread be eaten.

4 This day came ye out,^t in the month Abib.

5 And it shall be, when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he^u sware unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep this service in this month.

6 Seven days^v thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days: and there shall^y no leavened bread be seen with thee; neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters.

8 And thou shalt shew thy son^a in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of Egypt.

9 And it shall be for^b a sign unto thee upon thine hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes; that the LORD's law may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of Egypt.

10 Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance^d in his season from year to year.

11 And it shall be, when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he sware unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee,

12 That thou shalt^e set apart unto the LORD all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which hou hast; the males shall be the LORD's.

13 And every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break its neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children shalt thou redeem.

14 And it shall be, when thy son^a asketh thee in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, By strength of hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage:

15 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the LORD slew the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for a token upon thine and, and for frontlets between thine eyes: for by strength of hand^d the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.

17 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see war, and they return^k to Egypt:

18 But Godⁱ led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red sea. And the children of Israel went forth harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him; for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying,^k God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

20 And they took their journey^l from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

21 And the LORD went before them^m by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night:

22 He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

CHAPTER XIV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before^o Pi-hahiroth, betweenⁿ Migdol and the sea, over against Baal-zephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel,^q They are entangled in the land, he wilderness hath shut them in.

4 And I will harden^r Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them: and I will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

5 And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned^u against the people, and they said, Why have we one this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?

6 And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him:

7 And he took six hundred chosen chariots,^v and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

8 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and the children of Israel went out with an high^w hand.

9 But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon.

10 And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore^b afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the LORD.

11 And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

12 Is not this the word that we did tell thee in^c Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not,^e stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you to day: ^δfor the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

14 The LORD shall fight^f for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

15 And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

16 But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it; and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

17 And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 And the angelⁿ of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them:

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea^r dry land, and the waters were divided.

22 And the children of Israel went into the midst^t of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand and on their left.

23 And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass, that in the morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians,

25 And took off their chariot wheels, that ^θthey drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD overthrew ^β the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And the waters returned, and covered ^c the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them: there remained not so much as one of them.

29 But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore.

31 And Israel saw that great γ work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the LORD, and believed ^h the LORD, and his servant Moses.

CHAPTER XV.

THEN sang ⁱ Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

2 The LORD is my strength and ^m song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an ^a habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him.

3 The LORD is a man of ^o war: the LORD is his name.

4 Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea.

5 The depths have covered them: they sank into the bottom as a stone.

6 Thy right hand, ^q O LORD, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O LORD, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

7 And in the greatness of thine ^r excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them ^u as stubble.

8 And with the blast of ^v thy nostrils the waters were gathered together: the floods stood upright as an heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall ^z destroy them.

10 Thou didst blow with ^γ thy wind, the sea covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

11 Who is like ^z unto thee, O LORD, among the ^γ gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercy hast ^b led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

14 The people shall hear, and be afraid: sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Palestina.

15 Then the dukes of Edom shall be amazed; the mighty men of Moab, trembling shall take hold upon them: all the inhabitants of Canaan shall melt ^z away.

16 Fear and dread shall ^γ fall upon them: by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still ^h as a stone; till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over which ^a thou hast purchased.

17 Thou shalt bring them in, and ^b plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance in the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in; in the ^c Sanctuary, O Lord, which thy hands have established.

18 The LORD shall reign ^d for ever and ever.

19 For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them: but the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

20 And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, ^f took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.

21 And Miriam answered them, Sing ye to the LORD, ^g for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

22 So Moses brought Israel from the Red sea; and they went out into the wilderness of ^h Shur: and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

23 And when they came to ⁱ Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called ^δ Marah.

24 And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?

25 And he cried unto the LORD; and the LORD shewed him a tree, which when he had cast into ^j the waters, the waters were made sweet: there he made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there he proved them,

26 And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: ^k for I am the LORD ^l that healeth thee.

27 And they came to Elim, where were twelve wells of water, and threescore and ten palm trees: and they encamped there by the waters.

CHAPTER XVI.

AND they took their journey from Elim, ^w and all the congregation of the children of Israel came unto the wilderness of ^z Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel ^a murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness:

3 And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when ^c we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full! for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

4 Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain ^d bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather ^θ a certain rate every day, that I may ^e prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no.

5 And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that which they bring in; and it shall be twice ⁱ as much as they gather daily.

6 And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt;
 7 And in the morning, then ye shall see the glory^b of the LORD; for that he heareth our murmurings against the LORD: and what are we, that ye murmur against us?
 8 And Moses said, This shall be, when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to eat full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him: and what are we? your murmurings are not against us,^d but against the LORD.
 9 And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come^e near before the LORD; for he hath heard your murmurings.
 10 And it came to pass, as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the glory of the LORD^g appeared in the cloud.
 11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
 12 I have heard the^h murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread; and shall know that I am the LORD your God.
 13 And it came to pass, that at even the quails^k came up, and covered the camp; and in the morning the dew lay round about the host.
 14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground.
 15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, ^βIt is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.
 16 This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Gather of it every man according to his eating; an omer^γ for every man, according to the number of your^δ persons: take ye every man for himself which are in his tents.
 17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some less.
 18 And when they did mete it with an ephah,^ε he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack: they gathered every man according to his eating.
 19 And Moses said, Let no man^μ leave of it till the morning.
 20 Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it till the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Moses was wroth with them.
 21 And they gathered it every morning: every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.
 22 And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.
 23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To-morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to-day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for to-morrow, to be kept until the morning.
 24 And they laid it up till the morning, and Moses bade: and it did not^z stink, neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, Eat that to-day for to-day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to-day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 Six^a days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

27 And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long refuse^c ye to keep my commandments and my laws?

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days: abide ye every man in his place; let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was like^f coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

32 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.

34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it upⁱ before the Testimony, to be kept.

35 And the children of Israel did eat manna^m forty years, until they came to a land inhabited: they did eat manna, until they came unto the bordersⁿ of the land of Canaan.

36 Now an omer^p is the tenth part of an ephah.

CHAPTER XVII.

AND all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin,^q after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink.

2 Wherefore the people did chide^r with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye tempt^t the LORD?

3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?

4 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to stone^u me.

5 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, wherewith thou smotest^w the river, take in thine hand, and go:

6 Behold, I will stand before thee upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall^x come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of the place Massah, and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

8 Then came^a Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said unto ^βJoshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: to morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand.

10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur, went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

12 But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon: and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side: and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek^c from under heaven.

15 And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it JEHOVAH-nissi:

16 For he said, ^γBecause the ^θLORD hath sworn that the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

CHAPTER XVIII.

WHEN^h Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father in law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt,

2 Then Jethro, Moses' father in law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back,

3 And her two sons; of which the name of the one was ^κGershom; for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land:

4 And the name of the other was ^λEliezer; For the God of my father, said he, was mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.

5 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the^μ mount of God:

6 And he said unto Moses, I thy father in law Jethro am come unto thee, and thy wife, and her two sons with her.

7 And Moses went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance,^ο and kissed him: and they asked each other of their welfare; ^πand they came into the tent.

8 And Moses told his father in law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had ^ρcome upon them by the way, and how the LORD^σ delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced^τ for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, Blessed be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh; who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all^υ gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly^φ he was above them.

12 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father in law^β before God.

13 And it came to pass on the morrow that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening.

14 And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even?

15 And Moses said unto his father in law, Because the people come unto^c me to inquire of God:

16 When they have a matter, they come unto me; and I judge between ^γone and another; and I do make them know the statutes of God, and his laws.

17 And Moses' father in law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good.

18 Thou ^δwilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy^d for thee; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone.

19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou for the people^f to Godward, that thou mayest bring the cause unto God:

20 And thou shalt teach them^g ordinances and laws, and shalt shew them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do.

21 Moreover, thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such asⁱ fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness, and place such over them, to be rulers of fifties, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens:

22 And let them judge the people at seasons: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thyself, and thou shalt bear the burden^k with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command^l thee so, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to^m their place in peace.

24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose able men out of Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 And Moses let his father in law depart; and^p he went his way into his own land.

CHAPTER XIX.

IN the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness^q of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from^r Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the mount.

3 And Moses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel:

4 Ye have seen what I did^s unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings,^υ and brought you unto myself.

5 Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then shall be a peculiar^a treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine.

 6 And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests,^b and an holy nation. These be the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.
 7 And Moses came, and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their eyes all these words which the LORD commanded him.
 8 And all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.
 9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee^c in a thick cloud, that I may be heard when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.
 10 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify^d them to day and tomorrow, and let them wash their clothes, 11 And be ready against the third day: for on the third day the LORD will come^e down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.
 12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth^f the mount shall be surely put to death:
 13 There shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.
 14 And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes.
 15 And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come^g not near your wives.
 16 And it came to pass on the third day, in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people at was in the camp^h trembled.
 17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount.
 18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon itⁱ in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly.
 19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice.
 20 And the LORD came down^j upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses went up.
 21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, and charge^k the people, lest they break through unto the LORD^l to gaze, and many of them perish.
 22 And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them.
 23 And Moses said unto the LORD, The people cannot come up to mount Sinai: for thou chargedst us, saying, Set bounds round the mount, and sanctify it.
 24 And the LORD said unto him, Away, get thee down; and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee; but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest he break forth upon them.

CHAPTER XX.

AND God spake all these^e words, saying, 2 I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of^d Egypt, out of the house of^f bondage.

3 Thou shalt have no other^e gods before me.

4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven^g image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

5 Thou shalt not bowⁱ down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous^k God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto^m the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

6 And shewing mercyⁿ unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

7 Thou shalt not take the name^p of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless^q that taketh his name in vain.

8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:

10 But the seventh^s day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any^t work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

11 For in six days^u the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day,^w and hallowed it.

12 Honour^x thy father and thy mother; that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

13 Thou shalt not^z kill.

14 Thou shalt not commit^a adultery.

15 Thou shalt not^b steal.

16 Thou shalt not bear false^c witness against thy neighbour.

17 Thou shalt not covet thy^d neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

18 And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off.

19 And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die.

20 And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye shⁱu not.

21 And the people stood afar off: and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was.

22 And the LORD said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.

23 Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

24 An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen: in all places where I record my name^a I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee.

25 And if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, thou shalt not ^β build it of hewn stone: for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it.

26 Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy nakedness be not discovered thereon.

CHAPTER XXI.

NOW these are the judgments which thou shalt^e set before them.

2 If thou buy an Hebrew servant, six years^g he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

3 If he came in γ by himself, he shall go out by himself: if he were married, then his wife shall go out with him.

4 If his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

5 And if the servant ^δ shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free:

6 Then his master shall bring him unto the judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl; and he shall serve him for ever.

7 And if a mau^k sell his daughter to be a maidservant, she shall not go out asⁱ the menservants do.

8 If she ^ε please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sellⁿ her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully^o with her.

9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

10 If he take him another wife; her food, her raiment, and her duty^q of marriage, shall he not diminish.

11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.

12 He that smiteth^r a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death.

13 And^t if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver him into his hand; then I will appoint thee a place^u whither he shall flee.

14 But if a man come^v presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from mine altar,^y that he may die.

15 And he that smiteth his^a father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

16 And he that stealeth^b a man, and selleth^c him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17 And he that ^θ curseth his father,^d or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

18 And if men strive together, and one smite ^κ another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed:

19 If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote him be quit; only he shall pay for^λ the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

20 And if a mau smite his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall be surely ^μ punished.

21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished:

22 If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow; I shall be surely punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the^b judges determine.

23 And if any mischief follow, the thou shalt give life for life.

24 Eye^c for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 And if a man smite^d the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish, he shall let him go free^f for his eye's sake.

27 And if he smite out his manservant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth; I shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.

28 If an ox gore a man or a woman that they die; then^k the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten but the owner of the ox shall be quit:

29 But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death.

30 If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give, for theⁱ ransom of his life, whatsoever is laid upon him.

31 Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him.

32 If the ox shall push a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master thirty^m shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

33 And if a man shall open a pit, or a mau shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of them; and the dead beast shall be his.

35 And if one man's ox hurt another's that he die, then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide.

36 Or if it be known that the ox hath used to^q push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead shall be his own.

CHAPTER XXII.

IF a man shall steal an ox, or a γ sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four^w sheep for a sheep.

2 If a thief be found^x breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall^y no blood be shed for him.

3 If the suu be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him; for he should make full restitution: if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

4 If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep, he shall^e restore double.

5 If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field; of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard, shall he make^f restitution.

6 If fire break out, and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed therewith, he that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

7 If a man shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and if it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him pay double.

 8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods.
 9 For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour.
 10 If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to keep; and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it:
 11 Then shall an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods; and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good.
 12 And if it be stolen from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof.
 13 If it be torn in pieces, then let him bring it for witness, and he shall not take good that which was torn.
 14 And if a man borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof being not with it, he shall surely make it good.
 15 But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be an untimely thing, it came for his hire.
 16 And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely endow her to be his wife.
 17 If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.
 18 Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live.
 19 Whosoever lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death.
 20 He that sacrificeth unto any god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.
 21 Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.
 22 Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child.
 23 If thou afflict them in any wise, and they cry at all unto me, I will surely hear their cry;
 24 And my wrath shall wax hot, and I will visit you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.
 25 If thou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury.
 26 If thou at all take thy neighbour's money to pledge, thou shalt deliver it to him by that the sun goeth down:
 27 For that is his covering only, it is his raiment for his skin: wherein shall he sleep? and it shall come to pass, when he crieth unto me, that I will hear; for I am gracious.
 28 Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people.
 29 Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors: the first-born of thy sons shalt thou give unto me.
 30 Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen, and with thy sheep: seven days shall be with his dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give it me.

CHAPTER XXIII.

THOU shalt not raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

2 Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil: neither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment.

3 Neither shalt thou countenance a poor man in his cause.

4 If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again.

5 If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee, lying under his burden, and wouldest forbear to help him; thou shalt surely help with him.

6 Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor in his cause.

7 Keep thee far from a false matter; and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not justify the wicked.

8 And thou shalt take no gift; for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

9 Also thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

10 And six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof:

11 But the seventh year thou shalt let it rest and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave, the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy oliveyard.

12 Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest; that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid and the stranger may be refreshed.

13 And in all things that I have said unto you, be circumspect: and make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

14 Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year.

15 Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it thou earnest out from Egypt; and none shall appear before me empty.)

16 And the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in thy field: and the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.

17 Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord God.

18 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of my sacrifice remain until the morning.

19 The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the Lord thy God. Thou shalt not see the kid in his mother's milk.

20 Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.

21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not: for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him.

22 But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy^a unto thine enemies, and an adversary^a unto thine adversaries.

23 For mine Angel^b shall go before thee, and bring thee into the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I will cut them off.

24 Thou shalt not bow down^c to their gods, nor serve them, nor do^d after their works; but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down^e their images.

25 And ye shall serve the LORD^f your God, and he shall bless^g thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness^h away from the midst of thee.

26 There shall nothing cast their young, nor beⁱ barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfil.

27 I will send my fear^j before thee, and will destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come; and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thee.

28 And I will send hornets^k before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before thee.

29 I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.

30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land.

31 And I will set thy^l bounds from the Red Sea^m even unto the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert unto the river: for I will deliver the inhabitants of the landⁿ into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee.

32 Thou shalt make no covenant^o with them, nor with their gods.

33 They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will^p surely be a snare unto thee.

CHAPTER XXIV.

AND he said unto Moses, Come up unto^q the LORD, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy^r of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off.

2 And Moses alone shall come near the LORD; but they shall not come nigh, neither shall the people go up with him.

3 And Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the LORD hath said^s will we do.

4 And Moses wrote^t all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto the LORD.

6 And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the LORD hath said will we do, and be obedient.

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it^u on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

9 Then went up Moses, and Aaron,

Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel;

10 And they saw^c the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a^d sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven^e in his clearness.

11 And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also they saw God, and did eat^f and drink.

12 And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up to me into the^g mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables^h of stone, and a law, andⁱ commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them.

13 And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua; and Moses went up into the mount of God.

14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur are with you; if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

15 And Moses went up into the mount, and a cloud^j covered the mount.

16 And the glory^k of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like^l devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount; and Moses was in the mount^m forty days and forty nights.

CHAPTER XXV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that theyⁿ bring me an offering: of every man that giveth it willingly^o with his heart ye shall take my offering.

3 And this is the offering which ye shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass,

4 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

5 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

6 Oil for the light, spices for anointing oil, and for sweet incense,

7 Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod, and in the breastplate.

8 And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell^p among them.

9 According to all that I shew^q thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it.

10 And they shall make an ark^r of shittim wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold; within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a crown of gold round about.

12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four corners thereof; and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.

13 And thou shalt make staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them.

15 The staves shall be in the rings of the ark; they shall not be taken from it.

16 And thou shalt put into the ark^a the testimony which I shall give thee.
 17 And thou shalt make a^b mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.
 18 And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy seat.
 19 And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end; and the faces of the mercy seat shall ye make of cherubims on the two ends thereof.
 20 And the cherubims shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and their faces shall be toward the mercy seat: toward the mercy seat shall the faces of the cherubims be.
 21 And thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.
 22 And there I will meet with thee, and will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.
 23 Thou shalt also make a table of shittim wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.
 24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereto a crown of gold round about.
 25 And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about.
 26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof.
 27 Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the table.
 28 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, and the table may be borne with them.
 29 And thou shalt make two dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, of pure gold shalt thou make them.
 30 And thou shalt set upon the table shewbread before me always.
 31 And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold; of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, shall be of the same.
 32 And six branches shall come out of the sides of it: three branches of the candlestick out of the one side, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side:
 33 Three bowls made like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a flower; so in the six branches that come out of the candlestick.
 34 And in the candlestick shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers.
 35 And there shall be a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the candlestick.

CHAPTER XXVI.

MOREOVER, thou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work shalt thou make them.

2 The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

3 The five curtains shall be coupled together one to another; and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4 And thou shalt make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain, from the selvedge in the coupling; and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

5 Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second, that the loops may take hold one of another.

6 And thou shalt make fifty taches of gold, and couple the curtains together with the taches; and it shall be one tabernacle.

7 And thou shalt make curtains of goats' hair, to be a covering upon the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt thou make.

8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

11 And thou shalt make fifty taches of brass, and put the taches into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the backside of the tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side, of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.

14 And thou shalt make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins.

15 And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood standing up.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board.

17 Two tenons shall there be in one board, set in order one against another:

thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make the^b boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward.

19 And thou shalt make^c forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side there shall be twenty boards,

21 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

22 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward thou shalt make six boards.

23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

24 And they shall be ^β coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled^γ together above the head of it unto^δ one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.

25 And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

26 And thou shalt make bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, 27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the two sides westward.

28 And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end.

29 And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold.

30 And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the fashion^k thereof which was shewed thee in the mount.

31 And thou shalt make a^l vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, of cunning work: with cherubims shall it be made:

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver.

33 And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the vail the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you between the^o holy place and the most holy.

34 And thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

AND take thou unto thee^a Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons.

2 And thou shalt make^b holy garments for Aaron thy brother, for glory^c and for beauty.

3 And thou shalt speak unto all that are se hearted,^d whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

4 And these are the garments which they shall make;^e a breastplate, and^f an ephod, and^g a robe, and^h a brodered mitre,ⁱ and^k a girdle: and they all make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

5 And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

6 And they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and even twined linen, with cunning work.

7 It shall have the two shoulder pieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joined together.

8 And the β curious girdle of the ephod, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two onyx stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel:

10 Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other one, according to their birth.

11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravingsⁿ of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to be set in ouches of gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall^p bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders for a^q memorial.

13 And thou shalt make ouches of gold;

14 And two chains of pure gold at the ends, of wreathen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the ouches.

15 And thou shalt make^r the breastplate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it.

names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes.

22 And thou shalt make upon the breastplate chains at the ends of wreathen work of pure gold.

23 And thou shalt make upon the breastplate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

24 And thou shalt put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate.

25 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains thou shalt fasten in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulders of the ephod before it.

26 And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them upon the two ends of the breastplate, in the border thereof, which is in the side of the ephod inward.

27 And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart thereof, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

28 And they shall bind the breastplate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the ephod.

29 And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a^l memorial before the LORD continually.

30 And thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment the^m Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the LORD: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart^o before the LORD continually.

31 And thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

32 And there shall be an hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an^r habergeon, that it be not rent.

33 And beneath, upon the^y hem of it, thou shalt make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, round about the hem thereof; and bells of gold between them round about:

34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe round about.

35 And it shall be upon Aaron to minister; and his sound shall be heard when he goeth in^t unto the holy place before the LORD, and when he cometh out, that he die not.

36 And thou shalt make a^u plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

37 And thou shalt put it on a^v blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre, upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be.

38 And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear^w the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be^a accepted before the LORD.

39 And thou shalt embroider the coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the girdle of^c needlework.

40 And for Aaron's sons thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make for them, for^d glory and for beauty.

41 And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him; and shalt^f anoint them, and ^gconsecrate them,^g and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.

42 And thou shalt make themⁱ linen breeches to cover^h their nakedness; from the loins even unto the thighs they shall reach.^h

43 And they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they come in unto the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near untoⁱ the altar to minister in the holy place; that they^m bear not iniquity, and die. It shall be aⁿ statute for ever unto him, and his seed after him.

CHAPTER XXIX.

AND this is the thing that thou shalt do unto^p them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office: Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish,

2 And^q unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: of wheaten flour shalt thou make them.

3 And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams.

4 And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt^r wash them with water.

5 And thou shalt take the^t garments, and put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with the curious girdle of the ephod.

6 And thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the mitre.

7 Then shalt thou take the anointing oil, and pour it upon^u his head, and anoint him.

8 And thou shalt bring his^v sons, and put coats upon them.

9 And thou shalt gird them with girdles, Aaron and his sons, and^z put the bonnets on them: and the priest's office^z shall be theirs for a perpetual statute: and thou shalt^a consecrate Aaron and his sons.

10 And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands^a upon the head of the bullock.

11 And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And thou shalt take of the^b blood of the bullock, and put it upon the horns of the altar with thy finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar.

13 And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and^c the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar.

14 But the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung, shalt thou burn with fire^c without the camp: it is a sin offering.

15 Thou shalt also take one ram; and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the^b head of the ram.

16 And thou shalt slay the ram, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle round about upon the altar.

17 And thou shalt cut the ram in pieces and wash the inwards of him, and his legs and put them unto his pieces, and^β unto his head.

18 And thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt offering unto the LORD: it is a^c sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

19 And thou shalt take the^d other ram and Aaron and his sons shall put the hands upon the head of the ram.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ram, and take of his blood, and put it^k upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of the anointing^o oil, and sprinkle it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

22 Also thou shalt take of the ram the fat and the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder; for it is a ram of consecration.

23 And one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD:

24 And thou shalt put all in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons: and shalt^v wave them for a^a wave offering before the LORD.

25 And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a^a sweet savour before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

26 And thou shalt take^c the breast of the ram of Aaron's consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD: and it shall be thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctify^v the breast of the wave offering, and the shoulder of the heave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons:

28 And it shall be Aaron's and his sons' by a statute for ever from the children of Israel; for it is an heave offering: and it shall be an heave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, even their heave offering unto the LORD.

29 And the holy garments of^c Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

30 And^h that son that is priest in his stead shall put them on^d seven days, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation, to minister in the holy place.

31 And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place.

32 And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the^j bread that is in the basket, by the door of the tabernacle the congregation.

33 And they shall eat^b those things ^{where}with the atonement was made, to ^{con}secrate and to sanctify them: but a ^{man}nger shall^d not eat thereof, because ^{they} are holy.

34 And if ought of the flesh of the ^{con}secrations, or of the bread, remain ^{unto} the morning, then thou shalt^f burn ^{the} remainder with fire: it shall not be ^{eat}ten, because it is holy.

35 And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, ^{and} to his sons, according to all things ^{which} I have commanded thee: seven ^{days} shalt thou ^{con}secrate them.

36 And thou shalt offer^h every day a ^{holocaust} for a sin offering for atonement: ^{and} thou shalt cleanse the altar, when ^{thou} hast made an atonement for it, and ^{thou} shalt anoint it,ⁱ to sanctify it.

37 Seven days thou shalt make an ^{atonement} for the altar, and sanctify it; ^{and} it shall be an altar most holy: what- ^{ever}^m toucheth the altar shall be holy.

38 Now this is that which thou shalt ^{offer} upon the altar;^o two lambs of the ^{first} year, day by day continually.

39 The one lamb thou shalt offer in the ^{morning}, and the other lamb thou shalt ^{offer} at even:

40 And with the one lamb a tenth deal ^{of} flour mingled with the fourth part of ^a hin of beaten oil; and the fourth part ^{of} an hin of wine for a drink offering.

41 And the other lamb thou shalt offer ^{at} even, and shalt do thereto according ^{to} the meat offering of the morning, and ^{according} to the drink offering thereof, ^{for} a sweet savour, an offering made by ^{fire} unto the LORD.

42 This shall be a continual burnt offer- ^{ing} throughout your generations, ^{at} the ^{door} of the tabernacle of the congrega- ^{tion}, before the LORD; where I will^v ^{meet} you, to speak there unto thee.

43 And there I will meet with the chil- ^{dren} of Israel, and ^{the} tabernacle shall ^{be} sanctified^s by my glory.

44 And I will sanctify the tabernacle of ^{the} congregation, and the altar: I will ^{sanctify} also both Aaron and his sons, to ^{minister} to me in the priest's office.

45 And I will^w dwell among the chil- ^{dren} of Israel, and will be their God.

46 And they shall know that^v I am the ^{LORD} their God, that brought them forth ^{out} of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell ^{among} them: I am the LORD their God.

CHAPTER XXX.

AND thou shalt make^x an altar to burn ^{incense} upon; of shittim wood shalt thou ^{make} it.

2 A cubit shall be the length thereof, ^{and} a cubit the breadth thereof; four- ^{square} shall it be: and two cubits shall ^{be} the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be of the same.

3 And thou shalt^y overlay it with pure ^{gold}, the ^{top} thereof, and the ^{sides} ^{thereof} round about, and the horns there- ^{of}: and thou shalt make unto it a crown ^{of} gold round about.

4 And two golden rings shalt thou make ^{to} it under the crown of it, by the two ^{corners} ^{thereof}, upon the two sides of ^{it}: shalt thou make it; and they shall be ^{for} places for the staves to bear it withal.

5 And thou shalt make ^{the} staves^a of ^{shittim} wood, and overlay them with gold.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, ^{saying},

12 When thou takest theⁿ sum of the ^{children} of Israel, after ^ζ their number, ^{then} shall they give every man a^p ransom ^{for} his soul unto the LORD, when thou ^{numberest} them; that there be no^q plague ^{among} them when thou numberest them.

17 And the LORD spake unto Moses, ^{saying},

18 Thou shalt also make a^t laver of ^{brass}, and his foot also of brass, to wash ^{withal}: and thou shalt put it between the ^{tabernacle} of the congregation and the ^{altar}, and thou shalt put water therein:

21 So they shall wash their hands and ^{their} feet, that they die not: and it shall be ^a statute for ever to them, even to him and ^{to} his seed throughout their generations.

22 Moreover, the LORD spake unto ^{Moses}, saying,

27 And the table and all his vessels, and the candlestick and his vessels, and the altar of incense, 28 And the altar of burnt offering with all his vessels, and the laver and his foot.

29 And thou shalt sanctify them, that they may be most holy: ^cwhatsoever toucheth them shall be holy.

30 And thou shalt anoint Aarou and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.

31 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, This shall be an holy anointing oil unto me throughout your generations.

32 Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured; neither shall ye make any other like it, after the composition of it: it is holy,ⁱ and it shall be holy unto you.

33 Whosoever compoundeth any like it, or whosoever putteth any of it upon a stranger, shall even be cut off from his people.

34 And the LORD said unto Moses, Take unto thee sweet^m spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices, with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight:

35 And thou shalt make it a perfume, a confection after the art of the apothecary, ^dtempered together, pure and holy:

36 And thou shalt beat some of it very small, and put of it before the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where^a I will meet with thee: it shall be unto you most holy.

CHAPTER XXXII.

AND when the people saw that Moses delayed^p to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods,^r which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt,^s we wot not what is become of him.

2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the^t golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

4 And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a^u molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

5 And when Aarou saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aarou made^v proclamation, and said, To morrow is a feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people^a sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

7 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have^c corrupted themselves:

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

10 Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may^d wax hot against them, and at I may consume them; and^a I will ake of thee a great nation.

1 And Moses besought^δ the LORD his od, and said, LORD, why^b doth thy wrath x hot against thy people, which thou st brought forth out of the land of Egypt
th great power, and with a mighty hand?
2 Wherefore should the^c Egyptians eak and say, For mischief did he bring em ont, to slay them in the mountains, d to consume them from the face of the rth? Turn^θ thy fierce wrath, and pent^h of this evil against thy people.
3 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Isel, thy servants, to whom thou^k swarest thine own self, and saidst unto them, will multiply your seed as the stars of even; and all this land that I have oken of will I give unto your seed, and ey shall inherit it for ever.
4 And the LORD^o repented of the evil hich he thought to do unto his people.
5 And Moses turned, and went down om the mount, and the two tables of the stimony were in his hand: the tables were ritten on both their sides: on the one le and on the other were they written.
6 And the tables were the work of od, and the writing was^r the writing of od, graven upon the tables.
7 And when Joshna heard the noise of e people as they shonted, he said unto oses, There is a noise of war in the camp.
8 And he said, It is not the voice of them at shont for mastery, neither is it the voice them that cry for being overcome;
t the noise of them that sing do I hear.
9 And it came to pass, as soon as he me nigh unto the camp, that he saw the lf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger xed hot, and he cast the tables out of his nds, and brake them beneath the mount.
20 And he took the calf which they had ade, and^e burnt it in the fire, and gronnd to powder, and strawed it upon the water,
d made the children of Israel drink of it.
21 And Moses said unto Aaron,^t What d this people unto thee, that thou hast ought so great a sin upon them?
22 And Aaron said, Let not the anger my lord wax hot: thou knowest the ople, that they are set^v on mischief.
23 For they said unto me,^w Make us ds, which shall go before us: for as for is Moses, the man that brought us up it of the land of Egypt, we wot not at is become of him.
24 And I said unto them, Whosoever th any gold, let them break it off. So ey gave it me: then I cast it into the e,^y and there came out this calf.
25 And when Moses saw that the peo-e were naked; (for Aaron had made em naked^z unto their shame among eir enemies.)
26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the mp, and said, Who is on the LORD's le? let him come unto me. And all the ns of Levi gathered themselves toge-er unto him.
27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the ORD God of Israel, Put every man his vord by his side, and go in and ont from te to gate throughout the camp, and^b slay very man his brother, and every man his mpanion, and every man his neighbour.
28 And the children of Levi^d did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the ople that day about three thousand men.

^ν Mal. 2. 4. 6.

29 ^β For Moses had said, ^γ Consecrate yourselves to day to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you^c a blessing
this day.

30 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people,^d Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; peradventure I shall^f make an atonement for your sin.

31 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them^g gods of gold;

32 Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not,^h blot me, I pray thee, out of^m thy book which thou hast written.

33 And the LORD said unto Moses,
Whosoever hath sinned against me,^a him will I blot out of my book.

34 Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: behold, mine Angelⁿ shall go before thee: nevertheless in the day when I visit^q I will visit their sin upon them.

35 And the LORD plagned the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Depart, and go up hence, thou and the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I swore unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it:

2 And I will send an angel before thee; and I will drive ont the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:

3 Unto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee; for thou art a stiffnecked people;
lest I consume thee in the way.

4 And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned; and uo man did put on him his ornaments.

5 For the LORD had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiffnecked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off^u thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee.

6 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb.

7 And Moses took the^x tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the clondy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD^a talked with Moses.

10 And all the people saw the clondy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door.

11 And the LORD spake unto^c Moses faeo to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend.
And he turned again into the camp: but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12 And Moses said unto the LORD, See, thou sayest unto me,^a Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know thee^d by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight,^h shew me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight; and considerⁱ that this nation is thy people.

14 And he said, My presence^e shall go with thee, and I will give thee^m rest.

15 And he said unto him, If thy presence go not^o with me, carry us not up hence.

16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? is it not in that thou goest with us? so^p shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17 And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory.

19 And he said, I will make all my goodness^a pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; and will be gracious^t to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy.

20 And he said, Thou canst not see^v my face; for there shall no man see me, and live.

21 And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock:

22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand while I pass by:

23 And I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my back parts; but my face shall not be seen.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first; and I will write^v upon these tables the words that were in the first tables, which thou brakest.

2 And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning unto mount Sinai, and present thyself there to me in the top of the mount.

3 And no man shall^a come up with thee, neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

4 And he hewed two tables of stone like unto the first: and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone.

5 And the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name^e of the LORD.

6 And the LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, The LORD, The LORD God,^g merciful and gracious, longsuffering, and abundant in goodness^h and truth,

7 Keeping mercy for thousands,ⁱ forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity^m of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, unto the third and to the fourth generation.

8 And Moses made haste, and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped.

9 And he said, If now I have found grace in thy sight, O Lord, let my Lord, I pray thee,^h go among us; for it is a^c stiffnecked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for^e thine inheritance.

10 And he said, Behold, I make^f a covenant: before all thy people I will^g do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and a the people among which thou art shalt see the work of the LORD; for it is a terrible thing that I will do with thee.

11 Observe thou that which I command thee this day: behold, I drive^a out before thee the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite.

12 Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for^e snare in the midst of thee:

13 But ye shall destroy their altars, break their^β images, and cut down their groves:

14 For thou shalt worship^r no other god: for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God:

15 Lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice:

16 And thou take of^u their daughter unto thy sons, and their daughters go: whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring after their gods.

17 Thou shalt make thee no molten gods:

18 The feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread,^w as I commanded thee in the time of the month Abib: for in the month Abib thou camest out from Egypt.

19 All^x that openeth the matrix is mine and every firstling among thy cattle whether ox or sheep, that is male.

20 But the firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a ^y lamb: and if thou redeem him not, then shalt thou break his neck. All the firstborn of thy sons thou shalt redeem. And none shall appear before me empty.

21 Six days^z thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in earing time and in harvest thou shalt rest.

22 And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the^δ year's end.

23 Thrice^b in the year shall all your men children appear before the LORD God, the God of Israel.

24 For I will cast out the nations^c before thee, and enlarge thy borders: neither shall any man^d desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the LORD thy God thrice in the year.

25 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left unto the morning.

26 The first of the^e firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe^k a kid in his mother's milk.

27 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write thou^l these words: for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel.

28 And he was there with the LORD forty daysⁿ and forty nights; he did neither eat ad, nor drink water. And he^a wrote on the tables the words of the covenant, the ten^b commandments.

9 And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the tables of testimony in Moses' hand, that he came down from the mount, and Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone^d while he talked with him.
10 And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone: and they were afraid to come nigh him.
11 And Moses called unto them; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him: and Moses talked with them.
12 And afterward all the children of Israel came nigh: and he gave them in commandment^e all that the LORD had spoken with him in mount Sinai.
13 And till Moses had done speaking unto them, he put a vail^g on his face.
14 But when Moses went in before the LORD, to speak with him, he took the vail off, until he came out. And he came out, and spake unto the children of Israel that which he was commanded.
15 And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone: and Moses put the vail upon his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

CHAPTER XXXV.

16 And Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them, ^hThese are the words which the LORD hath commanded, that ye should do them.

17 Six days' shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you a holy day, a sabbath of rest to the LORD: whosoever doeth work therein shall be put to death.

18 Ye shall kindle no^m fire throughout your habitations upon the sabbath day.

19 And Moses spake unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, saying,

20 Take ye from among you an offering unto the LORD: whosoever is of aⁿ willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of gold, silver, and brass,

21 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

22 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

23 And oil for the light, and spices for anointing oil, and for the sweet incense, 24 And onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod, and for the breastplate.

25 And every wise hearted among you shall come, and make all that the LORD hath commanded;

26 The tabernacle, his tent, and his covering, his tables, and his boards, his pillars, and his sockets,

27 The ark and the staves thereof, with the mercy seat, and the vail of the covering,

28 The table, and his staves, and all his vessels, and the^v showbread,

29 The candlestick also for the light, and his furniture, and his lamps, with oil for the light,

30 And the^w incense altar, and his vessels, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the door at the entering in of the tabernacle,

31 The altar of burnt offering, with his brazen grate, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot, 17 The hangings^b of the court, his pillars, and their sockets, and the hanging for the door of the court,

18 The pins of the tabernacle, and the pins of the court, and their cords, 19 The cloths^c of service, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.

20 And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And they came, every one^e whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the LORD's offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments.

22 And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought bracelets, and earrings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold: and every man that offered, offered an offering of gold unto the LORD.

23 And every man with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them.

24 Every one that did offer an offering of silver and brass, brought the LORD's offering: and every man with whom was found shittim wood, for any work of the service, brought it.

25 And all the women that were wise hearted didⁱ spin with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.

26 And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun goats' hair.

27 And^j the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set, for the ephod, and for the breastplate:

28 And^k spice, and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.

29 The children of Israel brought a willing^o offering unto the LORD, every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring, for all manner of work which the LORD had commanded to be made by the hand of Moses.

30 And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, the LORD hath called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:

31 And he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship;

32 And to devise curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, 33 And in the cutting of stones to set them, and in carving of wood, to make any manner of cunning work.

34 And he hath^s put in his heart that he may teach, both he and Aholiab the son of Ahisamael, of the tribe of Dan.

35 Them hath he filled^u with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of them that do any work, and of those that devise cunning work.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

36 THEN wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every^x wise hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding, to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the ^a sanctuary, according to all that the LORD had commanded.

2 And Moses called Bezalcel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even every one whose heart ^b stirred him up to come unto the work to do it:

3 And they received of Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it withal. And they brought yet unto him free offerings every morning.

4 And all the wise ^c men, that wrought all the work ^d of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made;

5 And they spake unto Moses, saying, The people bring much ^e more than enough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to make.

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing.

7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, ^g and too much.

8 And every wise hearted man among them that wrought the work of the tabernacle made teu^h curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work made he them.

9 The length of one curtain was twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: the curtains were all of one size.

10 And he coupled the five curtains one unto another; and the other five curtains he coupled one unto another.

11 And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

12 Fiftyⁱ loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second. The loops held one curtain to another.

13 And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches: so it became ⁿ one tabernacle.

14 And he made curtains of ^o goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them.

15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

18 And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 And he made a covering ^r for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above that.

20 And he made^s boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood, ^u standing up.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half.

22 One board had two tenons, equally distant one from another: thus did he

23 And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward.

24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, which is toward the north corner he made twenty boards,

26 And their forty sockets of silver two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

27 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

29 And they were ^β coupled beneath and coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.

30 And there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, ^γ under every board two sockets.

31 And he made ^δ bars of shittim wood: five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle,

32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 And he made a ^ι vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubims made he it of cunning work.

36 And he made thereunto four pillars of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 And he made an ^κ hanging for the tabernacle door of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, ^δ of ^m needlework;

38 And the five pillars of it with their hooks: and he overlaid their chapters and their fillets with gold; but their five sockets were of brass.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

AND Bezaleel made the ^ρ ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it:

2 And he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a crown of gold to it round about.

3 And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be set by the four corners of it; even two rings upon the one side of it, and two rings upon the other side of it.

4 And he made staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

5 And he put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

6 And he made the mercy seat ^α of pure gold: two cubits and a half was the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

7 And he made two ^τ cherubims of gold, beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the mercy seat:

8 One cherub ^ς on the end on this side; and another cherub ^ν on the other end on that side: out of the mercy seat made he cherubims on the two euds thereof.

 And the cherubims^a spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy seat, with their faces turned to another; even to the^b mercy seat.
 These were the faces of the cherubims.
 And he made the^c table of shittim wood: two eubits was the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof:
 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a crown of gold round about.
 And he made thereunto a border of handbreadth round about; and made a crown of gold for the border thereof,
 round about.
 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners thereof, in the four feet thereof.
 Over against the border were the rings, places for the staves to bear the table.
 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table.
 And he made the vessels which were on the table, his^c dishes, and his spoons, and his bowls, and his covers^d to cover the table, of pure gold.
 And he made the^e candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work made he the candlestick; his shaft, and his branch, his bowls, and his flowers, were of the same:
 And six branches going out of the shaft thereof; three branches of the candlestick out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side thereof:
 And three bowls made after the fashion of almonds in one branch, a knob and a flower; and three bowls made like almonds in another branch, a knob and a flower; so throughout the six branches going out of the candlestick.
 And in the candlestick were four knobs made like almonds, his knobs, and his flowers:
 And a knob under two branches of the same, and a knob under two branches of the same, and a knob under two branches of the same, according to the branches going out of it.
 Their knobs and their branches were of the same: all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.
 And he made his seven lamps, and his snuffers, and his snuffdishes, of pure gold.
 Of a talent of pure gold made he it,
 and all the vessels thereof.
 And he made the incense^h altar of shittim wood: the length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit; it was foursquare, and two eubits was the height of the horns thereof were of the same.
 And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made a crown of gold round about.
 And he made two rings of gold for it to bear the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to places for the staves to bear it withal.
 And he made the staves of shittim
 wood, and overlaid them with gold.
 And he made^m the holy anointing oil, and the pureⁿ incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the apothecary.

ing of shittim wood: five eubits was the length thereof, and five eubits the breadth thereof; it was foursquare; and three eubits the height thereof.

2 And he made the horns thereof on the four corners of it; the horns thereof were of the same: and he overlaid it with brass.

3 And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basins, and the fleshhooks, and the firepans: all the vessels thereof made he of brass.

4 And he made for the altar a brazen grate of network under the compass thereof beneath unto the midst of it.

5 And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of brass, to be places for the staves.

6 And he made the staves of shittim
 wood, and overlaid them with brass.

7 And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it withal:
 he made the altar hollow with boards.

8 And he made the^a laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass, of the^β looking-glasses of the women ^γ assembling, which assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

9 And he made^δ the court: on the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, an hundred eubits:

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brazen sockets twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.

11 And for the north side the hangings were an hundred eubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty;
 the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

12 And for the west side were hangings of fifty eubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

13 And for the east side eastward fifty eubits.

14 The hangings of the one side of the gate were fifteen eubits; their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And for the other side of the court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen eubits; their pillars
 three, and their sockets three.

16 All the hangings of the court round about were of fine twined linen.

17 And the sockets for the pillars were of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver; and the overlaying of their chapters of silver: and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.

18 And the hanging for the gate of the court was needlework, *of*ⁱ blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; and twenty eubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five eubits, answerable to the hangings of the court.

19 And their pillars were four, and their sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their chapters and their fillets of silver.

20 And all the^k pins of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of brass.

21 This is the sum of the tabernacle, even of the^l tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of^o Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest.

22 And^p Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that and the LORD commanded Moses.

23 And with him was^a Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen.

24 All the gold^b that was occupied for the work in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel^d of the sanctuary.

25 And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary:

26 A bekah for every man, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for^e every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward,^f for six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men.

27 And of the hundred talents of silver were cast^h the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the vail; an hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapiters, andⁱ filleted them.

29 And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels.

30 And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the brazen altar, and the brazen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar,

31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

AND ofⁱ the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made^m cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron; as the LORDⁿ commanded Moses.

2 And he made the ephod^o of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with cunning work.

4 They made shoulderpieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was it coupled together.

5 And the curious girdle of his ephod, that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Moses.

6 And they wrought onyx stones inclosed in ouches of gold, graven, as signets are graven,^u with the names of the children of Israel.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the ephod, that they should be stones for a memorial^w to the children of Israel; as the LORD commanded Moses.

8 And he made the^z breastplate of cunning work, like the work of the ephod; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 It was foursquare; they made the breastplate double: a span was the length thereof, and a span the breadth thereof, being doubled.

10 And they set in it four rows^a of stones: the first row was a sardius, a to-

11 And the second row, an emerald sapphire, and a diamond.

12 And the third row, a ligure, agate, and an amethyst.

13 And the fourth row, a beryl, onyx, and a jasper: they were inclosed ouches of gold in their inclosings.

14 And the stones were according to names of the children of Israel,^c twel according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name according to the twelve tribes.

15 And they made upon the breastplate chains at the ends, of wreathen work pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold and two gold rings, and put the two rings in the two ends of the breastplate.

17 And they put the two^g wreath chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate.

18 And the two ends of the two wreath chains they fastened in the two ouches and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod, before it.

19 And they made two rings of gold and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, upon the border of it, which was on the side of the ephod inward.

20 And they made two other gold rings, and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forefront, it, over against the other coupling there above the curious girdle of the ephod.

21 And they did bind the breastplate with his rings unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the ephod: as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 And he made the robe^k of the ephod of woven work, all of blue.

23 And there was an hole in the middle of the robe, as the hole of an habergeon with a band round about the hole, that should not rend.

24 And they made upon the hems of the robe pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen.

25 And they made^p bells of pure gold and put the bells between the^q pomegranates upon the hem of the robe, round about between the pomegranates;

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, round about the hem of the robe to minister in; as the LORD commanded Moses.

27 And they made^r coats of fine linen of woven work, for Aaron and for his sons.

28 And a^s mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and^t linen breeches of fine twined linen, 29 And a^v girdle of fine twined linen and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needlework; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 And they made the plate of the forehead of pure gold, and wrote upon it writing, like to the engravings of a signet HOLINESS^y TO THE LORD.

31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue to fasten it on high upon the mitre; as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 Thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished: and the children of Israel^z did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.

33 And they brought the tabernacle

o Moses, the tent, and all his furniture, his taches, his boards, his bars, and pillars, and his sockets, 4 And the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of badgers' skins, and the vail of the covering,
 5 The ark of the testimony, and the vessels thereof, and the mercy seat,
 6 The table, and all the vessels thereof, the showbread,
 7 The pure candlestick, with the lamps thereof, even with the lamps to be set in it, and all the vessels thereof, and the oil for light,
 8 And the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and ^βthe sweet incense, and the hanging for the tabernacle door,
 9 The brazen altar, and his grate of brass, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot,
 10 The hangings of the court, his pillars, and his sockets, and the hanging for the court gate, his cords, and his pins, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation, 11 The cloths^f of service to do service in the holy place, and the holy garments of Aaron the priest, and his sons' garments, to minister in the priest's office.
 12 According to all that the LORD commanded Moses,ⁱ so the children of Israel made all the work.
 13 And Moses did look upon all the work, and, behold, they had done it as the LORD had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses^j blessed them.

CHAPTER XL.

1 AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
 2 On the first day^k of the first month shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the testimony of the congregation.
 3 And thou shalt put therein the ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the gold, and precious stones.
 4 And thou shalt bring in the table, and set upon it the things that are to be^l set in it, and thou shalt bring in the candlestick, and light the lamps thereof.
 5 And thou shalt set the altar of gold before the ark of the testimony, and put the hanging of the door of the tabernacle.
 6 And thou shalt set the altar of the burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.
 7 And thou shalt set the^m laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shalt put water therein.
 8 And thou shalt set up the court round about, and hang up the hanging at the court gate.
 9 And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and shalt hallow it, and all the vessels thereof: and it shall be holy.
 10 And thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt offering, and all his vessels, and sanctify the altar: andⁿ it shall be an altar most holy.
 11 And thou shalt anoint the laver and its foot, and sanctify it.
 12 And thou shalt bring^o Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water.
 13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and^p anoint him,^q and sanctify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.
 14 And thou shalt bring his sons, and clothe them with coats :

15 And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office: for their anointing shall surely be^a an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.

16 Thus did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he.

17 And it came to pass in the^b first month in the second year, on the first day^c of the month, that the tabernacle was reared up.

18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the LORD commanded Moses.

20 And he took and put^c the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the^d mercy seat above upon the ark :

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the^e vail of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses.

22 And he put the^f table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle^g northward, without the vail.

23 And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

24 And he put the candlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward.

25 And he lighted^h the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

26 And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation before the vail :

27 And he burntⁱ sweet incense thereon; as the LORD commanded Moses.

28 And he set up the hanging at the door of the tabernacle.

29 And he put the^j altar of burnt offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the meat offering; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 And he set the^k laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash^l withal.

31 And Moses, and Aaron, and his sons, washed their hands and their feet thereat :

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; ^m as the LORD commanded Moses.

33 And he reared upⁿ the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate. So Moses finished the work.

34 Then a cloud^o covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

35 And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloud^p was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel^q went onward in all their journeys :

37 But if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not^r till the day that it was taken up.

38 For the cloud of the LORD^s was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

The Third Book of MOSES, called LEVITICUS.

CHAPTER I.

AND the LORD called unto Moses, and spake unto him^b out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you^c bring an offering unto the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock.

3 If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male^e without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD.

4 And he shall put his hand^f upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be^g accepted for him, to make^h atonement for him.

5 And he shall kill the bullock before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, and sprinkle^k the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And he shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into his pieces.

7 And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire:

8 And the priests, Aaron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar:

9 But his inwards and his legs shall he wash in water: and the priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a^m sweet savour unto the LORD.

10 And if his offering be of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring it a male without blemish.

11 And he shall kill it on the side of the altarⁿ northward before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall sprinkle his blood round about upon the altar:

12 And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar.

13 But he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

14 And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the LORD be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of^r turtledoves, or of young pigeons.

15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and ⁸wring off his head, and burn it on the altar; and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar:

16 And he shall pluck away his crop with his ⁵feathers, and cast it beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes:

17 And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, but shall not^t divide it asunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour^v unto the LORD.

CHAPTER II.

AND when any will offer^a a meat offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon:

2 And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: and the priest shall burn^d the memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD:

3 And the remnant of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

4 And if thou bring an oblation of a meat offering baken in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafersⁱ anointed with oil.

5 And if thy oblation be a meat offering baken ^β in a pan, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil.

6 Thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it is a meat offering.

7 And if thy oblation be a meat offering baken in the fryingpan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

8 And thou shalt bring the meat offering that is made of these things unto the LORD: and when it is presented unto the priest, he shall bring it unto the altar.

9 And the priest shall take from the meat offering aⁱ memorial thereof, and shall burn it upon the altar: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

10 And that which is left of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

11 No meat offering, which ye shall bring unto the LORD, shall be made with leaven: ^o for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering of the LORD made by fire.

12 As for the oblation of the^p firstfruits, ye shall offer them unto the LORD: but they shall not ^γbe burnt on the altar for a sweet savour.

13 And every oblation of thy meat offering shalt thou season with^q salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat offering: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt.

14 And if thou offer a meat offering of thy firstfruits unto the LORD, thou shalt offer for the meat offering of thy firstfruits green ears of corn dried by the fire, even corn beaten out^s of full ears.

15 And thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it is a meat offering.

16 And the priest shall burn the memorial of it, part of the beaten corn thereof, and part of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

CHAPTER III.

mish unto the LORD for a sin offering.

4 And he shall bring the bullock^c unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD; and shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD.

5 And the priest that is anointed^d shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation:

6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the^f blood seven times before the LORD, before the vail of the sanctuary.

7 And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the^g horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottomⁱ of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock for the sin offering; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

9 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away,

10 As it was taken off from the bullock of the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt offering.

11 And the skin of the bullock, and all his flesh, with his head, and with his legs, and his inwards, and his dung,

12 Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth ^δwithout the camp unto a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn^o him on the wood with fire: ^ζwhere the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt.

13 And if the^q whole congregation of Israel sin through ignorance, and the thing be^s hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD, concerning things which should not be done, and^t are guilty;

14 When the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands^u upon the head of the bullock before the LORD; and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD.

16 And the priest^v that is anointed shall bring of the bullock's blood to the tabernacle of the congregation:

17 And the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, even before the vail.

18 And he shall put some of the blood upon the^y horns of the altar which is before the LORD, that is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

19 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn it upon the altar.

20 And he shall do with the bullock as he did^b with the bullock for a sin offering, so shall he do with this: and the priest shall make^c an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21 And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn him as he burned the^a first bullock: it is a sin offering for the congregation.

22 When a ruler hath sinned, and done somewhat through^c ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD his God, concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty;

23 Or if his sin, wherein he hath sinned, come^f to his knowledge; he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish:

24 And he shall lay his hand^h upon the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD: it is a sin offering.

25 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering^k with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out his blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering.

26 And he shall burn all his fat upon the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice^l of peace offerings: and the priest shall make an^m atonement for him as concerning his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

27 And if ^γany one of the ^δcommon people^o sin through ignorance, while he doeth somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done,^v and be guilty;

28 Or if his sin, which he hath sinned,^a come to his knowledge; then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath sinned.

29 And he shall lay his hand^t upon the head of the sin offering, and slay the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering.

30 And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar.

31 And he shall take away all the fat thereof,^z as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar for a^v sweet savour unto the LORD: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

32 And if he bring a lamb for a sin offering, he shall bring it a^a female without blemish.

33 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering, and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering.

34 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar:

35 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar, according to the^f offerings made by fire unto the LORD: and the priest shall make an^h atonement for his sin that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

the carcase of unclean creeping thing and if it be hidden from him; he also shall be unclean, and^b guilty.

3 Or if he touch^d the uncleanness of a man, whatsoever uncleanness it be that a man shall be defiled withal, and he be hid from him; when^e he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty.

4 Or if a soul swear, pronounce with his lips^g to do evil, or to do good, whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these.

5 And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shallⁱ confess that he hath sinned in that thing:

6 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, for his sin which he hath sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin.

7 And if^β he be notⁿ able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass, which he hath committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, unto the LORD; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering.

8 And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and^r wring off his head from his neck, but shall not divide it asunder:

9 And he shall sprinkle^s of the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar: it is a sin offering.

10 And he shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the manner: and the priest shall^u make an atonement for him for his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be^v forgiven him.

11 But if he be not^w able to bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall put^z no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense thereon: for it is a sin offering.

12 Then shall he bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, even a^b memorial thereof, and burn it on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: it is a sin offering.

13 And the priest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sin that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him: and the remnant^c shall be the priest's, as a meat offering.

14 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

15 If a soul commit a trespass, and sin through ignorance,^d in the holy things of the LORD; then he shall bring, for his trespass unto the LORD,^e a ram without blemish out of the flocks, with thy estimation by shekels of silver, after^g the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering:

16 And he shall make amends for the harm that he hath done in the holy thing, and shall add the fifth part thereto, and give it unto the priest: and the priestⁱ shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

17 And if a^o soul sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD;

ough he wist it not,^a yet is he guilty, I shall bear his iniquity.
8 And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, a trespass offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and wist it not; and it shall be forgiven him.
9 It is a trespass offering: he hath certainly^b trespassed against the LORD.

CHAPTER VI.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, If a soul sin, and commit a trespass against the LORD, and^d lie unto his neighbour in that which was^e delivered unto him to keep, or in ^βfellowship, or in a thing taken away by violence, or^g hath deceived his neighbour;

Or have found^h that which was lost, and lieth concerning it, andⁱ sweareth falsely; in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein:

Then it shall be, because he hath sinned, and is guilty, that he shall restore unto him to whom he took violently away, or the thing which he hath deceitfully gotten, that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found,

Or all that about which he hath sworn falsely; he shall even^l restore it unto the principal, and shall add the fifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it appertaineth, ^γin the day of trespass offering.

And he shall bring his trespass offering; unto the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, a trespass offering, unto the priest:

And the priest shallⁿ make an atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him for any thing of^p all that he hath done in trespassing therein.

And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering: it is the burnt offering, ^δbecause of the bringing upon the altar all night^a unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it.

And the priest shall put on^t his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh, and take up the ashes which the fire hath consumed with the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.

And he shall put off his garments, and wash on^o other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the camp unto a clean place.

And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it, it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it, and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace offerings.

The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar: it shall never go out.

And this is the^a law of the meat offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer before the LORD, before the altar.

And he shall take of it his handful, the flour of the meat offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the meat offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, unto the memorial of it, unto the LORD.

And the remainder thereof^b shall Aaron and his sons eat: with unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it.

17 It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it unto them for their portion of my offerings made by fire; it is most holy, as is the sin offering, and as the trespass offering.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations, concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire: every one that toucheth them shall^c be holy.

19 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

20 This is the offering of^f Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day when he is anointed; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meat offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night.

21 In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when it is baked, thou shalt bring it in: and the baked pieces of the meat offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

22 And the priest of his sons that is anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a statute for ever unto the LORD;^k it shall be wholly burnt:

23 For every meat offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.

24 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

25 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the^m sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the LORD: it is^o most holy.

26 The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it: in the holy place^q shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof^r shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it was sprinkled in the holy place.

28 But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden shall be broken; and if it be sodden in a brazen pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water.

29 All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy.

30 And no sin offering, whereof any of the blood^u is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation, to reconcile withal in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire.

CHAPTER VII.

LIKEWISE this is the law of the trespass offering:^w it is most holy.

2 In the place where they kill the burnt offering shall they kill^x the trespass offering: and the blood thereof shall he sprinkle round about^y upon the altar.

3 And he shall offer of it^z all the fat thereof; the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards,

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away:

5 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a trespass offering.

6 Every male among the priests^c shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy.

7 As the sin offering is, so is the^a trespass offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it.

8 And the priest that offereth any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered.

9 And all the meat offering that is baken in the oven, and all that is dressed in the fryingpan, and β in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it.

10 And every meat offering, mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another.

11 And this is the law of the sacrifice of^e peace offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD.

12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers^g anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried.

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering leavened breadⁱ with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings.

14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for an^k heave offering unto the LORD, and it shall be the priest's that sprinkleth the blood of the peace offerings.

15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten^l the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.

16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten:

17 But the remainder of the flesh^m of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be anⁿ abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity.

19 And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.

20 But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that pertain unto the LORD,^a having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

21 Moreover the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, as^z the uncleanness of man, or any unclean beast, or any^v abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which pertain unto the LORD, even that soul shall be^z cut off from his people.

22 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

24 And the fat of the γ beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use; but ye shall in no wise^a eat of it.

25 For whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eateth it shall be cut off from his people.

28 And the LORD spake unto Moses saying,

29 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, He that offereth the sacrifice of his^c peace offerings unto the LORD shall bring his oblation unto the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace offerings.

30 His own hands^d shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire; the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for^f a wave offering before the LORD.

31 And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar; but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

33 He among the sons of Aaron, that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

34 For the wave breast and the heave shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel from off the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons, by a statute for ever from among the children of Israel.

35 This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister unto the LORD in the priest's office;

36 Which the LORD commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, in the day that heⁿ anointed them, by a statute for ever throughout their generations.

37 This is the law^o of the burnt offering, of the meat offering, and of the sin offering, and of the^p trespass offering, and of the consecrations, and^r of the sacrifice of the peace offerings;

38 Which the LORD commanded Moses in mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to offer their oblations unto the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

CHAPTER VIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Take Aaron^t and his sons with him, and^v the garments, and^w the anointing oil, and a bullock for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread;

3 And gather thou all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him; and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And Moses said unto the congregation, This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons,^b and washed them with water.

7 And he put upon him the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it o him therewith.

And he put the breastplate upon ^a; also he put in the breastplate the ^b and the Thummim.

And he put the mitre upon his head: upon the mitre, even upon his forehead, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle, and all that therein, and sanctified them.

And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar with all his vessels, both the laver and the foot, to sanctify them.

And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him.

And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bounnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he brought the bullock for the offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering.

And he slew it; and Moses took blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it.

And he took all the fat that was on the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it upon the altar.

But the bullock, and his hide, his flesh, his dung, he burnt with fire without the camp; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he brought the ram for the burnt offering: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

And he killed it; and Moses sprinkled blood upon the altar round about.

And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moses burnt the head, and the inwards, and the fat.

And he washed the inwards and the legs in water; and Moses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt offering for a sweet savour, and an offering made by fire unto the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

And he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

And he slew it; and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aaron's right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

And he brought Aaron's sons, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet; and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

And he took the fat, and the rump, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder:

And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took a cake of unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder:

And he put all upon Aaron's hands, and upon his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the LORD.

28 And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar upon the burnt offering: they were consecrations for a sweet savour: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

29 And Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD: for of the ram of consecration it was Moses' part; as the LORD commanded Moses.

30 And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his sons' garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

31 And Moses said unto Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32 And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn with fire.

33 And ye shall not go out of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation in seven days, until the days of your consecration be at an end: for seven days shall he consecrate you.

34 As he hath done this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night, seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER IX.

AND it came to pass on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel;

2 And he said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering;

4 Also a bullock and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and a meat offering mingled with oil: for to day the LORD will appear unto you.

5 And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.

6 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do; and the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and offer thy sin offering, and thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for the people; and offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

8 Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him; and he dipped his finger in the blood, and^a put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar:

10 But the fat,^b and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the altar; as the LORD commanded Moses.

11 And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp.

12 And he slew the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

14 And he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the altar.

15 And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it^k for sin, as the first.

16 And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it according to the manner.

17 And he brought the meat offering, and took an handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, beside the burnt sacrifice^m of the morning.

18 He slew also the bullock and the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings,ⁿ which was for the people: and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about,

19 And the fat of the bullock, and of the ram, the rump, and that which covereth the inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver:

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the altar:

21 And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved for a wave offering^p before the LORD; as Moses commanded.

22 And Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people, and blessed them, and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD^r appeared unto all the people.

24 And there came a fire^s out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, they^t shouted, and fell on their faces.

CHAPTER X.

AND Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered^u strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not.

2 And there went out fire^v from the LORD, and devoured them; and^w they died before the LORD.

3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified^y in them that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be^z glorified. And Aaron^b held his peace.

4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.

5 So they went near, and^c carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moses had said.

6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, cover^e not your heads, neither rend^f your clothes; lest ye die, and lest^g wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD hath kindled.

7 And ye shall not go out^h from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: for the anointing oil of the LORD isⁱ upon you. And they according to the word of Moses.

8 And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying,

9 Do not drink^k wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye enter into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for^l you throughout your generations;

10 And that ye may put^m difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean;

11 And that ye may teachⁿ the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.

12 And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take the meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven beside the altar: for it is most holy:

13 And ye shall eat it in the^o holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for so I am commanded.

14 And the wave breast and the shoulder shall ye eat in a clean place, thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they be thy due, and thy sons' due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel.

15 The wave breast and the shoulder shall they bring, with the offering made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before the LORD; and shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee by a statute for ever; as the LORD hath commanded.

16 And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron which were left alive, saying,

17 Wherefore have ye not eaten the offering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it you to be the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD?

18 Behold, the blood of it was brought in within the holy place: should indeed have eaten it in the holy place,^p as I commanded.

19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold this day have they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things have befallen me: and if I had eaten the sin offering to day, should it have been accepted^q in the sight of the LORD?

20 And when Moses heard that, he was content.

CHAPTER XI.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying unto them,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, These are the beasts which eat^a among all the beasts that are the earth.

Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is enfooted,^b and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that shall ye eat.
Nevertheless, these shall ye not eat, them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: as the camel, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth
the hoof; he is unclean unto you.
And the coney, because he cheweth the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.
And the hare, because he cheweth
the cud, but divideth not the hoof; he is unclean unto you.
And the swine, though he divide the hoof, and be clovenfooted, yet he cheweth not the cud; he is unclean to you.
Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcase shall ye not touch:^c they are unclean to you.
These shall ye eat, of all that are in the waters:^d whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shall ye eat.
And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that creep in the waters, and of any living creature which is in the waters, they shall be an abomination unto you:
They shall be even an abomination unto you; ye shall not eat of their flesh, ye shall have their carcases in abomination.
Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you.
And these are they which ye shall eat in abomination among the fowls;
ye shall not be eaten, they are an abomination; the eagle, and the ossifrage, the osprey,
And the vulture, and the kite after his kind;
Every raven after his kind;
And the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind,
And the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl,
And the swan, and the pelican, and
the gier-eagle,
And the stork, the heron after his kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.
All fowls that creep, going upon the four, shall be an abomination unto you.
Yet these may ye eat, of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to paw withal upon the earth;
Even these of them ye may eat;^e the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind.
But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you.
And for these ye shall be unclean:
whosoever toucheth^f the carcase of them all shall be unclean until the even.
And whosoever beareth ought of the carcase of them shall wash^g his clothes, and shall be unclean until the even.
The carcases of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not cloven-footed, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them shall be unclean.

27 And whatsoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beasts that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carcase shall be unclean until the even.
28 And he that beareth the carcase of them shall wash^c his clothes, and be unclean until the even: they are unclean unto you.
29 These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth; the weasel, and the mouse,^d and the tortoise after his kind, 30 And the ferret, and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the snail, and the mole.
31 These are unclean to you among all that creep: whosoever doth^e touch them, when they be dead, shall be unclean until the even.
32 And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done,^f it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the even; so it shall be cleansed.
33 And every earthen vessel, whereinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and ye shall break it.
34 Of all meat which may be eaten, that on which such water cometh shall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean.
35 And every thing whereupon any part of their carcase falleth shall be unclean; whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down: for they are un-

36 Nevertheless, a fountain or pit, wherein there is plenty of water, shall be clean: but that which toucheth their carcase shall be unclean.
37 And if any part of their carcase fall upon any sowing seed which is to be sown, it shall be clean.
38 But if any water be put upon the seed, and any part of their carcase fall thereon, it shall be unclean unto you.
39 And if any beast, of which ye may eat, die; he that toucheth the carcase thereof shall be unclean until the even.
40 And he that eateth^m of the carcase

42 Whatsoever goeth upon the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever hath more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye shall not eat; for they are an abomination.
43 Ye shall not^o make^q yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ye make yourselves unclean with them, that ye should be defiled thereby.
44 For I am the LORD your God: ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and^r ye shall be holy; for I am holy: neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.
45 For I am the LORD that^s bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God:
ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of every living creature that moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth;

47 To make a difference^a between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten:

CHAPTER XII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and born a man child; then^c she shall be unclean seven days; according to the days of the separation for her^d infirmity shall she be unclean.

3 And in the^e eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

4 And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days: she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled.

5 But if she bear a maid child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days.

6 And when the days of her^f purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb^g of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest;

7 Who shall offer it before the LORD, and make an atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath born a male or a female.

8 And^h ifⁱ she be not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

CHAPTER XIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a^j rising,^k a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest,^l or unto one of his sons the priests:

3 And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh; and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall^m shut up him that hath the plague seven days:

5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin, then the priest shall shut him up seven days more:

6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day; and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is but a scab: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

7 But if the scab spread much about in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest again:

8 And if the priest see that, behold, scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is leprosy.

9 When the plague of leprosy is in man, then he shall be brought unto priest;

10 And the priest^b shall see him: and behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, there be^c quick raw flesh in the rising;

11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of flesh; and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: he is unclean.

12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him that hath the plague from head even to his foot, wheresoever the priest looketh;

13 Then the priest shall consider: and behold, if the leprosy have covered his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean: that hath the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean.

14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean; for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy.

16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white, he shall come unto the priest;

17 And the priest shall see him: and behold, if the plague be turned into white, then the priest shall pronounce him clean: that hath the plague: he is clean.

18 The flesh also, in which, even in the skin thereof, was a^d boil, and is healed,

19 And in the place of the boil there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white and somewhat reddish, and it be shewed to the priest;

20 And if, when the priest seeth it, it hold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil.

21 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but somewhat dark, then the priest shall shut him^e up seven days:

22 And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague.

23 But if the bright spot stay^f in the place, and spread not, it is a burning boil, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is a hot burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white,

25 Then the priest shall look upon it, and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin, it is a leprosy broken out of the burning; wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark; then the t shall shut him up seven days:

And the priest shall look upon him seventh day; and if it be spread much ad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague prosy.

And if the bright spot stay in his skin, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark; it is a rising of the buru- and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the skin.

If a man or woman have a^d plague in the head or the beard; Then the priest shall see the plague: behold, if it be in sight deeper than skin; and there be in it a yellow thiu then the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is a dry scall, even a leprosy in the head or beard.

And if the priest look on the plague he scall, and, behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and that there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall shut him that hath the plague of the scall up seven days:

And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague: and, behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no black hair, and the scall be not in sight deeper than the skin;

He shall be shaven, but the scall shall not shave; and the priest shall shut up that hath the scall seven days more:

And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall; and, behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

But if the scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing,

Then the priest shall look on him: behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow; he is unclean.

But if the scall be in his sight at a distance, and that there is black hair grown up in the skin, the scall is healed, he is clean: the priest shall pronounce him clean.

If a man also or a woman have in the skin of their flesh bright spots,^k even as the bright spots,

Then the priest shall look: and, behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be darkish white; it is a freckled spot growing in the skin; he is clean.

And the man whose hair is fallen from his head, he is bald; yet is he clean.

And he that hath his hair fallen off from the part of his head toward his face, or his forehead bald; yet is he clean.

And if there be in the bald head, or on the forehead, a white reddish sore; it is the prosy sprung up in his bald head, or on his forehead.

Then the priest shall look upon it: behold, if the rising of the sore be reddish in his bald head, or in his forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the flesh;

He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague is in his head.

And the leper in whom the plague of his clothes shall be rent, and his d bare, and he shall put a covering on his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean.

48 Whether it be in the warp, or woof; of linen, or of woollen; whether in a skin, or in any^d thing made of skin;

49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing^e of skin; it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the priest:

50 And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague seven days:

51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin; the plague is^e a fretting leprosy; it is unclean.

52 He shall therefore burn^f that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosy: it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin:

54 Then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more:

55 And the priest shall look on the plague, after that it is washed:^h and, behold, if the plague have not changed his colour, and the plague be not spread, it is unclean; then shalt burn it in the fire; it is fret inward, whether it beⁱ bare within or without.

56 And if the priest look, and, behold, the plague be somewhat dark after the washing of it; then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof:

57 And if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a spreading plague; then shalt burn^j that wherein the plague is with fire.

58 And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or any thing of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

CHAPTER XIV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing: He shall be brought^m unto the priest:

3 And the priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper,

4 Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed twoⁿ birds alive and clean, and^o cedar wood, and scarlet, and^p hyssop:

5 And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over^a running water:

6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water:

7 And he shall^b sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy^c seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose^d into the open field.

8 And he that is to be cleansed shall wash^e his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself^e in water, that he may be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry abroad out of his tent seven days.

9 But it shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head, and his beard, and his eyebrows,^h even all his hair he shall shave off: and he shall wash his clothes, also he shall wash his flesh in water, and he shall be clean.

10 And on the eighth dayⁱ he shall take two he lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb^d of the first year without blemish, and three tenth deals of fine flour^k a meat offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil.

11 And the priest that maketh him clean shall present^l the man that is to be made clean, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

12 And the priest shall take one he lamb, and offer him for a^m trespass offering, and the log of oil, and wave them for aⁿ wave offering before the LORD:

13 And he shall slay the lamb in the place where he shall kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the holy place: for^p as the sin offering is the priest's, so is the trespass offering: it is most holy.

14 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it^q upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot:

15 And the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand:

16 And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD:

17 And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall the priest put upon^u the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass offering:

18 And the remnant of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall pour upon the head of him that is to be cleansed; and the priest shall make^w an atonement for him before the LORD.

19 And the priest shall offer the sin offering, and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness; and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering:

20 And the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meat offering upon the altar: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

25 And he shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering, and the priest shall take some of the^g blood of the trespass offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot:

26 And the priest shall pour of the blood into the palm of his own left hand:

27 And the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD:

28 And the priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the palm of the blood of the trespass offering:

29 And the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the LORD.

30 And he shall offer the one of^o the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, such as he can get;

31 Even such as he is able to get, one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meat offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed before the LORD.

32 This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, whose hand is able^r to get that which pertaineth to cleansing.

33 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

34 When ye be come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you^s for a possession, and I put^t the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your possession:

35 And he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me there is as it were^v a plague in the house;

36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house:

37 And he shall look on the plague, and shall behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house with hollow strakes, green or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall;

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shall shut up the house^x seven days:

39 And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and, behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house,

0 Then the priest shall command that y take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them into unclean place^b without the city:
1 And he shall cause the house to be aped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off about the city into an unclean place:
2 And they shall take other stoues, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house.
3 And if the plague come^d again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath aped the house, and after it is plaistered;
4 Then the priest shall come and look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is^e a fretting leprosy in the house: it is unclean.
5 And he shall break down^f the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house; and he shall carry them forth out of the city into unclean place.
6 Moreover, he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut^g up shall be unclean until the even.
7 And he that lieth in the house shall wash his clothes; and he that eateth in the house shall wash his clothes.
8 And if the priest^h shall come in, and look upon it, and behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plaistered; then the priest shall pronounce the house clean,ⁱ because the plague is healed.
9 And he shall take^m to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar wood, and hyssop:
10 And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water:
11 And he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times:
12 And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet:
13 But he shall let go the living bird over the city into the open fields, and heⁿ shall make an atonement for the house: and the house shall be clean.
14 This is the^o law for all manner of issue of leprosy, and^p scall, 15 And for the leprosy of a^t garment, and of^v a house,
16 And for a^w rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot;
17 To^x teach^δ when it is unclean, and when it is clean: this is the law of leprosy.

CHAPTER XV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,
Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When any man hath a running issue^y out of his flesh, because his issue he is unclean.
And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness.
Every bed whereon he lieth that hath his issue, is unclean: and every^z thing, whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean.
And whosoever toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes,^a and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

6 And he that sitteth on any thing whereon he sat that hath the issue shall wash his clothes,^c and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
7 And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
8 And if he that hath the issue spit upon him that is clean; then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
9 And what saddle soever he rideth upon that hath the issue shall be unclean.
10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him shall be unclean until the even: and he that beareth any of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
11 And whomsoever he toucheth that hath the issue, and hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
12 And the^a vessel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken:ⁱ and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.
13 And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue; then he shall number to himself^k seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.
14 And on the eighth day he shall take to himⁿ two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest:
15 And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD for his issue.
16 And^o if any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.
17 And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even.
18 The woman also with whom man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall both bathe themselves in water,^r and be unclean until the even.
19 And^u if a woman have an issue, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be put apart seven days; and whosoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the even.
20 And every thing that she lieth upon in her separation shall be unclean; every thing also that she sitteth upon shall be unclean.
21 And whosoever toucheth her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
22 And whosoever toucheth any thing that she sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
23 And if it be on her bed, or on any thing whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean until the even.
24 And if any man lie with her at all, and^z her flowers be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days; and all the bed whereon he lieth shall be unclean.

25 And if a woman have an issue^a of her blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if it run beyond the time of her separation; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness shall be as the days of her separation: she shall be unclean.

26 Every bed whereon she lieth all the days of her issue shall be unto her as the bed of her separation: and whatsoever she sitteth upon shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation.

27 And whosoever toucheth those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

28 But^h if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean.

29 And on the eighth day she shall take unto her two turtles, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

30 And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for her before the LORD, for the issue of her uncleanness.

31 Thus shall yeⁿ separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, that they die not in their uncleanness, when they^o defile my tabernacle that is among them.

32 This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of him whose seed goeth from him, and is defiled therewith;

33 And of her that is sick of her flowers, and of him that hath an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lieth with her that is unclean.

CHAPTER XVI.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron,^a when they offered before the LORD, and died;

2 And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times^s into the holy place within the vail before the mercy seat, which is upon the ark, that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud^t upon the mercy seat.

3 Thus shall Aaron come^v into the holy place:^w with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

4 He shall put on the^y holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he wash^a his flesh in water, and so put them on.

5 And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel^b two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make an atonement for^f himself, and for his house.

7 And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the scapegoat.

9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the LORD's lot^q fell, and offer him for a sin offering:

10 But the goat, on which the lot to be the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make^b atonement with him, and to let him for a scapegoat into the wilderness.

11 And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself.

12 And he shall take a censer^c full of burning coals of fire^d from off the altar before the LORD, and his hands full of sweet^e incense beaten small, and burn it within the vail:

13 And he shall put the incense^f upon the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat^g that is upon the testimony, that he die not.

14 And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy seat eastward; and before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle the blood with his finger seven times.

15 Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering,^h that is for the people, and bring his blood withinⁱ the vail, and with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat.

16 And he shall make an atonement^m in the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation, that^β remaineth among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

17 And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregationⁿ when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.

18 And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the LORD, and make^r atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about.

19 And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it^s from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

20 And when he hath made an end of reconciling^t the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat:

21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over^u him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them^v upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of^γ a fit man into the wilderness.

22 And the goat shall bear^d upon him all their iniquities unto a land^δ not inhabited:^e and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness.

23 And Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall put off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there:

24 And he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering for the people, and make an atonement for self, and for the people.

 5 And^b the fat of the sin offering shall burn upon the altar.
 6 And he that let go the goat for the bogoat shall wash his clothes, and he^c his flesh in water, and afterward be into the camp.
 7 And the bullock for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement the holy place, shall one carry^d forth about the camp; and they shall burn the fire their skins, and their flesh, and dung.
 8 And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.
 9 And this shall be a statute for ever to you, that in^e the seventh month, the tenth day of the month, ye shall afflict^f your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own countrey, or a stranger that sojourneth among you.
 10 For on that day shall the priest make atonement for you, to cleanse^g you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before the LORD.
 11 It shall be a sabbath^h of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls, by a statute for ever.
 12 Andⁱ the priest, whom he shall appoint, and whom he shall^j consecrate minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments:
 13 And^k he shall make an atonement the holy sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar; and he shall make an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation.
 14 And this^l shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sins, once^m a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Moses.

 7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto^b devils, after whom they have gone^c a whoring. This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations.
 8 And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among you, that offereth a burnt offering or sacrifice,
 9 And bringeth^d it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the LORD: even that man shall be cut off from among his people.
 10 And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that^e eateth any manner of blood, I will even set^f my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.
 11 For^g the life of the flesh is in the blood: and I have given it to you upon the altar, to make^h an atonement for your souls: for it is the bloodⁱ that maketh an atonement for the soul.
 12 Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood.
 13 And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, which hunteth and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour^j out the blood thereof, and cover^k it with dust.
 14 For^l it is the life of all flesh; the blood of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off.
 15 And^m every soul that eatethⁿ that which died of itself, or that which was torn with beasts, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger, he^o shall both wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even; then shall he be clean.
 16 But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh, then^p he shall bear his iniquity.

CHAPTER XVIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, I^q am the LORD your God.
 3 After^r the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do: and after the doings of the land of Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do; neither shall ye walk in their ordinances.
 4 Ye^s shall do my judgments, and keep mine ordinances, to walk therein: I am the LORD your God.
 5 Ye shall therefore keep my statutes, and my judgments; which if a man do, he shall live in them: I am the LORD.
 6 None of you shall approach to any that is^t near of kin to him, to uncover their nakedness: I am the LORD.
 7 The nakedness^u of thy father,^v or the nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

8 The nakedness of thy father's^a wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy father's nakedness.

9 The nakedness of thy sister,^b the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover.

10 The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter, even their nakedness thou shalt not uncover: for their's is thine own nakedness.

11 The nakedness of thy father's wife's daughter, begotten of thy father, (she is thy sister,) thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

12 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's sister: she is thy father's near kinswoman.

13 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister: for she is thy mother's near kinswoman.

14 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy father's brother, thou shalt not approach to his wife: she is thine aunt.

15 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy daughter in law:^k she is thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her nakedness.

16 Thou^l shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy brother's wife: it is thy brother's nakedness.

17 Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are her near kinswomen: it is wickedness.

18 Neither shalt thou take ^βa wife to her sister, to vexⁿ her, to uncover her nakedness, beside the other, in her life time.

19 Also, thou shalt not approach unto a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long^o as she is put apart for her uncleanness.

20 Moreover^p thou shalt not lie carnally with thy neighbour's wife, to defile thyself with her.

21 And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire^u to ^γMolech, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD.

22 Thou shalt not lie with mankind,^w as with womankind: it is abomination.

23 Neither shalt thou lie with any beast, to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion.

24 Defile not ye yourselves in any of these ^bthings: for in all these the nations are defiled which I cast out before you:

25 And the land is defiled:^c therefore I do visit^d the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land itself vomiteth^e out her inhabitants.

26 Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you;

27 (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;)

28 Thatⁿ the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you.

29 For whosoever shall commit any^t these abominations, even the souls th commit them shall be cut off from among their people.

30 Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinance, that^c ye commit not any one of these abominable customs, which w committed before you, and that ye file^d not yourselves therein: I am the LORD your God.

CHAPTER XIX.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses saying,

2 Speak unto all the congregation the children of Israel, and say unto them, Ye^f shall be holy: for I the LORD your God am holy.

3 Ye shall fear every man his mother and his father, and keep^h my sabbaths am the LORD your God.

4 Turn ye not unto idols,ⁱ nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am the LORD your God.

5 And if ye offer a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, ye shall offer at your own will.

6 It^j shall be eaten the same day offer it, and on the morrow: and if it remain until the third day, it shall be burnt in the fire.

7 And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it is abominable; it shall not be accepted.

8 Therefore every one that eateth shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

9 And^m when ye reap the harvest your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest.

10 And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the LORD your God.

11 Ye shall not steal,^q neither deal falsely, neither lie^r one to another.

12 And ye shall not swear^s by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane^t the name of thy God: I am the LORD.

13 Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the wages^v of him that is hired shall not abide with thee all night until the morning.

14 Thou shalt not curse the deaf, nor put a stumblingblock before the blind, but shalt fear^y thy God: I am the LORD.

15 Ye^z shall do no unrighteousness: judgment: thou shalt not respect^a the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.

16 Thou shalt not go up and down a talebearer^f among thy people: neither shalt thou stand against the blood^g of thy neighbour: I am the LORD.

17 Thou shalt not hate^k thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any way rebukeⁱ thy ^δneighbour, and not suffer sin^h upon him.

18 Thou shalt not avenge,^l nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love^m thy neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD.

19 Ye shall keep my statutes. Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with verse kind. Thou shalt not sow thy seed with mingled seed: neither shall thy seed be mingled of linen and woollen together upon thee.

20 And whosoever lieth carnally with a woman that is a bondmaid, ^β betrothed to an husband, and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her; ^γ she ^δ shall be scourged: they shall not be put to death, because she was not free.

21 And ^ε he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, with a ram for a trespass offering.

22 And the priest shall make an atonement for him, with the ram of the trespass offering, before the LORD, for his sin which he hath done: and the sin which he hath done shall be forgiven him.

23 And when ye shall come into the land, and shall have planted all manner of trees for food, then ye shall count the fruit thereof as uncircumcised: three years shall it be as uncircumcised unto you; it shall not be eaten of.

24 But in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be ^ζ holy, to praise ^η the LORD ^θ withal.

25 And in the fifth year shall ye eat the fruit thereof, that it may yield to you the increase thereof: I am the LORD your God.

26 Ye shall not eat any thing with the blood; ^ι neither shall ye use enchantment, ^κ nor observe times.

27 Ye ^λ shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou mar the corners of thy beard.

28 Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the LORD.

29 Do not ^μ prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to be a whore; lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness.

30 Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: ^ν I am the LORD.

31 Regard ^ξ not them that have familiar spirits, neither seek after wizards, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.

32 Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour ^ο the face of the old man, and fear ^π thy God: I am the LORD.

33 And if a stranger ^ρ sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not ^σ vex him.

34 But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

35 Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in meteyard, in weight, or in measure.

36 Just balances, ^τ just ^υ weights, a just halah, and a just hin, shall ye have: I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

37 Therefore shall ye observe ^φ all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: I am the LORD.

3 And I will set ^α my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name.

4 And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and kill ^β him not;

5 Then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, ^γ and will cut him off, and all that go ^δ a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

6 And ^ε the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off ^ζ from among his people.

7 Sanctify ^η yourselves, therefore, and be ye holy: for I am the LORD your God.

8 And ^θ ye shall keep my statutes, and do them: I ^ι am the LORD which sanctify you.

9 For every one ^κ that curseth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother; his blood ^λ shall be upon him.

10 And the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the ^μ adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

11 And the man that lieth with his father's wife ^ν hath uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood ^ξ shall be upon them.

12 And if a man lie with his daughter in law, ^ο both of them shall surely be put to death: they have wrought confusion; their blood ^π shall be upon them.

13 If a man also lie with ^ρ mankind as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood ^σ shall be upon them.

14 And if a man take a wife and her mother, ^τ it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you.

15 And if a man lie with a beast, ^υ he shall surely be put to death; and ye shall slay the beast.

16 And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast; they shall surely be put to death; their blood ^φ shall be upon them.

17 And if a man shall take his ^χ sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness, it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.

18 And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, ^ψ and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath ^ω discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood; and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

19 And^a thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister: for he uncovereth his near kiu; they shall bear their iniquity.

20 And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.^f

21 And if a man shall take his brother's wife,^g it is^h βau unclean thiug: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

22 Ye shall therefore keep allⁱ my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them; that the land, whither I bring you to dwell therein, spue^j you not out.

23 And ye shall not walk in the manners of the nation which I cast out before you: for they committed all these thiugs, and therefore^m I abhorred them.

24 But I have saidⁿ unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land that floweth with milk and honey: I am the LORD your God, which have^p separated you from other people.

25 Ye shall therefore put^r difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean: and ye shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that^s creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

26 And ye shall be holy unto me; for^u I the LORD am holy, and have severed^v you from other people, that ye should be mine.

27 A man also, or woman, that hath a familiar spirit,^w or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones; their blood shall be upon them.

CHAPTER XXI.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, There^y shall none be defiled for the dead among his people:

2 But for his kin that is near unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

3 And for his sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath had no husband, for her may he be defiled.

4 But^z he shall not defile himself, being a chief mau among his people, to profane himself.

5 They shall not make baldness upon their head; neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard; nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be holy unto their God, and not profane^{aa} the name of their God: for the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and the bread of their God, they do offer; therefore^{ab} they shall be holy.

7 They shall^{ac} not take a wife that is a whore, or profane; neither shall they take a woman put away^{ad} from her husband: for he is holy unto his God.

8 Thou shalt sanctify him therefore; for he offereth the bread of thy God; he shall be holy unto thee: for^{ae} I the LORD, which sanctify you, am holy.

16 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever he be of thy seed in their generations that hath any blemish,ⁱ let him not approach^j to offer the γ bread of his God:

18 For whatsoever mau he be that hath a blemish, he shall not approach: a blind mau, or a lame, or he that hath a flat nose, or any thing superfluous,^k

21 No man that hath a blemish of the seed of Aaron the priest shall come nigh to offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire: he hath a blemish: he shall not come nigh to offer the bread of his God.

23 Only he shall not go in unto the vail, nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish; that^o he profane not my sanctuaries: for^p I the LORD do sanctify them.

24 And Moses told it unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel.

CHAPTER XXII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons that they separate^a themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that^b they profane not my holy name: those things which they hallow^c unto me: I am the LORD.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed, among your generation that goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the LORD, having^d his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.

4 What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or^e hath a running^f issue, he shall not eat of the holy things until he be clean.^g And whoso^h toucheth an ing that is unclean by the dead, or a n^a whose seed goeth from him;

 Or whosoever^b toucheth any creep-thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or^c a man of whom he may take cleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath;
 The soul which hath touched^e any thing shall be unclean until even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless wash^g his flesh with water.
 And when the sun is down he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things, because^h it is his food.
 That which dieth^k of itself, or is torn of the beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the LORD.
 They shall therefore keep mine ordinance, lestⁱ they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: I the LORD sanctify them.
 There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priest, or hired servaut, shall not eat of the holy thing.
 But if the priest buy any soul with money, he shall eat of it, and he that is born in his house; they^o shall eat of his meat.
 If the priest's daughter also be married unto^δ a stranger, she may not eat an offering of the holy things.
 But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and returned^t unto her father's house, as her youth, she shall eat of her father's bread; but there shall no stranger eat thereof.
 And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly,^v then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it to the priest with the holy thing.
 And they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD;
 Or suffer them to bear^z the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD do sanctify them.
 And the LORD spake unto Moses,
 saying,
 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, Whatsoever he be of the tribe of Israel, or of the strangers^c in Israel, that will offer his oblation for all his vows, and for all his freewill offer-

 as a burnt offering;
 Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish,^d of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats.
 But whatsoever^e hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer; for it shall not be acceptable for you.
 And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings^f unto the LORD to accomplish his vow,^g or a freewill offering of beeves or sheep, it shall be perfect and shall be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein.
 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor shall ye make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD.

freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

24 Ye shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make any offering thereof in your land.

25 Neither from a stranger's^d hand shall ye offer the bread of your God of any of these; because their^f corruption is in them, and blemishes be in them;
 they shall not be accepted for you.

26 And the LORD spake unto Moses,
 saying,

27 Whenⁱ a bullock, or a sheep, or a goat, is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the dam; and from the eighth day, and thenceforth, it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

28 And whether it be cow or^β ewe, ye shall not kill it and her young^m both in one day.

29 And when ye will offer a sacrifice of thanksgivingⁿ unto the LORD, offer it at your own will.

30 On the same day it shall be eaten up; ye shall leave none of it until the morrow: I am the LORD.

31 Therefore^p shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I am the LORD.

32 Neither shall ye profane^q my holy name; but^r I will be hallowed among the children of Israel: I^s am the LORD which hallow you.

33 That^u brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XXIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses,
 saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, Concerning the feasts^w of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim^x to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts.

3 Six days^a shall work be done; but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, an holy convocation; ye shall do no work therein: it is the sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

4 These are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

5 In^b the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD's passover.

6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread.

7 In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work
 therein.

8 But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

9 And the LORD spake unto Moses,
 saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a^θ sheaf of the firstfruits^k of your harvest unto the priest;

11 And he shall waveⁱ the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

12 And ye shall offer that day, when ye wave the sheaf, an he lamb without blemish of the first year, for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

13 And the meat offering^c thereof shall be two tenth deals of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour: and the drink offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth part of an hin.

14 And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until the selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, in all your dwellings.

15 And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven^f sabbaths shall be complete:

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number^g fifty days; and ye shall offer a new meat offering unto the LORD.

17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves, of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the first-fruits^k unto the LORD.

18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without^l blemish, of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the LORD, with their meat offering, and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet savour unto the LORD.

19 Then ye shall sacrifice one kid^o of the goats for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits, for a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they^a shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.

21 And ye shall proclaim on the selfsame day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you; ye shall do no servile work therein: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22 And when ye reap^t the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather any gleanings of thy harvest; thou shalt leave them unto the poor,^u and to the stranger: I am the LORD your God.

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh^x month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets,^y an holy convocation.

25 Ye shall do no servile work therein; but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

26 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

27 Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement:^b it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict^c your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

28 And ye shall do no work in that same day; for it is a day of atonement, to make an atonement for you before the LORD your God.

29 For whatsoever soul it be that shall 32 It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls: in the ninth day of the month at even, from even unto even, shall ye^e celebrate your sabbath.

33 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

34 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast^c of tabernacles for seven days unto the LORD.

35 On the first day shall be an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work therein.

37 These are the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, every thing upon his day:^m

38 Besideⁿ the sabbaths of the LORD and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD.

39 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have^p gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath.

40 And ye shall take you on the first day the^q boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and the boughs of thick tree and willows of the brook; and^r ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days.

41 And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven^s days in the year: it shall be a statute for ever in your generation ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 Ye shall dwell in booths seven days: all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths;

43 That^v your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

44 And Moses^w declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

CHAPTER XXIV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command^x the children of Israel that they bring unto thee pure oil olive beaten for the light,^y to cause the lamp to burn continually.^z

3 Without the veil of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron order it from the evening unto the morning, before the LORD continually: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations.

4 He shall order the lamps upon the pure candlestick^d before the LORD continually.

5 And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve^e cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake.

6 And thou shalt set them in two rows on a row, upon the pure table^a before LORD.

And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

Every^c sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, being en from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.

And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and y^d shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the RD made by fire, by a perpetual statute.

And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went among the childreu of Israel; and this of the Israelitish woman and a man [Israel strove together in the camp;

1 And the Israelitish woman's son sphemed^c the name of the LORD, 1 cursed. And they brought^h him to Moses; (and his mother's name s Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of s tribe of Dan;)

2 And they^k put him in ward, ^δ that e mind^l of the LORD might be shewed m.

3 And the LORD spake unto Moses, ing,

4 Bring forth him that hath cursed about the camp; and let all that heard 2 lay their handsⁿ upon his head, and all the congregation stone him.

5 And thou shalt speak unto the ldren of Israel, saying, Whosoever seth his God shall bear his sin.

6 And he^p that blasphemeth the name the LORD, he shall surely be put to uth, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger, he that is born in the land, when he asphemeth the name of the LORD, all be put to death.

7 And he that ^ζ killeth any^r man all surely be put to death.

8 And he that killeth a beast^s shall ake it good; ^η beast for beast.

9 And if a man cause a blemish in his ighbour; as^t he hath done, so shall it done to him;

10 Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth t tooth; as he hath caused a blemish in man, so shall it be done to him again.

11 And he that killeth a beast, he shall store it: and he that killeth a man, he all be put to death.

12 Ye shall have one^w manner of law, well for the stranger, as for one of your yn country: for I am the LORD your God.

13 And Moses spake to the children of rael, that they should bring forth him at had cursed out of the camp, and stone m with stones. And the children of Is el did as the LORD commanded Moscs.

CHAPTER XXV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in ount Sinai, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and y unto them, When ye come into the nd which I give you, then shall the nd ^θ keep a sabbath unto the LORD.

3 Six^a years thou shalt sow thy field, nd six years thou shalt prune thy vine- rd, and gather in the fruit thereof;

4 But in the seventh year shall be a bbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath r the LORD: thou shalt neither sow y field, nor prune thy vineyard.

5 That^b which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes of thy ^β vine undressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land.

6 And the sabbath of the land shall be meat for you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with thee,

7 And for thy cattle, and for the beast that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be meat.

8 And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years.

9 Then shalt thou cause the trumpet of the ^γ jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month; in the day^f of atonement shall ye make the^g trumpet sound throughout all your land.

10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaimⁱ liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubilee unto you; and ye shall return^m every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

11 A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed.

12 For it is the jubilee; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In^o the year of this jubilee ye shall return every man unto his possession.

14 And if thou sell ought unto thy neighbour, or buyest ought of thy neighbour's hand, ye^a shall not oppress one another:

15 According to the number of years after the jubilee thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee:

16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for *accord*ing to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee.

17 Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; but thou shalt fear^u thy God: for I am the LORD your God.

18 Wherefore ye shall do^v my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and^z ye shall dwell in the land in safety.

19 And the land shall yield her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:

21 Then I will command^y my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

22 And^z ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat yet of old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of the old store.

23 The land shall not be sold ^κ for ever: for the land is mine; ^b for ye are strangers^c and sojourners with me.

24 And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

25 If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, and^a if any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold.

26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and ^βhimself be able to redeem it;

27 Then let him count^c the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it, that he may return unto his possession.

28 But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it, until the year of jubilee: and in the jubilee it shall go out,^e and he shall return unto his possession.

29 And if a man sell a dwellinghouse in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it, throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubilee.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country; they ^ζmay be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee.

32 Notwithstanding, the cities^k of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.

33 And if ^ηa man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the year of jubilee: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 But the field^k of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.

35 And if thy brother be waxen^l poor, and ^θfallen in decay with thee, then thou shalt ^λrelieve^m him; yea, though he be a stranger,ⁿ or a sojourner; that he may live with thee.

36 Take thou no usury^ο of him, or increase: but fear^ν thy God; that thy brother may live with thee.

37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.

38 I^r am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

39 And if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee, thou shalt not ^ρcompel him to serve as a bondservant:

40 But^υ as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubilee:

41 And then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return.

42 For they are my^z servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold ^σas bondmen.

43 Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour,^c but shalt fear^d thy God.

50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubilee: as the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years; according to the timeⁱ of an hired servant shall it be with him.

51 If there be yet many years behind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according unto the years shall he give him again the price of his redemption.

53 And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: and the other shall rule with rigour over him in thy sight.

54 And if he be not redeemed ^μin the years, then he shall go out in the year of jubilee, both he, and his children with him.

55 For unto me the children of Israel are servants; they^q are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

CHAPTER XXVI.

YE shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a standing image, neither shall ye set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the LORD your God.

2 Ye^t shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

3 If^u ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them;

4 Then I will give you rain^υ in due season, and the land^z shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

5 And your threshing^υ shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time; and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.

6 And I will give peace^a in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will ^τrid evil beasts^b out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land.

7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.

8 And^c five of you shall chase an hundred.

and an hundred of you shall put thousand to flight: and your enemies I will bring before you by the sword. For I will have respect unto^b you, and I will be fruitful, and multiply^c you, and I will establish my covenant with you. And ye shall eat old^d store, and I will bring forth the old because of the new. And I will set my tabernacle^k among you; and my soul shall not abhor^l you. And I will walkⁿ among you, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people. For I am the LORD your God, which I will bring you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; and I have broken^s the bands of yoke, and made you go upright. But^t if ye will not hearken unto me, I will not do all these commandments; And if ye shall despise my statutes, if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break^u my covenant: I also will do this unto you; I will appoint^β over you terror, consumption, and the burning ague, that shall consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and ye shall sow^z your seed in vain, for your enemies^γ shall eat it. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain^a before your enemies: ye that hate you shall reign over you; ye shall flee^c when none pursueth you. And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. And I will break the pride^d of your heart; and I will make your heaven as brass, and your earth as brass: And your strength shall be spent in vain; for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the field yield their fruits. And if ye walk^δ contrary unto me, I will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins. And I will also send wild beasts^h among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you a few in number; and your high ways shall be desolate. And if ye will not be reformed by these things, but will walk contrary unto me; Then will I also walk^ο contrary to you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins. And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge^r the quarrel of my covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence^u among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy. And when I have broken^v the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not^γ be satisfied. And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me; Then I will walk contrary unto you in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins. And ye shall eat^b the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat. And I will destroy^c your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your earthen images upon the earthen images of your idols, and my soul shall abhor^a you.

31 And I will make your cities^c waste, and bring your sanctuaries^f unto desolation, and I will not smell^g the savour of your sweet odours.

32 And I will bring the landⁱ into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished^m at it.

33 And I will scatterⁿ you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

34 Then shall the land^r enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye shall be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

35 As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it.

36 And upon them that are left alive of you I will send a faintness^v into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound^w of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.

37 And they shall fall^z one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall have no power to stand^b before your enemies.

38 And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

39 And they that are left of you shall pine^c away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.

40 If^e they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me;

41 And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their unrepentant hearts be^k humbled, and they then accept^l of the punishment of their iniquity:

42 Then will I rememberⁿ my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will remember the land.^p

43 The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths,^q while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept^s of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they despised^t my judgments, and because their soul abhorred my statutes.

44 And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, I will^w not east them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break^z my covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God.

45 But I will for their sakes^z remember the covenant of their^a ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their God: I am the LORD.

46 These are the statutes and judgments and laws, which the LORD made between him and the children of Israel in mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER XXVII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When^b a man shall make a singular^c vow, the persons shall be for the LORD by thy estimation.

3 And thy estimation^e shall be of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even thy estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after^f the shekel of the sanctuary.

4 And if it be a female, then thy estimation shall be thirty shekels.

5 And if it be from five years old even unto twenty years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

6 And if it be from a month old even unto five years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female thy estimation shall be three shekels of silver.

7 And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then thy estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer than thy estimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to his abilityⁿ that vowed shall the priest value him.

9 And if it be a beast, whereof men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy.

10 He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be holy.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest:

12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: ^γas thou valuest it, who art the priest, so shall it be.

13 But^a if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part thereof unto thy estimation.

14 And when a man shall sanctify his house^u to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as^v the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

15 And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth^z part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

16 And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD some part of a field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: ^δan homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

17 If he sanctify his field from the year of jubilee, according to thy estimation it shall stand.

18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall ^areckon unto him the money according to years that remain, even unto the year the jubilee, and it shall be abated fr thy estimation.

19 And if^d he that sanctified the field will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him.

20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more.

21 But the field, when it goeth out the jubilee, shall be holy unto the LORD as a field devoted; ^hthe possession thereof shall be the priest's.

22 And if a man sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of ^khis possession;

23 Then^l the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of thy estimation, even unto the year of the jubilee: and he shall give thine estimation in that day, as a holy thing unto the LORD.

24 In^m the year of the jubilee the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong.

25 And all thy estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel.

26 Only the ^βfirstling of the beast which should be the LORD's ^ofirstling no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox, or sheep: it is the LORD's.

27 And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall redeem it according to thine estimation, and shall add a fifth^p part of thereto: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy estimation.

28 Notwithstanding, no devoted thing that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he hath, ^{both} of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every^q devoted thing is most holy unto the LORD.

29 None^r devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be redeemed; but shall surely be put to death.

30 And all the tithe^t of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD's: it shall be holy unto the LORD.

31 And if a man will at all redeem ought of his tithes, he shall add^w thereto the fifth part thereof.

32 And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever passeth^y under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the LORD.

33 He shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he change: and if he change it at all, then both he and the change thereof shall be holy: shall not be redeemed.

34 These^a are the commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses for the children of Israel, in mount Sinai.^c

The Fourth Book of MOSES, called NUMBERS.

CHAPTER I.

And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai,^a in the tabernacle of congregation, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,
Take ye the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of their names, every male from twenty years old and upward, that are able to go forth to war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall number them by their polls;
And these are the names of the men which shall stand with you: of the tribe of Reuben; Elizur^d the son of Shedenr.
Of Simeon; Shelnmiel the son of Shaddai.
Of Judah; ^β Nahshon^f the son of Amminadab.
Of Issachar; Nethaneel the son of Zephanai.
Of Zebulun; Eliab the son of Helon.
Of the children of Joseph: of Ephraim; Elishama the son of Ammihud: of Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.
Of Benjamin; Abidan the son of Guni.
Of Dan; Ahiezer the son of Ammihudai.
Of Asher; Pagiel the son of Ocran.
Of Gad; Eliasaph the son of ^γ Denel.
Of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan.
These ^δ were the renowned of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads ^h of thousands in Israel.
And Moses and Aaron took these men which are expressed^k by their names:
And they assembled all of the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers; according^m to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their polls.
Asⁿ the LORD commanded Moses, he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.
And the children of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;
Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Reuben, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.
Of the children of Simeon, by their generations, after their families, by the use of their fathers, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every 41 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Asher, were forty and one thousand and five hundred.

42 Of the children of Naphtali, throughout their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

43 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

44 These^b are those that were numbered, which Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel, being twelve men: each one was for the house of his fathers.

45 So were all those that were numbered of the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war in Israel;

46 Even all they that were^d numbered were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

47 But^e the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them.

48 For the LORD had spoken unto Moses, saying,

49 Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel:

50 But^f thou shalt appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof; and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp^g round about the tabernacle.

51 Andⁱ when the tabernacle setteth forward, the Levites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: and the^j stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

52 And the children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man^m by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts.

53 But the Levitesⁿ shall pitch round about the tabernacle of testimony, that there be no wrath^o upon the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites^p shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony.

54 And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.

20 And by him shall be the tribe of 1 nasseh: and the captain of the child of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the of Pedahzur.

21 And his host, and those that w numbered of them, were thirty and thousand and two hundred.

CHAPTER III.
 THESE also are the generations of Aaron and Moses, in the day that the LORD spake with Moses in mount Sinai.
 And these are the names of the sons of Aaron; Nadab^o the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
 These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the^s priests which were anointed, whom the LORD consecrated to minister in the priest's office.
 And Nadab and Abihu died^u before the LORD, when they offered strange fire before the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office in the sight of Aaron their father.
 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Bring^v the tribe of Levi near, and set them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him.
 And they^v shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the tabernacle.
 And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sons, and they shall wait on their priest's office: and the stranger^b that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 12 And I, behold, I have taken the Levites^d from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn that openeth the matrix among the children of Israel; therefore the Levites shall be mine;

13 Because all the firstborn^e are mine: for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel both man and beast; mine shall they be: I am the LORD.

14 And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, 15 Number the children of Levi after the house of their fathers, by their families: every male^f from a month old and upward shalt thou number them.

16 And Moses numbered them, according to the^g word of the LORD, as he was commanded.

17 And these^g were the sons of Levi by their names; Gershon, & Kohath, & Merari.

18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon, by their families; Libni,ⁱ and Shimei.

19 And the sons of Kohath, by their families; Amram, and Izechar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

20 And the sons of Merari by their families: Mahli, and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers.

21 Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites: these are the families of the Gershonites.

22 Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those that were numbered of them, were seven thousand and five hundred.

23 The families of the Gershonitesⁿ shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward.

24 And the chief of the house of the father of the Gershonites shall be Elizaphan the son of Lael.

25 And the charge of the sons of Gershon,^p in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall be the tabernacle,^q and the tent,^r the covering thereof, and the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation,

26 And the hangings^t of the court, and the curtain for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and the cords^v of it, for all the service thereof.

27 And of Kohath^w was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izecharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites:

28 In the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary.

29 The families of the sons of^a Kohath shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle southward.

30 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel.

31 And their^c charge shall be the ark,^d and the table,^a and the candlestick, and the altars,^b and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and the hanging,^c and all the service thereof.

32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be chief over the chief of the Levites, and have the oversight of them that keep the charge of the sanctuary.

33 Of Merari^d was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites: these are the families of Merari.

34 And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred.

35 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail: these^h shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle northward.

36 And ^βunder the custody andⁱ charge of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and all the vessels thereof, and all that serveth thereto.

37 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords.

38 But those that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, even before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping^p the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel; and the stranger^r that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

39 All^u that were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty and two thousand.

40 And the LORD said unto Moses, Number^v all the firstborn of the males of the children of Israel, from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 And^z thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Israel.

43 And all the firstborn males, by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and thirteen.

44 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

45 Take^a the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine: I am the LORD.

46 And for those that are to be redeemed^c of the two hundred and threescore and thirteen of the firstborn of the children of Israel, which are more^d than the Levites;

47 Thou shalt even take five^e shekels apiece by the poll; after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take them: (the shekel^f is twenty gerahs:)

48 And thou shalt give the money,

50 Of the firstborn of the children of Israel took he the money; a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after^e the shekel of the sanctuary:

CHAPTER IV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses unto Aaron, saying,

2 Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, after their families, by the house of their fathers,

3 From^k thirty years old and upward, even until fifty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 This^l shall be the service of the sons of Kohath, in the tabernacle of the congregation, about the^m most holy things:

5 And when the camp setteth forward Aaron shall come, and his sons, and they shall take down the covering veil,ⁿ and cover the ark^o of testimony with it;

6 And shall put thereon the covering of badgers' skins, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put the staves^q thereof.

7 And upon the table^r of showbread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover with; and the continual bread shall be thereon:

8 And they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put in the staves thereof.

9 And they shall take a cloth of blue and cover the candlestick^u of the light and his lamps, and his tongs, and his snuffdishes, and all the oil vessels thereof, wherewith they minister unto it:

10 And they shall put it and all the vessels thereof within a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put it upon a bar.

11 And upon the golden altar^v they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put to the staves thereof:

12 And they shall take all the instruments^w of ministry, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers' skins, and shall put them on a bar:

13 And they shall take away the ash from the altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon:

14 And they shall put upon it all the vessels^x thereof, wherewith they minister about it, even the censers, the fleshhooks, and the shovels, and the basons, all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers' skins, and put to the staves of it.

15 And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, the camp is to set forward; after that the sons of Kohath^y shall come to bear it, but they shall not touch^z any holy thing lest they die.ⁱ These^k things are the of the sons of Kohath in the

nacle of the congregation.

And to the office of Eleazar, the f Aaron the priest, pertaineth the or the light, and the sweet ^b incenso, the daily meat offering,^c and the tiug oil,^e and the oversight of all the nacle, and of all that therein is, in

And the LORD spake unto Moses
nto Aaron, saying,

Cut ye not off the tribe of the fas of the Kohathites from among the

But thus do unto them, that they ive, and not die, when they approach the most^f holy things: Aaron and ons shall go in, and appoint them one to his service and to his burden:
But they shall not go in to^g see when oly things are covered, lest they die.

And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
Take also the sum of the sons of

From thirty^h years old and upward, fifty years old, shalt thou number

This is the service of the families of the

And ^kthey shall bear the curtains of

And the hangings^m of the court,

all they serve.

At the ^δappointment of Aaron and

This is the service of the families

As for the sons of Merari, thou shalt even unto fifty years old, every one that

36 And those that were numbered of them, by their families, were two thou-

37 These were they that were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number, according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

38 And those that were numbered of the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers,

39 From thirty years old and upward,
even unto fifty years old, every one that entereth into the service, for the work in

of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that might do service in the taber-and Aaron did number, according to the commandment of the LORD.

42 And those that were numbered of throughout their families, by the house thousand and two hundred.

45 These be those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, according to the word of the LORD^o by the hand of Moses.

46 All those that were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the chief of Israel numbered, after their families, and after the house of that came to do the service of the mi-

the tabernacle of the congregation,

48 Even those that were numbered of them, were eight thousand and five hun-

49 According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, every one according to his service,^v and according to his burden:
thus were they numbered of him, as the^w LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER V.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every^y leper, and every one that hath an issue,^z and whosoever is defiled by the dead.^a

3 Both male and female shall ye put out, without^c the camp shall ye put them, that they defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I^a dwell.

4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Speak unto the children of Israel; When^d a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty;

7 Then they shall confess^e their sin which they have done: and he shall recompense^f his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the LORD, even to the priest; beside the ram of the atonement, whereby an atonement shall be made for him.

9 And every y^g offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the priest, shallⁱ be his.

10 And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be his.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him,

13 And a man^m lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner;

14 And the spirit of jealousy^o come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled;

15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and he shall bring her offering^a for her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, bringing^r iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD:

17 And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water:

18 And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD,^u and uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy offering: and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse:

19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath,^w and say unto the woman, If no man have lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleanness^θ with another instead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse:

20 But if thou hast gone aside to another instead of thy husband, and if thou be defiled, and some man have lain with thee beside thine husband:

21 Then the priest shall charge^z the woman with an oath of cursing, and the priest shall say unto the woman, The LORD make thee a curse^a and an oath among thy people, when the LORD doth make

CHAPTER VI.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, sa^c ing,

4 All the days of his ζ separation sh^c he eat nothing that is made of the γ v^c tree, from the kernels even to the husk.

5 All the days of the vow of his sep^c ration there shall no razor^v come up^c his head: until the days be fulfilled, t^c the which he separateth himself unto t^c LORD, he shall be holy, and shall let t^c locks of the hair of his head grow.

6 All the days that he separateth hi^c self unto the LORD he shall come at t^c dead body.^z

7 He shall not make himself uncl^c for his father, or for his mother, for h^c brother, or for his sister, when they di^c because the κ consecration of his God^c upon his head.

 And on the eighth day he shall bring turtles, or two young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of congregation:
 And the priest shall offer the one for offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make an atonement for him for that he sinned by the dead, and hallow his head that same day.
 And he shall consecrate unto the LORD the days of his separation, and bring a lamb of the first year for a trespass offering:^d but the days that before shall ^γ be lost, because his separation was defiled.
 And this is the law of the Nazarite, the days of his separation are fulfilled:^e he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation;
 And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one he lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for^h peace offerings,
 And a basket of unleavened bread, of fine flour mingled with oil, and of unleavened breadⁱ anointed with oil, and their meat offering, and ^m drink offerings.
 And the priest shall bring them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering:
 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his meat offering and his drink offering.
 And the Nazarite shall shave^p the head of his separation at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall cut the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under sacrifice of the peace offerings.
 And the priest shall take the sod of the shoulder of the ram, and one^q unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them in the hands of the Nazarite, after the head of his separation is shaven:
 And the priest shall wave them for offering before the LORD: this is for the priest, with the wave breast and shoulder: and after that the Nazarite may drink wine.
 This is the law of the Nazarite who has vowed, and of his offering unto the LORD for his separation, beside that that the hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the law of his separation.
 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
 Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless^b the children of Israel, saying unto them, The LORD bless^c thee, and^d keep thee;
 The LORD make his face^e shine upon thee, and be gracious^f unto thee;

their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with his meat offering,^a even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering.

9 And^c thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation: and^e thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together:

10 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the LORD: and the children of Israel shall put^f their hands upon the Levites:

11 And Aaron shall^g offer^h the Levites before the LORD for an offering of the children of Israel, that they may executeⁱ the service of the LORD.

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make an atonement for the Levites.

13 And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for an offering unto the LORD.

14 Thus shalt thou separate^k the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be mine.ⁱ

15 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and offer^k them for an offering.

16 For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; instead^l of such as open every womb, even instead of the firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me.

17 For all the firstborn^m of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself.

18 And I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel.

19 And I have givenⁿ the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel: that^p there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the sanctuary.

20 And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did the children of Israel unto them.

21 And the Levites were^q purified, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered^r them as an offering before the LORD; and Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them.

22 And after^v that went the Levites in to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron, and before his sons: as^x the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they unto them.

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 This is it that belongeth unto the Levites: from^a twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in to^h wait upon the service of the tabernacle of the congregation:

25 And from the age of fifty years they shall^k cease waiting upon the service thereof, and shall serve no more:

26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep^a the charge, and shall do no service.^b Thus shalt thou do unto the Levites touching their charge.

CHAPTER IX.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Let the children of Israel also keep the passover at his appointed season.^c

3 In the fourteenth^d day of this month, at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it.

4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

5 And^e they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month, at even, in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 And there were certain men who were defiled^f by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: and^g they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day:

7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the LORD in his appointed season among the children of Israel?

8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you.

9 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD.

11 The fourteenth^h day of the second month, at even, they shall keep it, and eat it with unleavened breadⁱ and bitter herbs.

12 They shall leave none^j of it unto the morning, nor break^k any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it.

13 But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbear^leth to keep the passover, even the same soul^m shall be cut off from among his people: because he brought not the offering of the LORD in his appointedⁿ season, that man shall bear^o his sin.

14 And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: ye shall have one^p ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land.

15 And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up, the cloud covered^q the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and at even^r there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning.

16 So it was alway: the cloud^s covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when^t the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in place where the cloud abode, there children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and the commandment of the LORD they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle, they rested in their tents.

19 And when the cloud β tarried upon the tabernacle many days, then children of Israel kept the charge^d of the LORD, and journeyed not.

20 And so it was, when the cloud α a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed.

CHAPTER X.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Make thee two trumpets of silver: a whole piece shalt thou make them: thou mayest use them for the calling^k the assembly, and for the journeying the camps.

3 And when they shall blow^l with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow^m but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an alarm,ⁿ then the camps that lie on the east^o parts shall forward.

6 When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south^p side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but shall not sound an alarm.

8 And the sons of Aaron, the priests shall blow with the trumpets; and thou shalt be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.

9 And if ye go to war^q in your land against the enemy that oppresseth^r you, then ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be remembered before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved^s from your enemies.

10 Also^t in the day of your gladness, at your solemn days, and in the beginning of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offering: that they may be to you for a^u memorial before your God: I am the LORD your God

And it came to pass on the twentieth of the second month, in the second that the cloud^a was taken up from the tabernacle of the testimony.
 And the children of Israel took their ways out of the wilderness of Siuai;^d the cloud rested in the wilderness of an.^e
 And they first took their journey ording to the commandment of the RD^g by the hand of Moses.
 In the first place went the^h standard the camp of the children of Judah according to their armies: and over his host Nahshon the son of Amminadab.
 And over the host of the tribe of the dren of Issachar was Nethaneel the of Zuar.
 And over the host of the tribo of the dren of Zebulun was Eliab the son of Ion.
 And the tabernacle was taken^m down; the sons of Gershon and the sons of Meⁱ set forward, bearingⁿ the tabernacle.
 And the standard^o of the camp of iben set forward according to their iues: and over his host was Elizur the of Shedeur.
 And over the host of the tribe of the dren of Simeon was Shelumiel the of Zurishaddai.
 And over the host of the tribe of the chil- of Gad was Eliasaph the son of Deuel.
 And the Kohathites set forward, ring the sanctuary:^r and [^]the other did up the tabernacle against they came.
 And the standard^t of the camp of children of Ephraim set forward ac- cording to their armies: and over his t was Elishama the son of Ammihud.
 And over the host of the tribe of the dren of Manasseh was Gamaliel the of Pedahzur.
 And over the host of the tribe of children of Benjamin was Abidan the of Gideon.
 And the standard^u of the camp of the dren of Dau set forward, which was rereward^v of all the camps through- their hosts: and over his host was iezer the son of Ammishaddai.
 And over the host of the tribe of children of Asher was Pagiel the son of Ocran.
 And over the host of the tribe of children of Naphtali was Ahira the of Enan.
 Thus ^vwere the journeyings of the dren of Israel according to their ar- es, when they set forward.
 And Moses said unto Hobab, the of Ragnel^c the Midiauite, Moses' ner in law, We are journeying unto the ce of which the LORD said, I^s will e it you: come thou with us, and we e do thee good: for the LORD hath ken good^h concerning Israel.
 And he said unto him, I will not but I will depart to mine own land, t to my kindred.
 And he said, Leave us not, I pray e: forasmuch as thou knowest how are to encamp in the wilderness, and u mayest be to us instead of eyes.^t
 And it shall be, if thou go with us, , it shall be, that what goodness the RD shall do unto us, the sameⁿ will do unto thee.
 And they departed from the^o mount of the LORD three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD went be- fore^b them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting place for them.

34 And the cloud^c of the LORD was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp.

35 And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, Rise^s up, LORD, and let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee flee before thee.

36 And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, unto the ^βmany thousands of Israel.

CHAPTER XI.

ANDⁱ when the people ^γcomplained, it ^δdispleased the LORD: and the LORD heard ^{it}; and his anger^k was kindled; and the fire^l of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed ^{them} that were in the uttermost parts of the camp.

2 And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses prayed unto the LORD, the fire ^ςwas quenched.

3 And he called the name of the place Taberah: ^γbecause the fire of the LORD burnt among them.

4 And the mixed^p multitude that was among them ^θfell a lusting: and the chil- dren of Israel also ^κwept again, and said, Who ^αshall give us flesh to eat?

5 We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlick:

6 But now^α our soul is dried away: there is nothing at all, beside this manna, before our eyes.

7 And the manna was as coriander seed, and the ^μcolour thereof as the colour of bdellium.^u

8 And the people went about, and gathered ^{it}, and ground ^{it} in mills, or beat ^{it} in a mortar, and baked ^{it} in pans, and made cakes of it: and^v the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil.

9 And when the dew^α fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

10 Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the LORD was kindled^α greatly; Moses also was displeased.^α

11 And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy ser- vant? and wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me?

12 Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that thou shouldest say unto me, Carry^b them in thy bosom, as a nursing father^d beareth the sucking child, unto the land which thou^e swearst unto their fathers?

13 Where^σ should I have flesh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat.

14 Iⁱ am not able to bear all this people alone, because ^{it} is too heavy for me.

15 And if thou deal thus with me,^k kill me, I pray thee, out of hand, if I have found favour in thy sight; and let me not see my wretchedness.

16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy^m men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee.

17 And^a I will come down and talk with thee there: and I will take of the spirit^c which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone.

18 And say thou unto the people, Sanctify^d yourselves against to-morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for ye have wept in the ears^f of the LORD, saying, Who^g shall give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt: therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.

19 Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days;

20 But even a whole month,ⁱ until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that ye have despised the LORD which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth out of Egypt?

21 And Moses said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred^m thousand footmen; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.

22 Shall^o the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?

23 And the LORD said unto Moses, Is^a the LORD's hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether^r my word shall come to pass unto thee or not.

24 And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.

25 And the LORD came down^x in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when^z the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease.

26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them; and they were of them that were written, but went not out unto the tabernacle: and^b they prophesied in the camp.

27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

28 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid^d them.

29 And Moses said unto him, Enviest thou for my sake? Would^f God that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit upon them!

30 And Moses gat him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

31 And there went forth a wind from the LORD, and brought^h quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were^o a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth.

32 And the people stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten^k homers;

CHAPTER XII.

AND Miriam and Aaron spake again Moses because of the ^δ Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he^k had married ^ς an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said, Hath the LORD deed spoken only by Moses? hath uot spoken^k also by us? And the LORD heard^l it.

3 (Now the man Moses was very meek above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)

4 Andⁿ the LORD spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam: Come out ye three unto the tabernacle the congregation. And they three came out.

5 And the LORD came down^r in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.

6 And he said, Hear now my word: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a vision,^s and will speak unto him at^t dream.

7 My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful^u in all mine house.

8 With him will I speak mouth^w to mouth: even apparently, and not in dark speech: and the similitude of the LORD shall he hold: wherefore thou were ye not^y afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

9 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed.

10 And the cloud departed from the tabernacle; and, behold, Miriam came leprous,^a white as snow; and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous.

11 And Aaron said unto Moses, Alas my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the iniquity upon us, wherein we have done foolishly,^c and wherein we have sinned.

12 Let her not be as one dead, of whose flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb.

13 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, Heal^e her now, O God, I beseech thee.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? let her be shut out^g from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again.

15 And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days: and the people journeyed not till Miriam was brought in again.

16 And afterward the people removed from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran.

CHAPTER XIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Sendⁱ thou men, that they may search the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe their fathers shall ye send a man, even a ruler among them.

And Moses by the commandment of LORD sent them^a from the wilderness of Paran: all those men were heads of children of Israel.
And these were their names: of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Hur.
Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori.
Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Ephunneh.
Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph.
Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oshea^f the son of Nun.
Of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu.
Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi.
Of the tribe of Joseph, namely, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi.
Of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli.
Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael.
Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi.
Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.
These are the names of the men which LORD sent to spy out the land. And Moses said Oshea the son of Nun, Jehoshua.ⁿ
And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get up this way southward,^o and go up the mountain:^p
And see the land, what it is; and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many;
And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what the people be that they dwell in, whether they be strong, or in strong holds;
And what the land is, whether it be fruitful or lean, whether there be wood therein, or not: and be ye of good courage,^t and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the firstripe grapes.
So they went up, and searched the land, from the wilderness of Zin^v unto Beeroth, as men come to Hamath.
And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of^x Anak, dwelt. (Now Hebron^z was built seven days before Zoan^a in Egypt.)
And they came unto the brook of Euphrat, and cut down from thence a branch of one cluster of grapes, and they bare it upon two upon a staff; and they brought the pomegranates, and of the figs.
The place was called the brook of Euphrat, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.
And they returned from searching the land after forty days.
And they went and came to Moses, and Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh;^m and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land.
And they told him, and said, We brought thee up to the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it flowethⁿ with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.
Nevertheless the people^o be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great; and moreover we saw the children of Anak^b there.

29 The Amalekites^c dwell in the land of the south; and the Hittites, and the Jobusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordan.

30 And Caleb^d stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once and possess it; for we are well^e able to overcome it.

31 But the men that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we.

32 And^g they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are men of ^h a great stature.

33 And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak,ⁱ which come of the giants; and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers,^k and so we were in their sight.

CHAPTER XIV.

AND all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept^l that night.

2 And all the children of Israel murmured^m against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would God we had died in this wilderness!

3 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us returnⁿ into Egypt.

5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces^o before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

6 And Joshua^u the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of them that searched the land, rent their clothes:

7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land.

8 If the LORD delight^v in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with^b milk and honey.

9 Only rebel^c not ye against the LORD, neither fear^d ye the people of the land; for they are bread^e for us: their defence is departed from them, and the LORD is with us:^f fear^g them not.

10 But all the congregation bade stoupe them^h with stones. Andⁱ the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Israel.

11 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke^k me? and how long will it be ere they believe me,^l for all the signs which I have shewed among them?

12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make ofⁿ thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

13 And Moses^o said unto the LORD, Then^a the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them;)

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have^a heard that thou, LORD, art among this people; that thou, LORD, art seen^c face to face; and that thy cloud^d standeth over them; and that thou^f goest before them, by day time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 Now, if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying,

16 Because^k the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which he swore unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power^m of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken,ⁿ saying,

18 The LORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving^o iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty; visiting^q the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

19 Pardon,^r I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people, according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even ^γ until now.

20 And the LORD said, I have pardoned, according^t to thy word:

21 But as truly as I live, all^v the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD.

22 Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice;

23 ^δ Surely^x they shall not see the land which I swear unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it:

24 But my servant Caleb,^y because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall possess it.

25 (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwelt in the valley.) To morrow turn you, and get you into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.

26 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

27 How long^b shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmur against me? I have heard^c the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me.

28 Say unto them, As truly as I live, saith the LORD, as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you:

29 Your carcases shall fall in this wilderness; and all that were^k numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me,

30 Doubtless ye shall not come into the land concerning which I ^γswore to make you dwell therein, save Caleb the son of Jephunnah, and Joshua the son of Nun.

31 But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which ye have despised.ⁱ

32 But as for you, your carcases,^m they shall fall in this wilderness.

33 And your children shall ^θwander inⁿ the wilderness forty years, and bear your^p whoredoms, until your carcases be wasted in the wilderness.

39 And Moses told these sayings unto all the children of Israel: and the people mourned^r greatly.

40 And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of mountain, saying, Lo, we be here, ⁱ will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned.

41 And Moses said, Wherefore now ye transgress the commandment^u of LORD? but it shall not prosper.

42 Go not up, for the LORD is among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies.

43 For the Amalekites and the naanites are there before you, and shall fall by the sword: because^w ye turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you.

CHAPTER XV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, say-

2 Speak unto the children of Israel and say unto them, When ye be come into the land of your habitations, which I give unto you,

3 And^a will make an offering by unto the LORD, a burnt offering, or sacrifice in ^εperforming a vow,^c or a freewill offering, or in your sole feasts,^f to make a sweet savour^u unto the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock;

4 Then shall he that offereth his offering unto the LORD bring a meat offering of a tenth deal of flour mingled with fourth part of an hin of oil.^k

5 And the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink offering shalt thou prepare with the burnt offering or sacrifice, one lamb.

6 Or for a ram, thou shalt prepare a meat offering two tenth deals of flour mingled with the third part of an hin of wine.

7 And for a drink offering thou shalt offer the third part of an hin of wine, a sweet savour unto the LORD.

8 And when thou preparest a bullock for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice performing a vow, or^o peace offering unto the LORD; offering of three tenth deals of flour ed with half an hin of oil.

And thou shalt bring for a drink ag half an hin of wine, for an offer- made by fire, of a sweet savour unto ORD.

Thus^c shall it be done for one bul- or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid. According to the number that ye prepare, so shall ye do to every one ding to their number.

All that are born of the country do these things after this manner, fering an offering made by fire, of a t savour unto the LORD.

And if a stranger sojourn with you, soever be among you in your genea- as, and will offer an offering made e, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; do, so he shall do.

One^k ordinance shall be both for you e congregation, and also for the ger that sojourneth with you, an or- ce for ever in your generations: as e, so shall the stranger be before the

One law and one manner shall be ou, and for the stranger that sojourn- ith you.

And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and unto them, When^m ye come into the whither I bring you,

Then it shall be, that, when ye eat e bread of the land,^o ye shall offer a heave offering unto the LORD.

Ye shall offer up a cake of the^p first our dough for an heave offering: as o the heave offering^q of the thresh- or, so shall ye heave it.

Then it shall be, if ought be commit- by ignorance ^γ without the knowledge he congregation, that all the cong- n shall offer one young bullock for urnt offering, for a sweet savour unto LORD, with^z his meat offering, and his k offering, according to the^o manner, one kid^b of the goats for a sin offering.

31 Because he hath despised the^d word of the LORD, and hath broken his com- mandment, that soul shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity^e shall be upon him.

32 And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks^f upon the sabbath day.

33 And they that found him gathering sticks brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation:

34 And they put him in ward,^g because it was not declared what should be done to him.

35 And the LORD said unto Moses, The manⁱ shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone^k him with stones without the camp.

36 And^l all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as the LORD commanded Moses.

37 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

38 Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make themⁿ fringes in the borders of their garments, through- out their generations, and that they put upon the fringe of the borders a ribband of blue:

39 And it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the LORD, and do them; and that ye seek not after your^r own heart, and your own eyes, after which ye use to go a^s whoring:

40 That ye may remember, and do^t all my commandments, and be holy^v unto your God.

41 I w am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your^z God: I am the LORD your God.

CHAPTER XVI.

NOW Korah^y the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men:

2 And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hun- dred and fifty princes of the assembly, fa- mous^a in the congregation, men of renown:

3 And^c they gathered themselves toge- ther against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, ^ςYe take too much upon you, seeing all^d the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD^f is among them: wherefore then lift ye up your- selves above the congregation of the LORD?

4 And when Moses heard it, he^g fell upon his face:

5 And he spake unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, Even to morrow the LORD will shew who are his, and who is holy;ⁱ and will cause him^k to come near unto him: even him whom he hath chosen will^l he cause to come near^m unto him.

6 This do: Take you censers, Korah, and all his company;

7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the LORD to morrow: and it shall be that the man whom the LORD doth choose, he shall be holy;^o ye take too much upon you,^p ye sons of Levi.

8 And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi:

9 Seemeth it but a small^b thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated^c you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them?

10 And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also?

11 For which cause both thou and all thy company are gathered together against the LORD: and^d what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab; which said, We will not come up:

13 Isⁱ it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself altogether a prince^k over us?

14 Moreover, thou hast not brought us into a land that floweth^l with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou^o put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

15 And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, Respectⁿ not thou their offering: I^p have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

16 And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aaron, to morrow:

17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye^s before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aaron, each of you his censer.

18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and^u the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

21 Separate^w yourselves from among this congregation, that I may^x consume them in a moment.

22 And they fell^y upon their faces, and said, O God, the God^a of the spirits of all flesh, shall one^b man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moses rose up and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart,^f I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of their's, lest ye be consumed in all their sins.

27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children.

28 And Moses said, Hereby yeⁱ shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all

31 And it came to pass, as he had r an end of speaking all these words, the ground clave asunder that was u them:

CHAPTER XVII.

[D the LORD spake unto Moses, say-

Speak unto the children of Israel, and of every one of them a rod,^g accord-to the house of their fathers, of all princes according to the house of fathers, twelve rods: write thou man's name upon his rod.

And thou shalt write Aaron's name the rod of Levi: for one rod shall be he head of the house of their fathers.

And thou shalt lay them up in the rnacle of the congregation, before the mony, where^k I will meet with you.

And it shall come to pass, that the s rod, whom I shall choose,^m shall som: and I will make to cease from me murmurings of the children of Israel, rebyⁿ they murmur against you.

And Moses spake unto the children rael; and every one of their princes him ^βa rod apiece, for each prince according to their fathers' houses, twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron among their rods.

And Moses laid up the rods before
LORD in the tabernacle^t of witness.

And it came to pass, that on the mor-Moses went into the tabernacle of ess; and, behold, the rod^u of Aaron the house of Levi was budded, and ight forth buds, and bloomed bloss, and yielded almonds.

And Moses brought out all the rods a before the LORD unto all the chilof Israel: and they looked, and every man his rod.

And the LORD said unto Moses,
ing Aaron's rod again before the tesony, to be kept^z for a token against rebels; and thou shalt quite take y their murmurings from me, that y die not.

And Moses did so: as the LORD
manded him, so did he.

And the children of Israel spake e Moses, saying, Behold, we die, we sh,^c we all perish.

Whosoever^d cometh any thing^e near

: shall we be consumed with dying?

the sanctuary and the altar, that neither they nor ye also die.

4 And they shall be joined unto thee, and keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the service of the tabernacle: and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you.

5 And ye shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the^d altar; that there be no wrath^e any more upon the children of Israel.

6 And I, behold, I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel: to you they are^f given as a gift for the LORD, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 Therefore thou^h and thy sons with thee shall keep your priest's office for every thing of the altar, and withinⁱ the vail; and ye shall serve: I have given your priest's office unto you as a service of gift: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

8 And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Behold, I also have given thee the charge of mine heave offerings^j of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them, by reason of the anointing,ⁿ and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever.

9 This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: Every oblation of their's, every^p meat offering of their's, and every sin offering^q of their's, and every trespass offering^r of their's, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons.

10 In^s the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee.

11 And this is thine: the heave offering^v of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee,^w and to thy sons, and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is^x clean in thy house shall eat of it.

12 All the y^{best} of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the firstfruits^y of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, them have I given thee.

13 And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be thine: every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it.

14 Every^a thing devoted in Israel shall be thine.

15 Every^b thing that openeth the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless the firstborn of man shalt thou surely redeem,^f and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem.

16 And those that are to be redeemed, from a month old shalt thou redeem, according to thine estimation,^h for the money of fiveⁱ shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which^k is twenty gerahs.

17 But the firstling^l of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem; they are holy: thou shalt sprinkleⁿ their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as^q the wave breast and as the right shoulder are thine.

19 All^a the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a^d covenant of salt for ever before the LORD unto thee, and to thy seed with thee.

20 And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

21 And, behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth^k in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they bear sin, and ^β die.^l

23 But^m the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity. It shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance.

24 But the tithesⁿ of the children of Israel, which they offer as an heave offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

25 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up an heave offering of it for the LORD, even a tenth part^s of the tithe.

27 And this your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though^u it were the corn of the threshingfloor, and as the fulness of the winepress.

28 Thus ye also shall offer an heave offering unto the LORD of all your tithes which ye receive of the children of Israel, and ye shall give thereof the LORD's heave offering to Aaron the priest.

29 Out of all your gifts ye shall offer every heave offering of the LORD, of all the ^δ best thereof, even the hallowed part thereof out of it.

30 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye have heaved the best thereof from it, then^v it shall be counted unto the Levites as the increase of the threshingfloor, and as the increase of the winepress.

31 And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your households: for it is your reward^z for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And ye shall bear^b no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the best of it: neither shall ye pollute^c the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

11 He^t that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days.

12 He^r shall purify himself with it the third day, and on the seventh day shall be clean: but if he purify not he self the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean.

13 Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not he self, defileth^t the tabernacle of the LORD, and that soul shall be cut off from Israel, because the water^v of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be clean; his uncleanness^w is yet upon him.

15 And every open vessel,^x which hath no covering bound upon it, is unclean.

16 And whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

17 And for an unclean person they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer purification for sin, and ^y running water shall be put thereto in a vessel;

18 And a clean person shall take hyssop,^a and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave:

19 And the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day; and on^d the seventh day he shall purify himself, and wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at even.

20 But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation, because he hath defiled^f the sanctuary of the LORD: the water separation hath not been sprinkled upon him; he is unclean.

And it shall be a perpetual statute to them, that he that sprinkleth thee with water of separation shall wash his clothes; and he that toucheth the water of separation shall be unclean until even.

And whatsoever^a the unclean person toucheth shall be unclean; and^b the vessel that toucheth it shall be unclean until even.

CHAPTER XX.

THEN^a came the children of Israel, with the whole congregation, unto the desert of Zin, in the first month; and the people abode in Kadesh; and^c Miriam died there, and was buried there.

And^d there was no water for the congregation; and^e they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

And the people chode with Moses, saying, Would^f God that we died when our brethren died before the LORD!

And why have ye brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there?

And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place? it^g is no place of seed, of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink.

And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces; and the glory of the LORD appeared unto them.

And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

Take the rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock:^h so thou shalt give water unto the congregation and their beasts drink.

And Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock; and they said unto them, Hear now, ye rebels:ⁱ must we fetch you water out of this rock?

And Moses lifted up his hand, and smote the rock twice: and water came out abundantly: and the congregation drank, and their beasts also.

And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, Because^j ye believed me not, to sanctify^k me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

This is the water of^l Meribah; because the children of Israel strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified^m in them.

Andⁿ Moses sent messengers from Kadesh unto the king of Edom, Thus saith^o thy brother Israel, Thou knowest the travail that hath^p befallen us:

How our fathers went down^q into Egypt, and we have dwelt^r in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians vexed us and our fathers:

And when^s we cried unto the LORD, he heard^t our voice, and sent^u an angel, and hath brought us forth out of Egypt; and, behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of thy border:

Let^v us pass, I pray thee, through thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's high way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders.

18 And Edom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

19 And the childreⁿ of Israel said unto him, We will go by the high way; and^c if I and my cattle drink of thy water, then I will pay for it: I will only, without doing any thing else, go through ou my feet.

20 And he said, Thou^d shalt not go through. And Edom came out^e against him with much people, and with a strong hand.

21 Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his border: wherefore Israel turned away from him.

22 And^f the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, journeyed from Kadesh, and came unto mount Hor.

23 And the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in mount Hor, by the coast of the land of Edom, saying, 24 Aaron shall be gathered^g unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye rebelled^h against myⁱ word at the water of Meribah.

25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up unto mount Hor;

26 And strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son: and Aaron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as the LORD commanded: and they went up into mount Hor, in the sight of all the congregation.

28 And^j Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there in the top of the mount: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mount.

29 And when all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirty days, even all the house of Israel.

CHAPTER XXI.

AND when king Arad^k the Canaanite, which dwelt in the south, heard tell that Israel came by the way^l of the spies; then he fought against Israel, and took some of them prisoners.

2 And Israel vowed^m a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, thou I will utterlyⁿ destroy their cities.

3 And the LORD hearkened^o to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and he called the name of the place^p Hormah.

4 And^q they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to compass the land^r of Edom: and the soul of the people was much^s discouraged because of the way.

5 And the people spake^t against God, and against Moses, Wherefore^u have ye brought us up out of Egypt, to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is^v there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread.

6 And^w the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died.

7 Therefore^x the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken^a against the LORD, and against thee; pray^b unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed^c for the people.

8 And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live.

9 And Moses made a serpent^d of brass, and put it upon a pole: and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

10 And the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in Oboth.^e

11 And they journeyed from Oboth, and pitched at^f Ije-abarim, in the wilderness which is before Moab, toward the sunrising.

12 From thence they removed, and pitched in the valley of Zared.^g

13 From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of^h Arnon, which is in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

14 Wherefore it is said in the book of the wars of the LORD, ⁱWhat he did in the Red Sea, and in the brooks of Arnon,

15 And at the stream of the brooks that goeth down to the dwelling of Ar,^j and lieth^k upon the border of Moab.

16 And from thence they went to^l Beer: that is the well whereof the LORD^m spake unto Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water.

17 Then Israel sangⁿ this song, ^oSpring up, O well; ^psing ye unto it:

18 The princes digged the well, the nobles of the people digged it, by the direction of the lawgiver,^q with their staves. And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah:

19 And from Mattanah to Nahaliel: and from Nahaliel to Bamoth:

20 And from Bamoth in the valley, that is in the^r country of Moab, to the top of^s Pisgah, which looketh^t toward Jeshimon.^u

21 And^v Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying,

22 Let^w me pass through thy land: we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the king's high way, until we be past thy borders.

23 And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border; but^x Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

24 And^y Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Israel took all these cities: and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all the villages^z thereof.

26 For Heshbon^{aa} was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Arnon.

27 Wherefore they that speak in proverbs^{ab} say, Come into Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built and prepared:

Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon that hath consumed Ar^c of Moab, and the lords of the high places of Arnon.

29 Woe to thee, Moab! thou art done, O people of Chemosh:^e he given his sons that escaped, and his daughters, into captivity unto Sihon king the Amorites.

30 We have shot at them: Heshbon perished even unto Dibon,^f and we laid them waste even unto Nophah, ^gwe reacheth unto Medeba.

31 Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moses sent to spy out^h Jaab and they took the villages thereof, drove out the Amorites that were there.

33 Andⁱ they turned and went up the way of Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to the battle at Edrei.

34 And the LORD said unto Moses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, his land; and thou shalt do to him thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

35 So^j they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was left him alive: and they possessed his land.

CHAPTER XXII.

AND^k the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in the plains of Moab on this side Jordan by Jericho.

2 And Balak^l the son of Zipporah, all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And^m Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel.

4 And Moab said unto the elders of Midian, Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the lion licketh up the grass of the field. ⁿAnd Balak the son of Zipporah was king of the Moabites at that time.

5 He sent^o messengers, therefore, unto Balaam, the son of Beor, to Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt, behold, they cover the face of the earth: and they abide over against me.

6 Come now, therefore, I pray thee, curse^p me this people, for they are mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and I may drive them out of the land; for I wot that he whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed.

7 And the elders of Moab, and the elders of Midian, departed with the wards^q of divination in their hand; and they came unto Balaam, and spake unto him the words of Balak.

8 And he said unto them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again as the LORD shall speak unto me: for the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 And God came unto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam said unto God, Balak the son of Zipporah, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying,

11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth: come now, curse me them; peradventure^r I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out.

And God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for^b they are blessed.

And Balaam rose up in the morning, said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the LORD refuseth to give me leave to go with you.

And the princes of Moab rose up, they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam refuseth to come with us.

And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they.

And they came to Balaam, and said unto him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zipor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me:

For I will promote thee unto very great honour, and I will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me: come^t therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, If^m Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD, to do less or more.

Now therefore, I pray you, tarry ye here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say unto me more.

And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come and call thee, rise up, and go with them; yet^t the word which I shall say unto thee, that shalt thou do.

And Balaam rose up in the morning, saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

And God's anger was kindled because he went: and^s the angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him.

And the ass saw^t the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the wilderness: and Balaam smote the ass, to turn him into the way.

But the angel of the LORD stood in the path of the vineyards, a wall being on his side, and a wall on that side.

And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

And the angel of the LORD went before her, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff.

And the LORD opened^a the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would that I were armed with a sword in mine hand,^c for I would I kill thee.

And the ass said unto Balaam, Am I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since? I was thine unto this day: was I ever wont to do so unto thee? and he said, Nay.

Then the LORD opened^v the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed^a down his head, and^β fell flat on his face.

32 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass^c these three times? behold, I went out^γ to withstand thee, because thy^d way is perverse^f before me:

33 And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive.

34 And Balaam said unto the angel of the LORD, I^g have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore, if it^ς displease thee, I^h will get me back again.

35 And the angel of the LORD said unto Balaam, Go^t with the men: but^k only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, which is in the utmost coast.

37 And Balak said unto Balaam, Did I not earnestly send unto thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not unto me? am I not able indeed to promote^p thee to honour?

38 And Balaam said unto Balak, Lo, I am come unto thee: have I now any power at all to say any thing? the word^r that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak.

39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came unto^γ Kirjath-buzoth.

40 And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high^u places of Baal, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

CHAPTER XXIII.

AND Balaam said unto Balak,^v Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven oxen and seven rams.

2 And Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered^w on every altar a bullock and a ram.

3 And Balaam said unto Balak,^x Stand by thy burnt offering, and I will go: peradventure the LORD will come to meet me: and whatsoever he sheweth me I will tell thee. And he went^θ to an high place.

4 And^y God met Balaam: and he said unto him, I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram.

5 And the LORD put^z a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Return unto Balak, and thus thou shalt speak.

6 And he returned unto him; and, lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Moab.

7 And he took up his parable,^b and said, Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from Aram, out of the mountains of the east, saying, Come, curse^d me Jacob, and come, defy^e Israel.

8 How^f shall I curse, whom God hath not cursed? or how shall I defy, whom the LORD hath not defied?

9 For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, the people shall dwell alone,^h and shallⁱ not be reckoned among the nations.

10 Who^a can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let ^βme die the death^b of the righteous, and let my last end be like his!

11 And Balak said unto Balaam, What hast thou done unto me? I^d took thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast blessed them altogether.

12 And he answered and said,^c Must I not take heed to speak that which the LORD hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto^f another place, from whence thou mayest see them: thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all; and curse me them from thence.

14 And he brought him into the field of Zophim, to the top of ^δPisgah, and builtⁱ seven altars, and offered^k a bullock and a ram on every altar.

15 And he said unto Balak, Stand here by thy burnt offering, while I meet the LORD yonder.

16 And the LORD met Balaam, and put^l a word in his mouth, and said, Go again unto Balak, and say thus.

17 And when he came to him, behold, he stood by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. And Balak said unto him, What^q hath the LORD spoken?

18 And he took up his parable, and said, Rise^r up, Balak, and hear; hearken unto me, thou son of Zippor:

19 God^s is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repeat: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath^u he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

20 Behold, I have received commandment to bless, and he^v hath blessed; and I cannot^w reverse it.

21 He^x hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen perverseness in Israel: the LORD^y his God is with him, and the shout^c of a king is among them.

22 God^a brought them out of Egypt: he hath^b as it were the strength of an unicorn.

23 Surely there is no enchantment against ^ζJacob, neither is there any divination against Israel: according to this time it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What^c hath God wrought!

24 Behold, the people shall rise up^d as a great lion, and lift up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down^e until he eat of the prey, and drink the blood of the slain.

25 And Balak said unto Balaam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all.

26 But Balaam answered^f and said unto Balak, Told not I thee, saying, All that the LORD speaketh, that I must do?

27 And Balak said unto Balaam, Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee unto another place: peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse me them from thence.

28 And Balak brought Balaam unto the top of Peor, that looketh toward Jeshimon.

29 And Balaam said unto Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks and seven rams.

30 And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

3 And he took up his parable, and Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and man ^γwhose eyes are open hath said;

4 He hath said, which heard the word of God, which saw the vision of the mighty, falling into a trance, but his eyes open:

5 How goodly are thy tents, O Ja and thy tabernacles, O Israel!

6 As the valleys are they spread forth as gardens by^g the river's side, as trees of lign aloes which the LORD planted, and as^h cedar trees beside waters.

7 He shall pour the water out of buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters, and his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.

8 God brought him forth out of Egypt: he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn: he shall eat up the nations' enemies, and shall break^m their bones, pierceⁿ them through with his arrows.

9 He couched, he lay down as^o a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? Blessed^q is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

10 And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he smote his hand together: and Balak said unto Balaam, I called thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast altogether blessed them these three times.

11 Therefore now flee thou to thy place: I thought to promote thee unto great honour; but, lo, the LORD hath turned thee back from honour.

14 And now, behold, I go unto thee, and thou sayest, curse these people: I will advise thee what this people shall do to thy people in the latter days.

15 And he took up his parable, and said unto Balak the son of Beor hath said, and man whose eyes are open hath said;

CHAPTER XXV.

ND Israel abode in Shittim,^t and the ple began to commit whoredom^k with daughters of Moab.

And ^mthey called the people unto the rifices of their gods: and the people eat, and bowedⁿ down to their gods.

And Israel joined^o himself unto al-peor: and the anger of the LORD kindled against Israel.

And the LORD said unto Moses,^q

g them up before the LORD against sun, that the fierce^r anger of the LORD
y be turned away from Israel.

And Moses said unto the judges of el, Slay^s ye every one his men that

And he went after the man of Israel

ough, the man of Israel, and the wo-

s stayed from the children of Israel.

And those^s that died in the plague

5 And the name of the Midianitish

54 To^κ many thou shalt ^ζ give the more inheritance, and to few thou shalt ^η give the less inheritance: to every one shall his inheritance be given according to those that were numbered of him.

65 For the LORD had said^b of them, The all surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAPTER XXVII.

WHEN came the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gad, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph: and these are the names of his daughters; Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah.

And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

Our father died in the wilderness, and was not in the company of them that inherited themselves together against the LORD in the company of Korah; but died in his own sin, and had no sons.

Why should the name of our father be done away from among his family, because he hath no son? Give unto us, therefore, a possession among the brethren of our father.

And Moses brought their cause before the LORD.

And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

The daughters of Zelophehad speak right: thou shalt surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them.

And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass unto his daughter.

And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

And if he have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his father's brethren.

And if his father have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his nearest kinsman that is next to him of his family, he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Israel a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Get thee up into this mount Abarim, and behold the land which I have given unto the children of Israel.

And when thou hast seen it, thou shalt say unto the people of Israel, Ye shall be gathered unto thy people, Aaron thy brother was gathered.

For ye rebelled against my commandment in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify me at the water before their eyes: that is the water of Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

And Moses spake unto the LORD, saying,

Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of the flesh, set a man over the congregation, which may go out before them, and which may lead them out, and which may bring them in; that the congregation of the LORD be not as sheep which have no shepherd.

And the LORD said unto Moses, Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom the spirit is, and lay thine hand upon him;

And set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation; and give him a charge in their sight.

20 And thou shalt put some of thine honour upon him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient.

22 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him: and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, My offering, and my bread for my sacrifices made by fire, for a sweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to offer unto me in their due season.

3 And thou shalt say unto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD; two lambs of the first year without spot, day by day, for a continual burnt offering.

4 The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer at even;

5 And a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a meat offering, mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil.

6 It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

7 And the drink offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin for the one lamb: in the holy place shalt thou cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a drink offering.

8 And the other lamb shalt thou offer at even: as the meat offering of the morning, and as the drink offering thereof, thou shalt offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

9 And on the sabbath day two lambs of the first year without spot, and two tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, and the drink offering thereof.

10 This is the burnt offering of every sabbath, beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

11 And in the beginnings of your months ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without spot;

12 And three tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, for one bullock; and two tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, for one ram;

13 And a several tenth deal of flour mingled with oil, for a meat offering unto one lamb, for a burnt offering of a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

14 And their drink offerings shall be half an hin of wine unto a bullock, and the third part of an hin unto a ram, and a fourth part of an hin unto a lamb: this is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year.

15 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering unto the LORD shall be offered, beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

16 And in the fourteenth^b day of the first month is the passover of the LORD.

17 And in the fifteenth day of this month is the feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.

18 In the first day shall be an holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work therein:

19 But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire, for a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be unto you without^c blemish:

20 And their meat offering shall be of flour mingled with oil: three tenth deals shall ye offer for a bullock, and two tenth deals for a ram;

21 A several tenth deal shalt thou offer for every lamb, throughout the seven lambs:

22 And one goat^h for a sin offering, to make an atonement for you.

23 Ye shall offer these beside the burnt offering in the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering.

24 After this manner ye shall offer daily, throughout the seven days, the meat of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: it shall be offered beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

25 And on the seventh day ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work.

26 Also in^k the day of the firstfruits, when ye bring a new meat offering unto the LORD, after your weeks be out, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work:

27 But ye shall offer the burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD: two young bullocks, one ram, seven lambs of the first year;

28 And their meat offering of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals unto one bullock, two tenth deals unto one ram,

29 A several tenth deal unto one lamb, throughout the seven lambs;

30 And one kid of the goats, to make an atonement for you.

31 Ye shall offer them beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, (they shall be unto you without blemish,) ^m and their drink offerings.

CHAPTER XXIX.

AND in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work; it^o is a day of blowing the trumpets unto you.

2 And ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD; one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without blemish:

3 And their meat offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals for a bullock, and two tenth deals for a ram,

4 And one tenth deal for one lamb, throughout the seven lambs;

5 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering, to make an atonement for you:

6 Beside the^p burnt offering of the month, and his meat offering, and^q the daily burnt offering, and his meat offering, and their drink offerings, according^r unto their manner, for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

22 And one goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, and the meat offering, and his drink offering.

23 And on the fourth day ten bullocks two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

24 Their meat offering, and their drink offerings, for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

25 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering.

26 And on the fifth day nine bullocks two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without spot:

27 And their meat offering, and their drink offerings, for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

28 And one goat for a sin offering beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering.

29 And on the sixth day eight bullocks two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first without blemish :

 0 And their meat offering, and their drink offerings, for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner :
 1 And one goat for a sin offering ; beside the continual burnt offering, his drink offering, and his drink offering.
 2 And on the seventh day seven bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish :
 3 And their meat offering, and their drink offerings, for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner :
 4 And one goat for a sin offering ; beside the continual burnt offering, his drink offering, and his drink offering.
 5 On the eighth^d day ye shall have a solemn assembly ; ye shall do no service work therein :
 6 But ye shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour to the LORD ; one bullock, one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish :
 7 Their meat offering, and their drink offerings, for the bullock, for the ram, for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner :
 8 And one goat for a sin offering ; beside the continual burnt offering, and meat offering, and his drink offering.
 9 These things ye shall ^βdo unto the LORD in your set^d feasts, beside your vows,^e and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meat offerings, and for your drink offerings, for your peace offerings.
 10 And Moses told the children of Israel, according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

CHAPTER XXX.

AND Moses spake unto the heads^h of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded.
 2 If a man vowⁱ a vow unto the LORD, and swear^k an oath to bind his soul with bond ; he shall not ^δbreak his word, he shall do^l according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.
 3 If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth ;
 4 And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace there ; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand.
 5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth ; not any of her vows, or of her bonds, wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand : and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.
 6 And if she had at all an husband, when she vowed, or uttered ought out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul ;
 7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it ; then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.
 8 But if her husband^r disallowed her in the day that he heard it ; then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect :

16 These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses between a man and his wife ; between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house.

CHAPTER XXXI.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Avenge^f the children of Israel of the Midianites : afterward shalt thou be gathered^g unto thy people.

3 And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the LORD of Midian.

4 Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.

5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

6 And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to^m blow, in his hand.

7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses ; andⁿ they slew all the males.

8 And^o they slew the kings of Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain ; namely, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian : Balaam also, the son of Beor, they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

10 And they^p burnt all their cities wherein they dwell, and all their goodly castles, with fire.

11 And they took all the spoil,^q and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains^s of Moab, which are

by Jordan near Jorieho.

13 And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp.

14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the β battle.

15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved all the women α alive?

16 Behold, these β caused the children of Israel, through the counsel ϵ of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among δ the congregation of the LORD.

17 Now therefore ϵ kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with γ him.

18 But all the women children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

19 And do ye abide without the camp seven days: whosoever θ hath killed any person, and whosoever hath touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day.

20 And purify all your raiment, and all that δ is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

21 And Eleazar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses;

22 Only the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

23 Every thing that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean; nevertheless it shall be purified ι with the water of separation: and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make go through the water.

24 And κ ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp.

25 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Take the sum of the prey η that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation;

27 And divide ι the prey into two parts; between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation.

28 And levy a tribute π unto the LORD of the men of war which went out to battle: one θ soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep:

29 Take it of their half, and give it unto Eleazar the priest, for an heave offering of the LORD.

30 And of the children of Israel's half, thou shalt take η one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, and of the λ flocks, of all manner of beasts, and give ϵ them unto the Levites, which ι keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of war had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep,

33 And threescore and twelve thousand beeves,

34 And threescore and one thousand asses,

36 And the half, which was the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand and seven thirty thousand and five hundred sheep

37 And the LORD's tribute of the slain was six hundred and threescore and fifty 38 And the beeves were thirty and thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and twelve.

39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the LORD's tribute was threescore and one.

40 And the persons were sixteen thousand; of which the LORD's tribute thirty and two persons.

41 And Moses gave the tribute, which was the LORD's heave offering, unto Eleazar the priest, as ζ the LORD commanded Moses.

42 And of the children of Israel's half, which Moses divided from the men that warred, 49 And they said unto Moses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war which are under our charge, and there lacketh not one man of us.

50 We have therefore brought an oblation for the LORD, what every man hath gotten, θ of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and table to make π an atonement for our souls before the LORD.

51 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of them, even all wrought jewels.

52 And all the gold of the κ offering that they offered up to the LORD, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels.

53 (For the men of war had ρ taken spoil, every man for himself.)

54 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought into the tabernacle of the congregation for π a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXII.

NOW the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, had a very great multitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that, behold, the place was a place for cattle;

2 The children of Gad, and the children of Reuben, came and spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying,

3 Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and urah,^a and Heshbon,^b and Elealeh, Shebam,^c and Nebo, and Beon,^d Even the country^f which the LORD gave before the congregation of Israel, is for cattle, and thy servants have le:

Wherefore, said they, if we have ad grace in thy sight, let this land be n unto thy servants for a possession, & bring ns not over Jordan.

And Moses said unto the children of Gad l to the children of Reuben, Shall your thren go to war, and shall ye sit here?

And wherefore^β discourage ye the rt of the children of Israel from ng over into the land which the LORD h given them?

Thus did your fathers, whenⁱ I sent m from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.

For when they went up unto the valley Eshcol, and saw the land, they dis- ragged the heart of the children of ael, that they should not go into the d which the LORD had given them.

0 And^k the LORD's anger was kindled same time, and he sware, saying,

1 Surely none of the men that came out of Egypt, from twenty years old l npward, shall see the land which I ire nuto Abraham, nuto Isaac, and o Jacob; because^l they have γ not olly followed me;

2 Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh Keuezeite, and Joshna the son of Nun; they have wholly followed the LORD.

3 And the LORD's anger was kindled inst Israel, and he made them^o wander the wilderness forty years, until^p all generation that had done evil in the it of the LORD was consumed.

4 And, behold, ye are risen up in ir fathers' stead, an increase^q of sinful n, to augment^r yet the fierce anger of e LORD toward Israel.

5 For if^v ye turn away from after him, will yet again leave^w them in the wil- ness, and ye shall destroy all this people.

6 And they came near nuto him, and l, We will build sheepfolds here for e cattle, and cities for our little ones;

7 But we^c ourselves will go ready armed ore the children of Israel, until we have ough them nuto their plaee: and our le ones shall dwell in the fenced cities, ause of the inhabitants of the land.

8 We^e will not return unto our houses, til the children of Israel have inhe- ed every man his inheritance:

9 For we will not inherit with them yonder side Jordan, or forward; be- use^g our inheritance is fallen to us on s side Jordan eastward.

10 Andⁱ Moses said unto them, If ye l do this thing, if ye will go armed ore the LORD to war,

11 And will go all of you armed over rdan before the LORD, until he hath ven out his enemies from before him, 12 And the land be subdned^k before e LORD; then afterward^l ye shall rn, and be guiltless before the LORD, d before Israel; and this land shall be ur possession before the LORD.

13 But if yo will not do so, behold, have sinned against the LORD: and sure your sin^m will find you out.

14 Builⁿ yon cities for your little es, and folds for your sheep; and do that uch hath proceeded out of your month.

28 So concerniug them Moses com- manded Eleazar the priest, and Joshna the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel:

29 And^h Moses said unto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over Jordau, every man armed to battle, before the LORD, and the land shall be subdned before you, then ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession:

30 But if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among yon in the land of Canaan.

31 And the ehildren of Gad and tho children of Reuben answered, saying, As the LORD hath said unto thy ser- vants, so will we do.

32 We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, that tho possession of our inheritance on this side Jordan may be onr's.

33 And^m Moses gave nuto them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Renben, and unto half the tribe of Manas- seh the son of Joseph,ⁿ the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the king- dom of Og king of Bashan, the land, with the cities thereof in the coasts, even the cities of the country round about.

38 And^f Aaron the priest went up mount Hor, at the commandment of LORD, and died there, in the fortieth after the children of Israel were out of the land of Egypt, in the first of the fifth month.

39 And Aaron was an hundred twenty and three years old when died in mount Hor.

40 And king Aradⁱ the Canaan which dwelt in the south, in the land Canaan, heard of the coming of children of Israel.

41 And they departed from m Hor,^m and pitched in Zalmonah.

42 And they departed from Zalmonah and pitched in Punon.

43 And they departed from Punon and pitched in Oboth.ⁿ

44 And they departed from Oboth, pitched in ^βIje-abarim,^p in the border of Moab.

45 And they departed from Iim, pitched in Dibon-gad.^q

46 And they removed from Dibon and encamped in Almon-diblathaim.^r

47 And they removed from Almon-diblathaim, and^s pitched in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.

48 And they departed from the mountains of Abarim,^u and pitched in the plain of Moab, by Jordan near Jericho.

49 And they pitched by Jordan, fi Beth-jesimoth even unto ^δAbel-shittim^x the plains of Moab.

50 And the LORD spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan n Jericho, saying,

51 Speak unto the children of Israel and say unto them, When^a ye are passed over Jordan, into the land of Canaan;

52 Then^b ye shall drive out all inhabitants of the land from before ye and destroy all their pictures, and shall stroy all their molten images, and shall pluck down all their high places:

53 And ye shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land, and dwell therein: I have given you the land to possess it.

54 And^c ye shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families, and to the more ye shall ^εgive the more inheritance, and to the fewer ye shall give ^γthe less inheritance: every man's inheritance shall be in the place where he shall lot falleth; according to the tribes your fathers ye shall inherit.

55 But^d if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before ye, then it shall come to pass, that the which ye let remain of them shall prick in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell.

56 Moreover, it shall come to pass, that I shall do unto you, as I thought to do unto them.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land of Canaan, (this is the land that shall fall unto you for an inheritance, even the land of Canaan, with the coasts thereof,

Then^a your south quarter shall be the wilderness of Zin, along by the border of Edom; and your south border shall be the outmost coast of the salt sea^b eastward.
And your border shall turn from the north to the ascent of Akrabbim, and pass on to Zin; and the going forth thereof shall be from the south to^d Kadesh-barnea, and shall go on to Hazar-addar, and pass on to Azmon.
And the border shall fetch a compass from Azmon unto the river of Egypt,^e and the goings out of it shall be at the sea.
And as for the western border, ye shall even have the great sea for a border: this shall be your west border.
And this shall be your north border: from the great sea ye shall point out for mount^f Hor:
From mount Hor ye shall point out your border unto the entrance of Hamath;^h and the goings forth of the border shall be to Zedad:
And the border shall go on to Ziphron, and the goings out of it shall be at Hazar-nan:ⁱ this shall be your north border.
And ye shall point out your east border from Hazar-enan to Shepham:
And the coast shall go down from Shepham to Riblah,^m on the east side of it; and the border shall descend, and shall reach unto the β side of the sea of Hinnerethⁿ eastward.
And the border shall go down to Jordan, and the goings out of it shall be to the salt sea: this shall be your land, and the coasts thereof round about.
3 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which shall inherit by lot,^p which the LORD commanded to give unto the nine tribes, and to the half tribe:
4 For^q the tribe of the children of Ruben according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance; and the half tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance:
5 The two tribes and the half tribe have received their inheritance on this side Jordan near Jericho eastward, toward the sunrising.
6 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, These are the names of the men which I will divide the land unto you;^v Eleazar priest, and Joshua the son of Nun.
7 And ye shall take one prince^x of every tribe, to divide the land by inheritance.
8 And the names of the men are these: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh.
9 And of the tribe of the children of Reuben, Shemuel the son of Ammihud.
10 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon.
11 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Dan, Bukki the son of Jogli.

CHAPTER XXXV.
AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab, by Jordan near Jericho, saying,
2 Command^f the children of Israel, that they give unto the Levites, of the inheritance of their possession, cities to dwell in; and ye shall give also unto the Levites suburbs for the cities round about them.
3 And the cities shall they have to dwell in; and the suburbs of them shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their beasts.
4 And the suburbs^k of the cities, which ye shall give unto the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city and outward, a thousand cubits round about.
5 And ye shall measure from without the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits; and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be to them the suburbs of the cities.
6 And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites, there shall be six cities^o for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee thither: and γ to them ye shall add forty and two cities.
7 So all the cities which ye shall give to the Levites shall be forty and eight^r cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs.
8 And the cities which ye shall give shall be of the possession^s of the children of Israel: from^t them that have many ye shall give many; but from them that have few ye shall give few: every one shall give of his cities unto the Levites, according to his inheritance which^u he inheriteth.
9 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When^v ye be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan;
11 Then^w ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which killeth any person at^x unawares.
12 And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger;^y that the manslayer die not, until he stand before the congregation in judgment.
13 And of these cities which ye shall give, six^z cities shall ye have for refuge.
14 Ye shall give three^{aa} cities on this side Jordan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan, which shall be cities of refuge.
15 These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Israel, and for the stranger,^{bb} and for the sojourner among them; that every one that killeth any person unawares may flee thither.
16 And^{cc} if he smite him with an instrument of iron so that he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

17 And if he smite him ^β with throwing a stone, wherewith he may die, and he die, he ^{is} a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or ^{if} he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may die, and he die, he ^{is} a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The ^c reveuger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him.

20 But if he thrust him of hatred, ^e or hurl at him by laying ^f of wait, that he die;

21 Or in cunity smite him with his hand, that he die; he that smote ^{him} shall surely be put to death; ^{for} he ^{is} a murderer: the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him.

22 But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or have east upon him any thing without laying of wait,

23 Or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, seeing ^{him} uot, and east ^{it} upon him, that he die, and ^{was} not his enemy, ueither sought his harm;

24 Then the congregation ⁱ shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood according to these judgments:

25 And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the high priest, which was anointed ^l with the holy oil.

26 But if the slayer shall at any time come without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled;

27 And the reveuger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; [§] he shall not be guilty of blood;

28 Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest; but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29 So these ^{things} shall be for a statute of ^p judgment unto you, throughout your generations, in all your dwellings.

30 Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses: ^q but one witness shall not testify against any person to ^{cause} him to die.

31 Moreover, ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which ^{is} guilty ^θ of death; but he shall be surely put to death.

32 And ye shall take no satisfaction for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye ^{are}; for blood it ^Δ defileth the land: and ^Λ the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but ^μ by the blood of him that shed it.

34 Defile not ^ν therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for

CHAPTER XXXVI.

AND the chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead, ^b the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, near, and spake before Moses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of children of Israel:

2 And they said, The LORD ^d command my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel, and ^g my lord was commanded by LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters:

3 And if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto ^γ they are received: so shall be taken from the lot of our inheritance:

4 And when the jubilee ^h of the children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of the tribe of their fathers.

5 And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph hath said ^k well.

6 This ^{is} the thing which the LORD doth command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let ^δ them marry to whom they think best; only ^m to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry:

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe; for every one of the children of Israel shall ^η keep ⁿ himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And ^ο every daughter, that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance:

10 Even ^ρ as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad:

11 For ^s Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Mileah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married unto the sons of their father's brothers.

12 And they were married ^κ into the families of the sons of Manasseh, the son of Joseph; and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These ^{are} the commandments and judgments which the LORD commanded, by the hand of Moses, unto the children of Israel, ^ω in the plains of Moab, by Jordau near Jericho.

CHAPTER I.

ESE be the words which Moses spake all Israel on this^b side Jordan, in the rness, in the plain over against the Sea, between Paran, and Tophel, Laban, and Hazeroth, and Dizahab.
(There are eleven days' journey from eb, by the way of mount Seir, unto esh-barnea.)
And it came to pass in the fortieth in the eleventh month, on the first of the month, that Moses spake unto children of Israel, according unto all the LORD had given him in comdment unto them;
After he had slain^d Sihon the king of Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt in Edrei:
On this side Jordan, in the land of Moab,
Moses to declare this law, saying,
The LORD our God spake unto us Horeb, saying, Ye have dwelt long ugh in this mount:
Turn^e you, and take your journey, and e the mount of the Amorites, and unto the places nigh thereunto, in the plain, the hills, and in the vale, and in the th, and by the sea side, to the land of Canaanites, and unto Lebanon, unto great river, the river Euphrates.
Behold, I have^g set the land before : go in and possess the land which LORD sware^k unto your fathers, aham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto n, and to their seed after them.
And I spake unto you at that time, ug, I am^m not able to bear you my-alone:
The LORD your God hath multiplied , and, behold, ye are this day as the sⁿ of heaven for multitude.
1 (The LORD^p God of your fathers ke you a thousand times so many re as ye are, and bless you, as he hath mised you!)
2 How^r can I myself alone bear your abrance, and your burden, and your strife?
3 Take^v you wise men, and understand-and known among your tribes, and ill make them rulers over you.
4 And ye answered me, and said, The g which thou hast spoken is good us to do.
5 So I took^u the chief of your tribes, e men, and known, and^o made them ds over you, captains over thousands, l captains over hundreds, and captains r fifties, and captains over tens, and eers among your tribes.
6 And I charged your judges at that e, saying, Hear the causes between r brethren, and judge^z righteously ween every man and his brother, and e stranger^a that is with him.
7 Ye shall not^x respect persons^b in gment; but ye shall hear the small as ll as the great; ye shall not be^c afraid the face of man; for the^d judgment is d's: and the cause that is too hard for l, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.
8 And I commanded you at that time the things which ye should do.
9 And when we departed from Horeb, went^e through all that great and terrible wilderness,^a which ye saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us;

and we came^c to Kadesh-barnea.
20 And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God doth give unto us.
21 Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath said unto thee; fear not, neither be discouraged.
22 And ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come.
23 And the saying pleased me well; and I^e took twelve men of you, one of a tribe:
24 And they turned, and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of Esheol, and searched it out.
25 And they took of the fruit of the laud in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land which the LORD our God doth give us.
26 Notwithstanding^h ye would not go up, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God:
27 And ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD hatedⁱ us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.
28 Whither shall we go up? our brethren have^j discouraged our heart, saying, The people is greater^k and taller than we; the cities are great and walled up to heaven: and, moreover, we have seen the sons of the^l Anakims there.
29 Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them.
30 The LORD your God, which goeth before you, he^m shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes;
31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the LORD thy God bareⁿ thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.
32 Yet in this thing ye did not^t believe the LORD your God, 33 Who went^v in the way before you, to search^w you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day.
34 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and^x sware,
saying,
35 Surely^y there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I sware to give unto your fathers,
36 Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh;
he shall see it; and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath^z wholly followed the LORD.
37 Also^e the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither.
38 But Joshua^f the son of Nun, which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: encourage^h him; for he shall cause

Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreover,^a your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children, which in that day had no knowledge^c between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40 But as for you, turn^d you, and take your journey into the wilderness, by the way of the Red Sea.

41 Then^f ye answered and said unto me, We have sinned against the LORD; we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill.

42 And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight; for I am not among^m you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies.

43 So I spake unto you; and ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and went presumptuously up into the hill.

44 And the Amorites, which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you, as beesⁿ do, and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah.

45 And ye returned, and wept before the LORD; but the LORD would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you.

46 So^p ye abode in Kadesh many days, according unto the days that ye abode there.

CHAPTER II.

THEN we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness, by the way of the Red Sea, as^a the LORD spake unto me: and we compassed mount Seir many days.

2 And the LORD spake unto me, saying,

3 Ye have compassed this mountain long^t enough: turn you northward.

4 And command thou the people, saying, Ye^v are to pass through the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto yourselves therefore:

5 Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, ^{no} not so much as a foot breadth, because^a I have given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession.

6 Ye shall buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink.

7 For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the works^c of thy hand; he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: these^d forty years the LORD thy God hath been with thee, thou hast lacked nothing.

8 And^f when we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the plain from Elath,^h and from Ezion-gaber, we turned, and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 And the LORD said unto me, * Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle; for I will not give thee of their land for a possession, because I have given^k Ar unto the^l children of Lot for a possession.

10 The Emims^m dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as theⁿ Anakims;

11 Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims; but the Moabites call

12 The Horims^b also dwelt in Seir at time; but the children of Esau^β succeeded them, when they had destroyed them before them, and dwelt in their ^γ as Israel did unto the land of his ^δ sion, which the LORD gave unto them.

13 Now rise up, said I, and get over the ^δ brook Zered:^c and we over the brook Zered.

14 And the space in which we came to Kadesh-barnea, until we were come to the ^δ brook Zered, was thirty and years; until all^k the generation of the of war were wasted out from among host, asⁱ the LORD swarc unto them.

15 For indeed the hand^k of the LORD against them, to destroy^l them from a the host, until they were consumed.

16 So it came to pass, when all men of war were consumed, and from among the people,

17 That the LORD spake unto me, sa

18 Thou art to pass over through Ar coast of Moab, this day:

19 And when thou comest nigh against the children of Ammon, dis them not, nor meddle with them: ⁱ will not give thee of the land of children of Ammon any possession; cause I have given it unto the child of Lot^o for a possession.

20 (That also was accounted a of giants: giants dwelt therein in time; and the Ammonites call t Zamzummims;^q

21 A people great,^r and many, and as the Anakims; but the LORD destrc them before them; and they succeed them, and dwelt in their stead:

22 As he did to the children of E which dwelt in Seir, when he destrc the^u Horims from before them; and t succeeded them, and dwelt in their st even unto this day:

23 And the^v Avims which dwelt in H rim, even unto Azzah,^z the^v Capthor which came forth out of Capthor, destrc ed them, and dwelt in their stead.)

24 Rise ye up, take your journey, t pass^z over the river Arnon: behold, I h given into thine hand Sihon the Amor king of Heshbon, and his land: ^θ begin possess it, and contend with him in battl

25 This day will I begin to put the dr of thee and the^b fear of thee upon the tions that are under the whole heaven, w shall hear report of thee, and shall tre ble, and be in anguish because of thee.

26 And I sent messengers out of t wilderness of Kedemoth, unto Sihon ki of Heshbon, with words of peace,^c saying 27 Let^g me pass through thy land: will go along by the high way; I w neither turn unto the right hand nor the left.

28 Thou shalt sell me meat for mon that I may eat; and give me water t money, that I may driuk: only I w pass through on my feet;

29 (Asⁱ the children of Esau whi dwell in Seir, and the Moabites whi dwell in Ar, did unto me;) until I sh pass over Jordan, into the land whi the LORD our God giveth us.

30 But Sihonⁿ king of Heshbon wo not let us pass by him: for the LORD t God hardened^p his spirit, and made h heart obstinate, that he might deliv unto thy hand, as appeareth this day.

And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land unto thee: begin to possess, that thou mayest inherit his land.
Then^b Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz.
And the LORD our God delivered him before us; and^d we smote him, and we killed all his people.
And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly^e destroyed^f the men, the women, and the little ones, of every city, we left none^g to remain:
Only the cattle we took for a prey unto ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we took.
From^h Aroer, which is by the brook of the river of Arnon, and from the city that is in the river, even unto Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us: the LORD our God delivered all unto us:
Only unto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor unto any city of the river Jabbok,^m nor unto the mountains, nor unto whatsoever the LORD our God forbadeⁿ us.

CHAPTER III.

When we turned, and went up the Jordan to Bashan: and^a Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.^b
And the LORD said unto me, Fear not: I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, unto thy hand; thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon^c king of the Amorites, which I destroyed at Heshbon.
So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him, and there was none left to him remaining.
And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not by strength, them, threescore cities, all the region of Argob,^w the kingdom of Og in Bashan.
All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; beside unwalled cities was a great many.
And^z we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city.
But¹ all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.
And we took at that time out of the land of the two kings of the Amorites the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon;
Which Hermon^d the Sidonians call Sirion;^e and the Amorites call it Shenir;^f and all the cities of the plain, and all Bashan, and all Salehah,^h and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.
For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants;ⁱ behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.
And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer,^o which is by the river of Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and all the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites and to the Gadites.
And^q the rest of Gilead, and all

Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants.

14 Jair^a the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob unto the coasts of Geshuri^c and Maachathi; and called them after his own name, Bashan-havoth-jair, unto this day.

15 And I gave Gilead unto Machir.

16 And unto the Reubenites, and unto the Gadites, I gave from Gilead even unto the river Arnon, half the valley, and the border, even unto the river Jabbok, which is^g the border of the children of Ammon:

17 The plain also, and Jordan, and the coast thereof, from Chinnereth^h even unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, under¹ Ashdodth-pisgah eastward.

18 And I commanded you at that time, saying, The LORD your God hath given you this land to possess it: ye^t shall pass over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all that are⁸ meet for the war.

19 But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (for I know that ye have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you;

20 Until the LORD have given rest unto your brethren, as well as unto you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: and then^r shall ye return every man unto his possession which I have given you.

21 And^t I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest.

22 Ye shall not fear^v them: for^v the LORD your God he shall fight for you.

23 And I besought the LORD at that time, saying,

24 O LORD God, thou hast begun to shew thy servant thy greatness,^z and thy mighty hand: for what^y God is there in heaven or in earth that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might?

25 I pray thee, let me go over, and see the good^a land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon.

26 But^b the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter.

27 Get thee up into the top of^c Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

28 But^e charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see.

29 So we abode in the valley over against Beth-peor.^k

CHAPTER IV.

NOW therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes^m and unto the judgments which I teach you, for to doⁿ them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you.

2 Ye^p shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because^d of Baal-peor: for all^e the men that followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you.

4 But ye that did cleave^f unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day.

5 Behold, I^g have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep, therefore, and do them: for this is your wisdomⁱ and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely^j this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 For^k what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

8 Andⁿ what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

9 Only take heed to thyself, and^o keep thy soul diligently, lest^a thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but teach^s them thy sons, and thy sons' sons;

10 Specially the day^t that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear^v me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

11 And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the ^βmidst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness.

12 And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude; only ^δ*ye heard* a voice.^a 13 And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even^c ten commandments; and he^d wrote them upon two tables of stone.

14 And^e the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it.

15 Take^g ye therefore good heed unto yourselves, (for ye saw no manner of similitude^k on the day that the LORD spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire,)

16 Lest ye corrupt^k yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likenessⁱ of male or female,

17 The likeness of any^o beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that lieth in the air,

18 The likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 And lest thou lift^s up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldst be driven to worship^u them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God hath ^ςdivided unto

20 But the LORD hath taken ye, brought you forth out of the^a iron nace, even out of Egypt, to be unto his people of inheritance,^a as ye are this day.

21 Furthermore^c the LORD was at with me for your sakes, and sware th should not go over Jordan, and th should not go in unto that good l which the LORD thy God giveth thee an inheritance:

22 But I must die in this land, I m not go over Jordan: but ye shall go o and possess that good land.

23 Take heed^a unto yourselves, lest forget the covenant of the LORD y God, which he made with you, and m you a graven image, or the likeness of thing, which the LORD thy God hath bidden thee.

24 For the LORD thy God is a c suming fire,ⁱ even a jealous^m God.

25 When thou shalt beget children, children's children, and ye shall have mained long in the land, and shall corru yourselves, and make a graven image, the likeness of any thing, and shall evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, provokeⁿ him to anger;

26 I^r call heaven and earth to witn against you this day, that ye shall se utterly perish from off the land whe unto ye go over Jordan to possess it; shall not prolong your days upon it, l shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the LORD shall^u scatter y among the nations, and ye shall be l few in number among the heathen, w ther the LORD shall lead you.

28 And^w there ye shall serve gods, t work of men's hands, wood and stone, wh neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But^x if from thence thou shalt se the LORD thy God, thou shalt find h if thou seek him with all^y thy heart a with all thy soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and these things γare come upon thee, even the latter^z days, if thou turn to the Lo thy God, and shalt be obedient unto l voice;

31 (For the LORD thy God is a^b mercit God,) he will not forsake thee, neith destroy thee, nor forget the covenant thy fathers, which he sware unto them.

32 For^j ask now of the days that are pa which were before thee, since the day th God created man upon the earth, and a from the one side of heaven unto the othe whether there hath been any such thing this great thing is, or hath been heard like i

33 Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of t fire,ⁱ as thou hast heard, and live?

34 Or hath God assayed to go and ta him a nation from the midst of another nation, by temptations,^m by signs,ⁿ as by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out^q arm, as by great terrors,^r according to all th the LORD your God did for you Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was shewed, that the mightest knew that the LORD he is God there is none else beside him.

36 Out of heaven^t he made thee t hear his voice, that he might instru thee: and upon earth he shewed thee h great fire; and thou heardest his voice of the midst of the fire.

 17 And because he^b loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt;
 18 To drive out nations from before thee greater^d and mightier than thou art, bringing thee in, to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.
 19 Know therefore this day, and consider^g it in thine heart, that^h the LORD he God in heaven above, and upou the earth beneath: there is none else.
 20 Thouⁱ shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well^j with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever.
 21 Then Moses severed three cities on this side Jordan toward the sun rising;
 22 That^o the slayer might flee thither, which should kill his neighbour unawares, and hated him not in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities might live:
 23 Namely, Bezer^p in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites.
 24 And this is the law which Moses commanded before the children of Israel:
 25 These are the testimonies,^q and the statutes,^r and the judgments,^s which Moses spake unto the children of Israel, when they came forth out of Egypt,
 26 On this side Jordan, in the^w valley against Beth-peor, in the land of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote,^y after they were come forth out of Egypt:
 27 And they possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, which were on this side Jordan toward the sun rising;
 28 From Aroer,^z which is by the bank of the river Arnon, even unto mount Siou, which is Hermon,^z
 29 And all the plain on this side Jordan outward, even unto the sea of the plain, under the springs^z of Pishgah.

CHAPTER V.

AND Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and keep, and do them.
 2 The LORD our God made a^k covenant with us in Horeb.
 3 The LORD made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us,^l even us, who are all of us here alive this day.
 4 The LORD^m talked with you face to face in the mount, out of the midst of the fire,
 5 (Iⁿ stood between the LORD and you that time, to shew you the word of the LORD: for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount,) saying,
 6 I^o am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the use of^o bondage.
 7 Thou^r shalt have none other gods before me.

8 Thou^a shalt not make thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth:
 9 Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous^e God, visiting^f the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me,
 10 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.
 11 Thou^k shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.
 12 Keep^m the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee.
 13 Six days thou shalt labour, and do all thy work;
 14 But the seventh day is theⁿ sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; that thy manservant^r and thy maidservant may rest as well as thou.
 15 And remember^r that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD thy God brought thee out thence, through a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm: therefore the LORD thy God commanded thee to keep the sabbath day.
 16 Honour^v thy father and thy mother, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days^w may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.
 17 Thou shalt not^z kill.
 18 Neither shalt thou commit^a adultery.
 19 Neither shalt thou^b steal.
 20 Neither shalt thou bear false witness^c against thy neighbour.
 21 Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbour's wife, neither shalt thou covet^e thy neighbour's house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is thy neighbour's.
 22 These words the LORD spake unto all your assembly in the mount, out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice; and he added no more: and he^h wrote them in two tables of stoue, and delivered them unto me.
 23 Andⁱ it came to pass, when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire,) that ye came near unto me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders;
 24 And ye said, Behold, the LORD our God hath shewed us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he^o liveth.
 25 Now^p therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we^r hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die.
 26 For who is there of all flesh that hath heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

27 Go thou near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say; and ^a speak thou unto us all that the LORD our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear it, and do it.

28 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, when ye spake unto me; and the LORD said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they ^e have spoken unto thee: they have well said all that they have spoken.

29 O^f that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and ^h keep all my commandments always, that ⁱ it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!

30 Go say to them, Get you into your tents again:

31 But as for thee, stand thou here by me, and I^p will speak unto thee all the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which thou shalt teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it.

32 Ye shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God hath commanded you: ye shall not turn aside^r to the right hand or to the left.

33 Ye shall walk in all^t the ways which the LORD your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may be well with you, and ^v that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall possess.

CHAPTER VI.

NOW these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, that ye might do^w them in the land whither ye ^δ go to possess it:

2 That thou mightest fear^y the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee; thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged.^z

3 Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do it, that it may be well^b with thee, and that ye may increase mightily, as the^e LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee, in the land that floweth with milk and honey.

4 Hear,^g O Israel: The LORD our God is one^h LORD:

5 And thou shalt love the LORD thy God withⁱ all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

6 And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart;^m

7 And thou shalt ⁿ teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

8 And thou shalt bind^o them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.

9 And thou shalt^a write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

10 And it shall be, when the LORD thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities, which thou^k buildedst not,

11 And houses full of all good things, which thou filledst not, and wells digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and

22 And the LORD shewed signs^x and wonders, great and ^z sore, upon Egypt upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes:

23 And he brought us out from thence that he might bring us in, to give us t land which he sware unto our fathers.

24 And the LORD commanded us to all these statutes, to fear^a the LORD our God, for^c our good always, that he might preserve^d us alive, as it is at this day.

25 And it shall be our righteousness if we observe to do all these commandments before the LORD our God, as he hath commanded us.

CHAPTER VII.

WHEN the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out^k many nations before thee, theⁱ Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than thou:

2 And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly^p destroy them: thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them:

3 Neither shalt thou make^r marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son.

4 For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly.

5 But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their β images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire:

6 For thou art an holy^b people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special^c people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

7 The LORD did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest^c of all people;

8 But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the^k oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD broughtⁱ you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house^m of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9 Know therefore that the LORD thy God, he is God, the faithful^o God,^p which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations;

10 And^r reproveth them that hate him, and their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face.

11 Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them:

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, δ if ye hearken^v to these judgments, and keep, and do them, that the LORD thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he swore unto thy fathers:

13 And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee.

14 Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there^f shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle.

15 And the LORD will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases^h of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee.

16 And thou shalt consume all the people which the LORD thy God shall deliver thee: thine^k cyc shall have no pity upon them: neither shalt thou serve their gods; or that will be a snareⁱ unto thee.

17 If thou shalt say in thine heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?

18 Thou^m shalt not be afraid of them; but shalt well rememberⁿ what the LORD thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt;

19 The great temptations^p which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched-out arm, whereby the LORD thy God brought thee out: so^q shall the LORD thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid.

20 Moreover, the LORD thy God will send the hornet^t among them, until they be left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed.

21 Thou shalt not be affrighted at them: for the LORD thy God is among you, a mighty^v God and terrible.

out those nations before thee by^a little and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee.

24 And he shall deliver their^d kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from^f under heaven: there shall^g no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them.

25 The graven images of their gods shall ye burn^k with fire: thou shalt not desireⁱ the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou beⁿ snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God.

26 Neither^r shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed^s thing.

CHAPTER VIII.

ALL^t the commandments which I command thee this day shall^u ye observe to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty^w years in the wilderness,^x to humble thee,^y and to prove^z thee, to know^a what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no.

3 And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with^b manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know, that he might make thee know that^c man doth not live by bread only, but by every word^d that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live.

4 Thy^e raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years.

5 Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as^g a man chasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee.

6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fearⁱ him.

7 For the LORD thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

8 A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land ζ of oil olive, and honey;

9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron,^o and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass.

10 When thou hast eaten^q and art full, then thou shalt bless^r the LORD thy God for the good land which he hath given thee.

11 Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day:

12 Lest^u when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein:

13 And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied;

14 Then thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget^b the LORD thy God, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage;

15 Who led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents,^d and scorpions, and drought; where there was no water; who brought thee forth water^e out of the rock of flint;

16 Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna,^h which thy fathers knew not, thatⁱ he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to^k do thee good at thy latter end;

17 And thou say in thine heart, My power, and the might of mine hand, hath gotten me this wealth.

18 But thou shalt remember the LORD thy God: for it is heⁿ that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant, which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

19 And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the LORD thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I^r testify against you this day, that ye shall surely perish.

20 As the nations which the LORD destroyeth before your face, so^u shall ye perish; because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER IX.

HEAR, O Israel; Thou art to pass^x over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater^y and mightier than thyself, cities great, and fenced up to heaven;

2 A people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak!

3 Understand therefore this day, that the LORD thy God is he which goeth over before^a thee; as a consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so^b shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD hath said^c unto thee.

4 Speak^e not thou in thine heart, after that the LORD thy God hath east them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land; but for the wickedness^g of these nations the LORD doth drive them out from before thee.

5 Not^k for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham,^o Isaac,^p and Jacob.^q

6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiffnecked^s people.

7 Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from^u the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the LORD.

8 Also^x in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you, to have destroyed you.

to receive the tables of stone, even tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I^a abode in mount forty days and forty nights; neither did eat bread nor drink water:

10 And the^c LORD delivered unto two tables of stone, written with the finger of God: and on them was written according to all the words which the LORD spake with you in the^f mount out of the midst of the fire, in the day the assembly.

11 And it came to pass, at the end forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.ⁱ

12 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are quickly^o turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore, the LORD spake^r unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiffnecked^u people:

14 Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot^s out their name from under heaven: and^t I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they.

15 So^v I turned, and came down from the mount, and^w the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.

16 And I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God, as I had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way, which the LORD had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tables, and east them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I^z fell down before the LORD as at the first, forty days and forty nights. I did neither eat bread, nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger:

19 For I was afraid^{aa} of the anger and hot displeasure wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you. But^{ab} the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And^{ac} I took your sin,ⁱ the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and east the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

22 And at Taberah,^{ad} and at^{ae} Massa, and at Kibroth-hattaavah,^{af} ye provoked the LORD to wrath.

23 Likewise, when^{ag} the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

24 Ye have been rebellious^{ah} against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

25 Thus^{ai} I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

26 I prayed^{aj} therefore unto the LORD and said, O Lord God, destroy not thy people, and^a thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: look not unto the stubbornness^c of this people, nor to their wickedness,^f nor to their sin:^g

28 Lest the land^h whence thou broughtest us out say, Because^k the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to lay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet^a they are thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power, and by thy stretched out arm.

CHAPTER X.

AT that time the LORD said unto me, Hew^a thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee an ark^w of wood:

2 And I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the ark.

3 And I made an ark of^v shittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mount, carrying the two tables in mine hand.

4 And he wrote^z on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten ^βcommandments, which^a the LORD spake unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me.

5 And I turned myself and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and^c there they were, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And^a the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to Mosera: there Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his stead.

7 From thence they journeyed unto Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters.

8 At that time^f the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, to bear^g the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand^h before the LORD, to ministerⁱ unto him, and to bless^k in his name, unto this day.

9 Wherefore^l Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren: the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God promised him.

10 And I stayed in the mount, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the LORD hearkened^m unto me at that time also, and the LORD would not destroy thee.

11 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, keep thy journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land which I swore unto their fathers to give unto them.

12 And now, Israel, whatⁿ doth the LORD thy God require of thee, but to re^o the LORD thy God, to^p walk in all his ways, and to love^q him, and to^r serve the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, 13 To keep the commandments of the LORD, and his statutes, which I command thee this day, for^t thy good?

14 Behold, the^b heaven and the heaven of^c heavens is the LORD's thy God, the earth^a also, with all that therein is.

15 Only the LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.

16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart,ⁱ and be no more stiffnecked.

17 For the LORD your God is^t God of gods, and Lord^m of lords, a great God, a mighty,ⁿ and a terrible, which^o regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward:

18 He^p doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment.

19 Love^r ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

20 Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave,^t and swear^u by his name.

21 He is thy praise,^v and he is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes have seen.

22 Thy fathers went down into^z Egypt with threescore and ten persons; and now the LORD thy God hath made thee as the stars of heaven for multitude.

CHAPTER XI.

THEREFORE thou shalt love the LORD thy God, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, always.

2 And know ye this day: for I speak not with your children which have not known, and which have not seen the chastisement^b of the LORD your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched out arm,

3 And his miracles, and his acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land;

4 And what he did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water^c of the Red sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD hath destroyed them unto this day;

5 And what he did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came into this place;

6 And what he did unto Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the ^γsubstance that ^δwas in their possession, in the midst of all Israel:

7 But your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD which he did.

8 Therefore shall ye keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possess the land, whither ye go to possess it;

9 And that ye may prolong your days in the land, which the LORD swore unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 For the land, whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where^s thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs:

11 But the land, whither ye go to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven ;

12 A land which the LORD thy God careth^β for : the eyes^α of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.

13 And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently^β unto my commandments which I command you this day, to^c love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart, and with all your soul, 14 That^e I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the^f first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil.

15 And^h I will^γ send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eatⁱ and be full.

16 Take heedⁱ to yourselves, that your heart^m be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them ;

17 And then the LORD's wrath^o be kindled against you, and he shut^p up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit ; and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you.

18 Therefore shall ye lay up^t these my words in your heart and in your soul, and^u bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.

19 And^z ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

20 And thou shalt write them upon the door posts of thine house, and upon thy gates ;

21 That^a your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers to give them, as the days^b of heaven upon the earth.

22 For if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them ; to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave^e unto him ;

23 Then will the LORD drive^f out all these nations from before you, and ye shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves.

24 Every place whereonⁱ the soles of your feet shall tread shall be your's : from the^k wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea, shall your coast be.

25 There^m shall no man be able to stand before you : for the LORD your God shall lay the fearⁿ of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said^o unto you.

26 Behold, I^p set before you this day a blessing and a curse :

27 A blessing,^q if ye obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day ;

28 And a curse,^r if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside^t out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known.

29 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD thy God hath brought thee in unto the land whither thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put^x the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse upon mount Ebal.

30 Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun goeth down, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the champaign over against Galgal, beside the plains of Moreh ?

31 For ye shall pass over Jordan, go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and : shall possess it, and dwell therein.

32 And ye shall observe^d to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

CHAPTER XII.

THESE^g are the statutes and judgments which ye shall observe to do in the land which the LORD God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess it, all^k the days that : live upon the earth.

2 Ye shall utterly destroyⁿ all the places wherein the nations which ye shall possess^δ served their gods, upon the high mountains,^q and upon the hills, and under every green tree :

3 And ye shall overthrow^r their altars and break their pillars, and burn the groves^s with fire ; and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place.

4 Ye^v shall not do so unto the LORD your God.

5 But unto the place^w which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come :

6 And thither^y ye shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes,^z and heave offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herd and of your flocks :

7 And there ye shall eat before the LORD your God, and ye shall rejoice in^c all that ye put your hand unto, and your households, wherein the LORD thy God hath blessed thee.

8 Ye shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every^d man whatsoever is right in his own eyes.

9 For ye are not^g as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which the LORD your God giveth you.

10 But when ye go over Jordan,^h and dwell in the land which the LORD your God giveth you to inherit, and when I giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in safety ;

11 Then there shall be a placeⁱ which the LORD your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there ; thither shall ye bring all that I command you your burnt offerings, and your sacrifice your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all^j your choice vow which ye vow unto the LORD :

12 And ye shall rejoice^k before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your menservants, and your maidservants, and the Levite which is within your gates ; forasmuch as I hath no^l part nor inheritance with you.

13 Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in every^m place that thou seest :

14 But in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of thy tribes, thereⁿ thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and thither thou shalt do all that I command thee.

15 Notwithstanding thou mayest ki and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thy^a soul lusteth after, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee: the^c unclean and the unclean may eat thereof, as of the roebuck, and as of the hart.

16 Only ye shall not eat the blood;^f ye shall pour it upon the earth as water.

17 Thou mayest not eat within thy gates the tithe of thy corn, or of thy wine, or of thy oil, or the firstlings of thy herds or of thy flock, nor any of thy vows which thou vowest, nor thy freewill offerings, or heave offering of thine hand:

18 But^k thou must eat them before the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy man-servant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God in all that thou puttest thine hands unto.

19 Take^o heed to thyself that thou forsake not the Levite^β as long as thou rest upon the earth.

20 When the LORD thy God shall enlarge^g thy border, as he hath^t promised thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat flesh, because thy soul longeth to eat flesh, thou mayest eat flesh, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

21 If the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to put his name there be too far from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy herd and of thy flock, which the LORD hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

22 Even^z as the roebuck and the hart are eaten, so thou shalt eat them; the unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike.

23 Only be^δ sure that thou eat not the blood: for^v the blood is the life; and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh.

24 Thou shalt not eat it; thou shalt pour it upon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eat it; that^z it may be well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when^b thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

26 Only thy holy^c things which thou hast vowed, thou shalt take, and thou shalt eat in the place which the LORD shall choose:

27 And thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of the LORD thy God: and the blood of thy sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of the LORD thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh.

28 Observe^g and hear all these words which I command thee, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the LORD thy God.

29 When the LORD thy God shall cut off^k the nations from before thee, whither thou goest to possess them, and thou^θ shalt subvert them, and dwellest in their land;

30 Take heed to thyself, that thou be not snared^κ by following^m them, after that they be destroyed from before thee; and that thou inquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise.

31 Thouⁿ shalt not do so unto the LORD thy God: for every abomination^λ to the LORD, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for^b even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods.

32 What^d thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou^e shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

CHAPTER XIII.

IF there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer^g of dreams, and giveth thee a sign^h or a wonder,

2 And the sign or the wonder comeⁱ to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them;

3 Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God proveth^l you, to know whether ye love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

4 Ye shall walk^m after the LORD your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice,ⁿ and ye shall serve him, and cleave^q unto him.

5 And^r that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he hath spoken^γ to turn^{you} away from the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the LORD thy God commanded thee to walk in: So shalt^u thou put the evil away from the midst of thee.

6 If thy brother, the son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the wife^v of thy bosom, or thy friend,^w which is as thine own soul, entice thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which thou hast not known, thou, nor thy fathers;

7 Namely, of the gods of the people which are round about you, nigh unto thee, or far off from thee, from the one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth;

8 Thou shalt not consent^a unto him, nor hearken unto him; neither shall thine eye pity him, neither shalt thou spare, neither shalt thou conceal him;

9 But thou shalt surely kill him; thine hand^c shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

10 And thou shalt stone him with stones, that he die; because he hath sought to thrust thee away from the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

11 And^k all Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this is among you.

12 If thou shalt hearⁱ say in one of thy cities, which the LORD thy God hath given thee to dwell there, saying,

13 Certain men, ^γ the children of Belial, are gone out from among you, and have withdrawn^l the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which ye have not known;

14 Then shalt thou inquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought among you;

15 Thou shalt surely smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying^a it utterly, and all that is therein, and the cattle thereof, with the edge of the sword.

16 And thou shalt gather all the spoil of it into the midst of the street thereof, and shalt burn with fire the city, and all the spoil thereof every whit, for the LORD thy God: and^f it shall be an heap for ever; it shall not be built again.

17 And there shall cleave nought of the cursed *β*thing^g to thine hand: that the LORD may turnⁱ from the fierceness of his anger, and shew^k thee mercy, and have compassion^l upon thee, and multiply^m thee, as he hath swornⁿ unto thy fathers;

18 When thou shalt hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep^p all his commandments which I command thee this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD thy God.

CHAPTER XIV.

YE are the children^q of the LORD your God: ye shall not cut^r yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead:

2 For thou art au holy^s people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people^t unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth.

3 Thou shalt not eat^w any abominable thing.

4 These are the beasts which ye shall eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat,

5 The hart, and the roebuck, and the fallow deer, and the wild goat, and the δ py-garg, and the wild ox, and the chamois.

6 And every beast that parteth^z the hoof, and cleaveth the cleft into two claws, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that ye shall eat.

7 Nevertheless these ye shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the cloven hoof; as the camel, and the hare, and the coney: for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof; therefore they are unclean unto you.

8 And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch^e their dead carcase.

9 These^f ye shall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales shall ye eat:

10 And whatsoever hath not fins and scales ye may not eat; it is unclean unto you.

11 Of all clean birds ye shall eat.

12 But these^h are they of which ye shall not eat: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray,

13 And the glede, and the kite, and the vulture after his kind,

14 And every raven after his kind,

15 And the owl, and the night hawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind,

16 The little owl, and the great owl, and the swan,

17 And the pelieau, and the gier eagle, and the cormorant,

18 And the stork, and the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

19 And every creeping thing that flieth is unclean unto you: they shall not be eaten.

20 But of all clean fowls ye may eat.

21 Ye shall not eat of any thing that diethⁱ of itself: thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it unto^a an alien; for^b thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God. Thou^c shalt not see^d the a kid in his mother's milk.

22 Thou shalt truly tithe^e all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth year by year.

23 And^f thou shalt eat before the LORD thy God, in the place which he shall choose to place his name there, the tithe of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the firstlings^h of thy herds and of thy flocks; that thou mayest learnⁱ to fear the LORD thy God always.

24 And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carry it; if^j the place be too far from thee, which the LORD thy God shall choose to set his name there, when the LORD thy God hath blessed thee;

25 Then shalt thou turn^k it into money, and bind up the money in thine hand, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose:

26 And thou shalt bestow that money for whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatsoever thy soul desireth: and thou^u shalt eat thereof before the LORD thy God, and thou shalt rejoice,^v thou, and thine household.

27 And the Levite that is within thy gates; thou shalt not forsake him; for he^w hath no part nor inheritance with thee.

28 At^y the end of three years thou shalt bring forth all the tithe of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay^z it up within thy gates:

29 And the Levite, (because^a he hath no part nor inheritance with thee,) and the stranger,^b and the fatherless, and the widow, which are within thy gates, shall come, and shall eat, and be satisfied that the^c LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hand which thou doest.

CHAPTER XV.

AT^d the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release.

2 And this is the manner of the release. Every creditor that leudeth^e ought unto his neighbour shall release^f it; he shall not exact^g it of his neighbour, or of his brother; because it is called the LORD's release.

3 Of a foreigner^h thou mayest exactⁱ again: but that which is thine with thy brother thine hand shall release;

4 Save^j when there shall be no poor among you; for^k the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it:

5 Only if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all these commandments which I command thee this day.

6 For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and thou shalt lend^l unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee.

7 If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates, in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou^m shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy oor brother;

8 But^a thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.

9 Beware that there be not a β thought in thy γ wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and mine eye^f be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and he cry^g unto the LORD against thee, and be sin^h unto thee.

10 Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grievedⁱ when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless^k thee in all thy works, and in all that thou utterest thine hand unto.

11 For the poor^m shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land.

12 And ifⁿ thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years, then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee.

13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty:

14 Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor, and out of thy winepress: of that where-with^s the LORD thy God hath^t blessed thee thou shalt give unto him.

15 And thou shalt remember^v that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to day.

16 And it shall be, if^w he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee, because he loveth thee and thine house, because he is well with thee,

17 Then thou shalt take an awl, and thrust it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be thy servant for ever. And also unto thy maidservant thou shalt do likewise.

18 It shall not seem hard^z unto thee, when thou sendest him away free from thee; for he hath been worth a double hired servant to thee, in serving thee six years: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest.

19 All the firstling^b males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep:

20 Thou^e shalt eat it before the LORD thy God year by year, in the place which the LORD shall choose, thou and thy household.

21 And if^o there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the LORD thy God.

22 Thou shalt eat it within thy gates: as^a unleaven and the clean person shall eat alike, as the roebuck, and as the hart.

23 Only thou shalt not eat the blood thereof; thou shalt pour it upon the ground as water.

thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night.^b

2 Thou shalt therefore sacrifice the passover unto the LORD thy God, of the^c flock and the herd, in the place^d which the LORD shall choose to place his name there.

3 Thou^e shalt eat no leavened bread with it: seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; for thou earnest forth out of the land of Egypt in haste; that thou mayest remember the day when thou earnest forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life.

4 And there shall be no leavened bread seen with thee in all thy coast seven days; neither^f shall there any thing of the flesh, which thou sacrificedst the first day at even, remain all night until the morning.

5 Thou mayest not^g sacrifice the passover within any of thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee:

6 But at the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover^o at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou earnest forth out of Egypt.

7 And thou shalt roast^p and eat it in the place^q which the LORD thy God shall choose: and thou shalt turn in the morning, and go unto thy tents.

8 Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread: and on the seventh^r day shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work therein.

9 Seven^u weeks shalt thou number unto thee: begin to number the seven weeks from such time as thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corn.

10 And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the LORD thy God with ^a a tribute of a freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the LORD thy God, according^x as the LORD thy God hath blessed thee:

11 And^y thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to place his name there.

12 And^a thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt: and thou shalt observe and do these statutes.

13 Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles^c seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy^d corn and thy wine:

14 And thou shalt rejoice^d in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates.

15 Seven^f days shalt thou keep a solemn feast unto the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD shall choose: because the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thine increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice.

16 Three^h times in a year shall all thy males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles: and they shall not appear before the LORD empty:ⁱ

17 Every man shall give ^k as he is able,^m

according^a to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee.

18 Judges^d and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment.

19 Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect^v persons, neither take a gift: forⁱ a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the ^β words of the righteous.

20 That ^γ which is altogether^k just shalt thou follow, that thou mayest live,^m and inherit the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

21 Thou shalt not plant thee a grove^p of any trees near unto the altar of the LORD thy God, which thou shalt make thee.

22 Neither^s shalt thou set thee up any image,^δ which the LORD thy God hateth.^t

CHAPTER XVII.

THOU shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God any bullock, or ^ς sheep, wherein^v is blemish, or any evilfavouredness: for that is an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

2 If^{*} there be found among you, within any of thy gates which the LORD thy God giveth thee, man or woman, that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of the LORD thy God, in^v transgressing his covenant,

3 And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded;

4 And it be told thee, and thou hast heard of it, and inquired diligently, and, behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought in Israel:

5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, which have committed that wicked thing, unto thy gates, even that man or that woman, and shalt stone them with stones, till they die.

6 At^a the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.

7 The hands^f of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So thou shalt put the evil away from among you.

8 If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between bloodⁱ and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within thy gates: then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the^l place which the LORD thy God shall choose;

9 And thou shalt come unto the ^u priests the Levites, and unto the judge^o that shall be in those days, and inquire; and they shall shew thee the sentence of judgment.

10 And thou shalt do according to the sentence, which they of that place which the LORD shall choose shall shew thee; and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they inform thee:

11 According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew thee, to the right hand, nor to the left.

before the LORD thy God, or unto the judge, even that man shall die:^b and^e thou shalt put away the evil from Israel.

13 And^e all the people shall hear, a fear, and do no more presumptuously.

14 When thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt possess it, and shalt dwell there, and shalt say, I^h will set a king over me like as all the nations that are about me;

15 Thou shalt in any wise set him king over thee, whomⁱ the LORD thy God shall choose: one fromⁿ among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger^o over thee, which is not thy brother.

16 But he shall not multiply^q horses to himself, nor cause the people to^r return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you, Ye^w shall henceforth return no more that way.

17 Neither shall he multiply wives^y himself, that his heart^w turn not away, neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

18 And it shall be, when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law in a book, out of that which is before the priests the Levites:

19 And^z it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, to keep all the words of this law, and these statutes, to do them:

20 That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn^a not aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may prolong^b his days in his kingdom, he, and his children, in the midst of Israel.

CHAPTER XVIII.

THE priests^c the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel; they shall eat their offerings^e of the LORD made by fire, and his inheritance.

2 Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the^g LORD is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them.

3 And this^h shall be the priest's due from the people, from them that offer sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; and they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw.

4 The firstfruit^k also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him.

5 For the LORD thy God hath chosen himⁿ out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever.

6 And if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Israel, where^p he sojourned, and come with all the^q desire of his mind unto the place which the LORD shall choose;

7 Then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, as all his brethren the Levites do, which stand there before the LORD.

8 They shall have like portions^r to eat, beside^v that which cometh of the sale of his patrimony.

9 When thou art come into the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominaous of those uations.

10 There^a shall not be found among any one that maketh his sou or his aughter to pass through the fire, or that eth divination, or an observer of times, an enchaunter, or a witch,

17 And the LORD said unto me, They ee well spoken that which they have eken.

neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of those cities, and live:

6 Lest the avenger of the blood pursue tho slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and slay ^βhim; whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not in ^γtime past.

7 Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee.

8 And if the LORD thy God ^cenlarge thy coast, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, and give thee all the land which he promised^d to give unto thy fathers;

9 If thou shalt keep all these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love the LORD thy God, and to walk ever in his ways; then shalt thou add^f three cities, more for thee, beside these three:

10 That innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee.

11 Butⁱ if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him ^γmortally that he die, and fleeth into one of these cities:

12 Then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die.

13 Thine eye shall not pity him, but thou shalt put away the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with thee.

14 Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's landmark,^o which they of old time have set in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land that the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it.

15 One^r witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established.

16 If a false witness rise up against any man, to testify against him ^θ*that which is wrong*;

17 Theu both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges which shall be in those days;

18 And the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness be a false witness, and hath testified falsely against his brother;

19 Then^x shall ye do unto him as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you.

20 And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you.

21 And thine eye shall not pity; ^z*but* life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

CHAPTER XX.

WHEN thou goest out to battle against thine enemies, and seest horses,^a and chariots, and a people more than thou, be not afraid of them: for the LORD thy God is with thee, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

2 And it shall be, when ye are come nigh unto the battle that the priest shall approach, and speak unto the people,

3 And shall say unto them, Hear, O Israel; ye approach this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts ^β faint; fear not, and do not tremble, ^γ neither be ye terrified ^δ because of them;

4 For ^ε the LORD your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

5 And the officers shall speak unto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated ^α it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it.

6 And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet ^ζ eaten of it? let him also go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it.

7 And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let ^ε him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and ^ζ another man take her.

8 And the officers shall speak further unto the people, and they shall say, What ^h man is there that is fearful and fainthearted? let him go and return unto his house, lest ^k his brethren's heart ^θ faint as well as his heart.

9 And it shall be, when the officers have made an end of speaking unto the people, that they shall make captains of the armies ^κ to lead the people.

10 When thou comest nigh unto a city to fight against it, then proclaim ^η peace unto it.

11 And it shall be, if it make thee answer of peace, and open unto thee, then it shall be, that all the people that is found therein shall be tributaries unto thee, and they ^π shall serve thee.

12 And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make war against thee, then thou shalt besiege it:

13 And when the LORD thy God hath delivered it into thine hands, thou ^ρ shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword.

14 But the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, ^σ and all that is in the city, even all the spoil thereof, shalt thou ^μ take unto thyself; and thou ^υ shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

15 Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities which are very far off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations.

16 But of the cities of these people, which the LORD thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing ^α that breatheth:

17 But thou shalt utterly destroy them; namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee:

18 That ^z they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods; so should ye sin against the LORD your God.

19 When thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an axe against them: for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down (for ^π the tree of the field is man's life) ^ρ to employ

CHAPTER XXI.

IF one be found slain in the land where the LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be unknown who hath slain him;

2 Then thy elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure up the cities which are round about him that is slain:

3 And it shall be, that the city which is next unto the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take an heifer which hath not been wrought with, and which hath not drawn in the yoke;

4 And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which is neither eared nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley.

5 And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them ^η the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and bless ^ι in the name of the LORD; and their ^κ word shall every ^λ controversy among them be tried:

6 And all the elders of that city, that are next unto the slain man, shall ^μ wash their hands over the heifer that is brought headed in the valley:

7 And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.

8 Be merciful, O LORD, unto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay not ^ο innocent blood ^α unto the people of Israel's charge. And the blessing shall be forgiven them.

9 So shalt thou put away ^η the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

10 When thou goest forth to war against thine enemies, and the LORD thy God hath delivered them into thine hand, and thou hast taken them captive,

11 And seest among the captives a beautiful woman, ^ι and hast a desire unto her, that thou wouldest have her to thy wife;

12 Then thou shalt bring her home to thine house; and she shall shave ^κ her head, and ^λ pare her nails;

13 And she shall put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in thine house, and bewail her ^μ father and her mother a full month: and after that thou shalt go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife.

14 And it shall be, if thou have no delight in her, thou shalt let her go, whither she will; but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not make merchandise of her, because thou hast humbled ^α her.

15 If a man have two wives, one beloved, ^β and another hated, ^γ and they have born him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be her's that was hated:

16 Then it shall be, when he maketh his sons to inherit that which he hath, that he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before ^α the son of the hated, which is indeed the firstborn:

17 But he shall acknowledge the son that he hated for the firstborn, by^a giving him a double portion of all that he hath: for he is the beginning of his strength; and the right of the firstborn is his.

18 If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey^e the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened^g him, he will not hearken unto them;

19 Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place:

20 And they shall say unto the^h elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious; he will not obeyⁱ our voice; he is a glutton,^k and a drunkard.

21 And^l all the men of his city shall lay one him with stones, that he die:^m so shalt thou put evil away from among us: and all Israel shall hear, and fear.

22 And if a man have committed a sin worthyⁿ of death, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree;

23 His^o body shall not remain all night on the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day; (for he that is hanged is accursed of God;) that thy land be not defiled, which the LORD thy God hath given thee for an inheritance.

CHAPTER XXII.

THOU shalt not see thy brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide^s thyself from them; thou shalt in any case bring them again unto thy brother.

2 And if thy brother be not nigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it unto thine own house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him again.

3 In like manner shalt thou do with his ass; and so shalt thou do with his raiment; and with all lost thing of thy brother's, which he hath lost, and thou shalt find it, shalt thou do likewise: thou shalt not hide thyself.

4 Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift^t them up again.

5 The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination^a unto the LORD thy God.

6 If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones^d or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the mother with the young:

7 But thou shalt in any wise let the mother go, and take the young to thee; for it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest prolong^g thy days.

8 When thou buildest a new house, thou shalt make a battlement for thy roof,^h that thou bring not blood upon thine house, if any man fall from thence.

9 Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with divers seeds: lest the fruit of thy vineyard thou hast sown, and the fruit of thy vineyard, be defiled.

10 Thou shalt not plowⁱ with an ox and an ass together.

11 Thou shalt not wear a garment of divers sorts, as of woollen and linen together.

12 Thou shalt make thee fringes^b upon the four quarters of thy vesture, wherewith thou coverest thyself.

13 If any man take a wife, and go^d in unto her, and hate her,

14 And give occasions^f of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, and, when I came to her, I found her not a maid:

15 Then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the elders of the city in the gate:

16 And the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he hateth her;

17 And, lo, he hath given occasions of speech against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a maid; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity: And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.

18 And the elders of that city shall take that man, and chastise him;

19 And they shall amerce him in an hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; he^g may not put her away all his days.

20 But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be not found for the damsel:

21 Then they shall bring out the damsel to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die; because she hath wrought folly^t in Israel, to^u play the whore in her father's house: so^v shalt thou put evil away from among you.

22 If^w a man be found lying with a woman married to an husband, then they shall both of them die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away evil from Israel.

23 If a damsel that is a virgin be betrothed^y unto an husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her;

24 Then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and ye shall stone them with stones that they die; the damsel, because she cried not, being in the city; and the man, because he hath humbled^b his neighbour's wife: so^c thou shalt put away evil from among you.

25 But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her; then the man only that lay with her shall die:

26 But unto the damsel thou shalt do nothing; there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slayeth him, even so is this matter:

27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel cried, and there was none to save her.

28 Ifⁱ a man find a damsel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found;

29 Then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife: because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away all his days.

30 A^m man shall not take his father's wife, nor discover^o his father's skirt.

CHAPTER XXIII.

HE^b that is wounded in the stones, or hath his privy member cut off, shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

2 A bastard^c shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD: even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the LORD.

3 An Ammonite^c or Moabite^f shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the LORD for ever;

4 Because^h they met you not with bread and with water in the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt; and because they hired against thee Balaamⁱ the son of Beor, of Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse thee.

5 Nevertheless the LORD thy God would not hearken unto Balaam; but the LORD thy God turned^j the curse into a blessing unto thee, because the LORD thy God loved thee.

6 Thou^k shalt not seek their peace nor their ^β prosperity all thy days for ever.

7 Thou shalt not abhor an Edomite; for he is thy brother:^m thou shalt not abhor an Egyptian, because thouⁿ wast a stranger in his land.

8 The children that are begotten of them shall enter^o into the congregation of the LORD in their third generation.

9 When the host goeth forth against thine enemies, then keep^a thee from every wicked thing.

10 If^r there be among you any man that is not clean by reason of uncleanness that chanceth him by night, then shall he go abroad out of the camp, he shall not come within the camp:

11 But it shall be, when evening ^ς cometh on, he shall wash^s himself with water: and when the sun is down, he shall come into the camp again.

12 Thou shalt have a place also without the camp, whither thou shalt go forth abroad:

13 And thou shalt have a paddle upon thy weapon; and it shall be, when thou wilt ^η ease thyself abroad, thou shalt dig therewith, and shalt turn back and cover that which cometh from thee:

14 For the LORD thy God walketh^w in the midst of thy camp, to deliver thee, and to give up thine enemies before thee; therefore shall thy camp be holy; that he see no ^κ unclean thing in thee, and turn away from thee.

15 Thou shalt not deliver unto his master^z the servant which is escaped from his master unto thee;

16 He shall dwell with thee, even among you, in that place which he shall choose in one of thy gates, where it ^λ liketh him best: thou^c shalt not oppress him.

17 There shall be no ^μ whore^d of the daughters of Israel, nor a sodomite^e of the sons of Israel.

18 Thou shalt not bring the hire of a whore, or the price of a dog, into the house of the LORD thy God for any vow: for even both these are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

19 Thou^g shalt not lend upon usury to thy brother; usury of money, usury of victuals, usury of any thing that is lent upon usury:

shalt not lend upon usury: that^a LORD thy God may bless thee in all that thou settest thine hand to in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

21 When thou shalt vow^d a vow unto the LORD thy God, thou shalt not shrink to pay it: for the LORD thy God surely require it of thee; and it would sin in thee.

22 But if thou shalt forbear to vow, shall be no sin in thee.

23 That^g which is gone out of thy land thou shalt keep and perform: even a freewill offering, according as thou hast vowed unto the LORD thy God, which thou hast promised with thy mouth.

24 When thou comest into thy neighbour's vineyard, then thou mayest eat grapes thy fill at thine own pleasure; but thou shalt not put any in thy vessel.

25 When thou comest into the standing corn of thy neighbour, then thou mayest pluck^k the ears with thine hand; but thou shalt not move a sickle unto thy neighbour's standing corn.

CHAPTER XXIV.

WHEN a man hath taken a wife, and married her, and it come to pass that she find no favour in his eyes, because he hath found^γ some uncleanness in her, then let him write her a bill of^δ divorce^μ, and give it in her hand, and send her out of his house.

2 And when she is departed out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife.

3 And if the latter husband hate her, and write her a bill of divorce^μ, and giveth it in her hand, and sendeth her out of his house; or if the latter husband die, which took her to be his wife,

4 Her former husband, which sent her away, may not take her again^t to be his wife, after that she is defiled; for that is abomination before the LORD: and thou shalt not cause the land^u to sin, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

5 When^v a man hath taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war,^θ neither shall he be charged with any business: but he shall be free at home one year, and shall cheer^z up his wife which he hath taken.

6 No man shall take the nether or the upper millstone to pledge: for he taketh a man's life to pledge.

7 If^ν a man be found stealing any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and maketh merchandise of him, or selleth him; then that thief shall die; and thou shalt put^a evil away from among you.

8 Take heed in the plague of leprosy that thou observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded thee, so ye shall observe to do.

9 Remember what the LORD thy God did unto Miriam^j by the way, after that ye were come forth out of Egypt.

10 When thou dost^ν lend thy brother any thing, thou shalt not go into his house to fetch his pledge.

11 Thou shalt stand abroad, and thou shalt man to whom thou dost lend shall bring out the pledge abroad unto thee.

12 And if the man be poor, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge:

13 Inⁱ any case thou shalt deliver him thy pledge again when the sun goeth down at he may sleep in his own raiment, and ss^a theo: and it shall be^b righteous-ss unto thee before the LORD thy God.

 14 Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he of thy brethren, or of thy strangers at are in thy land within thy gates: 15 At his day thou shalt give him his e, neither shall the sun go down upon ; for he is poor, and ^β setteth his heart ou it: lest he cry^c against thee unto e LORD, and it be sin unto thee.
 16 The fathers^d shall not be put to death
 e the children, neither shall the children put to death for the fathers: every man all be put to death for his own sin.
 17 Thou shalt not pervert the judgment the stranger, nor of the fatherless;^e nor ke the widow's raiment to pledge: 18 But^f thou shalt remember that thou ist a bondman in Egypt, and the LORD y God redeemed thee thence: therefore command thee to do this thing.
 19 When^h thou cuttest down thine harst in thy field, and hast forgot a sheaf the field, thou shalt not go again to to it: it shall be for the stranger, for e fatherless, and for the widow: that e LORD thy God may bless thee in all e work of thine hauds.
 20 When thou beatest thine olive tree, ou shalt not ^ζ go over the boughs again:
 shall be for the stranger, for the father-ss, and for the widow.
 21 When thou gatherest the grapes of y vineyard, thou shalt not glean it after-ard: ^η it shall be for the stranger, for e fatherless, and for the widow.
 22 And^ι thou shalt remember that thou ist a bondman in the land of Egypt;
 efore I command thee to do this thing.

CHAPTER XXV.

F there be a controversy^ρ between en, and they come unto judgment, that e judges may judge them; then they shall justify^σ the righteous, and condemn e wicked.
 2 And it shall be, if the wicked man e worthy to be beaten,^τ that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be eaten before his face, according to his ult, by a certain number.
 3 Forty stripes he may give him, and ot exceed: lest, if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many ripes, then thy brother should seem le^υ unto thee.
 4 Thou^φ shalt not muzzle the ox when e ^θ treadeth out the corn.
 5 If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without uno a stranger: her ^κ husband's ^ν brother shall go in unto her, and take her to m to wife, and perform the duty of an husband's brother unto her.
 6 And it shall be, that the firstborn hich she beareth shall succeed^ξ in the ame of his brother which is dead,^β that is name be not put out of Israel.
 7 And if the man like not to tako his brother's^λ wife, then let his brother's life go up to the gate unto the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth o raise up unto his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of y husband's brother.

 So shall it be done unto that man that will not build up his brother's house.
 10 And his name shall be called in Israel,
 The house of him that hath his shoe loosed.
 11 When men strive together one with

 14 Thou shalt not have in thine house

 15 But^ε thou shalt have a perfect and shalt thou have; that thy days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

 16 For all that do such things, and all that do unrighteously, are an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

 thee by the way, when ye were come forth out of Egypt;
 18 How he met thee by the way, and smote^κ the hindmost of thee, even all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary; and he feared^ι not God.
 19 Therefore it shall be, when^μ the LORD thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot^ο out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven: thou shalt not forget it.

CHAPTER XXVI.

AND it shall be, when thou art come in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and possessest it, and dwellest therein, 2 That^ρ thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there.
 3 And thou shalt go unto the priest that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto the LORD thy God, that I am come unto the country which the LORD sware unto our fathers for to give us.
 4 And the priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD thy God.
 5 And thou shalt speak, and say before the LORD thy God, A^ν Syrian ready to perish^ξ was my father; and^υ he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a few,^a and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous:
 6 And the Egyptians^c evil entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage:
 7 And when we cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard^d our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression:
 8 And the LORD brought us forth^e out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terribleness, and with signs, and^a with wonders;

9 And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even a land that floweth^c with milk and honey.

10 And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land, which thou, O LORD, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the LORD thy God, and worship^d before the LORD thy God:

11 And thou shalt rejoice^e in every good thing which the LORD thy God hath given unto thee, and unto thine house, thou, and the Levite,^f and the stranger that is among you.

12 When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes^h of thine increase the third year, which is the yearⁱ of tithing, and hast given it unto the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within thy gates, and be filled;

13 Then thou shalt say before the LORD thy God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of mine house, and also have given them unto the Levite, and unto the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments, which thou hast commanded me: I have not transgressed^j thy commandments, neither have I forgotten^m them:

14 I have not eaten thereof in my mourning,ⁿ neither have I taken away ought thereof for any unclean use, nor given ought thereof for the dead: but I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that thou hast commanded me.

15 Look^p down from thy holy habitation, from heaven,^r and bless^s thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou swarest^t unto our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

16 This^v day the LORD thy God hath commanded thee to do these statutes and judgments: thou shalt therefore keep and do them with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

17 Thou hast avouched^y the LORD this day to be thy God, and to walk in his ways, and to keep his statutes,^z and his commandments, and his judgments, and to hearken unto his voice:

18 And the LORD^b hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar^d people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldst keep^e all his commandments;

19 And to make thee high^f above all nations which he hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honour; and that thou mayest be an holy^h people unto the LORD thy God, as he hath spoken.

CHAPTER XXVII.

AND Moses with the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you this day.

2 And it shall be on the dayⁱ when ye shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaster them with plaster:

3 Andⁿ thou shalt write upon them all the words of this law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest go in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, a land that floweth with milk and honey; as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

over Jordan, that ye shall set up the stones, which I command you this in mount Ebal,^b and thou shalt plaster them with plaster.

5 And there shalt thou build an altar unto the LORD thy God, an altar of stones: thou shalt not lift up any iron tool upon them.

6 Thou shalt build the altar of the LORD thy God of whole stones; and thou shalt offer burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God:

7 And thou shalt offer peace offerings, and shalt eat there, and rejoice^v before the LORD thy God.

8 And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law very plainly.

9 And Moses, and the priests the Levites spake unto all Israel, saying, Take heed and hearken, O Israel; this^k day thou shalt become the people of the LORD thy God.

10 Thou shalt therefore obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day.

11 And Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

12 These shall stand upon mount Gerizim to bless the people, when ye are come over Jordan; Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin.

13 And these shall stand upon mount Ebal^l to curse; Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

14 And the Levites^o shall speak, and say unto all the men of Israel with a loud voice, 15 Cursed be the man that maketh^q an image, or graven or molten image, an abomination unto the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in^a a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

26 Cursed be he that confirmeth not all the words of this law to do^r them. And all the people shall say, Amen.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

AND it shall come to pass, if^c thou shaltarken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high^f above all nations of the earth:

2 And all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake^g thee, if^h thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.

5 Blessed shall be thy basket and thy^k store.

6 Blessed shalt thou be when^l thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

7 The LORD shall cause thine^m enemies to rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and fleeⁿ before thee seven ways.

8 The LORD shall command^o the blessing upon thee in thy^p storehouses, and in all that thou settest thine hand unto; and he shall bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

9 The LORD shall establish^q thee an holy people unto himself, as he hath sworn^r unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways.

10 And all people^s of the earth shall see that thou art called^t by the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid^u of thee.

11 And^v the LORD shall make thee plenteous^w in goods, in the fruit of thy^x body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land which the LORD swore unto thy fathers to give thee.

12 The LORD shall open unto thee his good treasure, the heaven to give thee in unto^y thy land in his season, and to bless all the work of thine hand: and thou shalt lend^z unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

13 And the LORD shall make thee the ad^{aa}, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

14 And^{ab} thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to^{ac} the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

15 But it shall come to pass, if thou shalt not^{ad} hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall^{ae} come upon thee, and overtake thee:

ing, vexation,^a and rebuke^b in all that thou settest thine hand unto^c for to do,^d until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

21 The LORD shall make the^e pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

22 The LORD shall smite thee with a consumption, and with a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the^f sword, and with blasting,^g and with mildew: and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.

23 And^h thy heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

24 The LORD shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee,ⁱ until thou be destroyed.

25 The LORD shall cause thee to be smitten^j before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them; and shalt be^k removed^l into all the kingdoms of the earth.

26 And thy ease^m shall be meat unto all fowls of the air; and unto the beasts of the earth, and no man shall fray them away.

27 The LORD will smite thee with the boteh of Egypt, and with theⁿ emerods, and with the scab, and with the iteh, whereof thou canst not be healed.

28 The LORD shall smite thee with madness, and blindness, and^o astonishment of heart:

29 And thou shalt grope^p at noonday, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

30 Thou^q shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: thou shalt build^r an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not^s gather the grapes thereof.

31 Thine ox shall be slain before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof: thine ass shall be violently taken away from before thy face, and shall not^t be restored to thee: thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to rescue them.

32 Thy sons^u and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day long: and there shall be no might in thine hand.

33 The fruit^v of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed alway:

34 So that thou shalt be mad for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

35 The LORD shall smite thee in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore boteh that cannot be healed, from^w the sole of thy foot unto the top of thy head.

36 The LORD shall bring^x thee, and thy king which thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers have known; and there shalt thou serve other gods, wood and stone.

37 And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a^y byword, among all nations whither the LORD shall lead thee.

38 Thou shalt carry much^a seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in; for the locust^b shall consume it.

39 Thou shalt plant vineyards, and dress them, but shalt neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for the worms^c shall eat them.

40 Thou shalt have olive trees throughout all thy coasts, but thou shalt not anoint thyself^f with the oil; for thine olive shall cast his fruit.

41 Thou shalt beget sons and daughters, but γ thou shalt not enjoy them; for they^f shall go into captivity.

42 All thy trees and fruit of thy land shall the locust^g consume.

43 The^h stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low.

44 He^m shall lend to thee, and thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.

45 Moreover, all these curses^o shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till^p thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee:

46 And they shall be upon thee for a sign^r and for a wonder, and upon thy seed for ever.

47 Because^s thou servedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance^v of all things;

48 Therefore^w shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger,^z and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron^z upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

49 The LORD shall bring a^b nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as^c swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand;ⁿ

50 A nation^o of fierce countenance, which shall^o not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young;

51 And he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy land, until thou be destroyed: which also shall not leave thee either corn, wine, or oil, or the increase of thy kine, or flocks of thy sheep, until he have destroyed thee.

52 And he shall besiege^g thee in all thy gates, until thy high and fenced walls come down, wherein thou trustedst, throughout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates throughout all thy land, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

53 And thou shalt eatⁱ the fruit of thine own^k body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters, which the LORD thy God hath given thee, in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee:

54 So that the man that is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall^m be evil toward his brother, and toward theⁿ wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children which he shall leave:

55 So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he hath nothing left him in the siege, and in the straitness wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all thy gates.

56 The tender and delicate woman among you, which would not adventure to set sole of her foot upon the ground for cateness and tenderness, her eye shall evil toward the husband of her bosom, toward her son, and toward her daughter.

57 And toward her β young one cometh out from between her feet, toward her children^d which she shall bear: for she shall eat^e them for want of all things secretly in the siege and straits, wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in thy gates.

58 If thou wilt not observe to do all words of this law that are written in this book, that thou mayest fear this glorious^h and fearfulⁱ name, THE^k LORD^l THY^m GOD;

59 Then the LORD will make thy plague wonderful,ⁿ and the plagues of thy^o even great plagues, and of long continuance, and sore sicknesses, and of long continuance.

60 Moreover, he will bring upon thee all the diseases^p of Egypt, which thou wast afraid of; and they shall cleave unto thee.

61 Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, them will the LORD^q bring upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

62 And ye shall be left few^r in number, whereas ye were as the^s stars of heaven for multitude; because thou wouldest not obey the voice of the LORD thy God.

63 And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you^t good, and to multiply you; so the LORD^u will rejoice over you to destroy^v you, and bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.

64 And the LORD shall scatter^d thee among all people, from the one end of the earth even unto the other; and thou shalt serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known, even wood and stone.

65 And^f among these nations shalt thou find no ease, neither shall the sole of thy foot have rest: but the LORD shall give thee there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and sorrow of mind:

66 And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee: and thou shalt fear day and night, and shalt have none assurance of thy life:

67 In the morning^h thou shalt say, Would God it were evenⁱ! and at evening thou shalt say, Would God it were morning! for the fear of thine heart which with thou shalt fear, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

68 And the LORD shall bring thee into Egypt^k again with ships, by the way whereof I spake^l unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you.

CHAPTER XXIX.

THESE are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside the covenant which he made^o with them in Horeb.

2 And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, Ye have seen all that the

ORD did^a before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land;
 3 The great temptations^b which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and those great miracles:
 4 Yet the LORD hath not given you an heart^d to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.
 5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes^f are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe is not waxen old upon thy foot.
 6 Ye have not^h eaten bread,ⁱ neither have ye drunk wine or strong drink: that ye might know that I am the LORD your God.
 7 And when ye came unto this place, Sihon^l the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them:
 8 And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh.
 9 Keep^m therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do.
 10 Ye stand this day all^o of you before the LORD your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel, 11 Your little ones, your wives, and your stranger that is in thy camp, from the hewer^r of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water:
 12 That thou shouldest *ζ*outer into covenant with the LORD thy God, and to his oath,^t which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day:
 13 That he may establish^u thee to day as a people unto himself, and that he may give unto thee a God, as he hath said^v unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, Abraham,^x to Isaac,^y and to Jacob.^z
 14 Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath;
 15 But^b with him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day:
 16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which ye passed by;
 17 And ye have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them:)
 18 Lest there should be among you man, woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the LORD our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a lot that beareth^θ gall^e and wormwood;^f
 19 And it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the κ imagination of mine art, to add^λ drunkenness^ο to thirst:
 20 The LORD will not spare him, but will increase the anger^κ of the LORD and his jealousy^κ shall smoko against that man, and the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the LORD shall blot out^ι his name from under heaven.
 21 And the LORD shall separate^m him from evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that κ are written in this book of the law:
 22 So that the generation to come of your children, that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which β the LORD hath laid upon it;

23 And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt,^c and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth^e, nor any grass groweth therein, like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the LORD overthrew^g in his anger, and in his wrath;

24 Even all nations shall say, Wherefore^k hath the LORD done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger?

25 Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt:

26 For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and γ whom he had not given^δ unto them:

27 Andⁿ the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book:

28 And the LORD rooted^p them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.

29 The secret^a things belong unto the LORD our God; but those things which are revealed^s belong unto us, and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

CHAPTER XXX.

AND it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call them to mind^w among all the nations whither the LORD thy God hath driven thee,

2 And shalt return^a unto the LORD thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul;

3 That then the LORD thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and^c gather thee from all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath scattered thee.

4 If^d any of thine be driven out unto the utmost parts of heaven, from thence will the LORD thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee:

5 And the LORD thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers.

6 And the LORD thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

7 And the LORD thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies,ⁱ and on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee.

8 And thou shalt return and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments, which I command thee this day.

9 Andⁿ the LORD thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the LORD will again^ο rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers;

10 If thou shalt hearken^a unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep^c his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn^d unto the LORD thy God, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

11 For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not^f hidden from thee, neither is it far off.

12 It^h is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

14 But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

15 See, I^o have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil;

16 In that I command thee this day to love^g the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep^h his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

17 But if thine heart^t turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shalt be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them;

18 I^u deounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, and that ye shall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou passest over Jordan to go to possess it.

19 I^x call heaven^v and earth^z to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live:

20 That thou mayest love the LORD thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him; for he is thy life,^c and the length of thy days; that thou mayest dwell in the land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

CHAPTER XXXI.

AND Moses went, and spake these words unto all Israel.

2 And he said unto them, I am^o an hundred and twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in: also the LORD hath said^h unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

3 The LORD thy God, he^k will go over before thee, and he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them: and Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as the LORD hath^l said.

4 And the LORD shall do unto them as he did^m to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites, and unto the land of them whom he destroyed.

5 And the LORD shall giveⁿ them up before your face, that ye may do unto them according unto all the commandments which I have commanded you.

6 Be^p strong and of a good courage,^q fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the LORD thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he^r will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be^b strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto the land which the LORD hath sworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it.

8 And the LORD, he^c it is that do go before thee; he will be with thee, will^o not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed.

9 And Moses wrote this law, and deliveredⁱ it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and unto all the elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them saying, At the end of every seven years, the solemnity of the year of^k release, the feast^l of tabernacles, 11 When all Israel is come to^m appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose, thou shaltⁿ recite this law before all Israel in their hearing.

12 Gather^p the people together, men and women, and children, and the stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law;

13 And that their children,^s which have not known any thing, may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die:^v call Joshua, and present yourself in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give him a charge.^w And Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And^a the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud: at the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt^β sleep with thy father: and this people will rise^δ up and go a whoring^d after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them: and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17 Thou my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I^c will forsake them, and I will hide^f my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall ye^g befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is notⁱ among us?

18 And I will surely hide my face in that day, for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel.

20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swear unto the fathers, that floweth with milk and honey, and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat; then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant.

21 And it shall come to pass, when^s mal ills and troubles are befallen them, that is song shall testify β against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I β know their imagination which they γ go about, even now, before I have brought them to the land which I swear.

22 Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

23 And he gave Joshua the son of Nun charge, and said, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I swear unto them: and I will be with thee.

24 And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished,

25 That Moses commanded the Levites, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying,

26 Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be a witness for a witness against thee.

27 For I know thy rebellion, and thy stiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious^m against the LORD; and how much more after my death?

28 Gatherⁿ unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and^p call heaven and earth to record against them.

29 For I know that after my death ye will utterly corrupt^q yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil^r will befall you in the latter days; because ye will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.

30 And Moses spake in the ears of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until they were ended.

CHAPTER XXXII.

*W*HILE^t ear, O ye heavens, and I will speak; and hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

2 My doctrine shall drop^v as the rain, my speech shall distil as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as showers upon the grass:

3 Because I will publish the name of the LORD: ascribe^y ye greatness unto our God.

4 *H*e is the^z Rock, his work is^a perfect; in all his ways^b are judgment: a God^c of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he.

5 They have corrupted themselves; their^d spot is not the spot of his children: they are a perverse and crooked generation.

6 Do ye thus requite the LORD, O foolish people and unwise? is not he thy thy^e that hath bought^f thee? hath he not made thee, and established thee?

7 Remember the days of old, consider many years of^g many generations: ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee;

8 When the Most High divided^h to the nations their inheritance, when he separatedⁱ the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

9 For^j the LORD's portion is his people; Jacob is the^k lot of his^m inheritance.

10 He found him in a desert land, and the waste howling wilderness; he φ led him about,^a he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye.

11 As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them,^c beareth them on her wings;

12 So the LORD alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him.

13 He^d made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck honey^e out of the rock, and oil out of the flinty rock;

14 Butter of kine, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat; and thou didst drink the pure blood of the grape.

15 But Jeshurun^f waxed fat, and^g kicked: thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness: then he^h forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

16 They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger.

17 Theyⁱ sacrificed unto δ devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not.

18 Of the Rock that begat thee thou art unmindful, and hast forgotten^o God that formed thee.

19 And when the LORD saw it, he abhorred them, because of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters.

20 And he said, I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end shall be: for they are a very froward generation, children in whom is no faith.

21 They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God; they have provoked me to anger with their vanities: and I will^s move them to jealousy with those which are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

22 For a fire^u is kindled in mine anger, and^v shall burn unto the lowest hell, and shall θ consume the earth^w with her increase, and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

23 I will heap mischiefs upon them; I will spend mine arrows^x upon them.

24 They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning^κ heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also seud the teeth^d of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust.

25 The sword without, and terror μ within, shall π destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also with the man of gray hairs.

26 I said, I would scatter^c them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men:

27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries should behave themselves strangely, and lest they should say, σ Our hand is high, and the LORD hath not done all this.

28 For they are a nation void of counsel, neither is there any understanding in them.

29 O^k that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!

30 How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock had sold^a them, and the LORD had shut them up?

31 For^e their rock is not as our Rock, even^d our enemies themselves being judges.

32 For their vine is β of the vine^e of Sodom,^f and of the fields of Gomorrah; their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter;

33 Their wine is the poison^g of dragons, and the cruel vomit of asps.ⁱ

34 Is not this laid up^k in store with me, and sealed up among my treasures?

35 To me^m belongeth vengeance, and recompence; their footⁿ shall slide in due time: for the day of their calamity is at hand,^p and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

36 For the LORD shall judge his people, and repent^q himself for his servants, when he seeth that their δ power is gone, and there is none shut up or left.

37 And he shall say, Where are their gods, their rock in whom they trusted;

38 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offerings? let them^r rise up and help yon, and be ζ your protection.

39 See now that I,^w even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I^x kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

40 For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever.

41 If I whet my glittering sword,^a and mine hand take hold on judgment, I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.

42 I will make mine arrows^b drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy.

43 η Rejoice, O ye nations, with his people; for he will avenge^c the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and^d will be merciful unto his land, and to his people.

44 And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he, and ^h Hoshea the son of Nnn.

45 And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel:

46 And he said unto them, Set^k your hearts unto all the words which I testify among yon this day, which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law.

47 For it is not a vain thing for you; because it is your life;^m and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

48 And the LORD spake unto Moses that selfsame day, saying,

49 Getⁿ thee up into this mountain Abarim, unto mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession:

50 And die in the mount whither thou goest up, and be gathered unto thy people; as Aaron thy brother died^q in mount Hor, and was gathered unto his people:

51 Because ye trespassed^t against me among the children of Israel at the waters of ρ Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin, because ye sanctified^u me

CHAPTER XXXIII.

AND this is the blessing, wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.

2 And he said, The LORD came^c from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto the north: he shined forth from mount Paran, and he came^d with ten thousands of saints from his right hand went a fiery law for them.

3 Yea, he loved^e the people; all his saints are in thy hand:^f and they are down at thy feet; every one shall^g receive of thy words.

4 Moses commanded us a law, even the inheritance of the congregation of Jacob.

5 And he was king^h in Jeshurun, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Israel were gathered together.

6 Letⁱ Reuben live, and not die; and let not his men be few.

7 And this is the blessing of Judah, and he said, Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him unto his people: let his hands be sufficient for him; and be thou an help^j to him from his enemies.

8 And of Levi he said, Let thy Thummim^k and thy Urim be with thy holy one, whom thou didst prove at Massah, and with whom thou didst strive at the waters of Meribah;

9 Who said unto his father and to his mother, I have not seen him; neither^l did he acknowledge his brethren, nor knew his own children: for they have observed thy word, and kept thy covenant.^d

10 They shall teach Jacob thy judgments, and Israel thy law: ^o they shall put^f incense before thee, and ^g whole burnt sacrifice upon thine altar.

11 Bless, LORD, his substance, and acceptⁱ the work of his hands: smite through the loins of them that rise against him, and of them that hate him, that they rise not again.

12 And of Benjamin he said, The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by him; and the LORD shall cover him all the day long, and he shall dwell between his shoulders.

13 And of Joseph he said, Blessed of the LORD be his land, for the precious things of heaven, for the dew,^h and for the deep that coucheth beneath,

14 And for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things ⁱ put forth by the ^j moon,

15 And for the chief things of the ancient mountains, and for the precious things of the lasting hills,

16 And for the precious things of the earth and fulness thereof, and for the good will of him that dwelt in the bush: let the blessing come upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him that was separated from his brethren.

17 His^k glory is like the firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like the horns of unicorns: with them he shall push^l the people together to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh.

18 And of Zebulun he said, Rejoice.

ebulun, in thy going out; and, Issachar, in thy tents.
 19 Thy^a shall call the people unto the mountain; there they shall offer^b sacrifices of righteousness: for^c they shall seek of the abundance of the seas, and of treasures hid in the sand.
 20 And of Gad he said, Blessed be he that enlargeth Gad: he dwelleth as a lion,^d and teareth the arm with the crown of the head.
 21 And he provided the first^e part for himself, because there, in a portion of the lawgiver, was he^f seated; and he came with the heads of the people, he executed^g the justice of the LORD, and is judgments with Israel.
 22 And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's help; heⁱ shall leap from Bashan.
 23 And of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied^k with favour, and full with the blessing of the LORD: possess^l thou the west and the south.
 24 And of Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with children; let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oil.ⁿ
 25 Thy^o shoes shall be iron and brass; and^p as thy days, so shall thy strength be.
 26 There is none like^q unto the God of Jeshurun, who rideth^r upon the heaven in thy help, and in his excellency on the sky.
 27 The eternal God is thy refuge,^t and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them.
 28 Israel then shall dwell in^w safety: as the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his ravens shall drop down dew.
 29 Happy^z art thou, O Israel: who is like unto thee, O people saved by the LORD, the shield^b of thy help, and who is the sword^c of thy excellency! and thine enemies shall be^o found liars unto thee; and thou shalt tread upon their high places.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

AND Moses went up from the plains of Moab unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of ^B Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. And the LORD shewed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan,
 2 And all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, unto the utmost sea,
 3 And the south, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, unto Zoar.
 4 And the LORD said unto him, This is the land which I swore^f unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but^h thou shalt not go over thither.
 5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.
 6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor: but^m no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.
 7 And Moses was an hundred and twenty years old when he died: his^o eye was not dim, nor his ^o natural force abated.
 8 And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty^s days: so the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.
 9 And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit^u of wisdom; for Moses^v had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses.
 10 And there arose not a prophet since in Israel^y like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face, 11 In all the signs^a and the wonders which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, 12 And in all that mighty^d hand, and in all the great terror which Moses shewed in the sight of all Israel.

The Book of JOSHUA.

CHAPTER I.

NOW after the death^a of Moses the servant of the LORD it came to pass, that the LORD spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister,^b saying,

2 Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel.

3 Every^d place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses.

4 From^f the wilderness and this Lebanon, even unto the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and unto the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your coast.

5 Thereⁱ shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as^k I was with Moses, so I will be with thee: I^l will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

6 Be strong and of a good courage: for unto γ this people shalt thou divide for an inheritance the land, which I swear unto their fathers to give them.

7 Only be^o thou strong and very courageous, that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded thee: turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest ζ prosper whithersoever thou goest.

8 This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt η have good success.

9 Have not I commanded thee?^a Be strong and of a good courage; be^r not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for^s the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.

10 Then Joshua commaunded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Pass through the host, and commaund the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for^u within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land, which the LORD your God giveth you to possess it.

12 And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, spake Joshua, saying,

13 Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying,^w The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land.

14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan; but ye shall pass before your brethren κ armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them;

15 Until the LORD have given your brethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them: then ye shall return unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD's servant, gave you on this side Jordan, toward the sunrising.

16 And they answered Joshua, saying, All^c that thou commaudest us we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest we will go.

17 According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we hearken unto thee: only the LORD thy God ι with thee, as^e he was with Moses.

18 Whosoever he be that doth rebel against thy commandment, and will not hearken unto thy words in all that thou commadest him, he^g shall be put to death: only^h be strong and of a good courage.

CHAPTER II.

AND Joshua the son of Nun β sent out of Shittim two men to spy^m secretly saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into an harlot house, named Rahab,ⁿ and δ lodged there.

2 And it was told the king of Jericho saying, Behold, there came men in hither to night of the children of Israel, to search out the country.

3 And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, which are entered into thine house: for they be come to search out all the country.

4 And^p the woman took the two men, and hid them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were:

5 And it came to pass, about the time of shutting of the gate, when it was dark that the men went out: whither the men went I wot not: pursue after them quickly; for ye shall overtake them.

6 But^t she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof.

7 And the men pursued after them the way to Jordan, unto the fords: and as soon as they which pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.

8 And before they were laid down, she came up unto them upon the roof;

9 And she said unto the men, I know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that your terror^o is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land are faint θ because of you.

10 For we have heard how the LORD dried^z up the water of the Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what^y ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side Jordan, Sihou and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed.

11 And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts^z did melt, neither λ did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for^a the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath.

12 Now therefore, I pray you, swear unto me by the LORD, since I have renewed you kindness, that ye will also renew kindness unto my^b father's house, and give me a true token:^c

13 And that ye will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.

14 And the men answered her, Our fe^β for your's, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD hath given us the land, that we will deal indly^f and truly with thee.

15 Then she let^h them down by a cord through the window: for her house was upon the town wall, and she dwelt upon the wall.

16 And she said unto them, Get you to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned; and afterward may ye go your way.

17 And the men said unto her, We will be blamelessⁱ of this thine oath which thou hast made us swear.

18 Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of scarlet thread to the window which thou didst let us go down by; and^o thou shalt bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household, home unto thee.

19 And it shall be, that whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and he will be guilty: and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be to our head,^g if any hand be upon him.

20 And if thou utter^s this our business; then we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear.

21 And she said, According unto your words,^a so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bound the scarlet line in the window.

22 And they went, and came unto the mountain, and abode there three days, until the pursuers were returned: and the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but found them not.

23 So the two men returned, and descended from the mountain, and passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all things that befell them:

24 And they said unto Joshua, Truly the LORD hath delivered^a into our hands all the land; for even all the inhabitants of the country do^δ faint because of us.

CHAPTER III.

AND Joshua rose early in the morning; and they removed from Shittim,^c and came to Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over.

2 And it came to pass, after three days, that the officers went^a through the host;

3 And they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark^e of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the^f priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it.

4 Yet there shall be a space^h between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go: or ye have not passed this way^h heretofore.

5 Andⁱ Joshua said unto the people, Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the LORD will do wonders^k among you.

6 And Joshua spake unto the priests, saying, Take^a up the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.

7 And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify^d thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, as^e I was with Moses, so I will be with thee.

8 And thou shalt command the priests that bear the ark of the covenant, saying, When ye are come to the brink of the water of Jordan, ye shall stand^g still in Jordan.

9 And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, Come hither, and hear the words of the LORD your God.

10 And Joshua said, Hereby ye shall know that the livingⁱ God is among you, and that he will without fail^j drive^k out from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites.

11 Behold, the ark of the covenant of the^m Lord of all the earth passeth over before you into Jordan.

12 Now therefore take youⁿ twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, out of every tribe a man.

13 And it shall come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests that bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of Jordan, that the waters of Jordan shall be cut off from the waters that come down from above; and they shall stand upon an heap.

14 And it came to pass, when the people removed from their tents, to pass over Jordan, and the priests bearing the^t ark of the covenant before the people;

15 And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and the feet^v of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for Jordan^w overfloweth all his banks all the time of harvest,)

16 That the waters which came down from above stood and rose up^x upon an heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside Zaretan:^y and those that came down toward the^z sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho.

17 And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry^b ground in the midst of Jordan, and all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over Jordan.

CHAPTER IV.

AND it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over Jordan, that the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,

2 Take you twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man,

3 And command ye them, saying, Take you hence out of the midst of Jordan, out of the place where the priests' feet stood firm, twelve stones;^g and ye shall carry them over with you, and leave them in the lodging place where ye shall lodge this night.

4 Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man:

5 And Joshua said unto them, Pass over before the ark of the LORD your God into the midst of Jordan, and take you up every man of you a stone upon his shoulder, according unto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel:

6 That this may be a sign among you, that when^b your children ask their fathers^β in time to come, saying, What mean ye by these stones?

7 Then ye shall answer them, ^dThat the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial^e unto the children of Israel for ever.

8 And the children of Israel did so as Joshua commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of Jordan, as the LORD spake unto Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, and carried them over with them unto the place where they lodged, and laid them down there.

9 And Joshua set up twelve^k stones in the midst of Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests which bare the ark of the covenant stood: and they are there unto this day.

10 For the priests which bare the ark stood^l in the midst of Jordan, until every thing was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua: and the people hastened and passed over.

11 And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over, that the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests, in the presence of the people.

12 And^o the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh, passed over armed before the children of Israel, as Moses spake unto them:

13 About forty thousand ^γprepared for war passed over before the LORD unto battle, to the plains of Jericho.

14 On that day the LORD^θ magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they feared^s Moses, all the days of his life.

15 And the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,

16 Command the priests that bear the ark^t of the testimony, that they come up out of Jordan.

17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, Come ye up out of Jordan.

18 And it came to pass, when the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD were come up out of the midst of Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were ^λlifted up unto the dry land, that the waters of Jordan returned unto their place, and ^μflowed over^ν all his banks, as they did before.

19 And the people came up out of Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and encamped in Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho.

20 And^α those twelve stones, which they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal.

21 And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, When^c your children shall ask their fathers ^νin time to come, saying, What mean these stones?

22 Then ye shall let your children know, saying, Israel came^f over this Jordan on dry land.

23 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over, as the LORD your God did^a to the Red sea, which he dried from before us, until we were gone over:

24 That^c all the people of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty; that ye might fear the LORD your God ^γfor ever.

CHAPTER V.

AND it came to pass when all the kings of the Amorites, which were on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, which were by the sea heard^g that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we were passed over, that^h their heart melted, neither was there spiritⁱ in them any more, because of the children of Israel.

2 At that time the LORD said unto Joshua, Make thee sharp ^δknives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time.

3 And Joshua made him sharp knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at ^ζthe hill of the foreskins.

4 And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: All^m the people that came out of Egypt, that were males, even as the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt.

5 Now all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people that were born in the wilderness by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, then they had not circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel walkedⁿ forty years in the wilderness, till all the people that were men of war, which came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: unto whom^p the LORD sware that he would not shew them the land which the LORD sware unto their fathers that he would give us a land that floweth with milk and honey.

7 And their children, whom he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way.

8 And it came to pass, when ^θthey had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp till they were whole.

9 And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day have I rolled away the reproach^u of Egypt^v from off you. Wherefore the name of the place is called κ Gilgal unto this day.

10 And^w the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and kept the passover on the fourteenth^x day of the month, at even, in the plains of Jericho.

11 And they did eat of the old corn of the land on the morrow after the passover, unleavened cakes and parched corn in the selfsame day.

12 And the manna^z ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna any more;^b but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

13 And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood a man^d over against him with his^e sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?

14 And he said, Nay; but as β captain the host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua fell^b on his face to the earth, and did worship, and said unto him, What^c saith my lord unto his servant?
15 And the captain of the LORD's host said unto Joshua, Loose^d thy shoe from thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so.

CHAPTER VI.

NOW Jericho^d was straitly shut up, because of the children of Israel: none went out, and none came in.

2 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Ye, I^a have given into thine hand Jericho, and the kingⁱ thereof, and the mighty men of valour.

3 And ye shall compass the city, all men of war, and go round about the city once. Thus shalt thou do six days.

4 And seven priests shall bear before the ark seven trumpets^m of rams' horns: and the seventh day ye shall compass the city seven times, and theⁿ priests shall blow with the trumpets.

5 And it shall come to pass, that^v when ye make a long blast with the ram's horn, and when ye hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout^a with a great shout: and the wall of the city shall fall down^g flat, and the people shall ascend up, every man straight before him.

6 And Joshua the son of Nnn called the priests, and said unto them, Take the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests bear seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD.

7 And he said unto the people, Pass on, and compass^u the city, and let him that is med pass on before the ark of the LORD.

8 And it came to pass, when Joshua had taken unto the people, that the seven priests bearing the seven trumpets of rams' horns passed on before the LORD, and went with the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

9 And the armed men went before the priests that blew with the trumpets, and the rereward^a came after the ark, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

10 And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor make^u any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I bid you shout; then shall ye shout.

11 So the ark of the LORD compassed the city, going about it once: and they came to the camp, and lodged in the camp.

12 And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up^d the ark of the LORD.

13 And seven priests, bearing seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD, went on continually, and blew with the trumpets: and the armed men went before them; but the rereward came after the ark of the LORD, the priests going on, and blowing with the trumpets.

14 And the second day they compassed the city once, and returned into the camp: so they did six days.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times.

16 And it came to pass at the seventh day, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city.

17 And the city shall be γ accursed, even it, and all that are therein, to the LORD; only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she hid^c the messengers that we sent.

18 And ye, in any wise keep^f yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble^g it.

19 But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are ζ consecrated unto the LORD; they shall come into the treasury^k of the LORD.

20 So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the^l wall fell down^g flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

21 And they utterly^o destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword.

22 But Joshua had said unto the two men that had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, as ye sware^r unto her.

23 And the young men that were spies went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her κ kindred, and left them without the camp of Israel.

24 And they burnt^v the city with fire, and all that was therein: only the^w silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

25 And Joshua saved Rahab^x the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and she dwelleth in Israel^y even unto this day; because^z she hid the messengers which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

26 And Joshua adjured them at that time, saying, Cursed^b be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.

27 So the LORD was with^c Joshua; and his fame was noised throughout all the country.

CHAPTER VII.

BUT the children of Israel committed a trespass^e in the accursed thing: for Achan,^v the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi,^w the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against the children of Israel.

2 And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth-aven, on the east side of Beth-el, and spake unto them, saying, Go up and view the country. And the men went up and viewed Ai.

3 And they returned to Joshua, and said unto him, Let not all the people go up; but let ρ about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; and make not all the people to labour thither; for they are but few.

4 So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men: and they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased^a them from before the gate even unto Shebarim, and smote them ^β in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted,^c and became as water.^d

6 And Joshua rent^e his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the eventide, he and the elders of Israel, and put dustⁱ upon their heads.

7 And Joshua said, Alas! O Lord God, wherefore^k hast thou at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Would to God we had been content, and dwelt on the other side Jordan!

8 O Lord, what^l shall I say, when Israel turneth their ^ςbacks before their enemies!

9 For^m the Canaanites, and all the inhabitants of the land, shall hear of it, and shall environ us round, and cut offⁿ our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy great name?^o

10 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up; wherefore ^νliest thou thus upon thy face?

11 Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded^s them: for they have even taken^u of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled^v also, and they have put it even among their own stuff.

12 Therefore^x the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed:^y neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

13 Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify^z yourselves against to morrow: for thus saith the LORD God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought according^c to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the^d LORD taketh shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man.

15 And it shall be, that he that is taken with the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath wrought folly^λ in^ο Israel.

16 So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken:

17 And he brought the family of Judah: and he took the family of the Zarahites: and he brought the family of the Zarahites man by man; and Zabdi was taken:

18 And he brought his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19 And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, gloryⁱ to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession^k unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me.

20 And Achan answered Joshua, and said, Indeed I have sinned against LORD God of Israel, and thus and t have I done:

21 When I saw^b among the spoil goodly Babylonish garment, and 1 hundred shekels of silver, and a 7 we of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I veted^f them, and took^g them; and, beh^h they are hid^h in the earth in the mi of my tent, and the silver under it.

22 So Joshua sent messengers, and t ran nnto the tent; and, behold, it was in his tent, and the silver nnder it.

23 And they took them out of the midst the tent, and brought them unto Josh and unto all the children of Israel, a laid^δ them out before the LORD.

24 And Joshua, and all Israel with h took Achan the son of Zerah, and 1 silver, and the garment, and the wedge gold, and his sons, and his daughters, a his oxen, and his asses, and his she and his tent, and all that he had: and t brought them unto the valley of Achor.

25 And Joshua said, Why hast th troubled^p ns? the LORD shall trouble t this day. And all Israel stoned^q him w stones, and burned them with fire, aft they had stoned them with stones.

CHAPTER VIII.

AND the LORD said unto Joshua, Fe not, neither be thou dismayed: take the people of war with thee, and aris go up to Ai: see, I have given into t hand the king of Ai, and his people, a his city, and his land:

2 And thou shalt do to Ai and her ki as thou didst unto Jericho^a and her kin only the spoil^b thereof, and the cattle ther of, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselv lay thee an ambush for the city behind it.

3 So Joshua arose, and all the peep of war, to go up against Ai: and Josh chose out thirty thousand mighty men valour, and sent them away by night.

4 And he commanded them, sayin Behold, ye shall lie^c in wait against t city, even behind the city: go not ver far from the city, but be ye all ready;

5 And I, and all the people, that a with me, will approach unto the cit and it shall come to pass, when the come out against ns, as at the first,^f th we will flee before them,

6 (For they will come out after us,) ti we have ^κdrawn them from the city; fo they will say, They flee before ns, as s the first: therefore we will flee befor them.

7 Then ye shall rise up from the am bush, and seize upon the city: for th LORD your God will deliver it into you hand.

8 And it shall be, when ye have take the city, that ye shall set the city o fire: according to the commandment o the LORD shall ye do. See,^h I have com manded you.

9 Joshua therefore sent them forth and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Joshua lodged tha night among the people.

10 And Joshua rose up early in the orning, and numbered the people, and nt up, he and the elders of Israel, ore the people to Ai.

 1 And^c all the people, even the people war that were with him, went up, and w night, and came before the city, and ehed on the north side of Ai: now ere was a valley between them and Ai.
 2 And he took about five thousand en, and set them to lie in ambush be-een Beth-el and Ai, on the west side the city.
 3 And when they had set the people, en all the host that was on the north of e city, and their ylicers in wait on the est of the city, Joshua went that night
 e midst of the valley.
 4 And it came to pass, when the king
 Ai saw it, that they hasted and rose up rly, and the men of the city went out ainst Israel to battle, he and all his peo-e, at a time appointed, before the plain;
 t he wistⁱ not that there were liers in mbush against him behind the city.
 5 And Joshua and all Israel made as they were beaten before them, and d by the way of the wilderness.
 6 And all the people that were in Ai ere called together to pursue after em: and they pursued after Joshua,
 d were drawn away from the city.
 7 And there was not a man left in Ai
 Beth-el that went not out after Israel:
 d they left the city open, and pursued er Israel.
 8 And the LORD said unto Joshua, etch^q out the spear that is in thy hand ward Ai; for I will give it into thine nd. And Joshua stretched out the spear at he had in his hand toward the city.
 9 And the ambush arose quickly out their place, and they ran as soon as had stretched out his hand: and they tered into the city, and took it, and sted and set the city on fire.
 10 And when the men of Ai looked bend them, they saw, and, behold, the oke of the city ascended^u up to heaven, d they had no ⁵power to flee this way or at way: and the people that fled to the lderness turned back upon the pursuers.
 11 And when Joshua and all Israel saw at the ambush had taken the city, and at the smoke of the city ascended, then ey turned again, and slew the men of Ai.
 12 And the other issued out of the city
 ainst them: so they were in the midst Israel, some on this side, and some on at side: and they smote them, so that ey let none^v of them remain or escape.
 13 And the king of Ai they took alive,
 d brought him to Joshua.
 14 And it came to pass, when Israel
 d made an end of slaying all the inha-tants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness herein they chased them, and when ey were all fallen on the edge of the ord, until they were consumed, that l the Israelites returned unto Ai, and note it with the edge of the sword.
 15 And so it was, that all that fell that ay, both of men and women, were twelve ousand, even all the men of Ai.
 16 For Joshua drew^b not his hand back, herewith he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the abitants of Ai.
 17 Only the cattle, and the spoil of that ty, Israel took for a prey unto themselves, according unto the word of the LORD, which^a he commanded Joshua.

 28 And Joshua burnt^b Ai, and made it an heap for ever, even a desolation, unto this day.
 29 And the king^d of Ai he hanged^e on a tree until eventide: and as soon^f as the sun was down, Joshua commanded that they should take his carcase down from the tree, and east it at the entering of the gate of the city, and^g raise thereon a great heap of stones, that remaineth unto this day.
 30 Then Joshua built an altar unto the LORD God of Israel in mount Ebal,^h
 31 As Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the children of Israel, as it is writtenⁱ in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of whole stones, over which no man hath lift up any iron: and they offered thereon burnt offerings unto the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings.
 32 And^k he wrote there upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.
 33 And all Israel, and their elders, and officers, and their judges, stood on this side the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, which^m bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, as well the strangerⁿ as he that was born among them; half of them over against mount Gerizim, and half of them over against mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded^o before, that they should bless the people of Israel.
 34 And afterward he read^p all the words of the law, the blessings^r and cursings, according to all that is written in the book of the law.
 35 There was not a word of all that Moses commanded which Joshua read not before all the congregation of Israel, with the women, and the little ones, and the strangers that ⁸were conversant among them.

CHAPTER IX.

AND it came to pass, when all the kings which were on this side Jordan, in the hills, and in the valleys, and in all the coasts of the^t great sea over against Lebanon, the ^uHittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard thereof;
 2 That they gathered^v themselves together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one^w accord.
 3 And when the inhabitants of ^xGibeon heard^x what Joshua had done unto Jericho and to Ai,
 4 They did work wily, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors; and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine bottles, old, and rent, and bound up; 5 And old shoes and clouted upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and mouldy.
 6 And they went to Joshua unto the^z camp at Gilgal, and said unto him, and to the men of Israel, We be come from a far country:
 now therefore make ye a league with us.
 7 And the men of Israel said unto the^a Hi-vites, Peradventure ye dwell among us;
 and how shall we make a league^c with you?
 8 And they said unto Joshua, We are thy servants.^d And Joshua said unto them,
 Who are ye? and from whence come ye?
 9 And they said unto him, From a very far^f country thy servants are^g come, because of the name of the LORD thy God: for we have heard^a the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt,

10 And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan, which was at Ashteroth.

11 Wherefore^d our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spake to us, saying, Take victuals ^βwith you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say unto them, We are your servants: therefore now make ye a league with us.

12 This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go unto you; but now, behold, it is dry, and it is mouldy:

13 And these bottles of wine, which we filled, were new; and, behold, they be rent: and these our garments and our shoes are become old by reason of the very long journey.

14 And ^δthe men took of their victuals, and asked not^g counsel at^h the mouth of the LORD.

15 And Joshua made peaceⁱ with them, and made a league with them, to let them live: and the princes of the congregation sware^k unto them.

16 And it came to pass at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the children of Israel journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon,ⁿ and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-jearim.

18 And the children of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn^o unto them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes.

19 But all the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel: now, therefore, we may not touch them.

20 This we will do to them; we will even let them live; lest^r wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we sware unto them.

21 And the princes said unto them, Let them live; but let them be hewers^t of wood and drawers of water unto all the congregation; as the princes had promised^u them.

22 And Joshua called for them, and he spake unto them, saying, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, We are very far from you; when ye dwell among us?

23 Now therefore ye are cursed;^w and there shall ^ζnone of you be freed from being bondmen, and hewers^z of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God.

24 And they answered Joshua and said, Because it was certainly told thy servants, how that the LORD thy God commanded^z his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were sore afraid^b of our lives because of you, and have done this thing.

25 And now, behold, we are in^d thine hand: as it seemeth good and right unto thee to do unto us, do.

26 And so did he unto them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.

27 And Joshua ^κmade them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for

CHAPTER X.

NOW it came to pass, when Adzedee king of Jerusalem had heard Joshua had taken Ai, and^c had utt destroyed it; as he had done to Jeri and her king, so he had done to Ai^c her king; and how the inhabitants Gibeon had made peace with Israel, were among them;

2 That they feared^f greatly, beca Gibeon was a great city, as one of the re cities,^γ and because it was greater t Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty

3 Wherefore Adoni-zedee king of Jerusalem sent unto Hoham king of Hebr and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,

4 Come up unto me, and help me, that may smite Gibeon: for it hath made p with Joshua and with the children of Isr

5 Therefore the five kings of the Am ites, the king of Jerusalem, the king Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the k of Lachish, the king of Eglon,ⁱ gathe themselves together, and went up, t and all their hosts, and encamped bef Gibeon, and made war against it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent up Joshua to the camp^m to Gilgal, sayi Slaek not thy hand from thy servan come up to us quickly, and save us, help us: for all the kings of the Amori that dwell in the mountains are gather together against us.

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, and all the people of war with him, a all the mighty men of valour.

8 And the LORD said unto Josh Fear^p them not; for I have deliver them into thine hand: there shall not man of them stand before thee.

9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night

10 And the LORD discomfited^r the before Israel, and slew them with a gre slaughter at Gibeon,^s and chased the along the way that goeth up to Bethoron, and smote them to Azekah, a unto Makkedah.

11 And it came to pass, as they fl from before Israel, and were in the goi down to Beth-horon, that the LORD c down great stones^v from heaven up them unto Azekah, and they died: th were more which died with hailston than they whom the children of Isr slew with the sword.

12 Then spake Joshua to the LORD the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Isra and he said in the sight of Israel, Su stand thou still^y upon Gibeon; a thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.^a

13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is no this written in the book of^θ Jasher? c So t sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hastened not to^c go down about a whole day

14 And there was no day like that before it, or after it, that the LORD heard ened unto the voice of a man: for the LORD fought^f for Israel.

15 And Joshua returned, and all Isra with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

16 But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave^a at Makkedah.
 17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.
 18 And Joshua said, Roll great^b stones on the mouth of the cave, and set men to keep them:
 19 And stay ye not, but pursue^d after your enemies, and ^βsmite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand.
 20 And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them entered into fenced cities.
 21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: none moved his tongueⁱ against any of the children of Israel.
 22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring^j out those five kings unto me out of the cave.
 23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.
 24 And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, at your feetⁿ upon the necks^o of these kings. And^p they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.
 25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear^r not, nor be dismayed, be strong^u and of good courage: for thus^z shall the LORD do to your enemies against whom ye fight.
 26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged^z them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.^a 27 And it came to pass at the time of evening going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees, and east them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.
 28 And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed,^f them, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah as he did^h to the king of Jericho.
 29 Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto^j Libnah, and fought against Libnah:
 30 And the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain in it; but did unto the king thereof^m as he did unto the king of Jericho.
 31 And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto Lachish,ⁿ and encamped against it, and fought against it:
 32 And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, which took it the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all that he had commandedⁿ to Libnah.

33 Then Hiram king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

34 And from Lachish Joshua passed unto Eglon,^c and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it, and fought against it:

35 And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword; and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all^e that he had done to Lachish.

36 And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto Hebron;^j and they fought against it:

37 And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining, according to all^h that he had done to Eglon; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein.

38 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir,^k and fought against it:

39 And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining: as^m he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof; as he had done also to Libnah, and to her king.

40 So Joshua smote all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the vale, and of the springs, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded.ⁿ

41 And Joshua smote them from Kadesh-barnea^s even unto Gaza,^t and all the country of Goshen^v even unto Gibeon.^w

42 And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because^y the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

43 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

CHAPTER XI.

AND it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor had heard those things, that he sent^b to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron,^c and to the king of Achshaph,

2 And to the kings that were on the north of the mountains, and of the plains south of Chinneroth,^d and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor,^e on the west,

3 And to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the mountains, and to the Hivite^g under Hermon,ⁱ in the land of Mizpeh.^k

4 And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, even as the sand^m that is upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many.

5 And when all these kings were met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

6 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Be^o not afraid because of them: for to-morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou shalt hough^q their horses,^r and burn their chariots^s with fire.

7 So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly;^t and they fell upon them.

8 And the LORD^u delivered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them unto β great Zidon, and unto γ Misrephoth-maim, and unto the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining.

9 And Joshua did unto them as the δ LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt ϵ their chariots with fire.

10 And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor before-time was the head of all those kingdoms.

11 And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them: there was not η any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire.

12 And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed them, κ as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded.

13 But as for the cities that stood still θ in their strength, Israel burned none of them, save Hazor only; that did Joshua burn.

14 And all the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe.

15 As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he κ left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

16 So Joshua took all that land, the hills, κ and all the south country, and all the land of Goshen, ι and the valley, and the plain, and the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same;

17 Even from λ the mount Halak, η that goeth up to Seir, even unto Baal-gad, in the valley of Lebanon, under mount Hermon: and all their kings ν he took, and smote them, and slew them.

18 Joshua made war a long time μ with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites, ρ the inhabitants of Gibeon: all other they took in battle.

20 For it was of ι the LORD to α harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD ω commanded Moses.

21 And at that time came Joshua, and cut off the ν Anakims from the mountains, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountains of Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed them utterly with their cities.

22 There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: only in Gaza, in Gath, δ and in Ashdod, ϵ there remained.

23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD said δ unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel, according to their divisions ϵ by their tribes. And the land rested ζ from war.

CHAPTER XII.

NOW these are the kings of the land, which the children of Israel smote, and possessed their land on the other side Jordan, toward the rising of the sun; from the river Arnon ν unto mount Hermon, and all the plain on the east;

23 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan, and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, the cities and the villages thereof.

24 And Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad, according to their families:

25 And their coast was Jazer,^f and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, unto Aroer that is before Rabbah;ⁱ

26 And from Heshbon unto Ramathmizpeh, and Betonim; and from Maha-naim unto the border of Debir;

27 And in the valley, Beth-aram,^m and Beth-nimrah, and Sneoth,^o and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan and his border, even unto the edge of the sea of^a Chinnereth, on the other side Jordan eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities, and their villages.

29 And Moses gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Manasseh: and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families:

30 And^u their coast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns^t of Jair, which are in Bashan, threescore cities;

31 And half Gilead, and^v Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were pertaining unto the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even to the one half of the children of Machir by their families.

32 These are the countries which Moses did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan, by Jericho, eastward.

33 But^v unto the tribe of Levi, Moses gave not any inheritance: the LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said^a unto them.

CHAPTER XIV.

AND these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar^u the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them.

2 By lot^e was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe.

3 For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and an half tribe on the other side Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Joseph were^h two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities^k to dwell in, with their suburbs^l for their cattle and for their substance.

5 As^m the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

6 Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb^o the son of Jephthnnah the Kenazite said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the LORD said^a unto Moses the man^r of God concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea.

7 Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the LORD sent^t me from Kadesh-barnea to espy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was^a in mine heart.

8 Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people^c melt: but I wholly^e followed the LORD my God.

9 And Moses sware on that day, saying, Surely the land whereon^f thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever, because thou hast wholly followed the LORD my God.

10 And now, behold, the LORD hath kept me alive, as he said,ⁱ these forty and five years, even since the LORD spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel^β wandered in the wilderness: and now, lo, I am this day fourscore and five years old.

11 As yet I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as^m my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to^o go out, and to come in.

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake in that day; for thou heardest in that day how^p the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: if^q so be the LORD will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD said.

13 And Joshna blessed^s him, and 'gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunnah, Hebron for an inheritance.

14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunnah the Kenezite unto this day, because that he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba; ^z which Arba^y was a great man among the Anakims. And^z the land had rest from war.

CHAPTER XV.

THIS then was the lot^a of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families, even^c to the border of Edom; the wilderness of Zin southward was the uttermost part of the south coast.

2 And their south border was from the shore of the salt sea, from the ^δ bay that looketh southward:

3 And it went out to the south side to Maaleh-acrabbim,^ε and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto Kadesh-barnea; and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaa:

4 From thence it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt; and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south coast.

5 And the east border was the salt sea, even unto the end of Jordan. And their border in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the uttermost part of Jordan:

6 And the border went up to^o Beth-hogla, and passed along by the north of Beth-arabah: and the border went up to the stone^k of Bohan the son of Reuben:

7 And the border went up toward Debir from the valley of Achor,^m and so northward, looking toward Gilgal,^o that is before the going up to Adammim, which is on the south side of the river: and the border passed toward the waters of En-shemesh, and the goings out thereof were at^r En-rogel:

8 And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom^r unto the south side of the Jebusite; the same is Jerusalem: and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of

Hinnom westward, which is at the valley of the giants^b northward:

9 And the border was drawn from^c of the hill unto the fountain^d of the of Nephtoa, and went out to the c. monnt Ephron: and the border was to Baalah,^e which is Kirjath-jearim:

10 And the border compassed Baalah westward unto mount Seir, passed along unto the side of^f Jearim, which is Chesalon, on the side, and went down to Beth-she and passed on to Timnah.^g

11 And the border went out unto the Ekron^h northward: and the border was to Shicron, and passed along to mount lah, and went out unto Jabneel; and goings out of the border were at the sea,

12 And the west border was to the sea, and the coast thereof. This is coast of the children of Judah about, according to their families.

13 And unto Caleb the son of Jephneh he gave a part among the children of Judah, according to the commandment the LORD to Joshua, evenⁱ the city of the father of Anak, which city is Hebron.

14 And Caleb drove thence the sons of Anak, Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai, the children of Anak.

15 And he went up thence to the bitants of Debir:^j and the name of the city before was Kirjath-sepher.

16 And Caleb said, He^k that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him I will give Achsah my daughter to wife.

17 And Othniel the son^l of Kenaz brother of Caleb, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

18 And it came to pass, as she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she^m lighted off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wouldest thou?

19 Who answered, Give me aⁿ blessing for thou hast given me a south land; me also springs of water. And he gave her the upper springs, and the nether springs.

20 This is the inheritance of the children of Judah according to their families.

21 And the uttermost cities of the children of Judah, toward the coast of Edom southward, were Kabzeel, Eder, and Jagur, 22 And Kinah, and Dimonah, and Adah,

23 And Kedesh, and Hazor, and Ithi,

24 Ziph,^o and Telem, and Bealoth,

25 And Hazor, Hadattah, and Kerioth, and Hezron, which is Hazor,

26 Amam, and Shema, and Moladah,

27 And Hazar-gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth-palet,^p

28 And Hazar-shual, and Beer-sheba, and Bizjothjah,

29 Baalah,^q and Iim, and Azem,^r

30 And Eltolad, and Chesil, and Hormah,

31 And Ziklag,^s and Madmannah, and Sansannah,

32 And Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and^t Akrabim, and Rimmon: all the cities are twenty and nine, with their villages:

33 And in the valley, Eshtaol,^u and Zorah, and Ashnah,

34 And Zanoah, and En-gannim, and Tapuah, and Enam,

35 Jarmuth, and Adullam,^v Socoh, and Azekah,

36 And Sharaim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim; fourteen

ities with their villages :

37 Zenan, and Hadashah, and Migdal-gad,
38 And Dilean, and Mizpeh,^b and Joktheel,^c
39 Laelish,^d and Bozkath, and Eglon,
40 And Cabbon, and Lahmam, and Kithlish, 41 And Gederoth, Beth-dagon, and Naah,
42 Libnah,^e and Ether, and Ashan,

43 And Jiphtah, and Aslunah, and Nezib, 44 And Keilah,^f and Achzib,^g and Ma-shah; nine cities with their villages :

45 Ekronⁱ with her towns and her villages :

46 From Ekron even unto the sea, all at lay ^h near Ashdod, with their villages :
47 Ashdodⁱ with her towns and her villages, Gaza with her towns and her villages, unto the river of Egypt, and the great sea,ⁿ and the border thereof :

48 And in the mountains, Shamir, and Atir, and Socoh,

49 And Dannah, and Kirjath-sannah, which is Debir,^q

50 And Anab, and Eshtemoah, and Anim, 51 And Goshen,^r and Holon, and Giloh ;
seven cities with their villages :

52 Arab, and Dumah,^s and Eshean, 53 And ^t Jammm, and Beth-tappuah, 54 Aphekah,

55 And Hnmatah, and ^u Kirjath-arba which is Hebron, and Zior ; nine cities with their villages :

56 Maon,^v Carmel,^w and Ziph, and Juttah,
57 And Jezreel, and Jokdeam, and Zanoah, 58 Cain, Gibeah, and Timnah ; ten cities with their villages :

59 Halhul, Beth-zur, and Gedor,
60 Kirjath-baal^y which is Kirjath-jearim
61 Rabbah ; two cities with their villages :

62 In the wilderness, Beth-arabah, Mid-nan, and Seaneah,
63 And Nibshan, and the city of Salt,
64 And Engedi ;^z six cities with their villages.

65 As for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out : but the ^a Jebusites dwelt with the children of Judah at Jerusalem unto this day.

CHAPTER XVI.

AND the lot of the children of Joseph came from Jordan by Jericho, unto the border of Jericho on the east, to the wilderness that goeth up from Jericho throughout mount Beth-el.

2 And goeth out from Beth-el to ^c Luz, and passeth along unto the borders of Benjamin to Ataroth,

3 And goeth down westward to the border of Japhleti, unto the coast of ^e Beth-ron the nether, and to Gezer ;^f and the outgoings thereof are at the sea.

4 So ^g the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

5 And the border of the children of Ephraim, according to their families, was unto the east side of their inheritance unto the east side was Ataroth-addar, unto Beth-horon the upper :

6 And the border went out toward the north to Michmethahⁱ on the north side ; and the border went about eastward unto Taanath-shiloh, and passed by it on the east to Janohah ;

7 And it went down from Janohah to Ataroth, and to Naarath, and came to Jericho, and went out at Jordan.

8 The border went out from Tappuah westward unto the river^a Kanah ; and the outgoings thereof were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families.

9 And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

10 And^f they drave not out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer : but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and serve under tribute.

CHAPTER XVII.

THERE was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn^h of Joseph ; to wit, for Machir^m the first-born of Manasseh, the father of Gilead ; because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead^o and Bashan.

2 There was also a lot for the rest^p of the children of Manasseh by their families ;
for the children of Zabiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida : these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph by their families.

3 But Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters : and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 And they came near before^w Eleazar the priest, and before Joshna the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The LORD commanded Moses^x to give us an inheritance among our brethren. Therefore, according to the commandment of the LORD, he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Bashan, which were on the other side Jordan ;

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons : and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.

7 And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethah,^b that lieth before Shechem ; and the border went along on the right hand, unto the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 Now Manasseh had the land of Tappuah ;
but Tappuah, on the border of Manasseh, belonged to the children of Ephraim.

9 And the coast descended unto the river Kanah, southward of the river :
these cities^d of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh : the coast of Manasseh also was on the north side of the river, and the outgoings of it were at the sea :

10 Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea is his border ; and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Issachar on the east.

11 And^k Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, Beth-sheanⁱ and her towns, and Ibleam and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor^k and her towns, and the inhabitants^m of Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, even three countries.

12 Yetⁿ the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities ; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

13 Yet it came to pass, when the children of Israel were waxen strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute;^a but did not utterly drive them out.

14 And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, forasmuch as the LORD hath blessed^b me hitherto?

15 And Joshua answered them, If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the ^βgiants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron,^c both they who are of Beth-shean^f and her towns, and they who are of the valley of Jezreel.^g

17 And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power; thou shalt not have one lot only;

18 But the mountain shall be thine; for it is a wood, and thou shalt cut it down: and the outgoings of it shall be thine: for^k thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong.

CHAPTER XVIII.

AND the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh,ⁿ and set up the tabernacle^o of the congregation there. And the land was subdued before them.

2 And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance.

3 And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, How long are ye slack^a to go to possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers hath given you?

4 Give out from among you three men for each tribe: and I will send them, and they shall rise and go^r through the land, and describe it according to the inheritance of them; and they shall come again to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven parts: Judah^e shall abide in their coast on the south, and the house of^t Joseph shall abide in their coasts on the north.

6 Ye shall therefore describe the land into seven parts, and bring the description hither to me, that I may cast^u lots for you here before the LORD our God.

7 But the Levites^w have no part among you; for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance: and^y Gad, and Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh, have received their inheritance beyond Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.

8 And the men arose, and went away: and Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through^e the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh.

9 And the men went, and passed through the land, and described it by cities, into seven^f parts, in a book, and came again to Joshua to the host at Shiloh.

10 And Joshua cast lots^g for them in Shiloh before the LORD: and there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel according to their divisions.

11 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families: and the coast of their came forth between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.

12 And their border, on the north was from Jordan: and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and went up through the mountain westward; and the goings out thereof were at the wilderness of Beth-aven.

13 And the border went over to thence toward Luz, to the side of which^c is Beth-el, southward; and the border descended to Ataroth-adar, the hill that lieth on the south side of nether Beth-horon.^d

14 And the border was drawn thence and compassed the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that lieth before Beth-horon southward; and the goings thereof were at Kirjath-baal which Kirjath-jearim, a city of the children of Judah: this was the west quarter.

15 And the south quarter was from the end of Kirjath-jearim;^e and the border went out on the west, and went out the well of waters^f of Nephtoah:

16 And the border came down to end of the mountain that lieth before valley of the son of Hinuom,^g and went in the valley of the giants on the north and descended to the valley of Hinn to the side of Jebusi on the south, descended to En-rogel,^h

17 And was drawn from the north, went forth to En-shemesh, and went forth toward Geliloth, which is over against going up of Adummim, and descended to the stoneⁱ of Bohan the son of Reuben.

18 And passed along toward the north over against Arabah northward, went down unto Arabah:

19 And the border passed along to the side of Beth-hoglah northward: and outgoings of the border were at north^j bay of the salt sea, at the sea end of Jordan: this was the south coast.

20 And Jordan was the border of on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, the coasts thereof round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, according to their families, were Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz,

22 And Beth-arabah, and^k Zemaraim and Beth-el,^l

23 And Avim, and Parah, and^m Ophrah,

24 And Chephar-haammonai, and Ophlat and Gaba; twelve cities with their villages.

25 Gibeon,ⁿ and Ramah,^o and Beeroth,

26 And Mizpeh,^p and Chephirah, and Moza,

27 And Rekem, and Irpeel, and Tarah,

28 And Zelah, Eleph, and^q Jebus, which is Jerusalem, Gibeath, and^r Jericho; fourteen cities with their villages.

This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, according to their families.

CHAPTER XIX.

AND the second lot came forth to Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was^s with the inheritance of the children of Judah.

2 And they had in their inheritance Beer-sheba,^t and Sheba, and Moladah,

3 And^a Hazar-shual, and Balah, and Azcm,
4 And Eltolad, and Bethul, and^e Hornah,
5 And Ziklag,^e and Beth-mareaboth, and Hazar-susah,
6 And Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuben;
seven cities and their villages:
7 Ain, Remmon, and Ether, and Ashan;
our cities and their villages:
8 And all the villages that were round about these cities, to Baalath-beer, Ra-math^o of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of imeon according to their families.
9 Out of the portion of the children of udah was the inheritance of the children f Simeon: for the part of the children of adah was too much^k for them; thereforeⁱ the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of them.
10 And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun, according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid:
11 And their border went up toward the sea,^m and Maralah, and reached to abbasheth, and reached to the river that before Jokneam;^o
12 And turned from Sarid eastward, ward the sunrising, unto the border of hisloth-tabor,^p and then goeth out to of arc at the sea, from the coast to Achzib:^b 30 Unmah also, and Aphek,^d and Rehob:

twenty and two cities with their villages.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher^f according to their families, these cities with their villages.

32 The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even for the children of Naphtali according to their families.

33 And their coast was from Helcph, from Allon to Zaanannim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel, unto Lakum; and the outgoings thereof were at Jordan:

34 And then the coast turneth westward to Aznoth-tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebu-lun on the south side, and reacheth to Asher on the west^k side, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the sunrising.

35 And the fenced cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth,^l

36 And Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor, 37 And Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-hazor, 38 And Iron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh;ⁿ nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

40 And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.

41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah,^s and Eshtaol,^t and Ir-shemesh, 42 And Shaalabbin, and Ajalon,^u and Jethlah,

43 And Elon, and Thimnathah, and Ekron,^v 44 And Eltekeh, and Gibbethon,^w and Baalath,

45 And Jehud, and Bene-berak, and Gath-rimmon,

46 And Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border γ before ^δ Japho.

47 And^a the coast of the children of Dan went out too little for them; therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem,

Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

49 When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them:

50 According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnath-serah^o in mount Ephraim:
and he built the city, and dwelt therein.

51 These are the inheritances which Eleazar^k the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh^k before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. So they made an end of dividing the country.

CHAPTER XX.

THE LORD also spake unto Joshua,
saying,

2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Appointⁿ out for you cities of refuge, whereof I spake unto you by the hand of Moses:

3 That the slayer that killeth any person unawares and unwittingly may flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

4 And when he that doth flee unto one of those cities shall stand at the entering of the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.

5 And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbour unwittingly, and hated him not beforetime.

6 And he shall dwell in that city, until he stand before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled.

7 And they appointed Kedesh^k in Galilee in mount Naphtali, and Shechem^l in mount Ephraim, and Kirjath-arbaⁿ which is Hebron in the mountain^o of Judah.

8 And on the other side Jordan by Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer^p in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth^r in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan^s in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.

9 These were the cities appointed^u for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever killeth any person at unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he^w stood before the congregation.

CHAPTER XXI.

THEN came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto Eleazar^z the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nuu, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel;

2 And they spake unto them at^y Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, The LORD commanded^z by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs thereof for our cattle.

3 And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.

4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and the children of Aaron^a the priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities.

5 And the rest of the children of Kohath^d had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh, ten cities.

6 And the children of Gershon^e had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

7 The children of Merari^f by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

8 And the children of Israel gave^h by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities ^w are ^{here β} mentioned by name, 10 Which the children of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites, were of the children of Levi, had: their's was the first lot.

11 And they^b gave them ^γ the city Arba the father^d of Anak, which is Hebron, in the hill^f country of Judah with the suburbs thereof round about 12 But the fields of the city, and villages thereof, gave they to Caleb^o son of Jephunneh for his possession.

13 Thus^k they gave to the children Aaron the priest, Hebron with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer, and Libnah with her suburbs,

14 And Jattir with her suburbs, Eshtemoa with her suburbs,

16 And Ain^m with her suburbs, Juttah with her suburbs, and Bethmesh with her suburbs; nine cities of those two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Benjamin Gibeon with her suburbs, Geba^q with her suburbs,

19 All the cities of the children Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20 And the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites which remained of the children of Kohath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim.

21 For they gave them Shechem with her suburbs in mount Ephraim, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Gaba with her suburbs, 22 And Kibzaim with her suburbs, Beth-horon with her suburbs; four cities.

23 And out of the tribe of Dan, Elte with her suburbs, Gibbethon with suburbs, 24 Aijalon with her suburbs, Gath-rimon with her suburbs; four cities.

25 And out of the half tribe of Manasseh, Tanach with her suburbs, and Gath-rimon with her suburbs; two cities.

26 All the cities were ten, with their suburbs, for the families of the children of Kohath that remained.

27 And unto the children of Gershon of the families of the Levites, out of the other half tribe of Manasseh, they gave Golan^c in Bashan with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Be'er-terah with her suburbs; two cities.

28 And out of the tribe of Issachar Kishou with her suburbs, Dabareh with her suburbs, 29 Jarmuth with her suburbs, Engannim with her suburbs; four cities.

30 And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with her suburbs, Abdon with her suburbs, 31 Helkath with her suburbs, and Ithob with her suburbs; four cities.

32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali Kedesh^o in Galilee with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Hamoth-dor with her suburbs, and Karti with her suburbs; three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

34 And unto the families of the children of Merari, the rest of the Levites, out he tribe of Zebulun, Joknean with her suburbs, and Kartah with her suburbs, 35 Dimnah with her suburbs, Nahalal with her suburbs; four cities. 36 And out of the tribe of Reuben, Jazer^b with her suburbs, and Jahazah with her suburbs, 37 Kedemoth with her suburbs, and Jephthaath with her suburbs; four cities. 38 And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Mahanaim with her suburbs, 39 Heshbon with her suburbs, Jazer with her suburbs; four cities in all. 40 So all the cities for the children of Israel, by their families, which were remaining of the families of the Levites, were, by their lot, twelve cities. 41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were forty and eight^c cities with their suburbs. 42 These cities were every one with their suburbs round about them: thus were all these cities. 43 And the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he swore^d to give unto their fathers; and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. 44 And^e the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he swore unto their fathers; and^f there stood not a man of their enemies before them; the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand. 45 There^g failed not ought of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel; all came to pass.

CHAPTER XXII.

WHEN Joshua called the Reubenites, and to Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, 2 And said unto them, Ye have kept^h that Mosesⁱ the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I^j commanded you: 3 Ye have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, but have kept^k me in charge of the commandment of the LORD your God. 4 And now the LORD your God hath given rest unto your brethren, as he promised them: therefore now return ye, and get you unto your tents, and into the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you^l on the other side Jordan. 5 But take^m diligent heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, toⁿ love the LORD your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave^o unto him, and to serve^p him with your heart and with all your soul. 6 So Joshua blessed^q them, and sent them away: and they went unto their tents. 7 Now, to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh, Moses had given possession in Asher; but^r unto the other half thereof, Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them; 8 And he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches^s unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment; divide^t the spoil of your enemies with your brethren. 9 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go unto the country of Gilead,^a to the land of their possession, whereof they were possessed, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

10 And when they came unto the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar^c to see to.

11 And the children of Israel heard^d say, Behold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel.

12 And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them.

13 And the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead,^e Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest,

14 And with him ten princes, of each chief house a prince throughout all the tribes of Israel; and each one was an head^f of the house of their fathers among the thousands of Israel.

15 And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, unto the land of Gilead, and they spake with them, saying,

16 Thus saith the whole congregation of the LORD, What trespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the LORD, in that ye have builded you an altar, that ye might rebel^g this day against the LORD?

17 Is the iniquity of Peor^h too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of the LORD,

18 But that ye must turn away this day from following the LORD? andⁱ it will be, seeing ye rebel to day against the LORD, that to morrow he will be^j wroth with the whole congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the LORD, wherein the LORD's tabernacle dwelleth,^k and take possession among us: but rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar, beside the altar of the LORD our God.

20 Did not Achan^l the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.

21 Then the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, answered and said unto the heads of the thousands of Israel,

22 The LORD God^m of gods, the LORD God of gods, he knoweth,ⁿ and Israel^o he shall know; if it be in rebellion,^p or if in transgression against the LORD, (save us not this day,)

23 That we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer thereon burnt offering or meat offering, or if to offer peace offerings thereon, let the LORD himself require^q it;

24 And if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, saying, ^β In time to come your children might speak unto our children, saying, What have ye to do with the LORD God of Israel?

25 For the LORD hath made Jordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben, and children of Gad; ye^b have no part in the LORD: so shall your children make our children cease^d from fearing the LORD.

26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice:

27 But that it may be a witness^h between us and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the LORD beforeⁱ him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the LORD.

28 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the pattern^o of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between us and you.

29 God forbid^a that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for meat offerings, or for sacrifices, beside the altar of the LORD our God that is before his tabernacle.

30 And when Phineas the priest, and the princes of the congregation, and heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spake, it^θ pleased them.

31 And Phineas the son of Eleazar the priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive that the LORD is among^x us, because ye have not committed this trespass against the LORD: ^{*} now ye have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.

32 And Phineas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word^z again.

33 And the thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel ^α blessed God, and did not intend to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

34 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad called the altar ^λ Ed: for it shall be a witness between us that the LORD is God.

CHAPTER XXIII.

AND it came to pass a long time after that the LORD had given rest^c unto Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua waxed old^e and ^μ stricken in age.

2 And Joshua called^f for all Israel, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said unto them, I am old and stricken in age:

lot these nations that remain, to be inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan with all the nations that I have cut even unto the great sea westward.

5 And the LORD your God, he^a shall expel them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight; and ye shall possess their land, as the LORD your God hath promised^c unto you.

6 Be ye therefore very courageous^c and keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that^f ye turn not away therefrom to the right hand or to the left.

7 That^g ye come not among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mentionⁱ of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear^k by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves unto them.

8 ^δ But cleave^m unto the LORD your God, as ye have done unto this day.

9 ^ζ For the LORD hath driven out from before you great nations and strong: as for you, no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day.

10 Oneⁿ man of you shall chase a thousand: for the LORD your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as^p he hath promised ye.

11 Take good heed therefore unto yourselves, that ye love the LORD your God.

12 Else if ye do in any wise go back, ^τ I will cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and I shall make marriages^s with them, and I will dwell in unto them, and they to you:

13 Know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no more^t drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be snares^u and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off^v this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

14 And, behold, this day I am going away of all the earth; and ye know in your hearts, and in all your souls,^w that there is not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof.

15 Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all good things are come upon you, which the LORD your God promised you, so shall the LORD bring upon you^y all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God hath given you.

16 When ye have transgressed the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed yourselves to them; then shall the anger^b of the LORD be kindled against you, and ye shall perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given unto you.

CHAPTER XXIV.

AND Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called^d for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented^g themselves before God.

2 And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Your fathers^h dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor, and they served other gods.

3 And I took^k your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him^a Isaac.

4 And^b I gave unto Isaac, Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto Esau^c mount Seir, to possess it: but Jacob^d and his children went down into Egypt.

5 I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I lagued^e Egypt, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out.

6 And I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and^f ye came unto the sea: and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the Red sea.

7 And when they cried unto the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them: and your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: and ye dwelt in the wilderness a long^g season.

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side of Jordan; and^h they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you.

9 Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sentⁱ and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you:

10 But^j I would not hearken unto Balaam; therefore he blessed you still: so he delivered you out of his hand.

11 And^k ye went over Jordan, and came into Jericho: and the men of^l Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand.

12 And I sent the hornet^m before you, which drove them out from before you, andⁿ the two kings of the Amorites; but^o not^p with thy sword, nor with thy bow.

13 And I have given^q you a land for which ye did not labour, and cities^r which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; of vineyards and oliveyards which ye wanted not do ye eat.

14 Now^s therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity^t and in truth: and it^u away^v the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and Egypt; and serve ye the LORD.

15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the LORD, choose^w you this day whom ye will serve; whether^x the gods which your fathers served that^y were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: it^z as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.

16 And the people answered and said, God forbid that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods;

17 For the LORD our God, he^{aa} it is that brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and which did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed:

18 And the LORD drove out from before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwelt in the land: therefore^c will we also serve the LORD; for he^d is our God.

19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot^e serve the LORD: for^f he^g is an holy God; he^h is a jealousⁱ God; he^k will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

20 If^m ye forsake the LORD, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, afterⁿ that he hath done you good.

21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay; but we will serve the LORD.

22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye^o are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen^a you the LORD, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses.

23 Now therefore put^r away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart^t unto the LORD God of Israel.

24 And the people said^u unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

26 And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there^v under an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the LORD.

27 And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us; for it hath heard^a all the words of the LORD which he spake unto us: it shall^c be therefore a witness unto you, lest ye deny your God.

28 So Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance.

29 And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old.

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance^h in Timnath-serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the north side of the hill of Gaash.

31 And Israelⁱ served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that^o overlived Joshua, and which had knownⁿ all the works of the LORD, that he had done for Israel.

32 And^p the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought^r of the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem, for an hundred^s pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.

33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him in a hill that^t pertained to Phinehas his son, which was given him in mount Ephraim.

CHAPTER I.

NOW, after the death^b of Joshua it came to pass, that the children of Israel^c asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first, to fight against them?

2 And the LORD said, Judah^f shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

3 And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with theeⁱ into thy lot. So Simeon went with him.

4 And Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they slew of them in Bezekⁿ ten thousand men.

5 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek; and they fought against him, and they slew the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-bezek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, Threescore and ten kings, having ^vtheir thumbs and their great toes cut off, ^ggathered their meat under my table: as^r I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8 Now the children of Judah had^t fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

9 And afterward^u the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the mountain, and in the south, and in the ^vvalley.

10 And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in^w Hebron, (now the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba,) and they slew Sheshai, and Ahiman, and Talmai.

11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Debir; and the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher:

12 And^x Caleb said, He that smiteth Kirjath-sepher, and taketh it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter to wife.

13 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter to wife.

14 And it came to pass, when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted from off her ass; and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou?

15 And she said unto him, Give me a blessing:^a for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.

16 And the children of the^c Kenite, Moses' father in law, went up out of the^d city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of^e Arad; and^k they went and dwelt among the people.

17 And Judah^a went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called Hormah.^d

18 Also Judah took Gaza^e with the coast thereof, and Askelon with the coast thereof, and Ekron with the coast thereof.

19 And the LORD^f was with Judah; and ^ghe drove out the inhabitants of the mountain, but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots^h of iron.

20 And they gave Hebron^k unto Caleb, as Moses said:ⁱ and he expelled thence the three sons of Anak.

21 And the children of Benjamin^m did not drive out the Jebusites that inhabited Jerusalem; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto this day.

22 And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Beth-el: and the^o LORD was with them.

23 And the house of Joseph sent decury^p Beth-el. Now the name of the city before was Luz.^q

24 And the spies saw a man come for out of the city, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and we^r will shew thee mercy.

25 And when he shewed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let go the man and all his family.

26 And the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz: which is the name thereof unto this day.

27 Neither did Manasseh^w drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shean and her town, nor Taanach and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns: but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

28 And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out.

29 Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer;^a but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

30 Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol;^b but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

31 Neither did Asher^c drive out the inhabitants of Achshob, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob:

34 And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountain: for they could not suffer them to come down to the valley:

35 But the Amorites would dwell in count Heres in Aijalon,^e and in Shaalim: yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed so that they became tributaries.

36 And the coast of the Amorites was from ^sthe going up to Akkrabbim, from the rock, and upward.

CHAPTER II.

AND an ^zangel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim,^h and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I swore unto your fathers; and I said,^k I will never break my covenant with you.

2 And^l ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; ye^m shall throw down their altars: butⁿ ye have not obeyed my voice: why have ye done this?

4 And it came to pass, when the angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people held up their voice and wept.

5 And they called the name of that place ^sBochim: and they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

6 And when^t Joshua had let the people go, the children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land.

7 And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that ^uoutlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD, that he did for Israel.

8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, ^vbeing an hundred and ten years old.

11 And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim:

12 And they forsook^y the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed^z themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger.

judges^a which ^bdelivered^b them out of the hand of those that spoiled them.

17 And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they went a whoring^d after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so.

18 And when the LORD raised them up judges, then^f the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it repented^g the LORD because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.

19 And it came to pass, whenⁱ the judge was dead, that they returned, and ^jcorrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them: they ^oceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn way.

20 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and he said, Because^o that this people hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice,

21 I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua left when he died;

22 That through them I may prove^s Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD, to walk therein, as their fathers did keep it, or not.

23 Therefore the LORD ^uleft those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

CHAPTER III.

NOW these are the nations which the LORD left, to prove Israel by them; even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan;

2 Only that the generations of the children of Israel might know to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing thereof;

3 Namely, five^v lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon unto the entering in of Hamath.

4 And they were to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites:

6 And they took^z their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

7 And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgot the LORD their God, and served Baalim and the groves.

8 Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of^d Chushan-rishathaim king of ^vMesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim eight years.

9 And when the children of Israel^f cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised up a ^gdeliverer to the children of Israel, who delivered them, even Othniel^g the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

10 And the Spirit^a of the LORD ^β came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and the LORD delivered Chnshan-rishathaim king of ^δ Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim.

11 And the land had rest forty years: and Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

13 And he gathered unto him the children of Ammon and Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and possessed the^f city of palm trees.

14 So the children of Israel served^h Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

15 But when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, ^ζa Benjamite, a man ^ηleft-handed: and by him the children of Israel sent a present unto Eglon the king of Moab.

16 But Ehud made him a dagger which had two edges, of a cubit length; and he did gird it under his raiment upon his right thigh.

17 And he brought the present unto Eglon king of Moab: and Eglon was a very fatⁿ man.

18 And when he had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people that bare the present.

19 But he himself turned again from the quarries^θ that^ο were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king: who said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him.

20 And Ehud came unto him; and he was sitting in ^κa summer parlour, which he had for himself alone: and Ehud said, I have a message from God unto thee. And he arose out of his seat.

22 And the haft also went in after the blade; and the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly; and ^λthe dirt came out.

23 Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and shut the doors of the parlour upon him, and locked them.

24 When he was gone out, his servants came; and when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlour were locked, they said, Surely he ^μcovereth his feet in his summer chamber.

25 And they tarried till they were ashamed; and, behold, he opened not the doors of the parlour; therefore they took a key, and opened them: and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

26 And Ehud escaped while they tarried, and passed beyond the quarries,^ω and escaped unto Seirath.

27 And it came to pass, when he was come, that he blew^π a trumpet in the mountain^ν of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the mount, and he before them.

28 And he said unto them, Follow after me; for the LORD hath delivered^α your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took the fords of Jordan toward Moab, snffered not a man to pass over.

29 And they slew of Moab at that about ten thousand men, all ^γlusty, all men of valour; and there escaped not a man.

30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had fourscore years.

31 And after him was Shamgar^δ son of Anath, which slew of the Philistines six hundred men with^e an ox goad, and he also delivered Israel.^d

CHAPTER IV.

AND the children of Israel again^e evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead.

2 And the LORD sold^θ them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor; ⁱthe captain of whose host was Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles.

3 And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.

4 And Deborah a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time.

5 And she dwelt under the palm tree Deborah,^m between Ramah and Bethan in mount Ephraim; and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

6 And she sent and called Barak, the son of Abinoam, out of Kedesh-naphtali; and said unto him, Hath not the LORD God of Israel commanded, saying, Go, and draw toward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

7 And Iⁿ will draw unto thee, to the river Kishon,^q Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand.

8 And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go; but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go.

9 And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey thou takest shall not be for thine honour, for the LORD shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman.^r And Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 And^s Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men at his feet: and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now Heber the Kenite,^t which was the children of Hobab,^u the father in law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zaanaim,^v which is by Kedesh.

12 And they shewed Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera ^πgathered together his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles unto the river of Kishon.

14 And Deborah said unto Barak, Up for this is the day in which the LORD hath delivered Sisera into thine hand: ^αnot the LORD gone out before thee? ^βAnd Barak went down from mount Tabor and ten thousand men after him.

15 And the LORD^δ discomfited Sisera and all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword, before Barak;^ε at Sisera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet.

16 But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword; and there was not γ a man left.

17 Howbeit, Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace between him the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not: and when he had turned in unto her into the tent, she covered him with a mantle.

19 And he said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty: and she opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

20 Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man doth come and inquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, No.

21 Then Jael, Heber's wife, took a nail of the tent, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote him nail into his temples, and fastened it to the ground; for he was fast asleep, and weary: so he died.

22 And, behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the nail was in his temples.

23 So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel.

24 And the hand of the children of Israel prospered, and prevailed against him the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

CHAPTER V.

WHEN sang Deborah, and Barak the son of Abinoam, on that day, saying,

2 Praise ye the LORD for the avenging of Israel, when the people willingly offered themselves.

3 Hear, O ye kings; give ear, O ye princes: I, even I, will sing unto the LORD; I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.

4 LORD, when thou wentest out of Seir, when thou marchedst out of the field of dom, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water.

5 The mountains melted from before the LORD, even that Sinai from before the LORD God of Israel.

6 In the days of Shamgar the son of Nath, in the days of Jael, the high ways were unoccupied, and the travellers walked through byways.

7 The inhabitants of the villages ceased, they ceased in Israel, until that Deborah arose, that I arose a mother in Israel.

8 They chose new gods; then was war at the gates: was there a shield or spear among forty thousand in Israel?

9 My heart is toward the governors of Israel, that offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless ye the LORD.

10 Speak, ye that ride on white asses, ye that sit in judgment, and walk by the way.

11 They that are delivered from the noise of archers in the places of drawing water, there shall they rehearse the righteous acts of the LORD, even the righteous acts toward the inhabitants of his villages in Israel: then shall the people of the LORD go down to the gates.

12 Awake, awake, Deborah; awake, awake, utter a song: arise, Barak, and lead thy captivity captive, thou son of Abinoam.

13 Then he made him that remaineth have dominion over the nobles among the people: the LORD made me have dominion over the mighty.

14 Out of Ephraim was there a root of them against Amalek; after thee, Benjamin, among thy people: out of Machir came down governors, and out of Zebulun they that handle the pen of the writer.

15 And the princes of Issachar were with Deborah; even Issachar, and also Barak: he was sent on foot into the valley. For the divisions of Reuben there were great thoughts of heart.

16 Why abodest thou among the sheepfolds, to hear the bleatings of the flocks? For the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.

17 Gilead abode beyond Jordan: and why did Dan remain in ships? Asher continued on the sea shore, and abode in his breaches.

18 Zebulun and Naphtali were a people that jeopardized their lives unto the death in the high places of the field.

19 The kings came and fought; then fought the kings of Canaan in Taanach by the waters of Megiddo: they took no gain of money.

20 They fought from heaven; the stars in their courses fought against Sisera.

21 The river of Kishon swept them away, that ancient river, the river Kishon. O my soul, thou hast trodden down strength.

22 Then were the horsehoofs broken by the means of the pransings, the pransings of their mighty ones.

23 Curse ye Meroz, said the angel of the LORD; curse ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof; because they came not to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD against the mighty.

24 Blessed above women shall Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite be; blessed shall she be above women in the tent.

25 He asked water, and she gave him milk; she brought forth butter in a lordly dish.

26 She put her hand to the nail, and her right hand to the workmen's hammer; and with the hammer she smote Sisera; she smote off his head, when she had pierced and stricken through his temples.

27 At her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay down: at her feet he bowed, he fell; where he bowed there he fell down dead.

28 The mother of Sisera looked out at a window, and cried through the lattice, Why is his chariot so long in coming? why tarry the wheels of his chariots?

29 Her wise ladies answered her, yea, she returned answer to herself,

30 Have they not sped? have they not divided the prey; to every man a damsel or two? to Sisera a prey of divers colours, a prey of divers colours of needlework, of divers colours of needlework on both sides, meet for the necks of them that take the spoil?

31 So let all thine enemies perish, O

LORD: but let them that love him be as the sun^a when he goeth forth in his^b might. And the land had rest forty years.

CHAPTER VI.

AND^c the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them into the hand of^d Midian seven years.

2 And the hand of Midian^e prevailed against Israel: and because of the Midianites the children of Israel made them the dens^f which are in the mountains, and caves, and strong holds.

3 And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east, even they came up against them;

4 And they encamped against them, and destroyed^g the increase of the earth, till thou come unto Gaza; and left no sustenance for Israel, neither^h sheep, nor ox, nor ass.

5 For they came up with their cattle, and their tents, and they came as grasshoppersⁱ for multitude; for both they and their camels were without number; and they entered into the land to destroy it.

6 And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites; and the children of Israel cried^j unto the LORD.

7 And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of the Midianites,

8 That the LORD sent^k a prophet unto the children of Israel, which said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage;

9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and drove^l them out from before you, and gave you their land:

10 And I said unto you, I am the LORD your God; fear^m not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice.

11 And there came an angel of the LORD, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the Abi-ezrite: and his son Gideonⁿ threshed wheat by the winepress, to^o hide it from the Midianites.

12 And the angel^a of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD is with thee, thou mighty man of valour.

13 And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if^r the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where^s be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

14 And the LORD looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy night,^t and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: have not I sent thee?

15 And he said unto him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least^u in my father's house.

16 And the LORD said unto him,^v Surely I will be with thee, and^w thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.

17 And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then shew^x me a sign that thou talkest with me.

18 Depart^y not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my 19 And Gideon went in, and made re a ykid, and unleavened cakes of an epl of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, i he put the broth in a pot, and brough^t out unto him under the oak, and i sented it.

20 And the angel of God said unto h Take the flesh and the unleavened cal and lay them upon this rock, and pe out the broth. And he did so.

21 Then the angel of the LORD pnt fo the end of the staff that was in his ha and touched the flesh and the unleaver cakes; and^f there rose up fire out of i rock, and consumed tho flesh and i unleavened cakes. Then the angel of i LORD departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon perceived that i was an angel of the LORD, Gideon se Alas, O Lord GOD! for because^h I ha seen an angel of the LORD face to face.

23 And the LORD said unto him, Pe be unto thee; fear not: thou^k shalt not c

24 Then Gideon built an altar the unto the LORD, and called it^l Jehova shalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophr of the Abi-ezrites.

25 And it came to pass the same nig that the LORD said unto him, Take t father's young bullock, ^γ even the seco bullock of seven years old, and throw do the altar of Baal that thy father ha and cut down^m the grove that is by it:

26 And build an altar unto the LORD t God upon the top of this ^κ rock, in ^λ t ordered place, and take the second bullo and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wo of the grove which thou shalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of i servants, and did as the LORD had se unto him: and so it was, because he fear his father's household, and the men of t city, that he could not do it by day, th he did it by night.

28 And when the men of the city aro early in the morning, behold, the altar Baal was east down, and the grove w cut down that was by it, and the seco bullock was offered upon the altar th was built.

29 And they said one to another, Wl hath done this thing? And when the inquired and asked, they said, Gidec the son of Joash hath done this thing.

30 Then the meu of the city said un Joash, Bring out thy son, that he m die: because he hath east down the alt of Baal, and because he hath cut dow the grove that was by it.

31 And Joash said unto all that sto against him, Will ye plead for Baal? wi ye save him? he that will plead for hir let him be put to death whilst it is y morning: if ho be a god, let him plea for himself, because one hath east dow his altar.

32 Therefore on that day he calle him ^π Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal plea against him, because he hath throw down his altar.

33 Then all^y the Midianites and th Amalekites and the children of the ea were gathered together, and went ove and pitched in the valley of Jezreel.

34 But^a the Spirit of the LORD p eam upon Gideon, and he blew^c a trumpe and Abi-ezer was ^σ gathered after him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh; who also was gathered after him: and he sent messengers unto Asher, and unto Zebulun, and unto Naphtali; and they came up to meet him.

36 And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, 37 Behold, I will put a fleece of wool on the floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth beside, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said.

38 And it was so: for he rose up early in the morning, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.^e

39 And Gideon said unto God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once: Let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece, and upon all the ground let there be dew.

40 And God^h did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

CHAPTER VII.

1 WHEN Jerubbaal,ⁱ who is Gideon, and all the people that were with him, rose up early, and pitched beside the well of Arad: so that the host of the Midianites was on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

2 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people that are with thee are too many: I will bring thee down, and I will try them: let me give the Midianites into thine hands, lest Israel vaunt^k themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved me.

3 Now, therefore, go to, proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Whosoever^l is fearful and afraid, let him return, and depart early from mount Gilead: and there returned of the people twenty and two thousand, and there remained ten thousand.

4 And the LORD said unto Gideon, The people are yet too many;^m bring them down unto the water, and I will try them: he that lapped, and that put his hand to his mouth, and that drank, I will destroy him, only he that lapped, and that put his hand to his mouth, and that drank not, I will save him.

5 So he brought down the people unto the water: and the LORD said unto Gideon, Every one that lappedeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him shalt thou destroy: but he that put his hand to his mouth, and that drank not, I will save him.

6 And the number of them that lapped, and that put their hand to their mouth, and that drank, were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink water.

7 And the LORD said unto Gideon,ⁿ By these three hundred men that lapped, I will save you, and deliver the Midianites out of thine hand: and let all the other people go every man unto his place.

8 So the people took victuals in their hand, and their trumpets: and he sent the rest of Israel every man unto his tent, and retained those three hundred men. And the host of Midian was between him and the valley.

9 And it came to pass the same^o night, that the LORD said unto him, Arise, get thee down unto the host; for^p I have delivered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant down to the host:

11 And^a thou shalt hear^b what they say; and afterward shall thine hands be strengthened to go down unto the host. Then went he down with Phurah his servant unto the outside of the ^βarmed men that were in the host.

12 And the Midianites, and the Amalekites, and all the children of the east, lay along in the valley like grasshoppers^d for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the sea side for multitude.

13 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and, lo, a cake^g of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came unto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along.

14 And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host.

15 And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the ^γinterpretation thereof, that he worshipped, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, Arise; for the LORD hath delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put ^δa trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers.

17 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise: and, behold, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be, that as I do, so shall ye do.

18 When I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

19 So Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came unto the outside of the camp, in the beginning of the middle watch; and they had but newly setⁿ the watch: and they blew the trumpets,^o and brake the pitchers^p that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal; and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon.

21 And they stood^q every man in his place round about the camp: and^r all the host ran, and cried, and fled.

22 And the three hundred blew^s the trumpets, and the LORD^t set every man's sword against his^u fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Beth-shittah^v in Zererath, and to the ^θborder of Abel-meholah, unto Tabbath.

23 And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after the Midianites.

24 And Gideon sent messengers throughout all mount Ephraim,^w saying, Come down against the Midianites, and take before them the waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and took the waters unto Beth-barah^x and Jordan.

25 And they took^a two princes of the Midianites, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side Jordan.

CHAPTER VIII.

AND the men^c of Ephraim said unto him, ^γWhy hast thou served us thus, that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to fight with the Midianites? and they did chide with him ^δsharply.

2 And he said unto them, What have I done now in comparison of you? Is not the gleanings of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abi-ezer?

3 God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb: and what was I able to do in comparison of you? Then their ^γanger was abated toward him,^d when he had said that.

4 And Gideon came to Jordan, and passed over, he, and the three hundred men that were with him, faint, yet pursuing them.

5 And he said unto the men of^e Succoth, Give, I pray you, loaves of bread unto the people that follow me; for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.

6 And the princes of Succoth said,^g Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thine army?

7 And Gideon said, Therefore, when the LORD hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hand, thenⁱ I will ^θtear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers.

8 And he went up thence to Penuel,^k and spake unto them likewise: and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered him.

9 And he spake also unto the men of Penuel, saying, When I comeⁿ again in peace, I^p will break down this tower.

10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of all the hosts of the children of the east: for there fell ^λan hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword.

11 And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwelt in tents, on the east of Nobah^r and Jogbehah, and smote the host: for the host was secure.^t

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them, and took^u the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and ^vdiscomfited all the host.

13 And Gideon, the son of Joash, returned from battle before the sun was up,

14 And caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he described^p unto him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, even threescore and seventeen men.

15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom^z ye did upbraid me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy men that are weary?

16 And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness, and briers, and with them he ^σtaught the men of Succoth.

17 And he beat down the^c tower of Penuel, and slew the men of the city.

18 Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmuuna, What manner of men were ^ι whom ye slew at Tabor?^b And they swered, As thou art, so were they; ^c oue ^β resembled the children of a king.

19 And he said, They were my breth^ε even the sons of my mother: as the Lo^ι liveth, if ye had saved them alive, I we^ι not slay you.

20 And he said unto Jether his fi^ι born, Up, and slay them: but the yo^ι drew not his sword: for he feared, ^ι cause he was yet a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, I^ι thou, and fall upon us; for as the man^ι so is his strength. And Gideon arc^ι and slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and t^ι away the ^ζornaments that were on t^ι camels' neeks.

22 Then the meu of Israel said u^ι Gideon, Rule thou over us, both th^ι and thy son, and thy son's son also; thou hast delivered us from the hand^ι Midian.

23 And Gideon said unto them, I will^ι rule over you, neither shall my son r^ι over you: the LORD^ι shall rule over you.

24 And Gideon said unto them, I we^ι desire a request of you, that ye wo^ι give me every man the earrings of ^ι prey: (for they had golden earrin^ι because they were Ishmaelites.)^h

25 And they answered, We will ^ι lingly give them. And they spread a ^ι ment, and did cast therein every m^ι the earrings of his prey.

26 And the weight of the golden e^ι rings that he requested was a thousa^ι and seven hundred shekels of gold, bes^ι ornaments, and ^κcollars, and purple ^ι ment that was on the kings of Midi^ι and beside the chains that were ab^ι their camels' neeks.

27 And Gideon made^ι au ephod there and put it in his city, even in Ophrah and all Israel went thither a^ο whori^ι after it, which thing became a^γ sn^ι unto Gideon, and to his house.

28 Thus was Midian subdued bef^ι the children of Israel, so that they lif^ι up their heads no more: and the count^ι was in quietness forty years iu the de^ι of Gideon.

29 And Jerubbaal, the son of Joas^ι went and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gideon had^s threescore a^ι ten sons ^μ of his body begotten: for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine, that was in Sh^ι ehem, she also bare him a son, who^ι name he ^πcalled Abimelech.^ο

32 And Gideon, the son of Joash, di^ι in a good^ω old age, and was buried in t^ι sepulchre of Joash his father, iu Ophr^ι of the Abi-ezrites.

33 And it came to pass, as soon^z as G^ι deon was dead, that the children of Isra^ι turned again, and went a whoring aft^ι Baalim, and made Baal-berith^γ their god.

34 And the children of Israel reme^ι bered not^a the LORD their God, who he^ι delivered them out of the hands of ^ι their enemies on every side:

35 Neither^b shewed they kindness^ι the house of Jerubbaal, namely Gide^ι according to all the goodness which I^ι had shewed unto Israel.

CHAPTER IX.

AND Abimelech, the son of Jerubba^ι went to Shechem^d unto his mother brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying,

 2 Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, ^β Whether is better for you, either that all the sons of Jerubbaal, which are^b threescore and ten persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember also that I am your uncle^d and your flesh.
 3 And his mother's brethren spake of it in the ears of all the men of Shechem in these words: and their hearts inclined ^γ to follow Abimelech; for they said, He is our brother.
 4 And they gave him threescore and ten pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith,^a wherewith Abimelech hiredⁱ vain and light persons, which followed him.
 5 And he went unto his father's house Ophrah, and slew^k his brethren, the sons of Jerubbaal, being threescore and one persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself.
 6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and went, and made Abimelech king, by the pillar of the pillar that was in Shechem.
 7 And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of mount Arizim,^l and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God mayarken unto you.
 8 The treesⁿ went forth on a time tooint a king over them; and they said to the olive tree, Reign thou over us.
 9 But the olive tree said unto them, Could I leave my fatness,^q wherewith I me they honour God and man, and ^θ to be promoted over the trees?
 10 And the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, and reign over us.
 11 But the fig tree said unto them, Could I forsake my sweetness, and my odour, and go to be promoted over the trees?
 12 Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou, and reign over us.
 13 And the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, which^{*} cheereth God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees?
 14 Then said all the trees unto the bramble, Come thou, and reign over us.
 15 And the bramble said unto the trees, If truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow;^t and if not, let fire^u come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars^v of Lebanon.
 16 Now therefore, if ye have done truly and sincerely in that ye have made Abimelech king, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done unto him according to the deserving of his hands;
 17 (For my father^w fought for you, and adventured his life far, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian;
 18 And ye^x are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, threescore and ten persons, upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the^y son of his maidservant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother;)
 19 If ye then have dealt truly and sincerely with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice^z ye in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you;

20 But if not, let^a fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the men of Shechem, and the house of Millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Abimelech.

21 And Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer,^c and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

22 When Abimelech had reigned three years over Israel,

23 Then God sent^e an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem^f dealt treacherously with Abimelech:

24 That^g the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother, which slew them; and upon the men of Shechem, which^h aided him in the killing of his brethren.

25 And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 And Gaal, the son of Ebed, came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and made^m merry, and went into the houseⁿ of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal, the son of Ebed, said, Who is^o Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? is not he the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? serve the men of Hamor,^p the father of Shechem; for why should we serve him?

29 And would^r to God this people were under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 And when Zebul, the ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal, the son of Ebed, his anger was^s kindled.

31 And he sent messengers unto Abimelech^t privily, saying, Behold, Gaal, the son of Ebed, and his brethren, be come to Shechem; and, behold, they fortify the city against thee.

32 Now, therefore, up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field:

33 And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city: and, behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them as^v thou shalt find occasion.

34 And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies.

35 And Gaal, the son of Ebed, went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him, from lying in wait.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.

37 And Gaal spake again, and said, See, there come people down by the^ρ middle of the land, and another company come along by the plain of^σ Meonenim.

33 Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy mouth, wherewith thou saidst,^a Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray now, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him; and many were overthrown and wounded, even unto the entering of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 And it came to pass on the morrow that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech.

43 And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and, behold, the people were come forth out of the city; and he rose up against them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the company that was with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two other companies ran upon all the people that were in the fields, and slew them.

45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day: and^g he took the city, and slew the people that was therein, and beat down^h the city, and sowed it with salt.ⁱ

46 And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard that, they entered into an hold of the house of the god Berith.^k

47 And it was told Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech gat him up to mount Zalmon,^m he and all the people that were with him; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people that were with him, What ye have seen me do, make haste, and do as I have done.

49 And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the hold, and set the hold on fire upon them; so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the city, and shut it to them, and gat them up to the top of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 And^v a certain woman cast a piece of a millstone upon Abimelech's head, and all to brake his skull.

54 Then^z he called hastily unto the young man his armourbearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man unto his place.

56 Thus God rendered^d the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did unto his father, in slaying his seventy brethren:

57 And all the evil of the men of Shechem did God render upon their heads: and upon them came the curse^e of Jotham

CHAPTER X.

AND after Abimelech there arose, ^β defend Israel, Tola the son of Pu the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim.

2 And he judged Israel twenty and th years, and died, and was buried in Shamir.

3 And after him arose Jair a Gilead and judged Israel twenty and two years.

4 And he had thirty sons that rode^β thirty ass colts, and they had thirty cities which^c are called γ Havoth-jair unto this day, which are in the land of Gilead.

5 And Jair died, and was buried in Cam.

6 And^d the children of Israel did e again in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and the gods of ^δ ria, and the gods of^e Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsook the LORD, and served not him.

7 And the anger of the LORD was ^ζ against Israel, and he sold^f them in the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon.

8 And that year they vexed and ^η pressed the children of Israel eight years, all the children of Israel that ^θ on the other side Jordan, in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

9 Moreover, the children of Ammon passed over Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sore distressed.ⁱ

10 And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken ^κ God, and also served Baalim.

11 And the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Did not I deliver you from the Egyptians,^λ and from the Amorites,^μ from the children of Ammon,^ν and from the Philistine.

12 The Zidonians^ξ also, and the Amalekites,^ρ and the Maonites did oppress you; and ye cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.

13 Yet ye have forsaken me,^τ and served other gods; wherefore I will deliver you no more.

14 Go and cry unto the gods which have chosen; let them^υ deliver you the time of your tribulation.

15 And the children of Israel said unto the LORD, We have sinned; do thou^φ us whatsoever ^χ seemeth good unto thee, deliver us only, we pray thee, this day.

16 And they put away^ψ the ^θ strange gods from among them, and served the LORD: and his soul was ^κ grieved^z for the misery of Israel.

17 Then the children of Ammon were ^α gathered together, and encamped in Gilead, and the children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in Mizpeh.

18 And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, What man is he that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

CHAPTER XI.

NOW Jephthah^β the Gileadite was a mighty man of valour, and he was the son of an ^μ harlot; and Gilead begat Jephthah.

2 And Gilead's wife bare him sons: and his wife's sons grew up, and they thrust out Jephthah, and said unto him, Thou shalt not^f inherit in our father's house; for on art the son of a strange woman.

 3 Then Jephthah fled ^β from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob: and ere were gathered vain^a men to Jephthah, and went out with him.
 4 And it came to pass ^γ in process of time, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel.
 5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob:
 6 And they said unto Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.
 7 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, Did^a not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father's house? and why come ye come unto me now when ye are in distress?
 8 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again^g to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head^k over all the inhabitants of Gilead.
 9 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, will the LORD deliver them before me, will I be your head?
 10 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, The^a LORD be ^δ witness between us if we do not so according to thy words.
 11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head^o and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered his words before the LORD in⁷ Mizpeh.
 12 And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou comest against me to fight in my land?
 13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, Because Israel^t took away my land, when they came up out of Egypt, from Arnon even unto Jabbok,^u and unto Jordan: now, therefore, restore those lands again peaceably.
 14 And Jephthah sent messengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon, 15 And said unto him, Thus saith Jephthah, Israel took not^w away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon:
 16 But when Israel came up from Egypt, I walked^y through the wilderness unto the Red sea, and came^z to Kadesh;
 17 Then Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: but the king of Edom would not hearken^{there}. And in like manner they sent unto the king of Moab; but he would not consent: and Israel abode in Kadesh.
 18 Then they went along through the wilderness, and compassed^c the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came to the east side of the land of Moab, and encamped on the other side of Arnon, but were not within the border^e of Moab: for the river was the border of Moab.
 19 And Israel sent^o messengers unto the king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, Let pass, we pray thee, through thy land to my place.
 20 But Sihon trusted not Israel to pass through his coast: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jabbok, and fought against Israel.

 21 And the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they smote them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.
 22 And they possessed all the coasts of the Amorites, from Arnon even unto Jabbok, and from the wilderness even unto Jordan.
 23 So now the LORD God of Israel hath dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and shouldest thou possess it?
 24 Wilt not thou possess that which Chemosh^b thy god giveth thee to possess? So^c whomsoever the LORD our God shall drive^e out from before us, them will we possess.
 25 And now art thou any thing better than Balak^f the son of Zippor, king of Moab? did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them,
 26 While Israel dwelt in Heshbon^h and her towns, and in Aroerⁱ and her towns, and in all the cities that be along by the coasts of Arnon, three hundred years? why therefore did ye not recover them within that time?
 27 Wherefore I have not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to war against me: the LORD the Judge^l be judge^m this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.
 28 Howbeit the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah which he sent him.
 29 Then the Spirit^p of the LORD came upon Jephthah,^r and he passed over Gilead, and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over unto the children of Ammon.
 30 And Jephthah vowed^s a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou shalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands, 31 Then it shall be, that ^z whatsoever cometh forth of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall^v surely be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering.
 32 So Jephthah passed over unto the children of Ammon, to fight against them; and the LORD delivered them into his hands.
 33 And he smote them from Aroer, even till thou come to Minnith,^x even twenty cities, and unto^θ the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter. Thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.
 34 And Jephthah came to Mizpeh^a unto his house, and, behold, his daughter came out to meet him with^b timbrels and with dances; and she was his only child: ^c beside her he had neither son nor daughter.
 35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent^d his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me; for I have opened my mouth unto the LORD, and I cannot^f go back.
 36 And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the LORD, do to me according to that which hath proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as^h the LORD hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.
 37 And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may β go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my fellows.

38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And it came to pass, at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who δ did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a δ custom in Israel, 40 That the daughters of Israel went yearly ξ to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

CHAPTER XII.

AND λ the men of Ephraim θ gathered themselves together, and went northward, and said unto Jephthah, Wherefore passedst thou over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? we will burn thine house upon thee with fire.

2 And Jephthah said unto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, ye delivered me not out of their hands.

3 And when I saw that ye delivered me not, I put π my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand: wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight against me?

4 Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim among the Ephraimites, and among the Manassites.

5 And the Gileadites took the passages π of Jordan before the Ephraimites: and it was so, that when those Ephraimites which were escaped said, Let me go over, that the men of Gilead said unto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay;

6 Then said they unto him, Say now Shibboleth; κ and he said Sibboleth: for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him, and slew him at the passages of Jordan: and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites forty and two thousand.

7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

8 And after him Ibzan π of Beth-lehem judged Israel.

9 And he had thirty sons, and thirty daughters, whom he sent abroad, and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years.

10 Then died Ibzan, and was buried at Beth-lehem.

11 And after him Elon, π a Zebulonite, judged Israel, and he judged Israel ten years.

12 And Elon the Zebulonite died, and was buried in Aijalon π in the country of Zebulun.

13 And after him Abdon π the son of Hillel, a Pirathonite, judged Israel.

14 And he had forty sons and thirty ξ nephews, that rode π on three score and ten ass colts: and he judged Israel eight years.

15 And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon, in the land of Ephraim, in the mount π of the Amalekites.

CHAPTER XIII.

AND the children of Israel γ did again α in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered θ them into ϵ the hands of the Philistines forty years.

2 And there was a certain man of ι rah, δ of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife α barren, and bare not.

3 And the angel ϵ of the LORD appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, I hold now, thou art barren, and bearest not; but thou shalt conceive, and bear a son.

4 Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing:

5 For, lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and no θ razor shall come on thy head: for the child shall be a ι Nazarite unto God from the womb; and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hands of the Philistines.

6 Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, A κ man of God came unto me, and his countenance ι was like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible; but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name:

7 But he said unto me, Behold, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son; and thou shalt drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God from the womb to the day of his death.

8 Then Manoah entreated the LORD, and said, O my Lord, let the man whom thou didst send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born.

9 And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field: Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman made haste, and ran, and shewed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day.

11 And Manoah arose, and went with his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spak unto the woman? And he said, I am.

12 And Manoah said, Now let thy word come to pass: λ how shall we order the child? and μ how shall we do unto him?

13 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Of all that I said unto thee, woman let her beware.

14 She ν may not eat of any thing that cometh of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing: all that I commanded thee let her observe.

15 And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, I pray thee, let ρ us detain thee, until we shall have made ready a kid ν for thee.

16 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread; and if thou wilt offer a burnt offering, thou must offer it unto the LORD: for Manoah knew not that he was an angel of the LORD.

17 And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, What ν is thy name, that when thy sayings come to pass, we may do thee honour?

18 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is π secret?

19 So Manoah took a kid with a male ering, and^a offered it upon a roek unto e LORD: and the angel did wonderously;

d Manoah and his wife looked on.

20 For it came to pass, when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, at the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife looked on it, and fell^a on their faces to the ground.

21 But the angel of the LORD did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife.
Then Manoah knew that he was an angel of the LORD.

22 And Manoah said unto his wife, We all^c surely die, because we have seen and.

23 But his wife said unto him, If the LORD were pleased to kill us, he would not have received a burnt offering and meat offering at our hands;^b neither could he have shewed us all these things, nor would, as at this time, have told us all things as these.

24 And the woman bare a son, and called his name Samson:^c and^d the child grew, and the LORD blessed him.

25 And the Spirit^m of the LORD began to move him at times in ^dthe camp of Dan between Zorahⁿ and Eshtaol.

CHAPTER XIV.

AND Samson went down to^o Timnath, and saw^a a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines.

And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a man in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines; now, therefore, get her for me to wife.

Then his father and his mother said unto him, Is there never a woman among the daughters of thy brethren,^s or among my people, that thou goest to take a wife of the uncircumcised^t Philistines?
And Samson said unto his father, Get her for me; for she ^hpleaseth me well.

But his father and his mother knew not that it was of the LORD,^v that he sought an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time the^x Philistines had dominion over Israel.

Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and, behold, a young lion roared^k against him.

And the Spirit^y of the LORD came mightily upon him, and^z he rent him as if he would have rent a kid, and he had nothing in his hand: but he told not his father or his mother what he had done.

And he went down, and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.

And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcase of a lion; and, behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcase of the lion.

And^b he took thereof in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat: but he told not them that he had taken the honey out of the carcase of the lion.

So his father went down unto the man: and Samson made there a feast;^d so used the young men to do.

And it came to pass, when they saw it, that they brought thirty companions with him.

And Samson said unto them, I will put forth a riddle^e unto you: if ye can certainly declare it me within the then I will give you thirty ^hsheets, and thirty chango^c of garments:

13 But if ye cannot declare it me, then shall ye give me thirty sheets, and thirty chango of garments. And they said unto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it.

14 And he said unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three days expound the riddle.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, Entice^f thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, lest^g we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye called us to ^gtake that we have? is it not so?

16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, Thouⁱ dost but hate me, and lov-est me not: thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

17 And she wept before him ^hthe seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because^j she lay sore upon him; and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day, before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey?
and what is stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.

19 And^r the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their ^uspoils, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle: and his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house.

20 But Samson's wife was given^u to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.^w

CHAPTER XV.

BUT it came to pass within a while after, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid; and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in.

2 And her father said, I verily thought that thou hadst utterly hated her; therefore^a I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she?
^htake her, I pray thee, instead of her.

3 And Samson said concerning them, Now shall I be ^umore blameless than the Philistines, though I do them a displeasure.

4 And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took ^vfirebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails.

5 And when he had set the brauds on fire, he let them go into the standing corn^c of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the vineyards and olives.

6 Then the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson, the son in law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up, and burnt^f her and her father with fire.

7 And Samsou said unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will easee.

8 And he smote them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and dwelt in the top of the rock Etam.

9 Then the Philistines went up, and pitched in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi.^c

10 And the men of Judah said, Why are ye come up against us? And they answered, To bind Samsou are we come up, to do to him as he hath done to us.

11 Theu three thousand men of Judah went^d to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Kuowest thou uot that the ^aPhilistines are rulers^e over us? what is this that thou hast doue unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I doue unto them.

12 And they said unto him, We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me yourselves.

13 And they spake unto him, saying, No; but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand; but surely we will uot kill thee. And they bound him with two new eords, and brought him up from the rock.

14 And when he came unto Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him; and^f the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the eords^g that were upon his arms beame as flax that was burut with fire, and his bauds ^hloosed from off his hands.

15 And he found a ⁱnew jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand and took it, and slew a thousand meu therewith.

16 And Samson said, With the jawbone of an ass, ^jheaps upou heaps, with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men.

17 And it came to pass, wheu he had made an end of speaking, that he east away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place ^kRamath-lehi.

18 And he was sore athirst, and called on the LORD, and said, Thou^l hast given this great deliverauce into the hand of thy servant; and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the haud of the unreimeised?

19 But God elave an hollow place that was in ^mthe jaw, and there cameⁿ water thereout; and when he had drunk, his spirit came again,^o and he revived: wherefore he called the name thereof ^pEn-hakkore, which is in Lehi unto this day.

20 And he judged^q Israel, in the days of the Philistines, twenty years.

CHAPTER XVI.

THEN went Samson to Gaza, and saw there ^rXan harlot, and went in unto her.

2 And it was told the Gazites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they compassed^s him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet^t all the night, saying, In the morning, when it is day, we shall kill him.

3 And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and went away with them, ^ubar and all, and put them upon his shoudlers, and earried them up to the top of an hill that is before Hebrou.

4 And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a^a woman β in the valley Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

5 And the lords of the Philistines ea up unto her, and said unto her,^b Ent him, and see wherein his great streng^c lieth, and by what means we may prev against him, that we may bind him; and we will give thee, ev one of us, eleven hundred pieces of silver.

6 And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me I pray thee, wherein thy great streng^c lieth, and wherewith thou mightest bound to afflict thee.

7 And Samson said unto her, If thou bind me with seven ^dgreen withs that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as ^eanother man.

8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green withs which had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

9 Now there were men lying in wait abiding with her in the chamber. And she said unto him, The Philistines ^fbe upon thee, Samson. And he brake the withs, as a thread of tow is broken wheu it ^gtoucheth the fire: so his strength was uot known.

10 And Delilah said unto Samson, Lie thou hast mocked me, and told lies: uow tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound.

11 And he said unto her, If they bind me fast with new ropes ^hthat never were occupied, then shall I be weak, and as another man.

12 Delilah therefore took new ropes and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines ⁱbe upon thee, Samson. And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he brake them from off his arms like a thread.

13 And Delilah said unto Samson, Lie thou hast mocked me, and told lies: tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her, If thou weavest the seven locks of my head within the web.

14 And she fastened it with the press and said unto him, The Philistines ^jbe upon thee, Samson. And he awaked out of his sleep, and went away with the press of the beam, and with the web.

15 And she said unto him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thine heart is uot with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast uot told me wherein thy great strength lieth.

16 And it came to pass, wheu she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him so that his soul was ^kvexed unto death.

17 That he told^l her all his heart, a said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for^m I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.

18 And wheu Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this ooe; for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hand.

19 Andⁿ she made him sleep upon his knees: and she called for a man, and caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him.

20 And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I^b will go out, as at other times before, and shake myself. And he cast net that the LORD was^c departed from him.

21 But the Philistines took him, and ^β put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison house.

22 Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again ^δ after he was shaven.

23 Then the lords of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon^k their god, and to rejoice; for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.

24 And when the people saw him, they raised^m their god; for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, Micahⁿ slew many of us.

25 And it came to pass, when their arts were merry,ⁿ that they said, Call^o Samson, that he may make us^o sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison house; and he made^θ them sport: and they set him between the pillars.

26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them.

27 Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there: and there were upon the roof of about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport.

28 And Samson called^s unto the LORD, and said, O Lord God, remember^u me, and strengthen me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and ^λ on which it was borne up, and he pushed them, and the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left.

30 And Samson said, Let ^μ me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein: so the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life.

31 Then his brethren, and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between^δ Zorah and Eshtaol, in the burying-place of Manoah his father. And he died Israel twenty years.

mother; and his mother took two hundred shekels of silver, and^a gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image, and a molten image: and they were in the house of Micah.

5 And the man Micah had an house of gods, and made an ephod,^d and teraphim,^e and ^γ consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest.

6 In those days there was no king^θ in Israel, but every man did that^h which was right in his own eyes.

7 And there was a young man out of Beth-lehem-judah,ⁱ of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the city from Beth-lehem-judah, to sojourn where he could find a place: and he came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he ^ζ journeyed.

9 And Micah said unto him, Whence comest thou? And he said unto him, I am a Levite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to sojourn where I may find a place.

10 And Micah said unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me a father^ρ and a priest, and I will give thee ten shekels of silver by the year, and ^κ a suit of apparel, and thy victuals. So the Levite went in.

11 And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was unto him as one of his sons.

12 And Micah consecrated^z the Levite, and the young man became^ν his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then said Micah, Now^t know I that the LORD will do me good, seeing I have a Levite to my priest.

CHAPTER XVIII.

IN^π those days there was no king in Israel: and in those days the tribe of the Danites^ν sought them an inheritance to dwell in; for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts, men^ν of valour, from Zorah,^z and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who, when they came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they lodged there.

3 When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite; and they turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hired me, and I am his priest.

5 And they said unto him, Ask^d counsel, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And the priest said unto them,^e Go in peace; before the LORD is your way wherein ye go.

7 Then the five men departed, and came to Laish,^h and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure; and there was no ^π magistrate in the land, that might put them to shame in any thing: and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man.

8 And they came unto their brethren to Zorah^a and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, What say ye?

9 And they said, Arise,^b that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are ye still? be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land.

10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people secure,^c and to a large land: for God^d hath given it into your hands; a place where^e there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

11 And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men appointed with weapons of war.

12 And they went up, and pitched in Kirjath-jearim,^f in Judah: wherefore they called that place Mahaneh-dan^g unto this day; behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim.

13 And they passed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the house of Micah.

14 Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, Do ye know that there is in these houses^h an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? now, therefore, consider what ye have to do.

15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and ^hsaluted him.

16 And theⁱ six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

17 And the five^j men that went to spy out the land went up, and came in thither, and took the graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood in the entering of the gate with the six hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war.

18 And these went into Micah's house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the priest unto them, What do ye?

19 And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, lay^k thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be^l to us a father and a priest: is it better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?

20 And the priest's heart was glad; and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.

21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones, and the cattle, and the carriage before them.

22 And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What^m aileth thee, that thouⁿ comest with such a company?

24 And he said, Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what is this that ye say unto me, What aileth thee?

CHAPTER XIX.

AND it came to pass in those days when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, who took him ^pa concubine out of Beth-lehem-judah.

2 And his concubine played the who against him, and went away from him unto her father's house to Beth-lehem-judah, and was there ^qfour whole months.

3 And her husband arose, and went after her, to speak ^rfriendly unto her, and to bring her again,^s having his servants with him, and a couple of asses: and she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his father in law, the damsel's father, retained him; and he abode with him three days: so they did eat and drink and lodged there.

5 And it came to pass on the fourth day when they arose early in the morning that he rose up to depart: and the damsel's father said unto his son in law, Comfort thine^t heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward go your way.

6 And they sat down, and did eat and drink both of them together: for the damsel's father had said unto the man, Behold, I pray thee, and tarry all night and let thine heart^u be merry.

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father in law urged him: therefore he lodged there again.

8 And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart: and the damsel's father said, Comfort thine heart, pray thee. And they tarried ^vuntil afternoon, and they did eat both of them.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he and his concubine and his servant, his father in law, the damsel's father, said unto him, Behold, now the day^w draweth toward evening,^x I pray you tarry all

1 And when they were by Jebus, the was far spent; and the servant said us turn in into this city of the Je-ites, and lodge in it.

2 And his master said unto him, We l not turn aside hither into the city of tranger, that is not of the children of ael: we will pass over to Gibeah.
3 And he said unto his servant, Come,
l let us draw near to one of these places

4 And they passed on and went their

5 And they turned aside thither, to go and to lodge in Gibeah: and when he place were Benjamites.

the master of the house, the old man, ring, Bring forth^a the man that came o thine house, that we may know him.
3 And the man, the master of the house, began to spring, they let her go.

26 Then came the woman, in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her lord was, till it was light.

27 And her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way: and, behold,
the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold.

28 And he said unto her, Up, and let us be going: but none answered. Then the man took her up upon an ass, and the man rose up, and gat him unto his place.

29 And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided^c her, together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the coasts of Israel.

30 And it was so, that all that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt unto this day: consider^e of it, take advice,^f and speak your minds.

CHAPTER XX.

THEN^g all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from^h Dan even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the LORD in Mizpeh.^k

2 And the chief of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen that^m drew sword.

3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh.) Then said the children of Israel, Tell us, how was thisⁿ wickedness?

4 And ^ζ the Levite, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said, I came^p into Gibeah that belongeth to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge.

5 And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night, and thought to have slain me; and my concubine have they forced,^θ that she is dead.

6 And^r I took my concubine, and ent her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel: for they have committed lewdness and folly^v in Israel.

7 Behold, ye are all children of Israel;
give^z here your advice and counsel.

8 And all the people arose as one man, saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn into his house:

9 But now this shall be the thing which we will do to Gibeah, we will go up by lot against it:

10 And we will take ten men of an hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victual for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought in Israel.

11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, ^λ knit together as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent^d men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying,

What wickedness is this that is done among you?

13 Now therefore deliver us the men,^a the children of Belial, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away^b evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel:

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.

15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time, out of the cities, twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all this people, there were seven hundred chosen men^c lefthanded: every one could sling stones at an hair breadth, and not miss.

17 And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war.

18 And the children of Israel arose, and went^e up to the house of God, and asked^f counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first.

19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed^h down to the ground, of the Israelites that day, twenty and two thousand men.

22 And the people, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day.

23 (Andⁱ the children of Israel went up, and wept before the LORD until even, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)

24 And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed^m down to the ground, of the children of Israel again, eighteen thousand men: all these drew the sword.

26 Then^o all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept,^p and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

27 And the children of Israel inquired of the LORD, (for^q the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days;

28 And Phinehas,^r the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood^s before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for^u to morrow I will deliver them into thine hand.

29 And Israel set liers^v in wait round about Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 And the children of Benjamin went against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people^β and kill, as at other times, in the highways, of which cometh up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field, about the men of Israel.

32 And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us, as the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways.

33 And all the men of Israel rose out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar; and the liers in wait of Israel came forth out of their place, even out of the meadows of Gibeah.

34 And there came against Gibeah the thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore; but^d they knew not that evil was near them.

35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and an hundred men: all these drew the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin said that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place^g to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah.

37 And the liers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait^δ drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel^η and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame^θ with smoke rise up out of the city.

39 And when the men of Israel retired from the battle, Benjamin began to smite^κ and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons; for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle.

40 But when the flame began to arise out of the city with a pillar of^λ smoke the Benjamites looked behind them, and behold, the^λ flame of the city ascended up to heaven.

41 And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil^μ was come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way into the wilderness; but the battle^π overtook them: and them which came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them.

43 Thus they inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trod them down^ρ with ease, ^πover against Gibeah toward the sunrise.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men: all these were men of valour.

45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon, and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them unto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them.

46 So that all which fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword: all these were men of valour.

17 But^a six hundred men turned, and

CHAPTER XXI.

OW^d the men of Israel had^e sworn Mizpeh, saying, There shall not any us give his daughter unto Benjamin wife.

2 And the people came^k to the house
God, and abode there till even before d, and liftedⁱ up their voices, and pt sore;

3 And said, O LORD God of Israel, y is this come to pass in Israel, that ere should be to day one tribe lacking Israel?

4 And it came to pass on the morrow, ut the people rose early, and^t built ere an altar, and offered burnt offerings d peace offerings.

5 And the children of Israel said, Who there among all the tribes of Israel ut came not up with the congregation to the LORD? For they had made a eat oath concerning him that came not to the LORD to Mizpeh, saying, He all surely be put to death.

6 And the children of Israel^m repented em for Benjamin their brother, and d, There is one tribe cut off from Isel this day:

7 How shall we do for wives for them ut remain, seeing we have sworn by e LORD that we will not give them of 8 And they said, What one is there of mc none to the camp from Jabeshead^q to the assembly.

13 And the whole congregation sent some β to speak to the children of Benjamin that^c were in the rock Rimmon, and to γ call peaceably unto them.

14 And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead: and yet so they sufficed them not.

15 And the people repented^f them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach^g in the tribes of Israel.

16 Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?

17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: for^k the children of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.

19 Then they said, Behold, there is a feast of the LORD in Shiloh ^ηyearly, in a place which is on the north side of Bethel, ^θon the east side ^κof the highway that goeth up from Beth-el to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah.

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards;

21 And see, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to danceⁿ in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

22 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, ^λBe favourable unto them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife^p in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that ye should be guilty.

23 And the children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities,^r and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family; and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.

25 In those days^t there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own^u eyes.

CHAPTER I.

NOW it came to pass, in the^a days when the judges^β ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Beth-lehem-judah^c went to sojourn in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons.

2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites^d of Beth-lehem-judah. And they came into the country of Moab, and^e continued there.

3 And Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left, and her two sons.

4 And they took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them; and the woman was left of her two sons and her husband.

6 Then she arose, with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had visited^k his people in giving^l them bread.

7 Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her: and they went on the way to return unto the land of Judah.

8 And Naomi said unto her two daughters in law, Go, return each to her mother's house: the LORDⁿ deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me.

9 The LORD grant you that ye may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them; and they lifted up their voice, and wept.

10 And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people.

11 And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters, why will ye go with me? are there yet any more sons in my womb, that^q they may be your husbands?

12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have an husband. If I should say, I have hope, if^r I should have an husband also to night, and should also bear sons;

13 Would ye^u tarry for them till they were grown? would ye stay for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters; for^v it grieveth me much, for your sakes, that the hand^s of the LORD is gone out against me.

14 And they lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother in law, but Ruth clave^t unto her.

15 And she said, Behold, thy sister in law is gone back unto her people, and unto her gods;^u return^v thou after thy sister in law.

16 And Ruth said, ^πEntreat me not to leave^x thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will

17 Where thou diest will I die, and there will I be buried: the^d LORD do to me, and more also, if^e ought but^e depart thee and me.

18 When^f she saw that she^γ was so fastly minded to go with her, then^h she left speaking unto her.

19 So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass when they were come to Beth-lehem that all the city was moved about them, and they said, Is this^k Naomi?

20 And she said unto them, Call^l me not^ζ Naomi, call me^η Mara: for the LORDⁿ hath dealt very bitterly with me.

21 I went out full, and the LORDⁱ hath brought me home again empty: wherefore^κ call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD^l hath testified against me, and the LORD^l hath afflicted me?

22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter in law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

CHAPTER II.

AND Naomi had a kinsman^m of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was^θ Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and glean^o ears of corn after^p him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter.

3 And she went, and came, and gleaned^q in the field after the reapers: and her hap^r was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.

4 And, behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers,^s The LORD^t be with you. And they^u answered him, The LORD^t bless thee.

5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel^v is this?

6 And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It^w is that Moabitish damsel that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab:

7 And she said, I pray you, let me glean^x and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came, and hath continued even from the morning until now that she tarried a little in the house.

8 Then said Boaz unto Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither^y go from hence, but abide here fast by my maidens:

9 Let thine eyes be on the field that they do reap, and go thou after them: have I not charged the young men that

Thou shalt not touch^a thee? and when thou thirstest, go unto the vessels, and drink ^{at} which the young men have drawn.
 Then she fell^c on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said unto him, Why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldest take knowledge of seeing I am a stranger?
 And Boaz answered and said unto her, It hath fully been showed me^e all that thou hast done unto thy mother in law since the death of thine husband; how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and come unto a people which thou knewest not heretofore.
 The LORD recompense^f thy work, and a full reward be given thee of the LORD God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come^h to trust.
 Then she said, Let me findⁱ favour in thy sight, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast been friendly unto thine handmaid, though I be not like unto one of thine maidens.
 And Boaz said unto her, At mealtime come thou hither, and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he charged her parched corn, and she did eat, and was sufficed, and left.^m
 And when she was risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, but reproach^o her not:
 And let fall also some of the handfuls of purpose for her, and leave them, that she may glean them, and rebuke her not.
 So she gleaned in the field until evening, and beat out that she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley.
 And she took it up, and went into the city; and her mother in law saw that she had gleaned; and she brought it, and gave to her that she had received after she was sufficed.
 And her mother in law said unto her, Here hast thou gleaned to day? and here wast thou? blessed be^t he that did take knowledge of thee. And she shewed her mother in law with whom she dwelt wrought, and said, The man's name to whom I wrought to day is Boaz.
 And Naomi said unto her daughter in law, Blessed^v be he of the LORD, who hath not left off^w his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said unto her, The man is near of kin to us, one^x of our next kinsmen.
 And Ruth the Moabitess said, He said unto me also, Thou^z shalt keep with me by my young men, until they have reaped all my harvest.
 And Naomi said unto Ruth her daughter in law, It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, that they meet thee not in any other place.
 So she kept^z fast by the maidens of Boaz to glean unto the end of barley harvest, and of wheat harvest; and dwelt with her mother in law.

CHAPTER III.

2 And now is not Boaz of our kindred, with whose maidens thou wast?^b Behold, he winnoweth barley to night in the threshingfloor.
 3 Wash thyself, therefore, and^d anoint thee, and put thy raiment upon thee, and get thee down to the floor: but make not thyself known unto the man, until he shall have done eating and drinking.
 4 And it shall be, when he lieth down, that thou shalt mark the place where he shall lie, and thou shalt go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thee down; and he will tell thee what thou shalt do.
 5 And she said unto her, All that thou sayest unto me I will do.
 6 And she went down unto the floor, and did according to all that her mother in law bade her.
 7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry,^k he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn: and she came softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her down.
 8 And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was afraid, and turned himself; and, behold, a woman lay at his feet.
 9 And he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth thine handmaid; spread^l therefore thy skirt over thine handmaid; for thou artⁿ a near kinsman.
 10 And he said, Blessed be thou of the LORD, my daughter; for thou hast shewed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning,ⁿ inasmuch as thou followest not young men, whether poor or rich.
 11 And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to thee all that thou requirest: for all the city of my people doth know that thou art a virtuous^p woman.
 12 And now, it is true that I am thy near kinsman: howbeit,^q there is a kinsman nearer than I.
 13 Tarry this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform unto thee the part^r of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part: but if he will not do the part of a kinsman to thee, then will I do the part of a kinsman to thee, as^s the LORD liveth: lie down until the morning.
 14 And she lay at his feet until the morning; and she rose up before one could know another. And he said,^u Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor.
 15 Also he said, Bring the^v vail that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her: and she went into the city.
 16 And when she came to her mother in law, she said, Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her.
 17 And she said, These six measures of barley gave he me: for he said to me, Go not empty unto thy mother in law.
 18 Then said she, Sit^v still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in rest, until he have finished the thing this day.

CHAPTER IV.

Then went Boaz up to the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, the kinsman, of whom Boaz spake,^a came by: unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down.

2 And he took ten men of the^a elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

3 And he said unto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, selleth a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's:

4 And ^βI thought to advertise thee, saying, Buy^d it before^c the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it; but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it beside thee; and I am after thee. And he said, I will redeem it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up^k the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

6 And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thyself: for I cannot redeem it.

7 Now this^l was the manner in former time in Israel, concerning redeeming, and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; A man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee. So he drew off his shoe.

9 And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

10 Moreover, Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his

11 And all the people that were in gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. The Lord^b make the woman that is come into thine house like Rachel: like Leah, which two^c did build the house of Israel: and ^γdo thou worthily in Ephraim, and ^δbe famous in Beth-lehem:

12 And let thy house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar^σ bare unto Judah, of the seed which the Lord shall give thee of this young woman.

13 So Boaz took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, the Lord gave^h her conception, and she bore a son.

14 Andⁱ the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the Lord, which hath left thee this day without a^j kinsman: that his name may be famous in Israel.

15 And he shall be unto thee a rest for thy life, and ^θa nourisher of ^κthy old age: for thy daughter in law, who loveth thee, which is better^m to thee than seven sons, hath born him.

16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it.

17 Andⁿ the women her neighbours gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi; and they called it his name Obed: he is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

21 And Salmon begat Boaz, and Boaz begat Obed,

22 And Obed begat Jesse, and Jesse begat David.^q

CHAPTER I.

NOW there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah,^b the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, son of Zuph, an Ephrathite:

And he had two wives; the name of one was Hanuah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hanuah had no children.

And this man went up out of his city yearly^d to worship, and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh. And two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phineas, the priests of the LORD, were there.

And when the time was that Elkanah red,^e he gave to Peninnah his wife, to all her sons and her daughters, portions:

But unto Hannah he gave a ζ worthy portion; for he loved Hannah; but^g the LORD had shut up her womb.

And her adversary also η provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb.

And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat.

Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and γ eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I better^l to thee than ten sons?

So Hannah rose up, after they had drunk in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. And Eli the priest sat upon a seat by a door of the temple of the LORD.

And she was κ in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore.

And she vowed^o a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed^p look on affliction of thine handmaid, and remember^q me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor^r shall come upon his head.

And it came to pass, as she π continued praying before the LORD, that the LORD marked her mouth.

Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken.

And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee.

And Hannah answered and said, My lord; I am a woman σ of a powerful spirit: I have drunk neither strong drink, but have^a poured out my soul before the LORD.

Count not thine handmaid for a daughter of Belial: for out of the abundance of my τ complaint and grief have I spoken hitherto.

Then Eli answered and said, Go in peace: and the God of Israel grant^d thee ϵ petition that thou hast asked of him.

And she said, Let thine handmaid find grace in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and did cat,^a and her countenance was no more sad.

19 And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and the LORD remembered^c her.

20 Wherefore it came to pass, β when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name δ Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD.

21 And the man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow.

22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear^f before the LORD, and there abide for ever.

23 And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do^h what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; only^k the LORD establish his word. So the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned him.

24 And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks, and one ephah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the LORD in Shiloh; and the child was young.

25 And they slew a bullock, and brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, Oh, my lord, as thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD.

27 For this child I prayed;^m andⁿ the LORD hath given me my petition which I asked of him:

28 Therefore also I have λ lent him to the LORD; as long as he liveth μ he shall be lent to the LORD. And he worshipped the LORD there.

CHAPTER II.

AND Hannah prayed, and said,^s My heart rejoiceth in the LORD; mine horn is exalted^t in the LORD; my mouth is enlarged over mine enemies; because I rejoice^u in thy salvation.

2 There^v is none holy as the LORD: for there is none beside thee: neither is there any rock^w like our God.

3 Talk no more so exceeding proudly: let^x not arrogancy come out of thy mouth: for the LORD^y is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed.

4 The bows^z of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled are girded with strength.

5 They that were full have hired out themselves for bread; and they that were hungry ceased: so that the^b barren hath born seven; and she that hath many children is waxed feeble.

6 The LORD killeth,^c and maketh alive: he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up.

7 The LORD^c maketh poor, and maketh rich: he^a bringeth low, and lifteth up.

8 He^c raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the LORD's, and he hath set^e the world upon them.

9 He will keep the feet^f of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength^h shall no man prevail.

10 The adversaries of the LORD shall be broken^k to pieces; out of heaven shall he thunder^t upon them: the LORD shall judge^m the ends of the earth; and he shall give strength unto his King, and exalt^o the horn of his Anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house; and the child did minister unto the LORD before Eli the priest.

12 Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial; they knew not^p the LORD.

13 And the priest's custom with the people was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a fleshhook of three teeth in his hand;

14 And he struk^r it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fleshhook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither.

15 Also before they burnt the fat,^v the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw.

16 And if any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat ^γpresently, and then take as much as thy soul desireth; then he would answer him, Nay; but thou shalt give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force.

17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great before^z the LORD; for men abhorred^z the offering of the LORD.

18 But Samuel ministered before the LORD, being a child, girded^a with a linen ephod.

19 Moreover, his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came^b up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman for the ^θloan which is lent to the LORD. And they went unto their own home.

21 And the LORD visited^d Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before the LORD.

22 Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons did unto all Israel; and how they lay with the women that ^κassembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear ^λof your evil dealings by all this people.

24 Nay, my sons; for it is no good report that I hear: ye make the LORD's people to ^μtransgress.

25 If one man sin against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against^ν the LORD, who^ν shall entreat for him? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, because^h the LORD would slay them.

26 And the child Samuel grew on, and 33 And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be consumed thine eyes, and to grieve thy heart: and all the increase of thine house shall dieⁿ in the flower of their age.

34 And this shall be a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die^o both of them.

35 And^p I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to the will which is in mine heart, and in my mind; and I will build him a sure house: and he shall walk before mine Anointed for ever.

36 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in thine house shall eat and croneh to him for a piece of silver or a morsel of bread, and shall say, ^ζPeace, I pray thee, into ^ηone of the priest's offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

CHAPTER III.

AND the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before Eli. And the word^c of the LORD was precious in those days: there was no open vision.

2 And it came to pass at that time when Eli was laid down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not see;

3 And ere the lamp^e of God went out in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was laid down to sleep;

4 That the LORD called Samuel: and he answered, Here am I.

5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

6 And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went unto Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not my son; lie down again.

7 Now^v Samuel did not yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD revealed unto him.

And the LORD called Samuel again third time. And he arose, and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou hast called me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child.

Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered: Speak; for thy servant heareth.

And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle.

In that day I will perform against all things which I have spoken concerning his house: and when I begin, I will not make an end.

For I have told him that I will give his house for ever for the iniquity which he knoweth; because his sons have made themselves vile, and he remained silent.

And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of thy house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD: and Samuel feared to shew Eli his vision.

Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel my son. And he answered, Here am I.

And he said, What is the thing that the LORD hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: God do so to thee, and more also, if thou hide any thing from me of all the things that he hath said unto thee.

And Samuel told him every whit, and hid nothing from him. And he said, Is the LORD: let him do what seemeth him good.

And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground.

And all Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the LORD.

And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER IV.

And the word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Beth-el: and the Philistines pitched at Aphek.

And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army of Israel about four thousand men.

And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Where hath the LORD smitten us to day before the Philistines? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh along with us, it may save us out of the hands of our enemies.

So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth^a between the cherubims;^b and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

And the Philistines were afraid; for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! for there hath not been such a thing^h heretofore.

Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

Be^f strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as^k they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight.

And the Philistines fought; and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

And the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes rent, and with earth^m upon his head.

And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the wayside, watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out.

And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and his eyes were dim that he could not see.

And the man said unto Eli, I am he that came out of the army, and I fled to day out of the army. And he said, What is there done, my son?

And the messenger answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines; and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people; and thy two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God is taken.

And it came to pass, when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward, by the side of the gate; and his neck brake, and he died; for he was an old man, and heavy: and he had judged Israel forty years.

And his daughter in law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings, that the ark of God was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed; for her pains came upon her.

And about the time of her death, the women that stood by her said unto her, Fear not, for thou hast born a son. But she answered not, neither did she regard it.

And she named the child Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel: because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father in law and her husband:

22 And she said, The glory^a is departed from^b Israel; for the ark of God is taken.

CHAPTER V.

AND the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from^d Eben-ezer unto Ashdod.

2 When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon,^f and set it by Dagon.

3 And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and setⁱ him in his place again.

4 And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; andⁱ the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold: only the stump^g of Dagon was left to him.

5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day.

6 But the hand^p of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod; and he destroyed them, and smote them with^q emerods, even Ashdod, and the coasts thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw that^{it} was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us; for his hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon our god.

8 They sent, therefore, and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither.

9 And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, the^u hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

10 Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron.^v And it came to pass, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to^{us} us, to slay us and our people.

11 So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to his own place, that it slay^w us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of God was very^x heavy there.

12 And the men that died not were smitten with the emerods: and the^y cry of the city went up to heaven.

CHAPTER VI.

AND the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months.

2 And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners,^c saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith^z we shall send it to his place.

3 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty;^a but in any wise return him a trespass offering;ⁱ then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why^k his

9 And see, if it goeth up by the way his own coast to Beth-shemesh,^r then^s he^s hath done us this great evil: but not, then^t we shall know that it is¹ his hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us.

And they sent messengers to the inants of Kirjath-jearim,^e saying, The stines have brought again the ark of LORD: come ye down, and fetch it o you.

CHAPTER VII.

D the men of Kirjath-jearim came, etched^f up the ark of the LORD, and ght it into the house of^g Abinadab, ac hill, and sanctified^h Eleazar his o keep the ark of the LORD.

And it came to pass, while the ark

; for it was twenty years: and all the e of Israel lamentedⁱ after the LORD.

And Samnel spake unto all the house rael, saying, If ye do return^m unto the o with all your hearts, then put^o away trange gods and Ashtaroth from among nd prepare^p your hearts unto the LORD, serve him^q only; and he^r will deliver

Then the children of Israel did put Baalim^s and Ashtaroth, and served

And Samnel said, Gather all Israel lizeph, and I will pray for you unto LORD.

And they gathered together to Mizand drew water, and poured^u it out re the LORD, and fasted on that day, said there, We^v have sinned against LORD. And Samuel judged the chilof Israel in Mizpeh.

And when the Philistines heard that children of Israel were gathered to-er to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philiswent up against Israel. And when children of Israel heard it, they were d of the Philistines.

And the children of Israel said to Sa-

And Samnel took a sucking lamb, and

And as Samuel was offering up the the Philistines, and discomfited^z

; and they were smitten before Israel.

And the men of Israel went out of Mizand pursued the Philistines, and smote
y, until they came under Beth-car.

Then Samuel took a stone,^b and set etween Mizpeh and Shen, and called name of it ^μEben-ezer, saying, Hi-to hath the LORD helped us.

So the Philistines were subdued, and came no more into the coast of Is-

Philistines all the days of Samnel.

Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath; and the coasts thereof did Israel deliver out of the hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

15 And Samuel jdged Israel all the days of his life.

16 And he went from year to year ^β in circuit to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places.

17 And his return was to Ramah;^c for there was his house: and there he jdged Israel; and there he built an altar unto the LORD.

CHAPTER VIII.

AND it came to pass, when Samuel was old, that he made his sons judges over Israel.

2 Now the name of his firstborn was ^γ Joel, and the name of his second, Abiah:
they were judges in Beer-sheba.

3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre,ⁱ and took bribes,^k and perverted judgment.

4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah,

5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways:
now make us a kingⁿ to judge us like all the nations.

6 But the thing ^δ displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge
us. And Samuel prayed unto the LORD.

7 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for^t they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods; so do they also unto thee.

9 Now, therefore, ^ς hearken unto their voice: ^η howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and shew^w them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

10 And Samuel told all the words of the LORD unto the people that asked of him a king.

11 And he said, This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you:
He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

12 And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties, and will set them to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

13 And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries, and to be cooks, and to be bakers.

14 And he will take your fields,^a and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his ^λ officers, and to his servants.

16 And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

17 He will take the tenth of your sheep:
and ye shall be his servants.

18 And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the LORD will not hear^a you in that day.

19 Nevertheless, the people refused^b to obey the voice of Samuel: and they said, Nay; but we will have a king over us;

20 That we also may be like^d all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.

21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of the LORD.

22 And the LORD said to Samuel, Harken^c unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go ye every man unto his city.

CHAPTER IX.

NOW there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish,ⁱ the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, ^δa Benjamite, a mighty man of power.

2 And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a choice young man, and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: from his shoulders and upward he was^l higher than any of the people.

3 And the asses of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses.

4 And he passed through mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha,^o but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalim, and there they were not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

5 And when they were come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come, and let us return; lest my father leave caring for the asses, and take thought for us.

6 And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city a^s man of God, and he is an honourable man; all^t that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.

7 Then said Saul to his servant, But, behold, if we go, what^v shall we bring the man? for the bread is[^] spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God: what^v have we?

8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, ^πI have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver; that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way.

9 (Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the seer: for he that is now called a Prophet was beforetime called a Seer.)

10 Then said Saul to his servant, ^ρWell said; come, let us go. So they went unto the city where the man of God was.

11 And as they went up ^σthe hill to the city, they found young maidens^z going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here?

12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city; for there is a ^φsacrifice^c of the people to day in^d the high place:

13 As soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, cause he doth bless^c the sacrifice; ^a afterwards they eat that be bidden. N therefore get you up; for about ^β time ye shall find him.

14 And they went up into the city and when they were come into the city behold, Samuel came out against the for to go up to the high place.

15 Now the LORD ^γhad told^e Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying,

16 To morrow, about this time, I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin; and thou shalt anoint^θ him to captain over my people Israel, that may save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked^h up my people, because their cry is come unto me.

17 And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said unto him, Behold the man whom I spake to thee of! this^k shall ^ηreign over my people.

18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me to day; and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell^m thee all that is in thine heart.

20 And as for thine assesⁿ that were lost ^θthree days ago, set not thy mind them; for they are found. And on what^p is all the desire^p of Israel? Is it not thee, and on all thy father's house?

21 And Saul answered and said, not I a Benjamite, of the smallest^q of the tribes of Israel? and my family^r the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin wherefore thou speakest thou ^κso to me?

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the park and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, which I said unto thee, Set it by thee.

24 And the cook took up the^s shewbread and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which is^u left! set it before thee, and eat: unto this time hath it been kept for thee, since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

25 And when they were come^w down from the high place into the city, Samuel communed with Saul upon the top of the house.

26 And they arose early: and it came to pass, about the spring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.

27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, the servant pass on before us, (and passed on,) but stand thou still ^τand witness that I may shew thee the word of God.

CHAPTER X.

THEN^a Samuel took a vial of oil, poured it upon his head, and^b kissed him, and said, Is it not because the LORD hath anointed thee to be captain^c of his inheritance?

2 When thou art departed from ay, then thou shalt find two men by hel's sepulchre,^a in the border of Benn, at Zelzah;^b and they will say unto The asses which thou wentest to seek found: and, lo, thy father hath left care of the asses, and sorroweth for saying, What shall I do for my son?

Then shalt thou go on forward from ce, and thou shalt come to the plain labor, and there shall meet thee three going up to God to Beth-el,^d one yng three kids, and another carry-three loaves of bread, and another yng a bottle of wine:
And they will ysalute thee, and give two loaves of bread, which thou t receive of their hands.
After that thou shalt come to the
of God, where is the garrison^f of Philistines: and it shall come to pass, n thou art come thither to the city, thou shalt meet a company of pros coming down from the high^h place, a psaltery,ⁱ and a tabret, and a pipe, a harp, before them; and they shall phesy.^k
And the Spirit^l of the LORD will come i thee, and thou shalt prophesy with a, and shalt be turned into another man.
And let it be, when these signs are e unto thee, n that thou do as occa-serve thee; for God is with thee.
And thou shalt go down before me to al;ⁿ and, behold, I will come down thee, to offer burnt offerings, and sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings:
n^p days shalt thou tarry, till I come
e, and shew thee what thou shalt do.
And it was so, that when he had ed his ^q back to go from Samuel, l gave him another heart: and all signs came to pass that day.
And when they came thither to the behold, a company of prophets met ; and the Spirit of God came^u upon and he prophesied among them.
And it came to pass, when all that w him beforetime saw that, behold, prophesied among the prophets, then people said ^u one to another, What is that is come unto the son of Kish?
Saul also among the prophets?
And one ^π of the same place an-red, and said, But who is their fa-? Therefore it became a proverb, Is also among the prophets?
And when he had made an end of phesying, he came to the high place.
And Saul's uncle said unto him and his servant, Whither went ye? And he s, To seek the asses: and when we saw they were no where, we came to Samuel.
And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I y thee, what Samuel said unto you.
And Saul said unto his uncle, He us plainly that the asses were found.
of the matter of the kingdom, where-amuel spake, he told him not.
And Samuel called the people to-er unto the LORD to Mizpeh;^b And said unto the children of Israel, is^d saith the LORD God of Israel, I ight up Israel out of Egypt, and dered you out of the hand of the Egyp-s, and out of the hand of all king-ts, and of them that oppressed you:
And ye have this day rejected your l, who himself saved^g you out of all r adversities and your tribulations:

and ye have said unto him, Nay, but set

20 And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken.
21 When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul, the son of Kish, was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found.
22 Therefore they inquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come thither. And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff.
23 And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the people, he^g was higher than any of the people, from his shoulders and upward.
24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him whom the LORD hath chosen.
that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, ^δ God save the king.
25 Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD.
And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.
26 And Saul also went home to Gibeah;^m and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched.
27 But the children^o of Belial said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him no presents.^z But he^θ held his peace.
CHAPTER XI.
THEN Nahash^r the Ammonite came up, and encamped against^s Jabesh-gilead:
and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nahash, Make^t a covenant with us, and we will serve thee.
2 And Nahash the Ammonite answered them, On this^v condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for a reproach^w upon all Israel.
3 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, ^ν Give us seven days' respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel: and then, if there be no man to save us, we will come out to thee.
4 Then came the messengers to^y Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voices, and wept.
5 And, behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field; and Saul said,
What aileth the people that they weep?
And they told him the tidings of the men of Jabesh.
6 And^z the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those tidings, and his anger was kindled greatly.
7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces,^a and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoever^c cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done unto his oxen. And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out with ^ρ one consent.
8 And when he numbered them in Bezek,^e the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.
9 And they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, To morrow, by that time the sun be hot, ye shall have ^β help. And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Jabesh; and^c they were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, To morrow we will come out^d unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you.

11 And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three^h compaunies; and they came into the midst of the host in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 And the people said unto Samuel, Who is he that said,ⁱ Shall Saul reign over us? bring^m the men, that we may put them to death.

13 And Saul said, There^o shall not a man be put to death this day: for to day the LORD hath wrought salvationⁿ in Israel.

14 Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal,^a and renew the kingdom there.

15 And all the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal: and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

CHAPTER XII.

AND Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto your voice in all that ye said^u unto me, and have made^v a king over you.

2 And now, behold, the king walketh before you: and I am old and gray-headed: and, behold, my sons are with you; and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.

3 Behold, here I am: witness against me before the LORD, and before his anointed: whose^y ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any bribe to ^γ blind^z mine eyes therewith? and I will restore^b it you.

4 And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken ought of any man's hand.

5 And he said unto them, The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that^e ye have not found ought in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

6 And Samuel said unto the people, It is the LORD that ^θ advanced Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

7 Now therefore stand still, that I may reasonⁱ with you before the LORD of all the ^λ righteous acts of the LORD, which he did ^μ to you and to your fathers.

8 When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried unto the LORD, then the LORD sent^m Moses and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they forgot the LORD their God, he sold them into the hand of Sisera,ⁿ captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the^o Philistines, and into the hand of the king of^q Moab; and they fought against them.

12 And when ye saw that^f Nah the king of the children of Ammon, ^g came against you, ye said unto me, Nay; a king shall reign over us: when LORD your God was your king.

CHAPTER XIII.

SAUL ^π reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel,

2 Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel; whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in mount Beth-el: and a thousand were with Jonathan Gibeath^v of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote the garrison

Philistines that was in β Geba; and Philistines heard of it. And Saul the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear. And all Israel heard say, that Saul smitten a garrison of the Philistines, that Israel also γ was had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people called together after Saul to Gilgal. And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand men, and people as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude: and δ came up and pitched in Michmash, ward from Beth-aven.^b When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait,^c (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves^e in caves, and in thickets, and rocks, and in high places, and in pits. And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. For Saul, he was yet in Gilgal; and all people κ followed him trembling. And he tarried seven days, according to the set time^f that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; the people were scattered from him. And Saul said, Bring hither a burnt offering to me, and peace offerings. And offered the burnt offering. And it came to pass, that, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him. And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and thou earnest not within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselves together at Michmash; therefore said I, The Philistines come down now upon me to Gilgal, I have not ν made supplication unto the LORD: I forced myself, therefore, and offered a burnt offering. And Samuel said to Saul,^m Thou hast done foolishly: thou^o hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for now hath the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever. But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the LORD hath sought him a π man after his own heart, and the LORD hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD commanded thee. And Samuel arose, and gat him up from Gilgal unto Gibeah of Benjamin. And he numbered the people that were present with him, about ρ six hundred men. And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people that were present with them, were in σ Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Michmash. And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to Ophrah,^v unto the land of Judah; and another company turned the way to Beth-horon:^w and another company turned to the way of the border that looketh to the valley of Zeboim, and the wilderness. throughout all the land of Israel; (for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears;)

20 But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coultter, and his axe, and his mattock.

21 Yot they had a δ file for the mattocks, and for the coultters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to ζ sharpen the goads.

22 So^a it came to pass, in the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul, and with Jonathan his son, was there found.

23 And the η garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage of^d Michmash.

CHAPTER XIV.

NOW^e it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison that is on the other side. But he told not his father.

2 And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree which is in Migron: and the people that were with him were about^g six hundred men;

3 And Ahiah^h the son of Ahitub, I-chabod'sⁱ brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD's priest in Shiloh, wearing an ephod.^k And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4 And between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison,^l there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

5 The μ forefront of the one was situate northward over against Michmash, and the other southward over against Gibeah.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for there is no restraint to the LORD toⁿ save by many or by few.

7 And his armourbearer said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over^p unto these men, and we will discover ourselves unto them.

9 If they say thus unto us, π Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them.

10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up; for the LORD hath delivered them into our hand; and this shall be a sign^r unto us.

11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the^t holes where they had hid themselves.

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come^u up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me; for^w the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and^z they fell before Jonathan; and his armourbearer slew after him.

14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were β an half acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow.

15 And there was trembling^a in the host, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison, and the spoilers,^c they also trembled; and the earth quaked: so it was a δ very great trembling.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and ^d they went on beating down one another.

17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Ahiah, ζ Bring hither the ark of God: (for the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.)

19 And it came to pass, while Saul talked^g unto the priest, that the θ noise that was in the host of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Saul and all the people that were with him κ assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and, behold, every man's ^h sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreover, the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the country round about, even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise all the men of Israel which had hid^m themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

23 Soⁿ the LORD saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over^o unto Beth-aven.

24 And the men of Israel were distressed that day: for Saul had^q adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food until evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted any food.

25 And all they of the land came to a wood, and there was honey^r upon the ground.

26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in an honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and ^w his eyes were enlightened.

28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food this day. And the people were π faint.

29 Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to Ajalon: and the people were very faint.

32 And the people flew upon the spoil and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat them with the blood.

33 Then they told Saul, saying, Behold the people sin^b against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have γ transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day.

34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox ζ with him that night, and slew them there.

35 And Saule built an altar unto the LORD: η the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.

36 And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, Let us draw near hither unto God.

37 And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But he answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, Draw^k ye near hither all the λ chief of the people; and know ar see wherein this sin hath been this day:

39 For, as^l the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, I shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, μ Give a perfect lot.^p And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people ν escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I ^t did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and, lo, I must die.

44 And Saul answered, God κ do so and more also: for^v thou shalt surely die, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: as the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God^y this day. So^z the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon,^a and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah,^b and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed them.

48 And he ρ gathered an host, and smote the Amalekites,^c and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

9 Now the sons^a of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melehi-shua: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal:
10 And the name of Saul's wife was Michal, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of the captain of his host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle:
11 And Kish^c was the father of Saul; and the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.
12 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when David saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he^d took him unto him.

CHAPTER XV.

SAMUEL also said unto Saul,^e The LORD sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the LORDS of the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, ^gfor he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt.

Now go and smite Amalek, andⁱ utterly destroy all^j that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.

And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and he laid wait in the valley.

And Saul said unto the^o Kenites,^p Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with me: for ye shewed kindness^r to all the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

And Saul smote the Amalekites from Havilah^t until thou comest to Shur,^u that is over against Egypt.

And^v he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly^w destroyed the people with the edge of the sword.

But Saul and the people spared^y Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the^z fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

Then came the word of the LORD to Samuel, saying,

1 It^b repenteth me that I have set up David to be king: for he is turned^c back from following me, and^d hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the LORD all night.

2 And when Samuel rose early to meet David in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel,^e and, behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, passed on, and gone down to Gilgal.

3 And Samuel came to Saul: and he said unto him, Blessed^f be thou of the LORD: I have^g performed the commandment of the LORD.

4 And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

5 And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: forⁱ the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

6 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17 And Samuel said, When thou wast little^b in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king over Israel?

18 And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go, and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they^γ be consumed.

19 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the LORD?

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But^f the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, Hath^h the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is^k better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the sin of^δ witchcraft,ⁱ and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.^m Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, heⁿ hath also rejected thee from being king.

24 And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because I feared^q the people, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD.

26 And Samuel said unto Saul, I^s will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, he^x laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him, The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.

29 And also the^θ Strength of Israel will not lie^z nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent.

30 Then he said, I have sinned: yet honour^a me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God.

31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

32 Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites: and Agag came unto him delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past.

33 And Samuel said, As thy^γ sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

34 Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house, to Gibeah of Saul.

35 And Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death; nevertheless Samuel mourned^k for Saul: and the LORD repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

CHAPTER XVI.

AND the LORD said unto Samuel,^e How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing^d I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill thine horn with oil,^e and go; I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite: for^f I have provided me a king among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take an heifer^β with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice^h to the LORD.

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and thou shalt anoint unto me himⁱ whom I name unto thee.

4 And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Beth-lehem: and the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, Comest thou peaceably?^k

5 And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD; sanctify^l yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on Eliab,^o and said, Surely the LORD's anointed is before him.

7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not^p on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for^q the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance,^r but the LORD looketh on the heart.^s

8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

10 Again, Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these.

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he^u keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, Send and fetch him: for we will not sit^v down till he come hither.

12 And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy,^v and withal^v of a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to. And the LORD said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he.

13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the Spirit^w of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.

14 But the Spirit of the LORD departed^x from Saul, and an evil^a spirit from the LORD^π troubled him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants, which are before thee, to seek out a man who is a cunning player on an harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall play^d with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of the servants, and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty valiant^e man, and a man of war,^g and prudent^h in matters, and a 19 Wherefore Saul sent messenger unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and stood before^v him: and he loved him greatly and he became his armourbearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Le David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favour in my sight.

23 And it came to pass, when the evil spirit^j from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

CHAPTER XVII.

NOW the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shochoh,^m whichⁿ belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Shochoh and Azekah, in^o Ephes-dammim.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched by the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

4 And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

5 And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he was^θ armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass.

6 And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a^λ target of brass between his shoulders.

7 And the staff^t of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

8 And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? Am not I a Philistine, and ye servants^w to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.

10 And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day: give me a man, that we may fight together.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 Now David was the son^b of the Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight^c sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the first born; and next unto him, Abinadab and the third, Shammah.

14 And David was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Saul.

15 But David went and returned from Saul to feed^f his father's sheep at Beth-lehem.

16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself

y days.
And Jesse said unto David his son, e now for thy brethren an ephah of parched corn, and these ten loaves, run to the camp to thy brethren;
And carry these ten ^bcheeses unto the tain of ^γtheir thousand, and look ^a how brethren fare, and take their pledge.
Now Saul, and they, and all the of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, ting with the Philistines.
And David rose up early in the ning, and left the sheep with a keeper, took; and went, as Jesse had com-ended him; and he came to the ^ςtrench, he host was going forth to the ^ηfight,
shouted for the battle.
For Israel and the Philistines had put battle in array, army against army.
And David left ^θhis carriage in the d of the keeper of the carriage, and into the army, and came and ^κsaluted brethren.
And as he talked with them, behold, re came up the champion (the Philistine ath, Goliath by name) out of the armies he Philistines, and spake according to same words: ^d and David heard them.
And all the men of Israel, when they the man, fled from ^νhim, and were e afraid.
And the men of Isrnel said, Have ye a this man that is come up? surely to y Israel is he come up: and it shall that the man who killeth him, the king l enrich him with great riches, and l give him his daughter,^g and make father's house free in Israel.
And David spake to the men that ed by him, saying, What shall be done the man that killeth this Philistine, and eth away the reproach from Israel? for o is this uncircumcised ^kPhilistine, that should defy the armies of the living ^lGod?
And the people answered him after s manner, saying, So shall it be done
the man that killeth him.
And Eliab, his eldest brother, heard en he spake unto the men: and Eliab's er^o was kindled against David, and said, Why camest thou down hither?
l with whom hast thou left those few ep in the wilderness? I know thy de, and the naughtiness of thine heart; thou art come down that thou might-see the battle.
And David said,^s What have I now
e? Is there not a cause?
And he turned from him toward ther, and spake after the same ^ρman-er: and the people answered him again er the former manner.
And when the words were heard ich David spake, they rehearsed them ere Saul; and he ^σsent for him.
And David said to Saul, Let no man's rt fail^ν because of him: thy servant go and fight with this Philistine.
And Saul said to David, Thou art able to go against this Philistine to at with him: for thou art but a youth, he a man of war from his youth.
And David said unto Saul, Thy ser-ant kept his father's sheep, and there e a lion, and a bear, and took a ^τlamb of the flock;
And I went ent after him, and smote
a, and delivered it out of his mouth:

Go, and the LORD^c be with thee.
38 And Saul ^δarmed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.
39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him.
40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the ^λbrook, and put them in a shepherd's bag ^μwhich he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine.
41 And the Philistine came on, and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him.
42 And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he^e disdained him; for he was but a youth, and ^fruddy, and of a fair countenance.
43 And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog,^h that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.
44 And the Philistine saidⁱ to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.
45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but ^mI come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied.ⁿ
46 This day will the LORD ^πdeliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take^p thine head from thee; and I will give the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls^q of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know^r that there is a God in Israel.
47 And all this assembly shall^t know that the LORD saveth not with sword and spear: for ^uthe battle is the LORD's, and he will give you into our hands.
48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hastened, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.
49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell^w upon his face to the earth.
50 So David prevailed over the Philis-tine with a sling^x and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.
51 Therefore David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword,^y and drew it out of the sheath thereof, and slew him, and cut off^z his head therewith.

And when the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled.^a 52 And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou come to the^b valley, and to the gates of Ekron: and the wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even unto Gath, and unto Ekron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they spoiled^c their tents.

54 And David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem: but he put his armour in his tent.

55 And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said unto Abner, the captain of the host, Abner,^e whose son is this youth? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I cannot tell.

56 And the king said, Inquire thou whose son the stripling is.

57 And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head^k of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, thou young man? And David answered,^l I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.

CHAPTER XVIII.

AND it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that the soul^o of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David; and Jonathan^a loved him as his own^r soul.

2 And Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped himself^t of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle.

5 And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and^e behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war; and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.

6 And it came to pass, as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that^z the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tabrets, with joy, and with instruments^θ of music.

7 And the women answered one another as they played, and said, Saul hath^z slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very wroth,^a and the saying^λ displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands; and what can he have more but the kingdom?^d

9 And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

10 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the evil spirit^e from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied^f in the midst of the house: and David played with his hand, as at other times: and there was a javelin^h in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul east the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And David avoidedⁱ out of his presence twice.

12 And Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over thousand: and he went out and came before the people.

14 And David^β behaved himself wise in all his ways; and the LORD was with him.

15 Wherefore, when Saul saw that David behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went^d out and came in before them.

17 And Saul said to David, Behold now elder daughter Merab,^f her will I give thee to wife; only be thou^γ valiant for me, and fight^θ the LORD's battles. For Saul said, Let not mine hand be upon him, but^k the hand of the Philistines be upon him.

18 And David said unto Saul,ⁱ What am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king?

19 But it came to pass, at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given unto Adriel^m the Meholahiteⁿ to wife.

20 And Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David: and they told Saul, and the third pleased him.

21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a^p snare to him, and that the hand^s of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son in law in the one of the twain.

22 And Saul commanded his servants saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore, be the king's son in law.

23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, Seemeth it to you a light^u thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am poor man, and lightly^v esteemed?

24 And the servants of Saul told him saying, On this manner spake David.

25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any^w dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged^y of the king's enemies. But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son in law; and the days were not^κ expired.

27 Wherefore David arose and went, he and his men,^b and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins,^c and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

28 And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal Saul's daughter, loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy^σ continually.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines wentⁱ forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that David behaved himself more^k wisely than all the servants of Saul: so that his name was much^μ set by.

CHAPTER XIX.

AND Saul spake to Jonathan his son, to all his servants, that they should David.

But Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill me. Now, therefore, I pray thee, take me to thyself until the morning, and hide me in a secret place, and hide thyself: And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; what I see, that I will tell thee.

And Jonathan spake good of David to Saul his father, and said unto him, not the king sin^e against his servant, Jonathan David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good.

For he did put his life in his hand, and slew the Philistine, and the LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice; wherefore then wilt thou sin against innocent David, to slay David without a cause?

And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, As the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain.

And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things: and Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as in times past.

And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him.

And the evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house: and David was in his javelin in his hand: and David was armed with his hand.

And Saul sought to smite David with the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night.

Saul also sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to night, to morrow thou shalt be slain.

So Michal let David down through the window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

And Michal took an image, and hid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster, and covered it with a cloth.

And when Saul sent messengers to David, she said, He is sick.

And Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

And when the messengers were come to David, there was an image in the bed, and a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster.

And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away my enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; why should I kill thee?

So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him: and he dwelt in Ramah.

And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.

And Saul sent messengers to take

David: and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.

21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also.

22 Then went he also to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Sechu: and he asked, and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at Naioth in Ramah.

23 And he went thither to Naioth in Ramah: and the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24 And he stripped off his clothes also, and prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and lay down naked all that day, and all that night. Wherefore they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

CHAPTER XX.

AND David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life?

2 And he said unto him, God forbid: thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing, either great or small, but that he will shew it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so.

3 And David sware moreover, and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved; but truly, as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death.

4 Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soul desireth, I will even do it for thee.

5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to morrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat; but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at even.

6 If thy father at all miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me, that he might run to Beth-lehem his city; for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.

7 If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant; for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldst thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee?

10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly?

11 And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, O LORD God of Israel, when I have sounded my father about to morrow any time, or the third day, and, behold, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and shew it thee;

13 The LORD do so, and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and the LORD^d be with thee, as he hath been^e with my father.

14 And thou shalt not only while yet I live, shew me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not;

15 But also^f thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever; no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth.

16 So Jonathan^g made a covenant with the house of David, saying, Let the LORD even require it^h at the hand of David's enemies.

17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, ⁱ because he loved him: for he^k loved him as he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said to David, To morrow is the new moon; and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be empty.

19 And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down^j quickly, and come to the place^k where thou didst hide thyself^l when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone^m Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And, behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come thon: for there is peace to thee, and no hurt; asⁿ the LORD liveth.

22 But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee; go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away.

23 And as touching the matter^o which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD be between thee and me for ever.

24 So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless, Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he is not^p clean; surely he is not clean.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty; and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to day?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul,^q David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem:

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother he hath commanded me to be there; and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren; therefore he cometh not unto the king's table.

30 Then Saul's anger^r was kindled against Jonathan; and he said unto him, Thou son of ϕ the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?

31 Forasmuch as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. Wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he ψ shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherefore^a shall he be slain? what hath he done?

33 And Saul cast^b a javelin at him to smite him; whereby^c Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 And it came to pass in the morning that Jonathan went out into the field, the time appointed with David, and little lad with him.

36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And, as the lad ran, he shot an arrow^d beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond^e thee?

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

39 But the lad knew not any thing: on Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 And Jonathan gave his^f artillery unto^g his lad, and said unto him, Go carry them to the city.

41 And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground and bowed himself three times; and the king kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded.

42 And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever. And he arose, & departed; & Jonathan went into the city.

CHAPTER XXI.

THEN came David to Nob, to Ahimelech^h the priest: and Ahimelech wasⁱ afraid at the meeting of David, and said unto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

2 And David said^j unto Ahimelech the priest, The king hath commanded me business, and hath said unto me, Let no man know any thing of the business whereabout I send thee, and what I have commanded thee: and I have appointed my servants to such and such a place.

3 Now, therefore, what is under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is^k present.

4 And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is hallowed^l bread, if^m the young men have kept themselves at least from women.

5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth, women have been kept from us about these three days since I came out, and the vesselsⁿ of the young men are holy, and the bread is in such manner common, ^o yea, though it were sanctified this day in the vessel.

6 So the priest gave^p him hallowed bread, for there was no bread there but the showbread that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg,^q an Edomite, the chiefest of the herdmen that belonged to Saul.

And David said unto Ahimelech, ¹ Is there not here under thine hand sword or sword? for I have neither brought sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste.

And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is ² here wrapped up in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it; for there is nothing else save that here. And David said, ³ There is none like that; give it me.

And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish king of Gath.

And the servants of Achish said unto David, ⁴ Is not this David the king of the Philistines, who sing one to another of his valiant deeds, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

And David laid up ⁵ these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish king of Gath.

And he changed ⁶ his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and ⁷ scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

Then said Achish unto his servants, ⁸ Ye see the man is mad; wherefore have ye brought him to me?

Have I need of mad men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

CHAPTER XXII.

DAVID therefore departed thence, and came to the cave of Adullam: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down thither to him.

And every one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men.

And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, and my brethren, come forth, and be with you, that I may know what God will do for me.

And he brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold.

And the prophet Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold; depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

When Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, (now he abode in Gibeah under a tree in Ramoth, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him;)

Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and will he make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds;

That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that sheweth me truth, as my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

Then answered Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

10 And he inquired of the LORD for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king.

12 And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ahitub. And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

13 And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?

15 Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? be it far from me. Let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more.

16 And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's house.

17 And the king said unto the footmen that stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not shew it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.

18 And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew on that day fourscore and five persons that did wear a linen ephod.

19 And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

20 And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David.

21 And Abiathar shewed David that Saul had slain the LORD's priests.

22 And David said unto Abiathar, I knew it that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy father's house.

23 Abide thou with me, fear not; for he that seeketh my life seeketh thy life: but with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

CHAPTER XXIII.

THEN they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and they rob the threshingfloors.

2 Therefore David inquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the LORD said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

3 And David's men said unto him, Behold, we be afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?

4 Then David inquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

5 So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 And it came to pass, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech^b fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an ephod in his hand.

7 And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah. And Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand: for he^c is shut in, by entering into a tow that hath gates and bars.

8 And Saul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

9 And David knew that Saul^f secretly practised mischief against him; and^g he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring hither the ephod.

10 Then said David, O LORD God of Israel, thy servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city forⁱ my sake.

11 Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O LORD God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And the LORD said, He will come down.

12 Then said David, Will the men of Keilahⁿ deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the LORD said, They will deliver thee up.

13 Then David and his men,^m which were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he forbore to go forth.

14 And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain^r in the wilderness of Ziph:^s and Saul sought him every day; but^t God delivered him not into his hand.

15 And David saw that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood.

16 And Jonathan, Saul's son, arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened^v his hand in God.^w

17 And he said unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not^y find thee: and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and that also Saul^a my father knoweth.

18 And they two^c made a covenant before the LORD. And David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

19 Then came^d up the Ziphites to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on^e the south of^f Jeshimon?

20 Now therefore, O king, come down, according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and^g our part shall be to deliver him into the king's hand.

21 And Saul said, Blessed^h be ye of the LORD; for ye have compassed me.

22 Go, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where hisⁱ haunt is, and who hath seen him there; for it is told me that he dealth very subtilly.

23 See therefore, and take^j knowledge of all the lurking places where he hideth himself, and come ye again to me with the certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search^k him out throughout all the thousands^m of Judah.

24 And they arose, and went to Ziph, before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon,^a in the plain on the south of Jeshimon.

25 Saul also and his men went to seek him. And they told David: wherefore he came down^b into a rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon.

26 And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste^d to get away for fear of Saul for Saul and his men compassed^e David and his men round about to take them.

27 But^h there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Haste thee, and come; for the Philistines haveⁱ invaded the land.

28 Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place^h Sela-hammahlekoth.

29 And David went up from thence and dwelt in strong holds at En-gedi.^j

CHAPTER XXIV.

AND it came to pass, when Saul was returned^k from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold David is in the wilderness of En-gedi.

2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to^l seek David and his men upon the rocksⁿ of the wild goats.

3 And he came to the sheepteotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to cover^o his feet: and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave.^p

4 And the men of David said unto him, Behold^q the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of^r Saul's robe privily.

5 And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart^s smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.

6 And he said unto his men, The^t LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the LORD's anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed^u of the LORD.

7 So David^v stayed^b his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way.

8 David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king! And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself.

9 And David said to Saul, Wherefore hearest^e thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?

10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to day into mine hand in the cave: and some^h bade me kill thee; but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord: for he is the LORD's anointed.

11 Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither evil^k nor transgression in mine hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet thou huntestⁿ my soul to take it.

2 The LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee: mine hand shall not be upon thee.
3 As saith the proverb of the ancients, wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: mine hand shall not be upon thee.
4 After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? or a dead dog, after a flea.
5 The LORD therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and see, ^c I plead ^d my cause, and ^e deliver ^e me of thine hand.
6 And it came to pass, when David made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, Is this thy ee, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice, and wept.
7 And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast rewarded good, ^f whereas I have rewarded thee evil.
8 And thou hast shewed this day how thou hast dealt well with me: for as much as when the LORD had ^g delivered me into thine hand, thou killedst me not.
9 For if a man find his enemy, will let him go well away? wherefore the LORD reward ⁱ thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day.
10 And now, behold, I know ^l well that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand.
11 I swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, that thou wilt not cut off my seed from me, and that ⁿ thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house.
12 And David sware unto Saul. And David went home: but David and his men gat them up unto the hold.^p

CHAPTER XXV.

1 And Samuel died: and ^q all the Israelites were gathered together, and lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramath. And David arose, and went down into the wilderness of Paran.^s
2 And there was a man in Maon, ^t whose possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.
3 Now the name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail; and she was a woman of ^u good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man was churlish, ^v and evil in his doings; and he was of the house of Caleb.
4 And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did ^z shear his sheep.
5 And David sent out ten young men; and David said unto the young men, Stand ye up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name:
6 And thus shall ye say to him that he hath in prosperity, Peace ^a be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.
7 And now I have heard that thou hast shepherds: now thy shepherds which were with us, we ^b hurt them not, neither were they ought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.
8 Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. Wherefore let the young men deal favour in thine eyes; for we come in this good day: ^c give, ^d I pray thee, whatever cometh to thine ^e hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

9 And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ^β ceased.

10 And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, Who ^a is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days that break away every man from his master.

11 Shall ^b I then take my bread, and my water, and my ^γ flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be?

12 So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings.

13 And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword, and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode ^δ by the stuff.

14 But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he ^η railed on them.

15 But the men were very good unto us, and we ^θ were ^θ not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields:

16 They were a wall ^k unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a son of Belial,^m that a man cannot speak to him.

18 Then Abigail made haste, and ^o took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred ^κ clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses.

19 And she said unto her servants, ^r Go on before me: behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal.

20 And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them.

21 Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath requited me evil ^v for good.

22 So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light any that pisseth against the wall.

23 And when Abigail saw David, she hastened, and lighted ^y off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground.

24 And fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be; and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine ^ν audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, ^π regard this man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; ^σ Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send.

26 Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath withholden ^c thee from coming to shed blood, and from ^τ avenging thyself ^c with thine own hand, now let thine^a enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal.

27 And now this ^γ blessing^b which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that ^δ follow my lord.

28 I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handmaid: for the^d LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house; because my lord fighteth^f the battles of the LORD, and evil hath not^h been found in thee all thy days.

29 Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul: but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundleⁱ of life with the LORD thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.^k

30 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel,

31 That this shall be ^θ no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember^m thine handmaid.

32 And David said to Abigail,ⁿ Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me:

33 And blessed be thy advice,^p and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand.

34 For in very deed, as the LORD God of Israel liveth, which hath kept^q me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hastened, and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal, by the morning light, any that pisseth against the wall.

35 So David received of her haid that which she had brought him, and said unto her, Go^r up in peace to thine house: see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.

36 And Abigail came to Nabal; and, behold, he held a feast^t in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry^u within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

37 But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart^b died within him, and he became as a stone.

38 And it came to pass, about ten days after, that the LORD smote^c Nabal that he died.

39 And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed^d be the LORD, that hath pleaded^e the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept^g his servant from evil: for the LORD hath returned^h the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife.

40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee to take thee to him to wife.

41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, letⁱ thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.

42 And Abigail hastened, and arose, and rode

CHAPTER XXVI.

AND ^α the Ziphites came unto Saul Gibeah, saying, Doth not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon?

2 Then Saul arose, and went down into the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon, by way: but David abode in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in very deep.

5 And David arose, and came to place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, Abner^l the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the people pitched round about him.

6 Then answered David, and said to his men, melech the Hittite, and to Abishai^o the son of Zeruiah, brother to Joab, saying, Who go down with me to Saul to the camp?

Abishai said, I will go down with thee.

7 So David and Abishai came to the place by night: and, behold, Saul sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster: but the people lay round about him.

8 Then said Abishai to David, God deliver thee from the hand of the enemy: for he hath delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now, therefore, let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear, even to the earth at once, and I will not see him the second time.

9 And David said to Abishai, Desist, him not: for^s who can stretch forth his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?

10 David said furthermore, As the LORD liveth, the LORD^x shall smite him: his day^y shall come to die; or he shall descend into battle, and perish.^z

11 The LORD forbid^a that I should stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed: but, I pray thee, thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go.

12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; they gat them away, and no man saw, nor knew it, neither awaked; for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep was upon them, because the LORD had smitten them.

13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill off; a great space being between them:

14 And David cried to the people, and Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answer thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered, said, Who art thou that criest to the king?

15 And David said to Abner, Art thou not a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not slain thy lord the king? for there came on thee the people in to destroy the king thy lord.

16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. As the LORD liveth, ye are now die, because ye have not kept your ster, the LORD's anointed. And now where the king's spear is, and the se of water that was at his bolster.

7 And Saul knew David's voice, and d, Is^e this thy voice, my son David?
d David said, It is my voice, my lord, king.

8 And he said, Wherefore doth my lord is pursue after his servant? for what e I done? or what evil is in mine hand?
9 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my d the king hear the words of his ser-it. If the LORD have stirred^f thee up inst me, let ^ghim accept^h an offering:
if they be the children of men, cursed they before the LORD; for they^k have ven me out this day from ^labiding in inheritanceⁱ of the LORD, saying, Go, ve other gods.

10 Now, therefore, let not my blood fall
the earth before the face of the LORD:
the king of Israel is come out to seek ea, as when one doth hunt a partridge he moutains.

11 Then said Saul, I^m have sinned: return, sou David; for I will no more do thee m, because my soul was preciousⁿ in ne eyes this day: behold, I have play-the fool, and have erred exceedingly.

12 And David answered and said, Bed the king's spear! and let one of the ing men come over and fetch it.

13 The LORD^o render to every man his ateousness and his faithfulness: for LORD delivered thee into my hand to
; but I would not stretch forth mine id against the LORD's anointed.

14 And, behold, as thy life was much set this day in mine eyes, so let my life be eh set by in the eyes of the LORD, and him deliver^r me out of all tribulation.

15 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be u, my son David: thou shalt both do at things, and also shalt still^t prevail.
David went on his way, and Saul re-ned to his place.

CHAPTER XXVII.

ND David said in his heart, I shall v ^uperish^w one day by the hand of d: there is nothing better for me than t I should speedily escape into the land the Philistines; and Saul shall despair me, to seek me any more in any coast
Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand.
And David arose, and he passed over h the six hundred men^b that were h him unto Achish,^c the son of Maach, g of Gath.

And David dwelt with Achish at th, he and his men, every man with household, even David with his two yes,^d Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and igail the Carmelitess, Nabal's wife.

And it was told Saul that David was l to Gath: and he sought no more in for him.

And David said unto Achish, If I ve now found graco in thine eyes, let m give me a place^f in some town in country, that I may dwell there: for y should thy servant dwell in the ul city with thee?

Then Achish gave him Ziklag^g that : wherefore Ziklag pertaineth unto kings of Judah unto this day.

And the ^htime that David dwelt in country of the Philistines was ^{la}a year and four months.

8 And David and his men went up and invaded the Geshurites,^a and the^β Gézrites,^b and the Amalekites:^c for those nations were of old the inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to Shur,^d even unto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote tho land, and left neither man nor woman alive; and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, ^γWhither have ye made a road to day? And David said, Against the south of Judah, and against the south of the Jerahmeelites,^g and against the south of the Kenites.ⁱ

11 And David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did David, and so will be his manner all the while he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines.

12 And Achish believed David, saying,
He hath made his people Israel ⁿnterly to abhor him; therefore he shall be my servant for ever.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

AND it came to pass in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel.
And Achish said unto David, Know thou assuredly, that thou shalt go out with me to battle, thou and thy men.

2 And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever.

3 Now Samuel^u was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away those^v that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.

4 And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shunem:^s and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa.^u

5 And when Saul saw the host of tho Philistines, he was afraid,^v and his heart greatly trembled.

6 And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not,^z neither by dreams,^y nor by Urim,^z nor by prophets.

7 Then said Saul nnto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that^a I may go to her, and inquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at Eu-dor.

8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up whom I shall name unto thee.

9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off^e those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of tho land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?

10 And Saul sware to her by the LORD, saying, As tho LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw ^c gods ascending out of the earth.

14 And he said unto her, What ^β form is he of? And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle.^c And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself.

15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore^r distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departedⁱ from me,^j and answereth me no more, neither by ^γ prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeingⁱ the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?ⁿ

17 And the LORD hath done ^δ to him, as he spake^o by ^ς me: for the LORD hath rent the kingdom out of thine hand, and given it to thy neighbour, even to David:

18 Because^p thou obeyedst not the voice of the LORD, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore^q hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day.

19 Moreover, the LORD will also^r deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

20 Then Saul ^λ fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid,ⁿ because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

21 And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put^v my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words which thou spakest unto me:

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength when thou goest on thy way.

23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him, and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.

24 And the woman had a fat calf in the house, and she hasted, and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof:

25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

CHAPTER XXIX.

NOW^z the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek:^a and the Israelites pitched by a fountain which is in Jezreel.

2 And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the rereward with Achish.

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me these days,^a or these years, I have found no fault^b in him since fell unto me unto this day?

4 And the princes of the Philistines wroth with him; and^d the princes of Philistines said unto him, Make this low return, that he may go again to place which thou hast appointed him, let him not go down with us to battle in the battle^f he be an adversary us: for wherewith should he reckon himself unto his master? should it not with the heads of these men?

5 Is not this David, of whom they^h slew one to another in dances, saying, ^h slew his thousands, and David his thousands?

6 Then Achish called David, and ^g unto him, Surely, as the LORD liveth thou hast been upright, and^k thy go out and thy coming in with me in host is good in my sight; for^m I have found evil in thee since the day of coming unto me unto this day: nevertheless, ^η the lords favour thee not.

7 Wherefore now return, and get peace, that thou ^θ displease not the lords of the Philistines.

8 And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant, so long as I have been ^κ w^κ thee unto this day, that I may not go against the enemies of my lord the king?

9 And Achish answered and said unto David, I know that thou art good in sight, as^ς an angel of God: notwithstanding, the princes of the Philistines have^λ s^λ He shall not go up with us to the battle.

10 Wherefore now rise up early in morning, with thy master's servants: they are come with thee: and as soon as ye be early in the morning, and have light, depart.

11 So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines: and the Philistines went^ν up to Jezreel.

CHAPTER XXX.

AND it came to pass, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the south, and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burned it with fire;

2 And had taken the women captives that were therein: they slew not^z a either great or small, but carried them away, and went on their way.

3 So David and his men came to eity, and, behold, it was burned with fire, and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captives.

4 Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And David's two wives^ν were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, a Abigail, the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was greatly distressed^z because the people spake of stoning him because the soul of all the people was grieved, ^μ every man for his sons and his daughters: but^c David encouraged himself in the LORD his God.

7 And David said to Abiathar the priest Ahimelech's son, I pray thee, bring^d ¹ hither the ephod. And Abiathar brought hither the ephod to David.

8 And David inquired at the LORD, ^ς ing, Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them? And he answered him issue: for thou shalt surely overtake me, and without fail recover all.

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those that were behind stayed.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred^a abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the brook Besor.

11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water;

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of raisins, and two clusters of raisins; and when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him, for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights.

13 And David said unto him, To whom longest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekito; and my master left me, because three days ago I fell sick.

14 We made an invasion upon the south of the Cherethites,¹ and upon the coast which longeth to Judah, and upon the south of Jeb;² and we burned Ziklag with fire.

15 And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this company? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this company.

16 And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating^r and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

17 And David smote them from the light even unto the evening of the next day; and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon camels, and fled.

18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away; and David rescued his two wives.

19 And^v there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all.^w

20 And David took all the flocks and herds, which they drove before those of their cattle, and said, This is David's spoil.

21 And David came to the two hundred^x men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: and when David came near to the people, he saluted them.

22 They answered all the wicked men, the men of Belial,^y of those that went to David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save every man his wife and his children, lest they may lead them away, and depart.

23 Then said David, Ye shall not do so, brethren, with that which the Lord hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us into our hand.

24 For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but^z as his part is that goeth on to the battle, so shall his part be that

CHAPTER XXXI.

NOW^m the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down δ slain in mount Gilboa.^o

2 And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Melehi-shua, Saul's sons.^p

3 And the battle^q went sore against Saul, and the ε archers^r hit him; and he was sore wounded of the archers.

4 Then^s said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised^t come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid: therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul died,^u and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all his men, that same day together.

7 And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they that were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish it in the house of their idols, and among the people.

10 And^z they put his armour in the house of Ashtaroθ;^a and they fastened his body^b to the wall of Beth-shan.

11 And when the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead^c heard^v of that which the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 All the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and burnt^d them there.

13 And they took their bones, and buried^f them under a tree at Jabesh, and fasted^g seven days.

CHAPTER I.

NOW it came to pass, after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter^b of the Amalekites, and David had abode two days in Ziklag;

2 It came even to pass on the third day, that, behold, a man^f came out of the camp from Saul, with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did obeisance.

3 And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

4 And David said unto him, ^γHow went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battle, and many of the people also are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also.

5 And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son be dead?

6 And the young man that told him said, As I happened by chance upou mount Gilboa, behold, Saul^o leaned upon his spear: and, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked behiud him, he saw me, and called unto me: and I answered, ^ζHere am I.

8 And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

9 He said unto me again, Staud, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me; for ^ηanguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent^α them: and likewise all the men that were with him.

12 And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

13 And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.

14 And David said unto him, ^αHow wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thine hand to destroy the LORD's anointed?

15 And David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died.

16 And David said unto him, Thy blood^α be upon thy head: for thy mouth hath testified^b against thee, saying, I have slain the LORD's anointed.

17 And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son:

18 (Also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the bow: behold it is written in the book^α of ^β Jasher:)

19 The beauty^ε of Israel is slain upon thy high places: how are the mighty^δ fallen!

20 Tell^ε it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askelon; lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,^δ lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

21 Ye mountains of Gilboa, let^h there be no dew, neither let there be rain upon you, nor fields of offerings:ⁱ for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been anointed^k with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan turned not^l back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and ^δpleasant in their lives, and in their^m death they were not divided: they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger thanⁿ lions.

24 Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet, with other delights; who put on ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

25 How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thine high places.

26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: thy love^ρ to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

27 How^α are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

CHAPTER II.

AND it came to pass after this, that David inquired^r of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up? And he said, Unto Hebron.

2 So David went up thither, and his two^s wives also, Abinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail, Nabal's wife, the Carmelite.

3 And his men^v that were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, That the men of Jabesh-gilead^α were they that buried Saul.

5 And David sent messengers unto the men of Jabesh-gilead, and said unto them, Blessed^β be ye of the LORD, that ye have shewed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him.

6 And now^γ the LORD shew kindness and truth unto you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strengthened, and be ye^θ valiant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.

8 But Abner^ε the son of Ner, captain of Saul's β host, took γ Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim; 9 And made him king over Gilcad, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.

10 Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years. But the onset of Judah followed David.

11 And the ζ time that David was king at Hebron,^c over the house of Judah, was seven years and six months.

12 And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim^d to Gibeon.^e

13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met η together by the pool^f of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and play^g before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose, and went over by number, twelve of Benjamin, which per- vined to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called Elkath-hazzurim,^h which is in Gibeon.

17 And there was a very sore battle that day; and Abner was beaten,ⁱ and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

18 And there were three^j sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light^k of foot as a wild roe.^l

19 And Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right hand, nor to the left from ν following Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? And he answered, am.

21 And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and ρ thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his π armour. But Asahel would not turn aside from following of him.

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn thee aside from following me: wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab^{\nu} thy brother?

23 Howbeit, he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner, with the hinder end of his spear, smote him under^{\pi} the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died, stood still.

24 Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah, by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour^c for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end?^e how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

27 And Joab said, As God liveth, unless thou hadst spoken,^a surely then δ in the morning the people had gone ϵ up every one from following his brother.

28 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and they came to Mahanaim.^b

30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and threescore men died.

32 And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

CHAPTER III.

NOW there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: but David^h waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2 Andⁱ unto David were sons born in Hebron: and his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam^k the Jezreelitess;

3 And his second, θ Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom,^l the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;ⁿ

4 And the fourth, Adonijah,^o the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah, the son of Abital;

5 And the sixth, Ithream, by Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

6 And it came to pass, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong^r for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah,^s the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, Wherefore hast thou gone in unto my father's concubine?

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth, and said, Am I^t a dog's head, which against^u Judah do shew kindness this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to day with a fault concerning this woman?

9 So^w do God to Abner, and more also, except, as^v the LORD hath sworn to David, even so I do to him;

10 To translate^z the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel, and over Judah, from^a Dan even to Beer-sheba.

11 And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying also, Make thy league with me, and, behold, my hand shall be with thee, to bring about all Israel unto thee.

13 And he said, Well; I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, ρ that is, Thou^b shalt not see my face, except thou first bring Michal^d Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face.

14 And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth^f Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I espoused to me for^a an hundred foreskins of the Philistines.

15 And Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from her husband, even from^b Phaltiel, the son of Laish.

16 And her husband went with her along ^{weeping} behind her to Bahurim.^c Then said Abner unto him, Go, return. And he returned.

17 And Abner had communion with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David^d in times past to be king over you:

18 Now then do it: for the LORD hath spoken^e of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abner also spake in the ears of Benjamin:^f and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner, and the men that were with him, a feast.

21 And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and^g will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all^h that thine heart desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

22 And, behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: (but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.)

23 When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25 Thon knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, and to know thy goingⁱ out and thy coming in, and to know^j all that thou doest.

26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew it not.

27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside^k in the gate to speak with him ^{quietly}, and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel^l his brother.

28 And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the ^{blood} of Abner the son of Ner:

29 Let it rest^m on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not ^{fail} from the house of Joab one that hath an issue,ⁿ or that is a leper,^o or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

31 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, ^{Rend} your clothes, and gird^p yon with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the ^σ bier.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

33 And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a fool^c dieth?

34 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before ^γ wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him.

36 And all the people took notice of it, and it ^{pleased} them: as whatsoever the king did pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day, that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.

38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I am this day ^γ weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah be too hardⁱ for me: the^k LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

CHAPTER IV.

AND when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his handsⁿ were feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled.^o

2 And Saul's son had two men that were captains of bands; the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the ^o other Reehab, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin: (for Beeroth^p also was reckoned to Benjamin:

3 And the Beerothites fled to Gittaim,^q and were sojourners there until this day.)

4 And Jonathan, Saul's son, had a^r son that was lame of his feet. He was five years old when the tidings came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel,^s and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was ^κ Mephibosheth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Reehab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon:

6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they smote him under^v the fifth rib: and Reehab and Baanah his brother escaped.

7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bedchamber: and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and gat them away through the plain all night.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David to Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth, the son of Saul thine enemy, which^t sought thy life; and the LORD hath avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.

9 And David answered Reehab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said unto them, As the LORD liveth, who^c hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

10 When^d one told me, saying, Behold Saul is dead, ^π (thinking to have brought good tidings,) I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag, ^ρ who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings;

11 How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? shall I not therefore now require^a his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?

12 And^b David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the sepulchre^c of Abner in Hebron.

CHAPTER V.

1 WHEN^a came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, behold, we^a are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 Also in time past, when Saul was king over us, thou^a wast he that leddest out and foughtest in Israel: and the LORD said to thee, Thou shalt feed^a my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain^b over Israel.

3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king unto Hebron; and king David made a leagueⁱ with them in Hebron before the LORD: and they anointed David king over Israel.

4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned^j forty years.

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalemⁱ unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land; which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: hinkings, David cannot come in hither.

7 Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: the same^m is the city of David.

8 And David said on that day, Whosoever setteth up to the gutter, and smiteth the Jebusites, and the lame and the blind, that are hated of David's soul, he shall be chief and captain. ^aWherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house.

9 So David dwelt in the fort, and called the city of David. And David built round about, from Milo and inward.

10 And David went^v on, and grew great; and the LORD God of hosts was with him.

11 And Hiramⁿ king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and ^mmasons; and they built David an house.

12 And David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake.

13 And David took him more^a concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he was come from Hebron; and there were born sons and daughters born to David.

14 And these be the names of those that were born unto him in Jerusalem; ^xShammah, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, ¹⁵Ibhar also, and ^ψElishua, and Neageg, and Japhia, 16 And Elishama, and ^βEliada, and Iphaleth.

17 But when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to seek David; and David heard of it, and went down to the hold.^s

18 The^t Philistines also came, and spread themselves in the valley^u of Rephaim.

19 And David inquired^w of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hand?

And the LORD said unto David, Go up; for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

20 And David came to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said, The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place^β Baal-perazim.

21 And there they left their images, and David and his men ^γburied them.

22 And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And when David inquired of the LORD, he said, Thou shalt not go up; but fetch a compass behind them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

24 And let it be, when thou hearest the sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself: for then shall the LORD go out before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines.

25 And David did so, as the LORD had commanded him; and smote the Philistines from Geba^k until thou come to Gazer.

CHAPTER VI.

AGAIN, David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2 And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him from ^δBaale of Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, ^ζwhose name is called by the name of the LORD of hosts, that dwelleth between the cherubims.

3 And they ^θset the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in ^κGibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart.

4 And they brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was at Gibeah, ^μaccompanying the ark of God: and Ahio went before the ark.

5 And David, and all the house of Israel, played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

6 And when they came to^ο Nachon's threshingfloor, Uzzah put forth^p his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it: for the oxen ^ρshook it.

7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah, and God smote him there for his^σ error; and there he died by the ark of God.

8 And David was displeased, because the LORD had ^τmade a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place^φ Perez-uzzah to this day.

9 And David was afraid^r of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?

10 So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David; but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

11 And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

12 And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because^u of the ark of God. So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.

13 And it was so, that when they that bare^a the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed oxen and fatlings.

14 And David danced^b before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded^c with a linen ephod.

15 So^d David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting,^h and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 Andⁱ they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had^δ pitched for it: and David offered^m burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed^o the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

19 And^a he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. So all the people departed every one to his house.

20 Then David returned to bless^a his household. And Michal, the daughter of Saul, came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who^u uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself!

21 And David said unto Michal, It was before the LORD, which^w chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel; therefore will I play before the LORD.

22 And I will yet be more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight: and^v of the maidservants which thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had in honour.

23 Therefore Michal, the daughter of Saul, had no child unto^v the day of her death.

CHAPTER VII.

AND it came to pass, when^z the king sat in his house, and the LORD had given^a him rest round about from all his enemies:

2 That the king said unto Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in an house of cedar,^c but the ark of God dwelleth within curtains.^d

3 And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in thine heart; for the LORD is with thee.

4 And it came to pass that night, that the word of the LORD came unto Nathan, saying,

5 Go and tell^κ my servant David, Thus saith the LORD, Shalt thou^h build me an house for me to dwell in?

6 Whereas I have not dwelt in any house, since the time that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have walked in a tent and in a tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I have walkedⁱ with all the children of Israel, spake I a word with any of the^λ tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to^m feed my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not me an house of cedar?

8 Now therefore so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepte, from^β following the sheep, to be ruler over my people, over Israel:

9 And I was with thee^c whithersoever thou wentest, and^d have cut off all thine enemies^γ out of thy sight, and have made thee a great name,^u like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

10 Moreover, I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and willⁱ plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither^k shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as beforetime,

11 And as since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel, and have caused thee to rest from all thine enemies. Also the LORD telleth thee, that he will make thee an house.ⁿ

12 And when thy days be fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed^p after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish his kingdom.

13 He shall build an house for my name, and I will stablish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

14 I^r will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men:

15 But^t my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before thee.

16 And thine house and thy kingdom shall be established for ever before thee: thy^v throne shall be established for ever.

17 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

18 Then went king David in, and sat before the LORD, and he said, Who^z am I, O Lord God? and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

19 And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord God; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come. And is this the^θ manner of man, O Lord God?

20 And what can David say more unto thee? for thou, Lord God, knowest thy servant.

21 For thy word's sake,^b and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all these great things, to make thy servant know them.

22 Wherefore thou^c art great, O LORD God: for^f there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 And what^g one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you great things and terrible, for thy land, before thy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, from the nations and their gods?

24 Forⁱ thou hast confirmed to thyself thy people Israel, to be a people unto thee for ever: and^k thou, LORD, art become their God.

25 And now, O LORD God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, establish it for ever, and do as thou hast said.

26 And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee.

27 For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, hast ^βrevealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee.

28 And now, O Lord God, thou art that God, and thy words^d be true, and thou hast promised this goodness unto thy servant:

29 Therefore now ^γlet it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O Lord God, hast spoken it; and with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed for ever.^g

CHAPTER VIII.

AND^h after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them: and David took ^θMethg-ammah out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab,^k and ^lmeasured them with a line, casting them down to the ground; even with two lines measured he ^oput to death, and with one full line to keep alive: and so the Moabites became David's servants,ⁿ and brought gifts.^o

3 David smote also ^κHadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his border at the river Euphrates.

4 And David took ^λfrom him a thousand chariots,^q and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David houghed^r all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadadezer^s king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus: and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought gifts. And^t the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And from ^υBetah, and from ^πBerothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much brass.

9 When ^ρToi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer,

10 Then Toi sent ^σJoram his son unto king David, to ^τsalute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and smitten him: (for Hadadezer had ^φwars with Toi:) and Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass;

11 Which also king David did dedicate^υ unto the LORD, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued;

12 Of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

13 And David gat ^{him} a name when he returned from ^ψsmiting of the Syrians^α in the valley^β of salt, ^βbeing eighteen thousand men.

14 And he put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons: and all they of Edom^c became David's servants. And the LORD^ζ preserved David whithersoever he went.

15 And David reigned over all Israel; and David executed judgment^θ and justice unto all his people.

16 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was

CHAPTER IX.

AND David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him kindness^f for Jonathan's sake?

2 And there was of the house of Saul, a servant whose name was Ziba:ⁱ and when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, Thy servant is he.

3 And the king said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may shew the kindness of God unto him? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan hath yet a son, which is lame^m on his feet.

4 And the king said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir,ⁿ the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar.

5 Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir, the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar.

6 Now when ^μMephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth! And he answered, Behold thy servant.

7 And David said unto him, Fear not: for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.

8 And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldst look upon such a dead dog^u as I am?

9 Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have^v given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul, and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth, thy master's son, shall eat bread alway^w at my table. Now Ziba had^x fifteen sons, and twenty servants.

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.

12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Micha.^z And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth.

13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table;^c and was lame on both his feet.

CHAPTER X.

AND^d it came to pass after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

2 Then said David, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him, by the hand of his servants, for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, β Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee to search β the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even c to their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at Jerieho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they stank β before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians β of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of θ Ish-tob twelve thousand men.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, m and of Rehob, and Ish-tob, and Maacah, were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and o put them in array against the Syrians:

10 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.

12 Be p of good courage, and let q us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the LORD do that s which seemeth him good.

13 And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled v before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15 And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together.

16 And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond μ the river: and they came to Helam; and ν Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him.

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew the men of seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, α and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there.

19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served β them. So c the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER XI.

AND it came to pass, γ after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent a Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem.

2 And it came to pass in an evening tide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw d a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful e to look upon.

3 And David sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this δ Bath-sheba, the daughter of ζ Eliam, the wife of Uriah ζ the Hittite?

4 And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and i he lay with her, η for she was purified k from her uncleanness: and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

6 And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him κ how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered.

8 And David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and wash ν thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there λ followed him a mess of meat from the king.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house, with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 And when they had told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thine house?

11 And Uriah said unto David, The ark, ν and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and my lord τ Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields: shall I μ then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.

12 And David said to Uriah, Tarry here to day also, and to morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow.

13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: ν and at even he went out π to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

14 And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter ν to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the π hottest battle, and retire ye ρ from him, that he may be smitten, σ and die.

16 And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were.

17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David, and Uriah the Hittite died also.

18 Then Joab sent and told David all things concerning the war;

19 And charged the messenger, saying, Then thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king,
20 And if so be that the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh unto the city when I did fight? knew ye not that they would root from the wall?

21 Who smote Abimelech^c the son of Jerubbesheth? did not a woman cast a millstone upon him from the wall, that he died in Thebez? why wentest thou nigh the wall? then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

22 So the messenger went, and came and shewed David all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate.

24 And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants; and some of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

25 Then David said unto the messenger, hus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing^d displease thee, for^h the sword devoureth^e one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and overthrow^k it; and encourage thou him.

26 And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.

27 And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house, and she became his wife,^l and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased^m the LORD.

CHAPTER XII.

AND the LORD sent Nathan unto David. Andⁿ he came unto him, and said^o unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor.

2 The rich man had exceeding many oaks and herds:

3 But the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up; and it grew up together with him, and with his children; and did eat of his own^p meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom,^q and was unto him as a daughter.

4 And there came a traveller^r unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this thing^s shall surely die:

6 And he shall restore the lamb fourfold,^t because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

7 And Nathan said to David, Thou art he man. Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I anointed^u thee king over Israel,^v and delivered thee out of the hand of Saul;

8 And I gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom, and^w gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if thou hadst been too little, I would, moreover, have given unto thee such and such things.

9 Wherefore^b hast thou despised^c the commandment of the LORD, to do evil in his sight? Thou hast killed^d Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

10 Now^a therefore, the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

11 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take^b thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of this sun.

12 For thou didst it secretly: but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.

13 And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned^c against the LORD. And Nathan said unto David, The LORD also hath put away^e thy sin; thou shalt not die.

14 Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of the LORD to blaspheme,^f the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die.

15 And Nathan departed unto his house. And the LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick.

16 David therefore besought God for the child; and David *γ*fasted, and went in, and layⁱ all night upon the earth.

17 And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them.

18 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then^h vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?

19 But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead.

20 Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the LORD, and worshipped:^j then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat.

21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread.

22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, Who^k can tell whether GOD will be gracious to me, that the child may live?

23 But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but^l he shall not return to me.

24 And David comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and she bare a son, and he called his name Solomon;^m and the LORD loved him.

25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his nameⁿ Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

26 And^o Joab fought against Rabbah^p of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it: lest I take the city, and^q it be called after my name.

29 And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.

30 And he took their king's crown from off his head, the weight whereof was a talent of gold with the precious stones: and it was set on David's head: and he brought forth the spoil of the city β in great abundance.

31 And he brought forth the people that were therein, and put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brick-kiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people returned unto Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XIII.

AND it came to pass after this, that Absalom, the son of David, had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar;^e and Amnon the son of David loved her.

2 And Amnon was so vexed, that^f he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin: and ζ Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah,^g David's brother: and Jonadab was a very subtil man.

4 And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, θ lean κ from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.

5 And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

6 So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes^l in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took λ flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she took a pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Have out all men from me: and they went out every man from him.

10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he^q took hold of her, and said unto her, Come, lie with me, my sister.

12 And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not ρ force me; for σ no such thing ought to be done in Israel:^t do not thou this folly.^v

13 And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee.

14 Howbeit, he would not hearken unto her voice; but, being stronger than she, forced^z her, and lay with her.

15 Then Amnon hated her ψ exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love where-with he had loved her: and Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone.

16 And she said unto him, There is no cause: this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not hearken unto her.

17 Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.

18 And she had a garment of divers colours^a upon her: for^b with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

19 And Tamar put ashes^c on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand^d on her head, and went on crying.

20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath γ Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; δ regard not this thing. So Tamar remained η desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

21 But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

22 And Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon neither^h good nor bad: for Absalom hatedⁱ Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 And it came to pass, after two full years, that Absalom had^k sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants, go with thy servant.

25 And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him.

26 Then said Absalom, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee?

27 But^m Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.

28 Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merryⁿ with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon; then kill him, fear not: μ have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be ν valiant.

29 And the servants of Absalom^o did unto Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and every man π gat him up upon his mule,^p and fled.

30 And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Absalom hath slain all the king's sons, and there is not one of them left.

31 Then the king arose, and tare^r his garments, and lay^s on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent.

32 And Jonadab^u the son of Shimeah, David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead: for by the τ appointment of Absalom this hath been x determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

33 Now therefore let not my lord the king take^w the thing to his heart, to think that all the king's sons are dead; for Amnon only is dead.

34 But Absalom fled.^y And the young an that kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came much people by the way of the hill side behind him.

 35 And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, the king's sons come: for as thy servant said, so it is.
 36 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of speaking, that, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice, and wept: and the king also and all his servants wept very sore.
 37 But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And David mourned for his son every day.
 38 So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years.
 39 And the soul of king David longed to go forth unto Absalom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

CHAPTER XIV.

NOW Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was toward Absalom.
 2 And Joab sent to Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and anoint thyself with oil, but be as a woman that has a long time mourned for the dead;
 3 And come to the king, and speak on his behalf unto him. So Joab put the words in her mouth.
 4 And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, Help, O king.
 5 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, I am indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead.
 6 And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him.
 7 And, behold, the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom we slew; and we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall quench my coal which is left, and shall not leave to my husband neither name nor remainder upon the earth.
 8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give charge concerning thee.
 9 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, the iniquity is on me, and on my father's house; and the king and his throne be guiltless.
 10 And the king said, Whosoever saith ought unto thee, bring him to me, and he shall not touch thee any more.
 11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember the LORD thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, As the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth.
 12 Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on.
 13 And the woman said, Wherefore hast thou thought such a thing against the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch him again his banished.
 14 For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again: neither doth χ or, because God hath not taken away his life, he hath also devised.

God respect any person; yet doth he devise means that his banished be not expelled from him.
 15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid.
 16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God.
 17 Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be seemly for me: for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad; therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee.
 18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.
 19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:
 20 To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.
 21 And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again.
 22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Joab said, To day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.
 23 So Joab arose, and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.
 24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.
 25 But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.
 26 And when he polled his head, (for it was at every year's end that he polled it; because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it,) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the king's weight.
 27 And unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a fair countenance.
 28 So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face.
 29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come.
 30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire.
 31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?
 32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king^c kissed Absalom.

CHAPTER XV.

AND^a it came to pass after this, that Absalom prepared^f him chariots and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controversy^γ came to the king for judgment, then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.

3 And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right; but^δ there is no man deputed of the king^h to hear thee.

4 Absalom said moreover, Oh^k that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice!

5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment. Soⁿ Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 And it came to pass after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and payⁿ my vow,^a which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron.

8 For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur^t in Syria, saying, If the LORD shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.

9 And the king said unto him, Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth^w in Hebron.

11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called; and they went in their simplicity,^x and they knew not any thing.

12 And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor,^y from his city, even from Giloh,^a while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people^d increased continually with Absalom.

13 And there came a messenger to David, saying, The^σ hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.

14 And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee;^k for we shall not else escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and^θ bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint.

16 And the king went forth, and all his household^λ after him: and the king left ten women, which were concubines,ⁿ to keep the house.

17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the Cherethites,^a and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from Gath, passed on before the king.

19 Then said the king to Ittai^b the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king; for thou art a stranger, and also an exile.

20 Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day make thee^β go up and down with us? Seeing I go^c whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee.

21 And Ittai answered the king, and said,^γ As the LORD liveth, and as my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be.

22 And David said to Ittai, Go, and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.

23 And all the country weptⁱ with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness.^t

24 And lo, Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, bearing^m the ark of the covenant of God: and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city.

25 And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I shall find favour in the eyes of the LORD, he^ο will bring me again, and shew me both it, and his habitation:

26 But if he thus say, I have no delight in^r thee; behold, here am I, let^s him do to me as seemeth good unto him.

27 The king said also unto Zadok the priest, Art not thou a seer?^u return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathai the son of Abiathar.

28 See, I will tarry in the plain of the wilderness,^v until there come word from you to certify me.

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem; and they tarried there.

30 And David went up by the ascent of mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and had his head^z covered; and he went barefoot:^b and all the people that was with him covered^c every man his head, and they went up, weeping^e as they went up.

31 And one told David, saying, Ahithophel^f is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O LORD, I pray thee, turn^h the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.ⁱ

32 And it came to pass, that when David was come to the top of the mount, where he worshipped God, behold, Hushai the Archite^l came to meet him, with^m his coat rent, and earth upon his head:

33 Unto whom David said, If thou passest on with me, then thou shalt be a burdenⁿ unto me:

34 But if thou return to the city, and say unto Absalom, I^ο will be thy servant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant: then mayest thou for me^q defeat the counsel of Ahithophel.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the priests? therefore shall be, that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, thou shalt tell it^a to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.
36 Behold, they have there^b with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathai, Abiathar's son; and by them ye shall send unto me every thing that ye can hear.
37 So^d Hushai, David's friend,^c came unto the city, and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

CHAPTER XVI.
AND when David was a little past the top of the hill,^g behold, Ziba^h the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of asses saddled, and upon themⁱ two hundred loaves of bread, and an hundred bunches of raisins, and an hundred of summer fruits, and a bottle of wine.

2 And the king said unto Ziba, What nearest thou by these? And Ziba said, The asses be for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat; and the wine, that^t such as be faint in the wilderness may drink.

3 And the king said, And where is thy master's son? And Ziba said^o unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem: or he said, To day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

4 Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, here are all that pertained unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, I ^vhumbly beseech thee that I may find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

5 And when king David came to Barurim, behold, there^c came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei,^q the son of Gera: he came forth, and cursed^r still as he came.

6 And he cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David: and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left.

7 And thus said Shimei when he cursed, Come on, come on, thou ⁿbloody man, and thou man of Belial:

8 The LORD hath returned upon thee all the blood^u of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and the LORD hath delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son: and behold, ^lthou art taken in thy mischief, because thou art a bloody man.

9 Then said Abishai the son of Zeruiah unto the king, Why should this dead dog^v curse^w my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and take off his head.

10 And the king said, What^x have I to do with you, ye sons of Zerniah? So let him curse, because the LORD^y hath said unto him, Curse David. Who^z shall then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

11 And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, which came^b forth of my bowels, socketh my life: how much more now may this Ben-amite do it? Let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD hath biddeu him.

12 It^c may be that the LORD will look on mine affliction, and that the LORD will requite me good^d for his cursing this day.

13 And as David and his men went by the way, Shimei went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him, and ^ecast dust.

14 And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.

15 And Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him.

16 And it came to pass, when^c Hushai the Archite, David's friend, was come unto Absalom, that Hushai said unto Absalom, God save the king, ^βGod save the king.

17 And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? ^γwhy wentest thou not with thy friend?

18 And Hushai said unto Absalom, Nay; but whom the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Israel, choose, his will I be, and with him will I abide.

19 And again, whom should I serve? should I not serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

20 Then said Absalom to Ahithophel,^k Give counsel among you what we shall do.

21 And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in unto thy father's concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art abhorred of thy father: then^m shall the handsⁿ of all that are with thee be strong.

22 So they spread Absalom a tent upon the top of the house; and Absalom went in^p unto his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had inquired at the ^δoracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel, both with David and with Absalom.

CHAPTER XVII.
MOREOVER, Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night:

2 And I will come upon him while he is weary^s and weak handed, and will make him afraid: and all the people that are with him shall flee; and I will smite the king^t only.

3 And I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace.

4 And the saying ^θpleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise ^κwhat he saith.

6 And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do ^uafter his saying? if not, speak thou.

7 And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel hath ^vgiven is not good at this time.

8 For, said Hushai, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they ^{be} mighty men, and they ^{be} chafed in their minds, as a bear^a robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

9 Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be ^ρoverthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom.

10 And he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: ^cfor all Israel knoweth that thy father^f is a mighty man, and they which be with him^g are valiant men.

11 Therefore I counsel, that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan oven to Beer-sheba, as^b the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and ^β that thou go to battle in thine own person.

12 So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: and of him and of all the men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there.

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For^f the LORD had ^δ appointed to defeat^g the good^h counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

15 Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, Lodge^k not this night in the plains^l of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

17 Now^m Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by En-rogel,ⁿ (for they might not be seen to come into the city:) and a wench went and told them; and they went and told king David.

18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house in Bahurim,^o which had a well in his court, whither they went down.

19 And^q the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known.

20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them,^r They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David; and said unto David, Arise,^t and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you.

22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

23 And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not ^λ followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to his city,^v and ^μ put his household in order, and hanged^w himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

24 Then David came to Mahanaim.^x And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son whose name was ^π Ithra, an Israelite, that went in to ^ρ Abigail^z the daughter of ^τ Nahash, sister to Zeruah, Joab's mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi^b the son of Nahash of Rabbah^a of the children of Ammon, and Machir^c the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai^d the Gileadite of Rogelim, 28 Brought beds, and ^γ basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentiles, and parched pulse,

29 And honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheso of kine, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The^e people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.

CHAPTER XVIII.

AND David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

2 And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittaiⁱ the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also.

3 But^j the people answered, Thon shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not ^ς care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now thou art ^η worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou ^θ succour us out of the city.

4 And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And^p all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the wood^s of Ephraim;

7 Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David; and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men.

8 For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood ^κ devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

9 And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and^u his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak.

11 And Joab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten shekels of silver, and a girdle.

12 And the man said unto Joab, Though I should ^v receive a thousand shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son: for^y in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, ^σ Beware that none touch the young man Absalom.

13 Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: for^a there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me.

14 Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with thee. And he took three darts in is hand, and thrust them through the eart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

15 And ten young men that bare Joab's armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.

16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Absalom: for Joab held back the people.

17 And they took Absalom, and east him into a great pit in the wood, and laid a very great heap of stones upon him: and all Israel fled every one to his tent.

18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place.

19 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the LORD hath saved him of his enemies.

20 And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day; but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead.

21 Then said Joab to Cushai, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushai owed himself unto Joab, and ran.

22 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But howsoever, let me, pray thee, also run after Cushai. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings ready?

23 But howsoever, said he, let me run, and he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and veran Cushai.

24 And David sat between the two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, a man running alone.

25 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near.

26 And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold, another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman said, Me thinketh the running of the foremost is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings.

28 And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king.

29 And the king said, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was.

30 And the king said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still.

31 And, behold, Cushai came; and Cushai said, Tidings, my lord the king: for the LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee.

32 And the king said unto Cushai, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushai answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is.

33 And the king was much moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept; and as he went, thus he said, O my son Absalom! my son, my son Absalom! would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!

CHAPTER XIX.

AND it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom.

2 And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son.

3 And the people gat them by stealth that day into the city, as people being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.

4 But the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!

5 And Joab came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, which this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines;

6 In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends: for thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither princes nor servants: for this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it had pleased thee well.

7 Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak comfortably unto thy servants: for I swear by the LORD, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that befell thee from thy youth until now.

8 Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king; for Israel had fled every man to his tent.

9 And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom.

10 And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now, therefore, why speak ye not a word of bringing the king back?

11 And king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house.

12 Ye are my brethren, ye are my bones and my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king?

13 And say ye to Amasa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually, in the room of Joab.

14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of one man; so that they sent this word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants.

15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan.

16 And Shimei^a the son of Gera, a Benjaminite, which was of Bahurim, hasted, and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.

17 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba^d the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king.

18 And there went over a ferry boat to carry over the king's household, and to what he thought good. And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over Jordan;

19 And said unto the king, Let^g not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember^h that which thy servant didⁱ perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take^k it to his heart.

20 For thy servant doth know that I have sinned: therefore, behold, I am come the first this day of all the house of Joseph, to go down to meet my lord the king.

21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed^l the LORD's anointed?

22 And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be adversaries unto me? Shallⁿ there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over Israel?

23 Therefore the king said unto Shimei, Thou^o shalt not die. And the king swore unto him.

24 And Mephibosheth^p the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace.

25 And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, Wherefore^q wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth?

26 And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me; for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king; because thy servant is lame.

27 And he^t hath slandered thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel^v of God: do, therefore, what is good in thine eyes.

28 For all of my father's house were but dead ^θmen before my lord the king: yet didst thou set^w thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table. What right, therefore, have I yet to cry any more unto the king?

29 And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, Thou and Ziba divide the land.

30 And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house.

31 And Barzillai^a the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

32 Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore years old: and^d he had provided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for^e he was a very great man.

33 And the king said unto Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem.

34 And Barzillai said unto the king, How ^βlong have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem?

35 I am this day fourscore^b years old; and can I discern^c between good and evil? can^e thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet a burden unto my lord the king?

36 Thy servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?^f

37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother: but behold thy servant Chimham,^j let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee.

38 And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee; and whatsoever thou shalt ^δrequire of me, that will I do for thee.

39 And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king kissed^m Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned unto his own place.

40 Then the king went on to Gilgal, and ^ςChimham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

41 And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren, the men of Judah, stolen thee away, and have^q brought the king and his household, and all David's men with him, over Jordan?

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin^r to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or hath he given us any gift?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye ^νdespise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And the words of the men of Judah were^u fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

CHAPTER XX.

AND there happened to be there a man of Belial, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite; and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no part^x in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So^y every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah^z clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his concubines,^b whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ^κward,^c and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were ^λshut up unto the day of their death, ^μliving in widowhood.

4 Then said the king to Amasa, ^νAssemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went^f to assemble the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the at time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom: take thou thy lord's servants,^b and pursue after him, lest he get him fenced cities, and yescape us.

7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites,^d and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them. And Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss^e him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he^h smote him therewith inⁱ the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and ^θstruck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when he man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and east a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel,^o and to Beth-maachah, and all the Berites; and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maachah, and they east up a bank^r against the city, and it stood^v in the trench: and all the people that were with Joab^π battered the wall, to throw it down.

16 Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake, saying, ^τThey were wont to speak in old time, saying, They will surely ask counsel at Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19 I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother^v in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?

20 And Joab answered and^{*} said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should wallow up or destroy.

21 The matter is not so: but a man of count Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri^x name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him to me, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22 Then the woman went unto all the

CHAPTER XXI.

THEN there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David ^ηinquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites.^k

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them: (now the Gibeonites were^l not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah:)

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance^m of the LORD?

4 And the Gibeonites said unto him, ^κWe will have no silverⁿ nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I do for you.

5 And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that ^λdevised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel,

6 Let seven men of his sons^p be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the LORD in Gibeah^q of Saul, ^μwhom the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give them.

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD's oath^s that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of Rizpah^t the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of ^ρMichal the daughter of Saul, whom she ^σbrought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholahite;

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before^υ the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12 And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of^w Jabesh-gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa:

13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in Zelah,^e in the sepulchre of Kish his father, and they performed all that the king commaunded: and after that, God was entreated^h for the laud.

15 Moreover, the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint.

16 And Ishbi-benob, which was of the sons of ζ the giant, the weight of η whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he, being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David:

17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware unto him, saying, Thou^l shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the θ light^o of Israel.

18 And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbechai^r the Hushathite slew κ Saph, which was of the sons of λ the giant.

19 And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of μ Jaare-oregim, a Beth-lehemite, slew the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to ρ the giant.

21 And when he σ defied Israel, Jonathan, the son of Shimeah,^u the brother of David, slew him.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER XXII.

AND David spake unto the LORD^v the words of this song,^z in the day that the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul:

2 And he said, The LORD is my rock,^a and my fortress,^b and my deliverer:

3 The God of my rock; in him will I trust: he is my shield,^c and the horn^d of my salvation, my high tower,^e and my refuge,^f my saviour; thou savest me from violence.

4 I will call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

5 When the γ waves of death compassed me, the floods of δ ungodly men made me afraid;

6 The η sorrows of hell compassed me about; the snares of death prevented me;

7 In my distress^h I called upon the LORD, and cried to my God; and he did hearⁱ my voice out of his temple, and my cry did enter into his ears.

8 Then the earth^k shook and trembled; the foundations of heaven^l moved and shook, because he was wroth.

9 There went up a smoke λ out of his nostrils, and fire out^m of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

14 The LORD thundered^f from heaven, and the Most High uttered his voice.

15 And he sent out arrows,^g and scattered them; lightning, and discomfited them.

16 And the channels of the sea^h appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered, at the rebuking of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of his γ nostrils.

17 He sent from above, he took me; he drew me out of δ many waters;^k

18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.

19 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

20 He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted^m in me.

21 The LORD rewarded me accordingⁿ to my righteousness: according to the^p cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

22 For I have kept^q the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

23 For^s all his judgments were before me: and as for his statutes, I did not depart from them.

24 I was also upright^v before him, and have kept myself from mine iniquity.

25 Therefore the LORD hath recompensed me according to my righteousness; according to my cleanness in π his eye sight.

26 With the merciful^t thou wilt shew thyself merciful, and with the upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright.

27 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward^u thou wilt τ shew thyself unsavoury.

28 And the afflicted people thou wilt save: but thine eyes are upon the haughty,^x that thou mayest bring them down.

29 For thou art my ϕ lamp, O LORD; and the LORD wilt lighten my darkness.

30 For by thee I have χ run through a troop: by my God have I leaped over a wall.

31 As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the LORD is ψ tried: he is a buckler to all them that trust in him.

32 For who is God, save the LORD? and who is a rock, save our God?

33 God is my strength and power: and he ξ maketh my way perfect.

34 He β maketh my feet^o like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

35 He teacheth my hands ζ to war; so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

36 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy gentleness hath θ made me great.

37 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me; so that my κ feet did not slip.

38 I have pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them: and turned not again until I had consumed them.

39 And I have consumed them, and wounded them, that they could not arise: yea, they are fallenⁿ under my feet.

40 For thou hast girded me with strength

o battle: them^a that rose up against me ast thou ^β subdued under me.

41 Thou hast also given me the^b necks f mine enemies, that I might destroy hem that hate me.

42 They looked, but there was none to ave; even unto the LORD, but^c he anwered them not.

43 Then did I beat them as small as he dust^d of the earth, I did stamp them
s the mire^e of the street, and did spread hem abroad.

44 Thou also hast delivered me from he strivings^f of my people, thou hast ept me to be head of the heathen:^g a peole which I knew not shall serve me.

45 Strangers ^ζ shall ^η submit themselves unto me: as soon as they hear, they shall be obedient unto me.

46 Strangers shall fade away, and they shall be afraid out of their closeⁱ places.

47 The LORD liveth; and blessed be ny rock; and exalted be the God of the ock of my salvation.

48 It is God that ^θ avengeth me, and that ringeth down the people under me,

49 And that bringeth me forth from aine enemies: thou also hast lifted me up n high above them that rose up against ae: thou hast delivered^k me from the iolent man.

50 Therefore I will give thanks unto hee, O LORD, among the heathen, and I will sing praises unto thy name.

51 He is the tower of salvation for his ing; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, unto David, and to his seed for evermore.^l

CHAPTER XXIII.

NOW these be the last words of David.
David the son of Jesse said, and the man who was raised^m up on high, the anointed f the God of Jacob, and the sweet psalm-stⁿ of Israel, said,

2 The Spirit^o of the LORD spake by ae, and his word was in my tongue.

3 The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, ^μ He that ruleth over nen must be just,^p ruling in the fear^q of God:

4 And he shall be as the light^r of the orning, when the sun riseth, even a orning without clouds; as the tender rass springing out of the earth by clear hining after rain.^s

5 Although my house be not so with God; et he hath made with me an^t everlasting ovenant, ordered in all things, and sure:
or this is all my salvation, and all my lesire,^u although he make it not to grow.

6 But the sons of Belial shall be all of hem as thorns thrust away, because they annot be taken with hands:

7 But the man that shall touch them oust be ^τ fenced with iron, and the staff f a spear; and they shall be utterly urned with fire^w in the same place.

8 These be the names of the mighty oen whom David had: ^φ The Tachmonite hat sat in the scat, chief among the cap-ains; the same was Adino the Eznite:
e lift up his spear against eight hundred,
whom ^x he slew at one time.

9 And after him was Eleazar the son f Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they deied the Philistines that were there gahered together to battle, and the men
f Israel were gone away:

10 He arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand wrought a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil.

11 And after him was Shammah, the son of Agee the Hararite: and the Philistines were gathered together ^γ into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of len-tiles; and the people fled from the Philistines.

12 But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great victory.

13 And ^δ three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time unto^h the eave of Adullam: and the troop of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rephaim.

14 And David was then in an hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Beth-lehem.

15 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, which is by the gate!

16 And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: nevertheless he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the LORD.

17 And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men.

18 And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among three: and he lifted up his spear against three hundred, ^κ and slew them, and had the name among three.

19 Was he not most honourable of three?
therefore he was their captain: howbeit he attained not unto the first three.

20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man, of Kabzeel, ^λ who had done many acts, he slew two ^ν lionlike men of Moab: he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow:

21 And he slew an Egyptian, ^π a goodly man: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

22 These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and had the name among three mighty men.

23 He was ^ρ more honourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the first three: and David set him ^σ over his guard.

24 Asahel the brother of Joab was one of Beth-lehem,

25 Shammah the Harodite, Elika the

CHAPTER XXIV.

AND again^g the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and ^hhe moved David against them to say, Go,^h number Israel and Judah.

2 For the king said to Joab the captain of the host, which ⁱwas with him, ^δGo now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number^m of the people.

3 And Joab said unto the king, Now the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, an hundred-fold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see ^{it}: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing?

4 Notwithstanding, the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host: and Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel.

5 And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in Aroer,^p on the right side of the city that ^{lieth} in the midst of the river of Gad, and toward Jazer:^q

6 Then they came to Gilead, and to the ^θland of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to Dan-jaan,^r and about to Zidon,^s

7 And came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, ^{even} to Beer-sheba.

8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Joab gave up the sum of the number of the people unto the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

10 And David's heart smote^v him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, I^z have sinned greatly in that I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, take away^a the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.^b

11 For when David was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet Gad,^c David's seer, saying,

12 Go and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three ^{things};

choose^a thee one of them, that I may do ^{it} unto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall seven^b years of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or that there be three days' pestilence in thy land? Now advise, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me.

14 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD, for his mereies ^{are} ^βgreat,^c and let me not fall into^d the hand of man.

15 So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel, from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, seventy thousand men.

16 And when the angelⁱ stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem, to destroy it, the LORD repented^j him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed the people, It is enough;^k stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD was by the threshingplace of Araunah^l the Jebusite.

17 And David spake unto the LORD, when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, I haveⁿ sinned, and I have done wickedly: but these sheep,^o what have they done? Let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house.

18 And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of ^ζAraunah the Jebusite.

19 And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up, as the LORD commanded.

20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground.

21 And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy^t the threshing-floor of thee, to build an altar unto the LORD, that the plague may be stayed^u from the people.

22 And Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what ^{seemeth} good unto him: behold, ^{here be} oxen^v for burnt sacrifice, and threshing instruments and ^{other} instruments of the oxen for wood.

23 All these ^{things} did Araunah, as a king,^w give unto the king: and Araunah said unto the king, The LORD thy God accept^x thee.

24 And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will surely buy ^{it} of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the LORD my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshingfloor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

25 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD was entreated^d for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

Israel: and blow^a ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon.

35 Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah.

36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen:^d the LORD^e God of my lord the king say so too.

37 As^f the LORD hath been with my lord the king, even so be he with Solomon, and make his throne greater^k than the throne of my lord king David.

38 So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, went down, and anointed Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon.

39 And Zadok the priest took an horn of oilⁿ out of the tabernacle, and^o anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet;^p and all the people said, God save king Solomon.

40 And all the people came up after him; and the people piped with^r pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

41 And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating.^t And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar?

42 And while he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came; and Adonijah said unto him, Come in; for^x thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings.

43 And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king.

44 And the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride upon the king's mule:

45 And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon; and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that ye have heard.

46 And also Solomon sitteth^f on the throne of the kingdom.

47 And, moreover, the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, God^v make the name of Solomon better than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne. Andⁱ the king bowed himself upon the bed.

48 And also thus said the king, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, whichⁿ hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes^p even seeing it.

49 And all the guests that were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

50 And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught^t hold on the horns of the altar.

51 And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon: for, lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to day, that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52 And Solomon said, If he will shew himself a worthy man, there^v shall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but^w if wickedness shall be found in him, he 53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

CHAPTER II.

NOW^c the days of David drew nigh that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son, saying,

2 I^v go the way of all^h the earth: be thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man;ⁱ

3 And keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written^j in the law of Moses, that^m thou mayest^z prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself;

4 That the LORD may continue his word, which he spake concerning me, saying, If^q thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there^r shall not^z fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel.

5 Moreover, thou knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me,^s and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner^u the son of Ner, and unto Amasa^v the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

6 Do therefore according^w to thy wisdom, and^y let not his hoar head^z go down to the grave in peace.

7 But shew kindness unto the sons of Barzillai^a the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so they came^b to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother.

8 And, behold, thou hast with thee Shimei^c the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which cursed me with a^r grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but^d he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword.

9 Now therefore hold^e him not guiltless; for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood.

10 So David slept^h with his fathers, and was buriedⁱ in the city^k of David.

11 And^m the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

12 Then^o sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established^q greatly.

13 And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Comest^r thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine,^t and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's; for it was his^u from the LORD.

16 And now I ask one petition of thee, deny^z me not. And she said unto him, Say on.

17 And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say so nay,) that he give me Abishag^a the Shunammite to wife.

18 And Bath-sheba said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king.

19 Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose^e up to meet her, and^f bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right^h hand.

20 Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother; for I will not say thee nay.

21 And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; for he is mine elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar^o the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.

23 Then king Solomon sware by the LORD, saying, God^p do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken his word against his own life.

24 Now therefore, as the LORD liveth, which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me an house, as he^r promised, Adonijah shall be put to death^s this day.

25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died.

26 And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, Get thee to Anathoth,^t unto thine own fields; for thou art^β worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because^u thou barest the ark of the LORD God before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted^w in all wherein my father was afflicted.

27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; that he might fulfil the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning^v the house of Eli in Shiloh.

28 Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab had^a turned after Adonijah, though^b he turned not after Absalom: and Joab fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and caught^d hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and, behold, he is by the altar.^g Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him.

30 And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said unto him, Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; thatⁿ thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed,^p from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And the LORD shall return^r his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and better^t than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not^u knowing thereof, to wit, Abner the son of Ner,^w captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa^y the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33 Their blood shall therefore return upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed^b for ever: but^c upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever^d from the LORD.

34 So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room^g over the host; and Zadokⁱ the priest did the king put in the room of Abiathar.^k

36 And the king sent and called for Shimei,^l and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither.

37 For it shall be, that on the day thou goest out, and passest over the brook Kidron,^m thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thyⁿ blood shall be upon thine own head.

38 And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto Achish^a son of Maachah, king of Gath: and they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath, to Achish, to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment^x that I have charged thee with?

44 The king said moreover to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness^z which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father: therefore^c the LORD shall return thy wickedness upon thine own head:

45 And king Solomon shall be^e blessed, and^f the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever.

46 So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And^h the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

CHAPTER III.

AND Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, andⁱ took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city^k of David, until he had made an end of^l building his own house, and^m the house of the LORD, and the wall^o of Jerusalem round about.

2 Only^a the people sacrificed in high places, because there was no house built unto the name of the LORD, until those days.

3 And Solomon loved^s the LORD, walking in the statutes^u of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

4 And the king went to Gibeah^x to sacrifice there; for that^z was the great high place: a thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

5 In Gibeon the LORD appeared^a to Solomon in a dream^b by night: and God said, Ask^c what I shall give thee.

6 And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great ^βmercy, according as he walked^d before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness^e of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou hast given him a son^f to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 And now, O LORD my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father; and I am but a little child:^h I know not how to goⁱ out or come in.

8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen,^k a great people, that cannot be^l numbered nor counted for multitude.

9 Give therefore thy servant an ^δunderstanding^m heart to judgeⁿ thy people, that I may discern^o between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

10 And the speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 And God said unto him, Because^r thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself^s a long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding to ^μdiscern judgment;

12 Behold, I have done^t according to thy words: lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so^v that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

13 And I have also given thee that^w which thou hast not asked, both riches^x and honour; so that^y there ^πshall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.

14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David did walk, then I will lengthen^z thy days.

15 And Solomon awoke; and, behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, and made a feast^a to all his servants.

16 Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, and stood before^b him.

17 And the one woman said, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.

18 And it came to pass, the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house.

19 And this woman's child died in the night; because she overlaid it.

20 And she arose at midnight,^c and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead; but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son which I did bear.

22 And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. Thus they spake before the king.

25 And they brought a sword before the king.

26 Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for^r her bowels ^γyearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27 Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof.

28 And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in ^ςhim, to do^o judgment.

CHAPTER IV.

SO king Solomon was king over all Israel.

2 And these were the princes which he had; Azariah, the son of Zadok, ^γthe priest;

3 Eliphoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha, ^θscribes; Jehoshaphat^r the son of Ahilud, the ^κrecorder.

4 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host; and Zadok and Abiathar^s were the priests;

5 And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers; and Zabud the son of Nathan was principal officer, and the king's^u friend;

6 And Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the ^vtribute.

7 And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man his mouth in a year made provision.

8 And these are their names: ^ρThe son of Hur, in mount Ephraim.

9 The ^σson of Dekar, in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan.

10 The ^τson of Hesed, in Arnoboth; to him pertained Sochoh, and all the land of Hephher.

11 The ^φson of Abinadab, in all the region of Dor; which had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife.

12 Baana, the son of Ahilud; to him pertained Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by Zartanah beneath Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, even unto the place that is beyond Jokneam.

13 The ^χson of Geber, in Ramoth-gilead; to him pertained the towns of^c Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; to him also pertained the region of^d Argob, which is in Bashan, threescore great cities, with walls and brazen bars.

14 Ahinadab the son of Iddo had^ψ Mahanaim.

15 Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took Basmath the daughter of Solomon to wife.

16 Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth.

17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah in Issachar.

18 Shimei the son of Elah in Benjamin.

19 Geber the son of Uri was in the country of Gilead, in the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer which as in the land.

20 Judah and Israel were many,^a as the and which is by the sea in multitude, eating^b and drinking, and making merry.

21 And Solomon reigned^c over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought presents,^e and served Solomon all the days of his life.

22 And Solomon's provision for one day was thirty^d measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal, 23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside harts, and roebucks, and fallow-ees, and fatted fowl.

24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tiphshah even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side the river: and he had peace^h on all sides round about him.

25 And Judah and Israel dweltⁱ safely; every man under^k his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon.

26 And Solomon had forty thousand mules of horses^m for his chariots,ⁿ and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And those officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing.

28 Barley also and straw for the horses and dromedaries brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

29 And God gave Solomon^p wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore.

30 And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east country, and all the wisdom of Egypt.

31 For he was wiser than all men; than than^t the Ezrahite, and Heman,^u and Haleel, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about.

32 And he spake three thousand proverbs:^z and his songs^v were a thousand and five.

33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto the yssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

34 And^z there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

CHAPTER V.

AND Hiram^a king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father; for^b Hiram was ever a lover of David.

2 And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, 3 Thou knowest how that David my father could not build an house unto the name of the LORD his God for the wars^c which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

4 But now the LORD my God hath given me rest^e on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent.

5 And, behold, I purpose to build an house^f unto the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake^g unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build an house unto my name.

6 Now therefore command thou that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants; and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants, according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us^d any that can skill to hew timber like unto the Sidonians.

7 And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the LORD^f this day, which hath given unto David a wise son^g over this great people.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have considered the things which thou sentest to me for: and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir.

9 My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea; and I will convey them by sea in floats unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire inⁱ giving food for my household.

10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees, according to all his desire.

11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.

12 And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised^o him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together.

13 And king Solomon raised a^u levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men.

14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses; a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and Adoniram^s was over the levy.

15 And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens,^v and four-score thousand hewers^w in the mountains;

16 Beside the chief of Solomon's officers which were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled over the people that wrought in the work.

17 And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house.

18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did hew them, and the stone-squarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

CHAPTER VI.

AND it came to pass, in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD.

2 And the house^d which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.

3 And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house.

4 And for the house he made windows of narrow lights.

5 And β against the wall of the house he built γ chambers ^a round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle: and he made δ chambers round about.

6 The nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made η narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

7 And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready before ^b it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer, nor axe, nor any tool of iron, heard in the house while it was in building.

8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right ^c side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.

9 So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house ^d with beams and boards of cedar.

10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

11 And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, if ^e thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake ^f unto David thy father:

13 And ^g I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake ^h my people Israel.

14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, ⁱ both the floor of the house, and the walls of the ceiling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.

16 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls, with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the ^j most holy place.

17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long.

18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with κ knops and ψ open flowers: all was cedar: there was no stone seen.

19 And the oracle ^k he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

20 And the oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with γ pure gold; and so covered the altar which was of cedar.

21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also ^m the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

23 And within the oracle he made two cherubims ⁿ of θ olive tree, each ten cubits high.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub; from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.

25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure and one size.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.

27 And he set the cherubims within the inner house; and ζ they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

28 And he overlaid the cherubims with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims and palm trees and θ open flowers, within and without.

30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

31 And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive tree: the lintel and side posts were ^a a fifth part of the wall.

32 The ^b two doors also were of olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims and palm trees and π open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims and upon the palm trees.

33 So also made he for the door of the temple, posts of olive tree, ^c a fourth part of the wall.

34 And the two doors were of fir tree: the two ^d leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.

35 And he carved thereon cherubims and palm trees and open flowers; and covered them with gold fitted upon the carved work.

36 And he built the inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams.

37 In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Zif:

38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished ϕ throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he ^e seven years in building it.

CHAPTER VII.

BUT Solomon was building his own house thirteen ^f years, and he finished all his house.

2 He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.

3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the β beams, that lay on forty five pillars, fifteen in a row.

4 And there were windows in three rows, and δ light was against light in three ranks.

5 And all the δ doors and posts were square, with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks.

6 And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was η before them; and the other pillars and the thick beam were η before them.

7 Then he made a porch for the throne, where he might judge, even the porch of judgment; and it was covered with cedar om β one side of the floor to the other.

 8 And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Solomon made also an house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom^a he ad taken to wife, like unto this porch.
 9 All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of hewed stones, hewed with saws, within and without, even on the foundation unto the coping, and on the outside toward the great court.
 10 And the foundation was of costly stones, even great stones; stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.
 11 And above were costly stones, after the measures of hewed stones, and cedars.
 12 And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court of the house of the LORD, and for the porch^e of the house.
 13 And king Solomon sent, and fetched Hiram^f out of Tyre.
 14 He was a widow's son^g of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father^h was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: andⁱ he was filled with wisdom and understanding and cunning to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work.
 15 For he δ east two pillars^k of brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece; and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of them about.
 16 And he made two chapiters^l of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapter was five cubits:
 17 And nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; even for the one chapter, and seven for the other chapter.
 18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and so did he for the other chapter.
 19 And the chapters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits.
 20 And the chapters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the network: and the pomegranates were two hundred, in rows round about upon the other chapter.
 21 And he set up the pillars in the porchⁿ of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called the name thereof Jachin; and he set up the left pillar, and called the name thereof^a Boaz.
 22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.
 23 And he made a molten sea,^p ten cubits^v from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.
 24 And^r under the brim of it round about there were knops compassing it, ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were east in two rows, when it was cast.
 25 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

26 And it was an hand breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand baths.

27 And he made ten bases of brass: four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it.

28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had borders, and the borders were between the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions,^b oxen, and cherubims:^c and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions^d made of thin work.

30 And every base had four brazen wheels, and plates of brass; and the four corners thereof had undersetters: under the laver were undersetters molten, at the side of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it, within the chapter and above, was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round, after the work of the base, a cubit and an half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, foursquare, not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels;ⁱ and the axletrees of the wheels were joined to the base; and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.

33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel; their axletrees, and their naves, and their felloes, and their spokes, were all molten.

34 And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the undersetters were of the very base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof, and the borders thereof, were of the same.

36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubims, lions, and palm trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about.

37 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one easting, one measure, and one size.

38 Then made he ten lavers^m of brass: one laver contained forty baths; and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver.

39 And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house; and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, over against the south.

40 And^u Hiram made the lavers, and the shovels, and the basons. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of the LORD;

41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the chapters that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two networks,^v to cover the two bowls of the chapters which were upon the top of the pillars;

42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, even two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two bowls of the chapters that were upon the pillars;

43 And the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases;

44 And one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea;

45 And^b the pots, and the shovels, and the basons: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the LORD, were of ^β bright brass.

46 In the plain of Jordan did the king east them, ^γ in the clay ground between Suecoth^c and Zarthan^f.

47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, ^δ because they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass ^ζ found out.

48 And Solomon made all the vessels that pertained unto the house of the LORD: the altar^k of gold, and the table of gold, wherenpon the showbread^m was,

49 And the candlesticks of pure gold, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold;

50 And the bowls, and the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple.

51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the house of the LORD. And Solomon brought in the ^θ things which David^p his father had dedicated; even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

CHAPTER VIII.

THEN Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the ^κ chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, that^r they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city^t of David, which is Zion.

2 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the feast,^v in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.

3 And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests^x took up the ark.

4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and the tabernacle^y of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even those did the priests and the Levites bring up.

5 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing^z sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

6 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place,^c into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings^f of the cherubims.

7 For the cherubims spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark, and the staves thereof, above.

8 And they drew out the staves, that the ^ν ends of the staves were seen out in the ^π holy place before the oracle, and they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day.

9 There was nothing in the ark, save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there^k at Horeb, ^ρ when the LORD made a covenant^t with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.

10 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud^a filled the house of the LORD,

11 So that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD.

12 Then^e spake Solomon, The LORD said that he would dwell in the thick darkness,^d

13 I^g have surely built thee an house to dwell in, a settled place^k for thee to abide in for ever.

14 And the king turned his face about, and blessedⁱ all the congregation of Israel: (and all the congregation of Israel stood:)

15 And he said, Blessed^j be the LORD God of Israel, which spake^l with his month unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying,

16 Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that my name might be therein; but I chose Davidⁿ to be over my people Israel.

17 And^o it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

18 And the LORD said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart:

19 Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son, that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name.

20 And the LORD hath performed his word that he spake; and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as^r the LORD promised, and have built an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

21 And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein^u is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 And Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD, in the presence of the congregation of Israel, and spread^w forth his hands toward heaven:

23 And he said, LORD God of Israel, there^z is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, who^a keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk^b before thee with all their heart;

24 Who hast kept with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

25 Therefore now, LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him,^d saying, ^λ There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel: ^μ so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me, as thou hast walked before me.

26 And now, O God of Israel, let^ρ thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

27 But wilt God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, the heaven^k and heaven of heavensⁱ cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded?

28 Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to day:

29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said,^m My name all be there; that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make ^a toward this place.

30 And ^b hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray ^c toward this ace: and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place; and when thou hearest, forgive.

31 If any man trespass against his neighbour, and ^d an oath be laid upon him to use him to swear, and the oath come fore thine altar in this house:

32 Then hear thou in heaven, and do, ^e id judge thy servants, ^f eoudemning the ieked, to bring his way upon his head; ^g id justifying the righteous, to give him ording to his righteousness.

33 When thy people Israel be ^h smitten own before the enemy, because they have uned against thee, and shall turn ⁱ again to ee, and confess thy name, and pray, and ake supplication unto thee ^j in this house:

34 Then hear thou in heaven, and forve the sin of thy people Israel, and iug them again unto the land which ou gavest unto their fathers.

35 When heaven ^k is shut up, and there is rain, because they have sinned against ee; if they pray toward this place, and nfess thy name, and turn from their l, when thou afflictest them:

36 Then hear thou in heaven, and forve the sin of thy servants, and of thy ople Israel, that thou teach ^l them the ed way wherein they should walk, and ve rain upon thy land which thou hast ven to thy people for an inheritance.

37 If ^m there be in the land famine, if ere be pestilence, blasting, mildew, lost, or if there be caterpillar; if their emy besiege them in the land of their ities; whatsoever plague, whatsoever eakness ⁿ there be;

38 What prayer and supplication soever ^o made by any man, or by all thy people rael, which shall know every man the ague of his own heart, and spread forth s hands toward this house:

39 Then hear thou in heaven thy dwellg place, and forgive, and do, and give every man according to his ways, ose heart thou knowest; (for ^p thou, en thou only, knowest the hearts of all e children of men;)

40 That they may fear ^q thee all the ys that they live in the land which ou gavest unto our fathers.

41 Moreover, concerning a stranger that ^r net of thy people Israel, but cometh t of a far country for thy name's sake:

42 (For they shall hear of thy great me, and of thy ^s strong hand, and of y stretched out arm;) when he shall me and pray toward this house:

43 Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling ace, and do according to all that the ranger calleth to thee for; that ^t all peoe of the earth may know thy name, to ar thee, as ^u do thy people Israel; and that ey may know that ^v this house, which ave builded, is called by thy name.

44 If thy people go out to battle against eir enemy, whithersoever thou shalt nd them, and shall pray unto the LORD ward ^w the city which thou hast chosen, d toward the house that I have built r thy name:

45 Then hear thou in heaven their ayer and their supplication, and main-

48 And so return ^f unto thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies which led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward ^h their land which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:

49 Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintain their ^θ cause,

50 And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give ^l them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them:

51 For ^m they ^{be} thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the ⁿ furnace of iron:

52 That thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee.

53 For thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to ^{be} thine inheritance, as thou spakest ^a by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54 And it was ^{so}, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

55 And he stood, and blessed ^r all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying,

56 Blessed ^{be} the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there ^u hath not ^λ failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised ^v by the hand of Moses his servant.

57 The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let ^w him not leave us, nor forsake us;

58 That he may incline ^y our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.

59 And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel at ^v all times, as the matter shall require;

60 That ^a all the people of the earth may know that ^b the LORD is God, and that there is none else.

61 Let your heart, therefore, be ^c perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

62 And^a the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD.

63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

64 The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD; for there he offered burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings; because the brazen^c altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offerings and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 And at that time Solomon held a feast,^e and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering^h in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days.

66 On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they^b blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness^l that the LORD had done for David his servaut, and for Israel his people.

CHAPTER IX.

AND^o it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the king's house,^q and all^r Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do,

2 That the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had^s appeared unto him at Gibeon.

3 And the LORD said unto him, I have heard^t thy prayer and thy supplication that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house which thou hast built, to put my^w name there for ever; and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there^x perpetually.

4 And if thou wilt walk before me, as David^a thy father walked, in^b integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments:

5 Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, as I promised^c to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.

6 But if^e ye shall at all turn from following me, ye or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them;

7 Then^h will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them: and this house,ⁱ which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb^k and a byword among all people:

8 And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss: and they shall say, Whyⁿ hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house?

9 And they shall answer, Because they forsook^r the LORD their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore^s hath the LORD brought upon them all this evil.

10 And^t it came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD, and the king's house, 11 (Now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees, and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they^b pleased him not.

13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of ^r Cabul unto^b this day.

14 And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

15 And this is the reason of the^d levy which king Solomon raised; for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and Millo,^f and the wall^g of Jerusalem, and Hazer,ⁱ and Megiddo,^j and^k Gezer.

16 For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Solomon's wife.

17 And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon^m the nether,

18 And Baalath,ⁿ and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land,

19 And all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots,^p and cities for his horsemen, and^s that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20 And all the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel, 21 Their children that were left^u after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able^v utterly to destroy, upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of bondservice^w unto this day.

22 But of the children of Israel^x did Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.

23 These were the chief of the officers that were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

24 But^d Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto her^f house which Solomon had built for her: then^g did he build Millo.

25 And three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, and he burnt incense^r upon the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

26 And^t king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber,^m which is beside Elloth, on the^o shore of the Red sea, in the land of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon.

28 And^o they came to Ophir,^p and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

CHAPTER X.

AND^r when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious tones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

3 And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not any thing hid from her king, which he told her not.

4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built,

5 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

6 And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts and of thy wisdom.

7 Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it; and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.

8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom.

9 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the LORD loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice.

10 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

11 And the navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in much Ophir great plenty of palmug trees, and precious stones.

12 And the king made of the almug trees pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, harps also, and psalteries for singers: there came no such almug trees, nor were seen unto this day.

13 And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty: so she returned, and went to her own country, she and her servants.

14 Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundredreesore and six talents of gold, 15 Beside that he had of the merchantmen, and of the traffic of the spice merchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the governors of the country.

16 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of gold went to one target.

17 And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pounds of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

18 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold.

19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round and behind: and there were stays on either side on the neck of the seat, and two lions stood before the stays.

20 And twelve lions stood there on the left side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom.

sels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

22 For the king had at sea a navy of Tharshish^a with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

23 So^b king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.

24 And all the earth sought^c to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which^e God had put in his heart.

25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

26 And Solomon gathered together chariots^d and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem.

27 And the king^v made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the vale, for abundance.

28 ^f And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: ^h the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.

29 And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the^k Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their^m means.

CHAPTER XI.

BUT king Solomon loved many strange women, (^σ together with the daughter of Pharaoh,) women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites;

2 Of the nations concerning which the LORD said^m unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods. Solomon clave unto these in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wivesⁿ turned away his heart.

4 For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect^o with the LORD his God, as was^p the heart of David his father.

5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after^q Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and^β went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father.

7 Then did Solomon build an high place^r for Chemosh,^s the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem; and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8 And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense, and sacrificed unto their gods.

9 And the LORD was angry^u with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, which had appeared unto him twice,^v

10 And had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded.

11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is β done of thee, and thou hast not kept^b my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend^c the kingdom from thee, and will give it^d to thy servant.

12 Notwithstanding, in thy^f days I will not do it, for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son.

13 Howbeit^g I will not rend away all the kingdom: but will give one tribe to thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, whichⁱ I have chosen.

14 And the LORD^k stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom.

15 For it came to pass, when^l David was in Edom, and Joab, the captain of the host, was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every maleⁿ in Edom;

16 (For six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom;)

17 That Hadad fled, he, and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child.

18 And they arose out of Midian,^p and came to Paran:^q and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt; which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land.

19 And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife^r the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen.

20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household, among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and^s that Joab, the captain of the host, was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, δ Let me depart, that I may go to mine own country.

22 Then Pharaoh said unto him, But what hast thou lacked with me, that, behold, thou seekest to go to thine own country? And he answered, ζ Nothing: howbeit let me go in any wise.

23 And God stirred him up another adversary, Rezon the son of Eliadah, which fled from his lord Hadadezer, ϵ king of Zobah.

24 And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when^d David slew them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus.

25 And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

26 And Jeroboam^f the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of Zereda, Solomon's servant, (whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman,) even he lifted up^g his hand against the king.

27 And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo,^k and^l repaired the breaches of the city of David his father.

28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he^m was industrious, he made him ruler over all theⁿ charge of the house of Joseph.

29 And it came to pass at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah^a the Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field:

30 And Ahijah caught^e the new garment that was on him, and reut it in twelve pieces:

31 And he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces; for^k thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee:

32 (But he shall have one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:)

33 Because^m that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Mileom the god of the children of Ammon; and have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did David his father.

34 Howbeit^o I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but I will make him princee all the days of his life, for David^r my servant's sake, whom I chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes;

35 But^s I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes.

36 And unto his son will I give^t one tribe, that^v David my servant may have a γ light alway before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there.

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel.

38 And it shall be, if^w thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that is right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; that^y I will be with thee, and^z build thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee.

39 And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but^a not for ever.

40 Solomon sought^b therefore to kill Jeroboam: and Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 And^c the rest of the η acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

42 And the θ time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

43 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father: and κ Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XII.

AND^k Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And it came to pass, whenⁱ Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was yet in Egypt, heard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt.)

3 That they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke^l grievous ow, therefore, make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Depart yet or three days, then come again to me, and the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam consulted with the old^a men that stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do ye advise, that I may answer this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a servant^b unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words^c to them, then they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which stood before him;

9 And he said unto them, What counsel give ye, that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter?

10 And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 And now, whereas my father did add to you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.^k

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day.

13 And the king answered the people roughly,^o and forsook^p the old men's counsel that they gave him;

14 And^r spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made our yoke heavy, and I will add to your yoke: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for^t the cause was from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which the LORD spake^w by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What^v portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents.

17 But^a as for the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent^c Adoram, who was over the tribute; and all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died: therefore king Rehoboam^e made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So^a Israel^h rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

20 And it came to pass, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.^g

Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

23 Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; for^d this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

25 Then Jeroboam built Shechem^e in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel.^f

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:

27 If this people go up^g to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves^h of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: beholdⁱ thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in Beth-el,^j and the other put he in Dan.^m

30 And this thing becameⁿ a sin: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan.

31 And he made an house of high places, and made priests^q of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sons of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like unto the feast^r that is in Judah, and ye offered upon the altar. So did he in Beth-el, ^s sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el^u the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 So he ^t offered upon the altar which he had made in Beth-el, the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised^z of his own heart; and ordained a feast unto the children of Israel: and he offered upon the altar, and ^v burnt^z incense.

CHAPTER XIII.

AND, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Beth-el: and^b Jeroboam stood by the altar to ^o burn incense.

2 And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall^c he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee.

3 And he gave a sign^f the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.

4 And it came to pass, when king Jeho-boam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Beth-el, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying,^a Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him.

5 The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign^c which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

6 And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Entreat^d now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought^β the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.

7 And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will give thee a^e reward.

8 And the man of God said unto the king, If^f thou wilt give me half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place:

9 For so was it charged me by the word of the LORD, saying, Eat^h no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest.

10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

11 Now there dwelt an old prophet in Beth-el; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father.

12 And their father said unto them, What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah.

13 And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass; and he rode thereon, 14 And went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I am.

15 Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread.

16 And he said, I may^o not return with thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread, nor drink water with thee in this place:

17 For ^κit was said to me by^p the word of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest.

18 He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied^r unto him.

19 So^t he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

20 And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back:

21 And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch^u as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee,

22 But camest back, and hast eaten^a bread and drunk water in the place of the which the LORD did say^b to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy earcase^c shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

24 And when he was gone, a lion^b met him by the way, and slew him; and his earcase was east in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the earcase.

25 And, behold, men passed by, and saw the earcase east in the way, and the lion standing by the earcase: and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet dwelt.

26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was disobedient unto the word of the LORD; therefore the LORD hath delivered him unto the lion, which hath ^γtorn him, and slain him, according to the word of the LORD, which he ^δspake unto him.

27 And he spake to his sons, saying, Saddle me the ass. And they saddled him.

28 And he went, and found his earcase cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the earcase: the lion had not eaten the earcase, nor ^δtorn the ass.

29 And the prophet took up the earcase of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to the city, to monru and to bury him.

30 And he laid his earcase in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, Alas, my brother!

31 And it came to pass, after he had buried him, that he spake to his sons, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre wherein the man of God is buried: lay^k my bones beside his bones:

32 For the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Beth-el, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, shall surely come to pass.

33 After^m this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way, but ^νmade againⁿ of the lowest of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would, he ^θconsecrated him, and he became one of the priests of the high places.

34 And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to ^οent it off, and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

CHAPTER XIV.

AT that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick.

2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam; and get thee to Shiloh: behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, which^s told me that I should be king over this people.

3 And^u take ^λwith thee ten loaves, and ^μeraeknels, and a ^νeruse of honey, and go to him: he shall tell thee what shall become of the child.

4 And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see, for his eyes ^πwere set by reason of his age.

5 And the LORD said^z unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask a thing of thee for her son, for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her; for it shall be, when she cometh in, that she shall feign herself to be another woman.

6 And it was so, when Ahijah heard the ound of her feet, as she came in at the oor, that he said, Come in, thou wife of eroboam; why feignest thou thyself to e another? For I am sent to thee with heavy tidings.

7 Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus saith the ORD God of Israel, Forasmuch^e as I exlted thee from among the people, and ade thee prince over my people Israel,

8 And rent^v the kingdom away from e house of David, and gave it thee; and et thou hast not been as my servant
David, whoⁱ kept my commandments, nd who followed me with all his heart, to o that only which was right in mine eyes; 9 But hast done evil above all that ere before thee: for^k thou hast gone nd made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke^m me to anger, and ast eastⁿ me behind thy back;

10 Therefore, behold, I will bring evil pon the house of Jeroboam, and will ut off^o from Jeroboam him that pisseth gainst the wall, and him that is shnt^p up nd left in Israel, and will take away the emnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a an taketh away dnnng, till it be all gone.

11 Him^a that dieth of Jeroboam in the ity shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth
y the field shall the fowls of the air eat:
or the LORD hath spoken it.

12 Arise thou, therefore, get thee to hine own house; and when thy feet ener into the city, the child shall die.^s

13 And all Israel shall mourn for him, nd bury him: for he only of Jeroboam hall come to the grave, because^t in him here is found^v some good thing toward he LORD God of Israel in the house of eroboam.

14 Moreover, the LORD shall raise him
p a king over Israel, who^z shall ent ff the house of Jeroboam that day: but what? even now.

15 For the LORD shall smite Israel as reed is shaken in the water, and^b he hall root^c up Israel out of this good and which he gave to their fathers, and hall scatter^e them beyond the river, be-ause they have made their^g groves, pro-oking the LORD to anger.

16 And he shall give Israel up,^h be-ause of the sins of Jeroboam, whoⁱ did in, and who made Israel to sin.

17 And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah;^k and when he came to the threshold of the door,
he child died;

18 And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake^l by the hand of his servant Ahijah the prophet.

19 And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, ow he warred,^m and how he reigned, ehold, they are written in the book of he chronicles of Israel.

20 And the days which Jeroboam eigned were two and twenty years: and heⁿ slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

21 And Rehoboam the son of Solomon eigned in Judah. Rehoboam was^o forty nd one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city^p which the LORD did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, to ut his name there. And his mother's ame was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

LORD, and they provoked him to^a jealousy with their sins which they had committed, above all that their fathers had done:

23 For they also built them high^b places, and yimages, and groves,^c on every high hill, and^d under every green tree.

24 And^f there were also sodomites in the land; and they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD east out before the children of Israel.

25 And^h it came to pass, in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem:

26 And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of goldⁱ which Solomon had made.

27 And king Rehoboam made in their stead brazen shields, and committed them unto the hands of the chief of the^g gnard, which kept the door of the king's house.

28 And it was so, when the king went into the house of the LORD, that the guard bare them, and brought them back into the gnard chamber.

29 Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

30 And^r there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

31 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess. And Abi-jam^u his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XV.

NOW^w in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat, reigned Abi-jam over Judah.

2 Three years reigned he in Jernsalem.
And^v his mother's name was^z Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom.^a 3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart^d was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father.

4 Nevertheless,^f for David's sake, did the LORD his God give him a^g lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem:

5 Because David did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

6 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

7 Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

8 Andⁿ Abijam slept with his fathers;
and they buried him in the city of David:
and Asa his son reigned in his stead.

9 And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel reigned Asa over Judah.

10 And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his^o mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom.

11 And Asa did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did David his father.

12 And he took away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

13 And also Maachah his mother, even her he removed from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove: and Asa^a destroyed her idol, and burnt^b it by the brook Kidron.

14 But^d the high places were not removed: nevertheless Asa's heart was perfect with the LORD all his days.

15 And he brought in the γ things which his father had dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver, and gold, and vessels.

16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

17 And^f Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah,^g that heⁱ might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt^o at Damasens, saying,

19 There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may^d depart from me.

20 So Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon,^t and Dau,^u and Abelmah-maachah,^v and all Cinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

21 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard thereof, that he left off building of Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah.

22 Then king Asa made a proclamation throughout all Judah; none was^s exempted; and they took away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha had builded: and king Asa built with them Geba^a of Benjamin, and Mizpah.^b

23 The rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Nevertheless in the time of his old age he was diseased^c in his feet.

24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and^g Jehoshaphat^h his son reigned in his stead.

25 And Nadab the son of Jeroboam^o began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned over Israel two years.

26 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and^t Baasha smote him at^m Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; (for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon;)

28 Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead.

29 And it came to pass, when he reigned, that he smote all the house of Jeroboam; he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according unto the saying^q of the LORD, which he spake by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite:

30 Because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation wherewith he provoked^e the LORD God of Israel to anger.

31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

32 And^e there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty and four years.

34 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way^k of Jeroboam, and in his sin^k wherewith he made Israel to sin.

CHAPTER XVI.

THEN the word of the LORD came to Jehu^t the son of Hanani, against Baasha,^m saying,

2 Forasmuchⁿ as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over my people Israel; and thou hast walked in the way^p of Jeroboam, and hast^q made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins;

3 Behold, I will^r take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house; and will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

4 Him^s that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat.

5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written^w in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

6 So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead.

7 And also by the hand of the^y prophet Jehu, the son of Hanani, came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house,^z even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in^c provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because^d he killed him.

8 In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years.

9 And his servant Zimri,^f captain of half his chariots, conspired against him as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunkⁱ in the house of Arza, ⁿ steward of his house in Tirzah.

10 And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.

11 And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha: he left him not one^k that pisseth against a wall, ^k neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends.

12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spakeⁿ against Baasha ^a by Jehu the prophet,

13 For all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking^o the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.^p

14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15 In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven ays in Tirzah.^a And the people were encamped against Gibbethon,^b which belonged to the Philistines.

16 And the people that were encamped eard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king: wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp.

17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

18 And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him^c with fire, and died,

19 For his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking^d in the way of Jeroboam, and in his in which he did, to make Israel to sin.

20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel divided^e into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the thirty and first year of Asa king of Judah began Omri^f to reign over Israel, twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, ^g Samaria.

25 But Omri wrought evil^h in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all that were before him.

26 For he walkedⁱ in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.^j

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he shewed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah, began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel, in Samaria, twenty and two years.

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD above^k all that were before him.

31 And it came to pass, ^l as if it had been a light^m thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wifeⁿ Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians,^o and^p went and served Baal, and worshipped him.

32 And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a grove;^q and Ahab did more^r to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his days did Hiel the Beth-elite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his firstborn, and set

CHAPTER XVII.

AND ^β Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As^d the LORD God of Israel liveth, before^e whom I stand, there^f shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

3 Get thee hence, and turn thee east-ward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

4 And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravensⁱ to feed thee there.

5 So he went, and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

6 And^k the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening: and he drank of the brook.

7 And it came to pass, ^γ after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

8 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

9 Arise, get thee to Zarephath,^m which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee.

10 So he arose, and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand.

12 And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.^s

13 And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go, and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first,^t and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son.

14 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD ^ζ sendeth rain upon the earth.

15 And she went, and did according to the saying of Elijah; and she, and he, and her house, did eat ^γ many days.

16 And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake^κ by Elijah.

17 And it came to pass, after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she said unto Elijah, What^τ have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call^β my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?

19 And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a loft where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed.

20 And he cried unto the LORD, and said,

O LORD my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son?

21 And ^a he ^β stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into ^γ him again.

22 And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.

23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother: ^δ and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth!

24 And the woman said to Elijah, Now ^ε by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in thy month is truth.

CHAPTER XVIII.

AND it came to pass, after many ^ζ days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, shew thyself unto Ahab; and ^η I will send rain upon the earth.

2 And Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab. And there was a sore famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called ^θ Obadiah, which was ^η the governor of his house. (Now Obadiah feared ^θ the LORD greatly:

4 For it was so, when ^θ Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took ^α an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread ^τ and water.)

5 And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we ^λ lose not all the beasts.

6 So they divided the land between them, to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art thou that my lord Elijah?

8 And he answered him, I am: go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is ^{here}.

9 And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?

10 As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not.

11 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is ^{here}.

12 And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that ^ω the Spirit of the LORD shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear ^α the LORD from my youth.

13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD's prophets ^α by fifty in a cave, and fed ^α them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is ^{here}: and he shall slay ^β me.

15 And Elijah said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I ^c will surely shew myself unto him to day.

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth ^β Israel?

18 And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou and thy father's house, ^c in that ye have forsaken ^d the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount Carmel, ^e and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves ^f four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table.

20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered ^g the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How ^h long halt ye between two ^δ opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if ^m Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Elijah unto the people, I, even I only, ^o remain a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under:

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth by fire, ^s let him be God. And all the people answered and said, ^κ It is well spoken.

25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many: and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.

26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, ^μ hear us. But there^t was no voice, nor any that ^ν answered. And they leaped ^π upon the altar which was made.

27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry ^ρ aloud; for ^α he is a god: either he ^σ is talking, or he ^τ is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked.

28 And they cried aloud, and cut ^υ themselves, after their manner, with knives and lancets, till ^φ the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And it came to pass, when midday was past, and they prophesied until the time of the ^χ offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any ^ψ that regarded.

30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom ^γ the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name:

32 And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.

33 And he put the wood in order, and cut ^d the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with ter, and pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he said, Do it the second time: and they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time: and they did it the third time.

35 And the water ^βran round about the altar; and he filled the trench ^αalso with water.

36 And it came to pass, at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, ^αLORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, ^εlet be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and ^ζthat I have done all these things at thy word.

37 Hear me, O LORD, hear me; that is people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned our heart back again.

38 Then ^κthe fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, ^αis the God; the LORD, he ^ηis the God.

40 And Elijah said unto them, ^γTake care prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew ^πthem there.

41 And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is ^δa sound abundance of rain.

42 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees, 43 And said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times.

44 And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth little clond out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, ^ζPrepare thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not.

45 And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel.

46 And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah: and he girded ^νup his loins, and ran before Ahab ^γto the entrance of Jezreel.

CHAPTER XIX.

AND Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had slain ^δthe prophets with the sword.

2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, So ^αlet the gods do to me, and here also, if ^εI make not thy life as the life of one of them by to morrow about this time.

3 And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.

4 But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, ^νIt is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for ^κI am not better than my fathers.

5 And as he lay and slept under a juniper tree, behold, then an angel ^κtonched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat.

6 And he looked, and, behold, there was a cake baken on the coals, and a urn of water at his ^μhead. And he did eat and drink, and laid him down again.

7 And the angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat; because the journey is too great for thee.

8 And he arose, and did eat and drink, and went in the strength of that meat forty ^βdays and forty nights, unto Horeb the ^εmount of God.

9 And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said unto him, What doest thou here, Elijah?

10 And ^σhe said, I have been very ^κjealous for the LORD God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain ^ιthy prophets with the sword: and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

11 And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount ^ιbefore the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind ^μrent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the ^οLORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.

13 And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he ^γwrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the cave. And, behold, there came a voice unto him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah?

14 And he said, I ^εhave been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts; because the children of Israel have forsaken ^ιthy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword: and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Go, return on thy way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when thou comest, anoint Hazael ^νto be king over Syria:

16 And Jehu ^νthe son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel: and Elisha ^ωthe son of Shaphat, of Abel-meholah, shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room.

17 And ^πit shall come to pass, that him that escapeth the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay; and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay. ^z

18 Yet ^αI ^θhave left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed ^εhim.

19 So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed by him, and cast his mantle upon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then ^ιI will follow thee. And he said unto him, Go back again: for what have I done to thee?

21 And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments ^ιof the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat: then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered unto him.

CHAPTER XX.

AND Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together: and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

2 And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said unto him, Thus^b saith Beu-hadad,

3 Thy silver and thy gold is mine: thy wives also and thy children, even the goodliest, are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have.

5 And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy childreu;

6 Yet I will send my servants unto thee to morrow about this time, and they shall search thine house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is ^βpleasant in thine eyes, they shall put it in their haud, and take it away.

7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the laud,^γ and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief: for he sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I ^δdenied him uot.

8 And all the elders and all the people said unto him, Harken not unto him, nor consent.

9 Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.

10 And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, The gods^ι do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that ^θfollow me.

11 And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let^ι uot him that girdeth ou his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.

12 And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this ^κmessage, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the ^λpavilious, that he said unto his servants, ^μSet yourselves in array: and they set themselves in array against the city.

13 And, behold, there ^νcame a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thine haud this day; ^αand thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Even by the ^πyoung men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall ^ρorder the battle? And he answered, Thou.

15 Then he numbered^τ the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty two: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon: but Ben-hadad was drinking^υ himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings^υ that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Beu-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, take them alive.

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them.

20 And^a they slew every one his man: and the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on an horse with the horsemen.

21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

22 And the prophet^c came to the king of Israel, and said unto him, Go, strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou doest: for at the return^d of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee.

23 And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their gods^e are gods of the hills, therefore they were stronger than we: but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.

24 And do this thing: Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their rooms:

25 And number thee an army like the army that ^γthou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and^ο surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26 And it came to pass, at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek,^h to ^ζfight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were numbered, and were ^νall present, and went against them: and the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country.

28 And there came a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because^k the Syrians have said, The LORD is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys; therefore^m will I deliver all this great multitude into thine haud, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

29 And they pitched one over against the other seven days; and so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined:ⁿ and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled^ο to Aphek, into the city; and there^ρ a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Beu-hadad fled, and came into the city, into ^ξan inner chamber.

31 And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful^r kings: let us, I pray thee, put^s sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; peradventure he will save thy life.

32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.

33 Now the men did diligently observe whether any thing would come from him and did hastily catch it: and they said Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he said Go ye, bring him. Then Beu-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up^w into the chariot.

34 And Ben-hadad said unto him, The cities^x which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make feets for thee in Damaseus, as my father made in Samaria. Then said Ahab, will send thee away with this covenant. he made a covenant^b with him, and at him away.

35 And a certain man of the sons^c of the prophets said unto his neighbour in the word^d of the LORD, Smite^e me, I pray eo. And the man refused to smite him.

36 Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, a lionⁱ smote him, and slew him.

37 Then he found another man, and said, smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, y so that in smiting he wounded him.

38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and^l disguised himself with ashes upon his face.

39 And as the king passed by, he cried unto the king: and he said,^m Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside, and brought me a man unto me, and said, Keep this man: y by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt^o pay a talent of silver.

40 And as thy servant was busy here and there, he^o was gone. And the king of Israel said unto him, So^q shall thy judgment be; thyself^r hast decided it.

41 And he hastened, and took the ashes away from his face; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was of the prophets.

42 And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore^t thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people.

43 And the king of Israel went to his house heavy^v and displeased, and came to Samaria.

CHAPTER XXI.

AND it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

2 And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, Give^x me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house; and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money.

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The LORD forbid it me, that^a I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee.

4 And Ahab came into his house^c heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

5 But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why^d is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard.

7 And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I^l will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

8 So^a she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth^β on high among the people;

10 And set two men, sons^f of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme^g God and the king: and then carry him out, and stone^h him, that he may die.

11 And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles, who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast,^k and set Naboth on high among the people.

13 And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessedⁿ against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then^o they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.

14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.

15 And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take^s possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead.

16 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

17 And^u the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

18 Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, which^w is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it.

19 And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, In^y the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine.

20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast^z thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee; because thou hast sold^b thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD.

21 Behold, I^d will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will^e cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel,

22 And will make thine house like the house of Jeroboam^f the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha^g the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Israel to sin.

23 And of Jezebelⁱ also spake the LORD, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the^θ wall of Jezreel.

24 Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.

25 But^k there was none like unto Ahab, which did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife^κ stirred up.^m

26 And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things as did the Amorites,^a whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

27 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that^b he rent his clothes, and put^c sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

28 And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

29 Seest thou how Ahab^c humbleth himself before me? Because^d he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in^e his days; but in^f his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.

CHAPTER XXII.

AND they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.

2 And^g it came to pass, in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.

3 And the king of Israel said unto his servants, Know ye that Ramoth^h in Gilead is ours, and we be ystill, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria?

4 And he said unto Jehoshaphat,ⁱ Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I^j am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.

5 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Iuquire,^k I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.

6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets^l together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And^m they said, Go up; for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

7 And Jehoshaphat said, Isⁿ there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might inquire of him?

8 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate^o him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

9 Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Hasteu hither Micaiah the son of Imlah.

10 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a^p void place in the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

11 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron: and he said, Thus saith the LORD, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou have consumed them.

12 And^q all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper:^r for the LORD shall deliver it into the king's hand.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good.^s

14 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, what^t the LORD saith unto me, that will I speak.

15 So he came to the king. And the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

16 And the king said unto him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the LORD?

17 And he said, I saw all Israel^d scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return every man to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?

19 And he said, Hear thou, therefore, the word of the LORD: I saw^e the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host^f of heaven standing by him, on his right hand and on his left.

20 And the LORD said, Who shall ^g persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.

21 And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him.

22 And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: go forth, and do so.

23 Now^h therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.

24 But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smoteⁱ Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

25 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go^j into the inner chamber to hide thyself.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

27 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison,^k and feed him with bread of affliction,^l and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.

28 And Micaiah said, If^m thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said,ⁿ Harken, O people, every one of you.

29 So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, ^o I will disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel^p disguised himself, and went into the battle.

31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.

32 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And^q they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out.

33 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a certain man drew a bow^r at ture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints ^β of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the street; for I am ^γ wounded.

 35 And the battle ^δ increased that day;
 and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even:
 and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot.
 36 And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every ^α man to his country, and every man to his own country.
 37 So the king died, and ^ζ was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria.
 38 And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; and they washed his armour;
 according unto the word of the LORD
 which he spake.^ι 39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory ^η house which he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
 40 So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.
 41 And ^μ Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel.
 42 Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.
 43 And ^ρ he walked in all the ways of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing that which ^ω was right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless the high people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places.

 44 And Jehoshaphat made peace ^β with the king of Israel.
 45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehosha-phat, and his might that he shewed, and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
 46 And the remnant of the ^γ sodomites, which remained in the days of his father
 Asa, he took out of the land.
 47 There was then no king ^δ in Edom:
 a deputy was king.
 48 Jehoshaphat ^η made ships ^ζ of Thar-shish ^θ to go to Ophir for gold; but they went not; for the ships were broken at Ezion-geber.^h
 49 Then said Ahaziah the son of Ahab unto Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go shaphat would not.

 50 And ^k Jehoshaphat slept with his to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel.

 52 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way ⁿ of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam ^o the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin:
 53 For he served Baal, ^q and worshipped him, and provoked to anger the LORD God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

The Second Book of the KINGS, commonly called The Fourth Book of the KINGS.

CHAPTER I.

WHEN Moab rebelled ^α against Israel
 after the death of Ahab.
 2 And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said unto them, Go, inquire of Baal-zebub the god of ^γ Ekron, whether
 I shall recover ^δ of this disease.
 3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of Baal-zebub ^ε the god of Ekron?
 4 Now, therefore, thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed.
 5 And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, Why are ye now turned back?
 6 And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, and again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus ^ι saith the LORD, Is not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of Baal-zebub
 the god of Ekron? therefore ^k thou shalt

 7 And he said unto them, ^β What manner of man was ^γ he which came up to meet you, and told you these words?
 8 And they answered him, He ^δ was an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.
 9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him; and, behold, he sat on the top of an hill. And he spake unto him, Thou man of God, the king hath said, Come down.
 10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then let fire ^ε come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came ^ζ down fire from heaven, and ^h consumed him and his fifty.
 11 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly.
 12 And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

13 And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and ⁷fell^a on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious^c in thy sight.

14 Behold, there came^d fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the angel of the LORD said unto Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

16 And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch^f as thou hast sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, is it not because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

17 So he died, according to the word of the LORD, which Elijah had spoken: and [§]Jehoram reigned in his stead, in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

CHAPTER II.

AND it came to pass, when the LORD would take^k up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with^l Elisha from Gilgal.

2 And Elijah said unto Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Beth-el. And Elisha said unto him, As^m the LORD liveth, and asⁿ thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth-el.

3 And the sons^o of the prophets that were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to day? And he said, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace.

4 And Elijah said unto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho.

5 And the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to day? And he answered, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace.

6 And Elijah said unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here; for the LORD hath sent me to Jordau. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on.

7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood ^λto view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan.

8 And Elijah took his mantle,^v and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and ^wthey were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground.

9 And it came to pass, when they were gone over, that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let^y a double portion of thy spirit be upon me.

10 And he said, Thou hast ^βasked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be se unto thee; but if not, it shall not be so.

11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot^b of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

12 And Elisha saw it, and he cried,^c My father, my father! the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own eloths, and rent them in two pieces.

13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the ^δbank of Jordan;

14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of Elijah? And when he also had smitten the waters,^ρ they parted hither and thither: & Elisha went over.

15 And when the sons of the prophets, which were to view^k at Jericho, saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.

16 And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty ⁷streng men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master; lest peradventure the ⁱSpirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and east him upon ^θsome mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send.

17 And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent, therefore, fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

18 And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said unto them, Did I not say unto you, Go not?

19 And the men of the city said unto Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is naught, and the ground ^κbarren.

20 And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and east the salt^ρ in there, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have^ρ healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren^r land.

22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

23 And he went up from thence unto Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children^s out of the city, and mocked^t him, and said unto him, Go up, thou bald head; go up, thou bald head.

24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed^u them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two she bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them.

25 And he went from thence to mount Carmel; and from thence he returned to Samaria.

CHAPTER III.

NOW^x Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.

2 And he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD; but not like his father, and like his mother; for he put away the ^μimage of^μ Baal that his father had made.

3 Nevertheless he cleaved unto the^α sins

Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made el to sin; he departed not therefrom.
 2 And Mesha king of Moab was a sheepaster, and^a rendered unto the king of rael an hundred thousand lambs,^b and hundred thousand rams, with the wool.
 3 But^c it came to pass, when Ahab was ad, that the king of Moab rebelled iust the king of Israel.
 4 And king Jehoram went out of Samaria
 e same time, and numbered all Israel.
 5 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat e king of Judah, saying, Tho king of oab hath rebelled against me: wilt ou go with me against Moab to battle?
 6 And he said, I will go up:^d I am as thou t, my people as thy people, and my rses as thy horses.
 7 And he said, Which way shall we go ? And he answered, The way through e wilderness of Edom.
 8 So the king of Israel went, and the ng of Judah, and the king of Edom: and ey fetched a compass of seven days' joury: and there was no water for the host,
 d for the cattle ^e that followed them.
 9 And the king of Israel said, Alas!
 at the LORD hath called these three ngs together, to deliver them into the nd of Moab!
 10 But^f Jehoshaphat said, Is there not e a prophet of the LORD, that we may uire of the LORD by him? And one of e king of Israel's servants answered and id, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, hich poured^g water on the hands of Elijah.
 11 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of e LORD is with him. So the king of rael, and Jehoshaphat, and the king of dom, went down to him.
 12 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel,
 What^h have I to do with thee? getⁱ thee o the prophets^j of thy father, and to the rophets of thy mother. And the king of rael said unto him, Nay: for the LORD ath called these three kings together, o deliver them into the hand of Moab.
 13 And Elisha said, As^k the LORD of osts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, ere^l it not that I regard the presence of ehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would o look toward thee, nor see thee.
 14 But now bring me a minstrel.^m And it ame to pass when the minstrel played, that e handⁿ of the LORD came upon him.
 15 And he said, Thus saith the LORD, lake^o this valley full of ditches:
 16 For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall ot see wind, neither shall ye see rain;
 et that valley shall be filled with water, hat ye may drink, both ye, and your attle, and your beasts.
 17 And this is but a light thing in the ight of the LORD: he will deliver the oabites also into your hand.
 18 And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every ood tree,^p and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.
 19 And it came to pass in the morning, hen the meat offering^q was offered, that, ehold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.
 20 And when all the Moabites heard hat the kings were come up to fight iust them, they^r gathered all that ere able to put^s on armour, and upward, and stood in the border.
 21 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood:

 23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely^β slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil.
 24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they^γ went forward smiting
 the Moabites, even in their country.
 25 And they beat down^d the cities, and ou every good piece of land east every mau his stone, and filled it; and they stopped^e all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: ^δ only in Kir-haraseth left^g they the stones thereof: howbeit, the slingers went about it, and smote it.
 26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not.
 27 Then he took his eldest son,^h that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offeringⁱ upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and^k returned to their own land.
 CHAPTER IV.
 NOW there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons^m of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and the^o creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.
 2 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me: what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not^p any thing in the house, save a pot of oil.
 3 Then he said, Go,^t borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; ^γ borrow not a few.
 4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and^v shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.
 5 So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out.
 6 And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said unto her son, Bring me yet a vessel: and he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed.
 7 Then she came and told the man of God: and he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy^θ debt, and live thou and thy children of the rest.
 8 And ^κ it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem,^a where was a great woman; and she ^λ constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that, as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.
 9 And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive^b that this is an holy man of God which passeth by us continually.
 10 Let^d us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.
 11 And it fell on a day that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.
 12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been careful^b for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.

14 And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old.

15 And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door.

16 And he said, About^d this γ season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do^e not lie unto thine handmaid.

17 And the woman conceived,^f and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

18 And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said unto his father, My head, my head! And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

21 And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither new moon^a nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be ^{δ} well.

24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; ζ slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee.

25 So she went, and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel.^r And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is that Shunammite;

26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her; and say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is ^{t} well.

27 And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him κ by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away.^v And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is λ vexed within her: and the LORD hath hid^w it from me, and hath not told me.

28 Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not say,^y Do not deceive me?

29 Then he said to Gehazi, Gird^z up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, salute^a him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff^b upon the face of the child.

30 And the mother of the child said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her.

31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice nor τ hearing: wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked.^c

32 And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and shut^e the 35 Then he returned, and walked in the house β to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

36 And he called Gehazi, and said Call this Shunammite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son.

37 Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took^g up her son, and went out.

38 And Elisha came again to^h Gilgal, and there was a dearthⁱ in the land;^k and the sons of the prophets were^l sitting before him: and he said unto his servant Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets.

40 So they poured out for the men to eat, and it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eat thereof.

41 But he said, Then bring meal.^o And he cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no γ harm in the pot.

42 And there came a man from Baalshalisha,^p and brought^q the man of God bread of the firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn θ in the husk thereof. And he said, Give unto the people, that they may eat.

43 And his servitor said, What,^s should I set this before an hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the LORD,^u They shall eat, and shall leave thereof.

44 So he set it before them, and they did eat, and left thereof, according to the word of the LORD.

CHAPTER V.

NOW Naaman,^x captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man μ with his master, and ν honourable, because by him the LORD had given ξ deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour; but he was a leper.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she π waited on Naaman's wife.

3 And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were ρ with the prophet that is in Samaria! for he would σ recover him of his leprosy.

4 And one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel.

5 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. And^d he departed, and took ϕ with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment.

6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now, when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that he mayest recover him of his leprosy.

7 And it came to pass, when^a the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am I^b God, to kill^c and to make alive, that this man doth send un- to me to recover a man of his leprosy?
Wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh^e a quarrel against me.

8 And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know^f that there is a prophet in Israel.

9 So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of his house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and washⁱ in Jordan seven^j times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean.

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, I^k thought, He^m will surely come out to me, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, andⁿ strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper.

12 Are not^o Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Syria, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean?
So he turned, and went away in a rage.

13 And his servants came near, and made unto him, and said, My^q father, the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it?
Now^r much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?

14 Then^s went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like^u unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.^v

15 And he returned to the man of God, and all his company, and came and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know^w that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a blessing^x of thy servant.

16 But he said, As^y the LORD liveth, for whom I stand, I will receive none.^a And he urged him to take it; but he refused.

17 And Naaman said, Shall there not be a reward given to thy servant for that he hath recovered his life from death?
For my servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but^b unto the LORD.

18 In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and leaneth^c on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon; when I bow down^e myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon^f thy servant in this thing.

19 And he said unto him, Go^g in peace.
So he departed from him a little^h way.

20 But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he ought: but, as the LORD liveth, I will after him, and take^k somewhat of his.

21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman.
And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to 22 And he said, All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments.

two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bore them before him.

24 And when he came to the tower, he took them from their hand, and bestowed^g them in the house; and he let the men go, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and stood^h before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Wherefore comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went^δ no whither.

26 And he said unto him, Went^k not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and maidservants?

27 The leprosy thereforeⁿ of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper^o as white as snow.

CHAPTER VI.

AND the sons^p of the prophets said unto Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too strait for us.

2 Let us go, we pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go ye.

3 And one said, Be^t content, I pray thee, and go with thy servants. And he answered, I will go.

4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down wood.

5 But as one was felling a beam, the^x axe head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master! for it was borrowed.

6 And the man of God said, Where fell it? And he shewed him the place.
And^z he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither; and the iron did swim.

7 Therefore said he, Take it up to thee.
And he put out his hand, and took it.

8 Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my^λ camp.

9 And the man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down.

10 And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of, and^a saved himself there, not once nor twice.

11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled^b for this thing; and he called his servants, and said unto them, Will ye not shew me which of us is for the king of Israel?

12 And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king: butⁱ Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy bedchamber.^l

13 And he said, Go and spy where he is, that I may send^m and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.^b

14 Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a ^β great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about.

15 And when the ^γ servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?

16 And he answered, Fear not; for they^c that be with us are more than they that be with them.

17 And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses^h and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

18 And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with^j blindness, according to the word of Elisha.

19 And Elisha said^l unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: ^ς follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria.

20 And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their^o eyes, and they saw; and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

21 And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I smite them? shall I smite them?

22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? Set bread^q and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.

23 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands^t of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

24 And it came to pass after this, that Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria.

25 And there was a great famine in Samaria: and, behold, they besieged^w it, until an ass's head was sold for fourseore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a eab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver.

26 And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord, O king!

27 And he said, ^γ If the LORD^z do not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the barnfloor, or out of the winepress?

28 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy son,^a that we may eat him to day, and we will eat my son to morrow.

29 So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the ^κ next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him; and^c she hath hid her son.

30 And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent^d his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and, behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh.

31 Then he said, God^e do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.

32 But Elisha sat in his house, and^a the elders sat with him; and the king sent a man from before him: but^c ere the mes- senger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this son of a murderer^d hath sent to take away mine head? look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door: is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?

33 And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him: and he said, Behold, this evil^f is the LORD; what^g should I wait for to LORD any longer?

CHAPTER VII.

THEN Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD, Tomorrow,ⁱ about this time, shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then a lord,^δ on whose hand the king leaned, answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but^m shalt not eat thereof.

3 And there were four leprons menⁿ entering in of the gate:ⁿ and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die?

4 If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fa unto the host of the Syrians; if^p the save us alive, we shall live; and if the kill us, we shall but die.

5 And they rose up in the twilight, and went unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the LORD had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise^r of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and^s they said one to another, Let the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings^u of the Hittites, and the king of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

7 Wherefore they arose,^v and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp it was, and fled for their life.

8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said one to another, We are not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if^w we tarry till the morning light, ^θ some mischief will come upon us: now, therefore, come, that we may go and tell the king's household.

10 So they came, and called unto^x the porter^b of the city; and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were.

11 And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within.

12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us.

They know that we be hungry, therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.

13 And one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left β in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it; behold, γ say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed,) and let us send and see.

14 They took therefore two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.

15 And they went after them unto Jordan; and, lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste: and the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 And the people went out, and ϵ spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of wheat was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word δ of the LORD.

17 And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, κ who spake when the king came down to him.

18 And it came to pass, μ as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be tomorrow, about this time, in the gate of Samaria:

19 And that lord answered the man of God, and said, Now, behold, ι if the LORD should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt ν not eat thereof.

20 And so it fell out unto him: for the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died.

CHAPTER VIII.

WHEN spake Elisha unto the woman whose son α he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go thou and thine household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn: for the LORD hath called ν for famine; and it shall also come upon the land seven ω years.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

3 And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her husband for her land.

4 And the king talked with Gehazi, δ the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell ϵ me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.

5 And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, γ that, behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life, cried ν to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, he told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain θ officer, saying, Restore all that was her's, and all the fruits of the 7 And Elisha came to Damascus; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king said unto Hazael, α Take a present β in thine hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire γ of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present γ with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Thy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

10 And Elisha said unto him, Go, say unto him, Thou mayest δ certainly recover: howbeit the LORD hath shewed me that he shall surely die. ζ

11 And he settled his countenance δ stedfastly, until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept. η

12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil ι that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and κ wilt dash their children, and rip up λ their women with child.

13 And Hazael said, But what! is thy servant a dog, ν that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD hath shewed me ψ that thou shalt be king over Syria.

14 So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldst χ surely recover.

15 And it came to pass on the ψ morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died; and Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 And in the fifth year of Joram, the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram, δ the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, ζ began to reign.

17 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the way η of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for the ν daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.

19 Yet χ the LORD would not destroy Judah, for David his servant's sake, as he promised α him to give him always a η light, and to his children.

20 In his days Edom revolted β from under the hand of Judah, and made a king γ over themselves.

21 So Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him: and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled into their tents.

22 Yet ζ Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then Libnah δ revolted at the same time.

23 And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, ν are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

24 And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and κ Ahaziah his ι son reigned in his stead.

25 In the twelfth year of Joram, the son of Ahab king of Israel, did Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, begin to reign.

26 Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Athaliah, the ^d daughter of Omri king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab: for he was the son in law of the house of Ahab.

28 And ^d he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

29 And king Joram went back to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds ^o which the Syrians had given him at ^κ Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went ^d down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was ^λ sick.

CHAPTER IX.

AND Elisha the ^h prophet called one of the children of the prophets, and said unto him, Gird ⁱ up thy loins, and take this box of oil in thine hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead. ^k

2 And when thou comest thither, look out there Jehu, the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among ^l his brethren, and carry him to an ^μ inner chamber:

3 Then ^m take the box of oil, ⁿ and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and tarry not.

4 So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting: and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To thee, O captain.

6 And he arose, and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus ^r saith the LORD God of Israel, I ^r have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel.

7 And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge ^t the blood of my servants ^u the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel.

8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and ^v I will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shent up ^w and left in Israel.

9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam ^x the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha ^y the son of Abijah:

10 And ^a the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

11 Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? wherefore came this mad ^c fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication.

12 And they said, It is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus ^d and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel.

13 Then they hasted, and took every man his garment ^a and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew ^b with trumpets, saying, Jehu ^β is king.

14 So Jehu, the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria.)

15 But king ^γ Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds ^c which the Syrians ^δ had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Jehu said, If it be your minds, then ^η let none go forth nor escape out of the city, to go to tell it in Jezreel.

16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram.

17 And there stood a watchman ^e on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again.

19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me.

20 And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the ^ν driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth ^π furiously. ^ο

21 And Joram said, ^ρ Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel, and Ahaziah king of Judah, went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and ^σ met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What ^τ peace, so long as the whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel, and her witchcrafts, are so many?

23 And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah!

24 And Jehu ^τ drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms; and the arrow went out at his heart, and he ^φ sunk down in his chariot.

25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden upon him; ^z

26 Surely I have seen yesterday ^x the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and ^b I will requite thee in this ^ψ plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.

27 But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house; and Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot. And they did so at the going up to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, ^c and died there.

28 And his servants carried him in ^ε chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of David.

29 And ^b in the eleventh year of Joram he son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.

30 And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she ^β painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window.

31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had Zimri^ε peace, who slew his master?

32 And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs.

33 And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot.

34 And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is the king's daughter.^h

35 And they went to bury her; but ⁱ they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.

36 Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This is the word of the LORD, which he spake ^ν by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying,^o In the portion of Jezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel:

37 And the carcase of Jezebel shall be as dung ^γ upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

CHAPTER X.

AND Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to ^π them that brought up Ahab's children, saying,

2 Now, as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour;

3 Look even out the best and meetest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.

4 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two ^κ kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand?

5 And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, We ^ν are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be ^τ mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time. (Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up.)

7 And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew ^ε seventy ^d persons, and cut their heads ^ε in baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel.

8 And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning.

9 And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, I ^a conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these?

10 Know now that there shall fall ^c unto the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spake ^d concerning the house of Ahab: for the LORD hath done that which he spake ^γ by his servant Elijah.

11 So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his ^δ kinsfolks, ^f and his priests, until ^g he left him none remaining.

12 And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the shearing house in the way, 13 Jehu ^θ met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we go down to ^κ salute the children of the king, and the children of the queen.

14 And he said, Take them alive.^h And they ⁱ took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing house, even two and forty men: neither left he any of them.

15 And when he was departed thence, he ^λ lighted on Jehonadab ^μ the son of Rechab, ^ν coming to meet him: and he ^μ saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, give ^ρ me thine hand. And he gave him his hand: and he took him up to him into the chariot.

16 And he said, Come with me, and see my zeal ^r for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all ^s that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spake ^t to Elijah.

18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Ahab ^u served Baal a little, but Jehu shall serve him much.

19 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets ^v of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice ^w to do to Baal: whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtilty, ^w to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

20 And Jehu said, ^ρ Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it.

21 And Jehu sent through all Israel; and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house ^z of Baal; and the house of Baal was ^σ full from one end to another.

22 And he said unto him that was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments.

23 And Jehu went, and ^a Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but ^b the worshippers of Baal only.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, his ^f life shall be for the life of him.

25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and slay ^g them; let none come forth. And they smote them with the β edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal.

26 And they brought forth the γ images ^b out of the house of Baal, and burned ^c them.

27 And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and made it a draught house unto this day.

28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 Howbeit, from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves ^f that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan.

30 And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because ^g thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, thy children of the fourth ^m generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.

31 But Jehu ⁿ took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: ^o for he departed not from the ⁿ sins of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sin.

32 In those days the LORD began ^o to cut Israel short: and Hazael ^r smote them in all the coasts of Israel;

33 From Jordan ^k eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Mauassites, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnou, ^l even Gilead ^t and Bashan.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 And Jehu slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.

36 And ^u the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

CHAPTER XI.

AND ^z when Athaliah, the mother ^a of Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the ^v seed royal.

2 But ^z Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took ⁿ Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain.

3 And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah did reign over the land.

4 And ^e the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and shewed them the king's son.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do; a third part of you that enter in on the sabbath shall even be keepers of the watch ^h of the king's house;

6 And a third part shall be at the gate of Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house, σ that it be not broken down.

7 And two ϕ parts of all you that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king.

about, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that cometh within the ranges, let him be slain: and be ye with the king as he goeth out, and as he cometh in.

9 And the captains ^a over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

10 And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king David's spears and shields, ^e that were in the temple of the LORD.

11 And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right ^o corner of the temple, to the left corner of the temple, along by the altar and the temple.

12 And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown ^h upon him, and ⁱ gave him the testimony: and they made him king, and anointed ^k him; and they clapped ^l their hands, and said, ζ God ⁿ save the king.

13 And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the LORD.

14 And when she looked, behold, the king stood ^a by a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew ^s with trumpets: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, Treason!

15 But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth ^u without the ranges; and him that followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house ^v of the LORD.

16 And they laid hands on her: and she went by the way by the which the horses came into the king's house: and there was she slain. ^w

17 And Jehoiada made a covenant ^x between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD's ^y people; between the king also and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went into the house ^b of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images ^c brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew ^d Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed ^o officers over the house of the LORD.

19 And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings.

20 And all the people of the land rejoiced, ^f and the city was in quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword beside the king's house.

21 Seven years old was Jehoash when he began to reign.

CHAPTER XII.

IN ^g the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Jehoash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all his days where-in Jehoiada the priest instructed him.

3 But ⁱ the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.

4 And Jehoash said to the priests, All he money of the β dedicated things that α brought into the house of the LORD, ven the money^a of every one that pass-th the account, the money^b that every an is set at, and all the money that cometh into any man's heart^c to bring nto the house of the LORD,

5 Let the priests take it to them, every nan of his acquaintance; and let them epair the breaches of the house, where-ever any breach shall be found.

6 But it was so, that, θ in the three and wentieth year of king Jehoash, the priests did not repair the breaches of the house.

7 Then^d king Jehoash called for Jehoiala the priest, and the other priests, and said unto them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? Now, therefore, receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.

8 And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house.

9 But Jehoia^d the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD:
and the priests that kept λ the door put herein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.

10 And it was so, when they saw that here was much money in the chest, that the king's ν scribe and the high priest came up, and they ρ put up in bags, and old the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

11 And they gave the money, being told,
into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they τ laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the house of the LORD,

12 And to masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that ϕ was laid out for the house to repair it.

13 Howbeit, there were not made for the house of the LORD bowls of silver, snuffers, basons, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD:

14 But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired therewith the house of the LORD.

15 Moreover, they γ reckoned not with the men into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen:
for they dealt faithfully.

16 The trespass money^e and sin money was not brought into the house of the LORD: it^f was the priests'.

17 Then^g Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it: and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.

18 And Jehoash king of Judah took^h all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and in the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and he went ψ away from Jerusalem.

19 And the rest of the acts of Joash,
and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

CHAPTER XIII.

IN γ the three and twentieth year of Joash, the son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and κ followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

3 And^c the auger of the LORD was kindled against Israel; and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael^d king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-hadad
the son of Hazael, all their days.

4 And Jehoahaz besought^e the LORD, and the LORD hearkened unto him; for he^h saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them.

5 (And the LORD gave Israel α saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents, as μ beforetime.

6 Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel sin, but π walked therein: and there σ remained the grove also^k in Samaria.)

7 Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like the dust by threshing.^l

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash^m his sonⁿ reigned in his stead.

10 In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king of Judah began Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz, to reign^o over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.

11 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin; but he walked therein.

12 And^r the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might wherewith he fought^r against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

13 And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat upon his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

14 Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died. And Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O my father, my father! the chariot^w of Israel, and the horsemen thereof!

15 And Elisha said unto him, Take bow and arrows: and he took unto him bow and arrows.

16 And he said to the king of Israel, Put x thine hand upon the bow: and he put his hand upon it; and Elisha put his hands upon the king's hands.

17 And he said, Open the window eastward: and he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot: and he shot. And he said,^z
The arrow of the LORD's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in^b Aphek, till thou have consumed them.

18 And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground. And he smote thrice, and stayed.

19 And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times, then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.^e

20 And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year.

21 And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that, behold, they spied a band of men; and they east the man into the sepulchre of Elisha: and when the man was^d let down, and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet.

22 But Hazaelⁱ king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

23 And the LORD was gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, and had^j respect unto them, because of his covenant with^m Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his^k presence as yet.ⁿ

24 So Hazael king of Syria died; and Ben-hadad his son reigned in his stead.

25 And Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz, took^o again out of the hand of Ben-hadad, the son of Hazael, the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war: three^p times did Joash beat him, and recovered the cities of Israel.

CHAPTER XIV.

IN^q the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, reigned^r Amaziah, the son of Joash king of Judah.

2 He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like David his father: he did according to all things as Joash his father did.

4 Howbeit^u the high places were not taken away: as yet the people did sacrifice and burnt incense on the high places.

5 And it came to pass, as soon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, that he slew his servants^v which had slain the king his father.

6 But the children of the murderers he slew not: according unto that which is written^w in the book of the law of Moses, wherein the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers^x shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

7 He slew of Edom, in the valley of salt, ten thousand, and took^y Selah by war, and called the name of it Joktheel^z unto this day.

8 Then^{aa} Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, Come, let us^{ab} look one another in the face.

9 And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle^{ac} that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

10 Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thine heart hath lifted^a thee up: glory of this, and tarry^β at home: for why shouldest thou meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldest fall,^c even thou, and Judah with thee?

11 But Amaziah would not hear. Therefore Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at^d Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah.

12 And Judah was^e put to the worse before Israel; and they fled every man to their tents.

13 And Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, from the gate^f of Ephraim unto the corner gate,^g four hundred cubits.

14 And he took all the gold^h and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

15 Now^k the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

17 And^o Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.

18 And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

19 Now they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to^s Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish, and slew him there.

20 And they brought him on horses; and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers, in the city of David.

21 And all the people of Judah took Azariah,^t which was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah.

22 He built Elath,^v and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah^w the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, and reigned forty and one years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the sins^x of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 He restored the coast of Israel from the entering of Hamath^b unto the sea^c of the plain, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which he spake by the hand of his servant Jonah,^d the son of Amittai, the prophet, which was of Gath-hepher.

26 For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter: for^e there was not any shut up, nor any left, nor any helper for Israel.

27 And the LORD said notⁱ that he would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven: but^k he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

28 Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus, and Hamath, which belonged^m to Judah, for Israel, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

29 And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and Zachariah his son reigned^c in his stead.

CHAPTER XV.

[^a The twenty and seventh^e year of Jeroboam king of Israel began^f Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign.

2 Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned two and fifty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jeholiah of Jerusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done;

4 Save^g that the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still on the high places.

5 And^h the LORD smote the king, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house. And Betham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

7 So Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

8 In the thirty and eighth year of Azariah king of Judah didⁱ Zachariah the son of Jeroboam reign over Israel in Samaria six months.

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

10 And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and slew^j him, and reigned in his stead.

11 And the rest of the acts of Zachariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12 This was the word of the LORD^m which he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sons shall sit on the throne of Israel unto the fourth generation. And so it came to pass.

13 Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the nine and thirtieth year of Uzziahⁿ king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria.

14 For Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16 Then Menahem smote Tiphshah,^o and all that were therein, and the coasts thereof from Tirzah: because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it; and all the remnant therein that were with child he tipped up.

17 In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah began Menahem the son of Gadi to reign over Israel, and reigned ten years in Samaria.

18 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

20 And Menahem ^βexacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria: so the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not there in the land.

21 And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22 And Menahem slept with his fathers: and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.

23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 But Pekah the son of Remaliah, a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the palace of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his room.

26 And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

27 In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah^k the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.

28 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel, came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land ofⁿ Naphtali, and carried them captive to Assyria.

30 And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned^p in his stead, in the twentieth^q year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

31 And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32 In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel, began^r Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign.

33 Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.

34 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD: he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.

35 Howbeit, the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burned incense still in the high places. He built the higher gate of the house of the LORD.

36 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

37 In those days^u the LORD began to send against Judah Rezin^w the king of Syria, and Pekah^a the son of Remaliah.

38 And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XVI.

IN^b the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.

2 Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father.

3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to^d pass through the fire, according^e to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD east out from before the children of Israel.

4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and^g on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Then^h Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him.

6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath^j to Syria, and drove the Jews from ^βElath: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.

7 So Ahaz sent messengers to ^ζTiglath-pileser^l king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant, and thy son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise up against me.

8 And^m Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.

9 And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against ^ηDamascus, and^p took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, and slew Rezin.

10 And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof.

11 And Urijah the priest built^s an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and offered^v thereon.

13 And he burnt his burnt offering, and his meat offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of ^κhis peace offerings, upon the altar.

14 And he brought also the brazen altar,^z which was before the LORD, from the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar.

15 And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning^b burnt offering, and the evening meat offering, and the king's burnt sacrifice, and his meat offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meat offering, and their

CHAPTER XVII.

IN the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah began^g Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

3 Against^h him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and ^γgave him ^δpresents.

4 And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

5 Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.

6 Inⁿ the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and^o carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah^a and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

7 For so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods,

8 And walked^r in the statutes of the heathen, whom the LORD east out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

9 And the children of Israel did^t secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, from^u the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

10 And^w they set them up ^θimages and groves^x in^y every high hill, and under every green tree:

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger:

12 For they served idols, whereof the LORD had said^a unto them, Ye shall not do this thing.

13 Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, ^λby all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying,^c Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.

14 Notwithstanding, they would not ear, but hardened^b their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the LORD their God.

15 And they rejected^d his statutes, and his covenant^c that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies^f which he testified against them; and they followed unty,^h and became vain,ⁱ and went after heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD had charged^j them, that they should not do like them.

16 And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them moltenⁿ images, even two calves,^o and made a grove,^p and worshipped all the host of heaven,^r and served Baal.^s

17 And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass^t through the fire, and sed divination and enchantments,^u and old^v themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but^w the tribe of Judah only.

19 Also^y Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

20 And the LORD rejected^b all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and^c delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had east them out of his sight.

21 For^e he rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, king: and Jeroboam^g drave Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them;

23 Until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said^j by all his servants the prophets. So^k was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

24 And^l the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon,ⁿ and from Cuthah, and from Ava,^o and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria, instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And so it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD; therefore the LORD sent^a nations among them, which slew some of them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent nations among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

28 Then one of the priests, whom they had carried away from Samaria, came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own,^a and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities where-in they dwelt.

30 And the men of Babylon^c made Suceoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 And^e the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt^k their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared the LORD,^m and made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They^q feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations^β whom they carried away from thence.

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob,^z whom he named Israel;

35 With whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them,^z saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor^a bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, with great power^d and a stretched out arm, him shall^f ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice.

37 And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ye^h shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods.

38 And the covenant that I have made with you, yeⁱ shall not forget, neither shall ye fear other gods.

39 But the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit^m they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 Soⁿ these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

CHAPTER XVIII.

NOW it came to pass, in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah^r the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

2 Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Abi,^s the daughter of Zaachariah.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did.

4 He removed the high places, and brake the yimages, and ent down the groves, and brake in pieces the brazen^t serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it: and he called it^δ Nehushtan.

5 He trusted in the LORD God of Israel; so^u that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him.

6 For he clave^b to the LORD, and departed not from ^β following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses.

7 And the LORD was with^c him; and he prospered^d whithersoever he went forth: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria,^e and served him not.

8 He smote the Philistines, even unto ^δ Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

9 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser^f king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.

10 And at the end of three years they took it, even in the sixth year of Hezekiah (that is, the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel) Samaria was taken.

11 And^h the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:

12 Becauseⁱ they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them.

13 Now,^j in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, did ^γ Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.

14 And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended: return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold.

15 Andⁿ Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house.

16 At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave^κ it to the king of Assyria.

17 And the king of Assyria sent^q Tartan, and Rabсарis, and Rab-shakeh, from Lachish to king Hezekiah, with a ^μ great host against Jerusalem: and they went up, and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which^u is in the highway of the fuller's field.

18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the ^ξ scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder.

19 And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

20 Thou ^π sayest, (but they are but ^ρ vain words,) ^σ I have counsel and strength for the war. Now, on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Now, behold, thou ^τ trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed,^υ even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him.

22 But if ye say unto me, Wo trust in the LORD our God: is not that he whose high places^a and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away; and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give ^γ pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

24 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

25 Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD^γ said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that^k they may eat their own dung, and drink ^ζ their own piss, with you?

28 Then Rab-shakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus^m saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:

30 Neitherⁿ let Hezekiah make you trust^o in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

31 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, ^θ Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his ^λ cistern;

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like^τ your own land; a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey, that ye may live and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he ^υ persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us.

33 Hath^t any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34 Where are the gods of Hamath^u and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Heua, and Ivah?^v have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 Who^w are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand?

36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not^z a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah,^z with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

CHAPTER XIX.

AND^b it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah^d the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day^e of trouble, and of rebuke, and ^βblasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent^h to reproach^k the living God; and will remove^l the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant^m that are ^γleft.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which^p the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I^q will send a blast^r upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.^s

9 And^u when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee; he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God whom thou trustest^v deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have^w the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed: as Gozan, and Haran, and Rehob, and the children of Eden^z which were in Thelasar?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah?

14 And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed^a before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which^c dwelleth between the cherubims, thou^d art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou^e hast made heaven and earth.

16 LORD, bow^f down thine ear, and hear: open, LORD, thine eyes, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent him to reproach the living God.

17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands, fire: for they were no gods, but^a the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.

19 Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know^c that thou art the LORD God, even thou only.

20 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, That which thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard.^f

21 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning him: The virgin^g the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shakenⁱ her head at thee.

22 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even againstⁿ the Holy One of Israel.

23 ^δBy thy messengers thou hast reproached the Lord, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots^o I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down ^ζthe tall cedar trees thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof; and I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, and into^η the forest of his Carmel.

24 I have digged and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of ^θbesieged places.

25 ^κHast thou not heard long ago how I have^t done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into ruinous heaps.

26 Therefore their inhabitants were ^λof small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as^w the grass on the house tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

27 But I know thy ^μabode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

28 Because thy rage against me and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook^ν in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

29 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof.

30 And^ν the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

31 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant,^β and ^πthey that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank against it.

33 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

34 For^h I will defend this city to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

35 And^a it came to pass that night, that the angel of the LORD went out, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians an hundred fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

36 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.^b 37 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote^d him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of ^β Armenia. And Esarhaddon his ^c son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XX.

IN^g those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, ^γSet thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying,

3 I beseech thee, O LORD,ⁱ remember now how I have walked^m before thee in truthⁿ and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah ^ςwept sore.

4 And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle ^ηcourt, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

5 Turu again, and tell Hezekiah, the captain^α of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard^r thy prayer, I have seen thy tears:^t behold, I will heal^u thee: on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD.

6 And I will add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and^w I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

7 And Isaiah said, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

8 And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign^a that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day?

9 And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees.

11 And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the LORD; and^ς he brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the ^θdial of Ahaz.

12 Atⁱ that time ^κBerodach-baladan, the son of Baladan king of Babylon, sent letters and a present unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

13 And Hezekiah hearkened unto them, and shewed^k them all the house of ^λhis precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his ^μarmour, and all that was found in his treasures:^l there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

14 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country, even from Babylon.

15 And he said, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All^c the things that are in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

16 And Isaiah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD.

17 Behold,^ς the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried into Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

18 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away;^h andⁱ they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 Then said Hezekiah unto Isaiah, Good^k is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. And he said, ^δ*Is it not good*, if peace and truth be in my days?

20 And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made a pool,^ο and a conduit, and brought water^ρ into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

21 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXI.

MANASSEH^a was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzi-bah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, after^ν the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD east out before the children of Israel.

3 For he built up again the high places which^α Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as^ν did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped^α all the host of heaven, and served them.

4 And he built altars in the house^β of the LORD, of which the LORD^c said, In Jerusalem will I put my name.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And he made his son^d pass through the fire, and observed times,^e and used enchantments, and dealt with familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a graven image of the grove that he had made in the house, of which the LORD said to David,^ο and to^κ Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 Neither^j will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them.

9 But they hearkened not: and^m Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake by his servants the prophets, saying,

11 Because^b Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath one wickedly above all that the Amorites^c did, which were before him, and hath made Judah also to sin with his idols:

12 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I^e am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle.

13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line^g of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as^h a man wipe a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down.

14 And I will forsakeⁱ the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies;^k and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies;

15 Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.

16 Moreover, Manasseh shed innocent blood^m very much, till he had filled Jerusalemⁿ from one end to another; beside his sin wherewithⁿ he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

17 Now^o the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he committed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

18 And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.

19 Amon^a was twenty and two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

20 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as^t his father Manasseh did.

21 And he walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them:

22 And he forsook^w the LORD God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the LORD.

23 And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house.

24 And the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

26 And he was buried in his sepulchre, in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah^a his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER XXII.

JOSIAH^b was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty and six years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah of Boscath.^d way of David his father, and turned not aside^a to the right hand or to the left.

3 And it came to pass, in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying,

4 Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum the silver^d which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers^f of the ^g door have gathered of the people:

5 And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work which is in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house,

6 Unto carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone, to repair the house.

7 Howbeit there was no reckoning made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.

8 And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have foundⁱ the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have ^j gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD.

10 And Shaphan the scribe shewed the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book. And Shaphan read^r it before the king.

11 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent^r his clothes.

12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor^s the son of ^t Michaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asahiah a servant of the king's, saying,

13 Go ye, inquire^u of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great^v is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our^w fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do^v according unto all that which is written concerning us.

14 So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asahiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah,^z the son of ^{aa} Harhas, keeper of the ^{ac} wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem ^{ad} in the college;) and they communed with her.

15 And she said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read:

17 Because^e they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore^e my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

18 But to the king of Judah, which sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall you say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, As touching the words which thou hast heard;

19 Because thine heart^s was tender, and thou hast humbled^g thyself before the LORD, when thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation^h and a curse,ⁱ and hast rent^k thy clothes, and wept^l before me; I also have heard thee, saith the LORD.

20 Behold, therefore, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, andⁿ thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

CHAPTER XXIII.

AND^p the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem.

2 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, ^qboth small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was^r found in the house of the LORD.

3 And^t the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes, with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book: and all the people stood to the covenant.

4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove,^v and for all the host of heaven; and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them unto Beth-el.

5 And he^g put down^k the idolatrons priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the^l planets, and to all the host of heaven.

6 And he brought out the grove from the house of the LORD, without Jerusalem, unto the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and east the powder thereof upon the graves^z of the children of the people.

7 And he brake down the houses^b of the sodomites, that were by the house of the LORD, where the women^d woveⁿ hangings for the grove.

8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba^s to Beer-sheba, and brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city.

11 And he took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the^β chamberlain, which was in the suburbs, and burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the^m top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which^o Maussesh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king beat down, and^γ brake them down from thence, and east the dust of them into the brook Kidron.

13 And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of^δ the mount of corruption, which Solomon^q the king of Israel had builded for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Mileom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.

14 And he brake^s in pieces the^η images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 Moreover, the altar that was at Beth-el, and the high placeⁿ which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burned the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burned the grove.

16 And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word^ω of the LORD, which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words.

17 Then he said, What title is that that I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the sepulchre of the man of^z God which came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el.

18 And he said, Let him alone; let no man move his bones. So they let his bones^μ alone, with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria.

19 And all the houses also of the high places that were^ν in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el.

20 And he^ν slew^α all the priests of the high places that were there upon the altars, and burned men's bones^c upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the LORD your God, as it is written^e in the book of this covenant.

22 Surely^g there was not holden such a passover from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah;

23 But in the eighteenth year of king

Josiah, wherein this passover was holden the LORD in Jerusalem.

24 Moreover,^a the workers with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the β images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were spied in the land of Judah and Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that might perform the words of the^c law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

25 And^d like unto him was there none before him, that turned^e to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according^f to all a law of Moses; neither after him arose any like him.

26 Notwithstanding the LORD turned from the fierceness of his great wrath, for his anger was kindled against Judah, because^g of all the provocations that Manasseh had provoked him withal.

27 And the LORD said, I will^h remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removedⁱ Israel, and will cast off this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the use of which^j I said, My name shall be there.

28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

29 In^k his days Pharaoh-nechoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah went against him; and he slew him at Megiddo,^l when he had seen him.

30 And his servants carried him in a bier dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And^m the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.

31 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And his mother's name wasⁿ Hamutal, daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

32 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

33 And Pharaoh-nechoh put him in bonds at Riblah,^o in the land of Hamath; that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and he put the land to a tribute of an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

34 And Pharaoh-nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the room of Josiah his father, and turned^p his name to Jehoiakim, and took Jehoahaz away: for he came to Egypt, and died there.

35 And Jehoiakim gave the silver^q and gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his taxation, to give it unto Pharaoh-nechoh.

36 Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zebudah, the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah.

37 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And^b the LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake^c by his servants the prophets.

3 Surely at the commandment of the LORD came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for^d the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did;

4 And also for the innocent blood^e that he shed, (for^f he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood,) which the LORD would not pardon.^g

5 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

6 So^h Jehoiakim slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

7 Andⁱ the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken,^j from the river of Egypt unto the river Enphrates, all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. And his mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

10 At^k that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city^l was besieged.

11 And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants did besiege it.

12 And^m Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and hisⁿ officers: and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign.

13 And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD^o had said.

14 And^p he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained, save the poorest^q sort of the people of the land.

15 And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his^r officers, and the mighty of the land: those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

16 And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths a thousand; all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

17 And^s the king of Babylon made Matthanah his father's brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah^t was twenty and one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal,^a the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

19 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

20 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had east them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled^c against the king of Babylon.

CHAPTER XXV.

AND^d it came to pass, in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his host, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it; and they built forts against it round about.

2 And the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

3 And on the ninth day of the fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night, by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by the king's garden: (now the Chaldees were against the city round about:) and the king^h went the way toward the plain.

5 And the army of the Chaldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him.

6 So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon to^j Riblah; and theyⁿ gave judgment upon him.

7 And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and^o put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

8 And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, (which is the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) came Nebuzar-adan, ^kcaptain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem:

9 And^l he burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and^m every great man's house burnt he with fire.

10 And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down^o the walls of Jerusalem round about.

11 Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the ^pfugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away.

12 But the captain of the guard left of the poor^q of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen.

13 And^r the pillars^t of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of the LORD, did the Chaldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.

14 And the pots,^v and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

15 And the firepans, and the bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

16 The two pillars, ^πone sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

17 The height^b of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the chapter upon it was brass; and the height of the chapter three cubits; and the wreathen work, and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen work.

18 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah^c the chief priest, and^f Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the ^β door:

19 And out of the city he took an ^γ officer that was set over the men of war, and five men of them that ^δ were in the king's presence, which were found in the city, and the ^ε principal scribe of the host, which mustered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land that were found in the city:

20 And Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, took these, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah:

21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So^g Judah was carried away out of their land.

22 Andⁱ as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler.

23 And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

24 And Gedaliah sware to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you.

25 Butⁿ it came to pass, in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed^λ royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah.

26 And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies arose, and came to Egypt:^p for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

27 And^r it came to pass, in the seventh and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, did lift up^s the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison;

28 And he spake^v kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that^w were with him in Babylon;

29 And changed^x his prison garments, and he did eat^y bread continually before him all the days of his life.

30 And his allowance was a continual allowance given him of the king, a daily rate for every day, all the days of his life.

CHAPTER IX.

SO all Israel were reckoned by genealogies; and, behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, who were carried away to Babylon for their transgression.

2 Now^a the first inhabitants that dwelt in their possessions in their cities were, the Israelites, the priests, Levites, and the Nethinims,^c

3 And in Jerusalem^f dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim, and Manasseh;

4 Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Pharez the son of Judah.

5 And of the Shilonites; Asaiah the firstborn, and his sons.

6 And of the sons of Zerah; Jeuel, and their brethren, six hundred and ninety.

7 And of the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hasenuah,

8 And Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Miehari, and Meshullam the son of Shephathiah, the son of Renel, the son of Ibnijah;

9 And their brethren, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty and six. All these men were chief of the fathers in the house of their fathers.

10 Andⁱ of the priests; Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, and Jaehin.

11 And Azariah^k the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God;

12 And Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashur, the son of Malehijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshilemith, the son of Immer;

13 And their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; ζ very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

14 And of the Levites; Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

15 And Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Ziehari, the son of Asaph;

16 And Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, that dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites.

17 And the porters were, Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren: Shallum was the chief;

18 Who hitherto waited in the king's gate eastward: they were porters in the companies of the children of Levi.

19 And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren (of the house of his father) the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the β gates of the tabernacle: and their fathers, being over the host of the LORD, were keepers of the entry.

20 And Phinehas^a the son of Eleazar was the ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was with him.

21 And Zechariah the son of Meshele-miah was porter of the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All these, which were chosen to be porters in the gates, were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogy in their villages, whom David^c and Samuel the^d seer ζ did ordain in their η set office.

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the LORD, namely, the house of the tabernacle, by wards.

24 In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south.

25 And their brethren, which were in their villages, were to come after^e seven days from time to time with them.

26 For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their μ set office, and were over the ν chambers and treasuries of the house of God.

27 And they lodged round about the house of God, because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning pertained to them.

28 And certain of them had the charge of the ministering vessels, that they should π bring them in and out by tale.

29 Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the ρ instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.

30 And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment^q of the spices.

31 And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the σ set office over the thingsⁱ that were made ϕ in the paus.

32 And other of their brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the χ showbread, to prepare it every sabbath.

33 And these are the singers,^k chief of the fathers of the Levites, who remaining in the chambers were free; for ψ they were employed in that work day and night.

34 These chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations: these dwelt at Jerusalem.

35 And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jehiel, whose wife's name was Maachah:ⁿ

36 And his firstborn son Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, 37 And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.

38 And Mikloth begat Shimeam. And they also dwelt with their brethren at Jerusalem, over against their brethren.

39 And^a Ner begat Kish; and Kish begat Saul; and Saul begat Jonathau, and Malehi-shua, and Abiudab, and Esh-baal.

40 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal: and Merib-baal begat Micah.

41 And the sons of Micah were, Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, and^a Ahaz.

42 And Ahaz begat Jarah; and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza;

CHAPTER X.

NOW^b the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down γ slain in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and^d Abinadab, and Malehi-shua, the sons of Saul.

3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the θ archers κ hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith, lest these uncircumcised come and λ abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities,^f and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings unto their idols, and to the people.

10 And^h they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

11 And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 They arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13 So Saul died for his transgression, which he ξ committed against the LORD, even^l against the word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel^m of one that had a familiar spirit, to inquire of it;

14 And inquired not of the LORD: therefore he slew him, and turned^o the kingdom unto David the son of β Jesse.

CHAPTER XI.

THEN^p all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 And, moreover, γ in time past, even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt δ feed^r my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel.

3 Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD ζ by Samuel.^t

4 And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus;^a where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

 5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come hither. Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of David.

6 And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be ^βchief and captain. So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was chief.

7 And David dwelt in the castle: therefore they called it the city of David.

8 And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

9 So David ^κwaxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him.

10 These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word^c of the LORD concerning Israel.

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam ^σan Iachmonite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighties:

13 He was with David at ^βPas-dammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines.

14 And they ^γset themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great ^θdeliverancee.

15 Now ^κthree of the thirty captains went down^d to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim.^e

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

17 And David longed,^f and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate!

18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it^g out to the LORD,

19 And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood^h of these men ^μthat have putⁱ their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy^j of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest.

20 And^k Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them, and had a name among the three.

21 Of the three, he was more honourable than the two, for he was their captain; howbeit he attained not to the first three.

22 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, ^ρwho had done many acts; he slew two lionlike men of Moab: also he went down and slew a lion in a pit in a snowy day.

23 And he slew an Egyptian, a man ^σof great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him

CHAPTER XII.

NOW ^kthese are they that came to David to Ziklag, ^νwhile he yet kept himself close, because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the war.

2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left^m in hurling stones and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin.

3 The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of ^πShemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Berachah, and Jehu the Autothite,

4 And Ismaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Josabad the Gederathite,

5 Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite,

6 Elkanah. and Jesiah, and Azazel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korhites, 7 And Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David, into the hold to the wilderness, men of might, and men ^δ of war fit for the battle, that could handle shield and buckler, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were ^γ as swift as the roes ^δ upon the mountains;

9 Ezer the first, Obadiah the second,
Eliab the third,

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah
the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,

12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,

13 Jeremiah the tenth, Machbanai the eleventh.

14 These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: ^θ one of the least was over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

15 These are they that went over Jordan in the first month, when it had ^ν over-flown ^α all his banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west.

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the hold unto David.

17 And David went out ^ξ to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall ^ρ be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no ^σ wrong in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it.

18 Then the spirit ^φ came upon ^ε Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thiue are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thiue helpers: for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when ^ζ he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle; but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines, upon advisement, sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master
Saul, ^ψ to the jeopardy of our heads.

20 As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediah, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David ^ω against the band ^α of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the host.

22 For at that time, day by day, there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

23 And these are the numbers of the ^δ bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD.

24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready ^γ armed to the war.

25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred.

26 Of the children of Levi, four thousand and six hundred.

27 And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thou-

29 And of the children of Benjamin, the ^β kindred of Saul, three thousand:
for hitherto ^α ^γ the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul.

30 And of the children of Ephraim, twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, ^ξ famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Issachar, which ^ε were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment.

33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, ^κ expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand which could ^λ keep rank: they were ^μ not of double heart.

34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them, with shield and spear, thirty and seven thousand.

35 And of the Danites, expert in war, twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

36 And of Asher, such as went forth to battle, ^π expert in war, forty thousand.

37 And on the other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, an hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel:
and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39 And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover, they that were nigh them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naph-tali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and ^χ meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for there was joy in Israel.

CHAPTER XIII.

AND David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, let us ^β send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are left ^η in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in ^γ their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us:

3 And let us bring ^ξ again the ark of our God to us: for ^κ we inquired not at it in the days of Saul.

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So ^ε David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor ^μ of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim.

6 And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalath, ^ν that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth ^θ between the cherubims, whose name is called on it.

7 And they ^θ carried the ark of God in a ew cart out of the house of ^a Abinadab :

nd Uzza and Ahio drave the cart.

8 And ^b David and all Israel played be-ore God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psaltries, and with timbrels, and with cymals, and with trumpets.

9 And when they came unto the threshing-oor of ^γ Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand
o hold the ark; for the oxen ^δ stumbled.

10 And the anger of the LORD was kin-led against Uzza, and he smote him, be-ause ^h he put his hand to the ark: and here he died ⁱ before God.

11 And David was displeased, because he LORD had made a breach upon Uzza :
therefore that place is called ^η Perez-zza to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that ay, saying, How shall I bring the ark
f God home to me?

13 So David ^θ brought not the ark home
o himself to the city of David, but caried it aside into the house of Obed-edom he Gittite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the amily of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed ⁱ the ouse of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

CHAPTER XIV.

NOW ^η Hiram king of Tyre sent mesengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him an house.

2 And David perceived that the LORD ad confirmed him king over Israel; for his kingdom was lifted up on high, be-ause of his people Israel.

3 And David took ^λ more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters.

4 Now these are the names of his child-en ^α which he had in Jerusalem; Shamua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,

5 And Ibhaz, and Elishua, and Elpalet,

6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

7 And Elishama, and ^μ Beeliada, and Eliphalet.

8 And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, ll the Philistines went up to seek David: and David heard of it, and went out against them.

9 And the Philistines came and spread hemselves ⁱ in the valley of Rephaim.

10 And David inquired of God, saying, hall I go up against the Philistines? and vilt thou deliver them into mine hand?
And the LORD said unto him, Go up;
or I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim; nd David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine emies by mine hand, like the breaking orth of waters: therefore they called the ame of that place ^ν Baal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their gods here, David gave a commandment, and hey were burned with fire.

13 And the Philistines yct again ^z spread hemselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David inquired again of God: and God said unto him, Go uot up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mul-erry trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mul-erry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon ^c even to Gazzer.

17 And the fame ^d of David went out into all lands; and the LORD ^e brought the fear of him upon all nations.

CHAPTER XV.

AND David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a ^f tent.

2 Then David said, ^ζ None ^g ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up ^h the ark of the LORD, unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the children of Aarou, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his ^κ brethren, an hundred and twenty.

6 Of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren, two hundred and twenty.

7 Of the sons of Gershom; Joel the chief, and his brethren, an hundred and thirty.

8 Of the sons of Elizaphan; ^μ Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren, two hundred.

9 Of the sons of Hebron; ^ο Eliel the chief, and his brethren, fourscore.

10 Of the sons of Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren, an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab,

12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites; sanctify ^ρ yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye did it not at the first,
the LORD our God made a breach ^τ upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders, with the staves thereon, as Moses ^υ commanded, according to the word of the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of music, psaltries, and harps, and cymbals, sounding, by lifting ^υ up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed Heman ^ω
the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph ^π the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan ^υ the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and ^π Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on Alamoth;^a 21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikeiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azariah, with harps on the ^β Sheminith to exel.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was ^γ for ^δ song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berekiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow^d with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark.

25 So^h David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the ^θ song, with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen.

28 Thus^m all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shonting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

29 And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal, the daughter of Saul, looking out at a window, saw king David dancingⁿ and playing: and she despised him^q in her heart.

CHAPTER XVI.

SO^r they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3 And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to record,^u and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom; and Jeiel with ^v psalteries and with harps; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals;

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 Then^w on that day David delivered first this psalm, to thank the LORD, into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

8 Give^y thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk^a ye of all his wondrous works.

10 Glory ye in his holy name; let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

11 Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his face continually.

12 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

13 O ye seed of Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

14 He is tho LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

15 Be ye mindful always of his covenant, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations;

16 Even of the covenant which he made with Abraham,^b and of his oath unto Isaac;^c

17 And hath confirmed the same to Jacob^e for a law, and to Israel^f for an everlasting covenant,^g

18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the ^h lot of your inheritance;

19 When ye were but ⁱ few, even a few, and strangers in it.

20 And when they went from nation to nation, and from one kingdom to another people;

21 He suffered no man to do them wrong; yea, he reproved kings^k for their sakes, 22 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

23 Sing^l unto the LORD, all the earth; shew forth from day to day his salvation.

24 Declare his glory among the heathen; his marvellous works among all nations.

25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised: he also is to be feared above all gods.

26 For all the gods of the people are idols:ⁿ but the LORD made the heavens.^o

27 Glory and honour are in his presence: strength and gladness are in his place.

28 Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

29 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

30 Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved.

31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth.

32 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof: let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.

33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because he cometh to judge the earth.

34 O^a give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

35 And say ye, Save^u us, O God of our salvation, and gather us together, and deliver us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praise.

36 Blessed^v be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever. And all^w the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD.

37 So he left there, before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required:

38 And Obed-edom, with their brethren, threescore and eight: Obed-edom also, the son of Jeduthnu, and Hosah, to be porters:

39 And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at Gibeon,^x

40 To offer burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the burnt offering continually, ^λ morning^b and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded Israel;

41 And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were oppressed by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because^a his mercy endureth for ever:

42 And with them Heman and Jeduthun, with trumpets and cymbals^b for those that should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jeduthun were^β porters.^d

43 And^f all the people departed, every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

CHAPTER XVII.

NOW^h it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an house of cedars, at the ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.

2 Then^k Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee.

3 And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in:

5 For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but have^δ gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6 Whosoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedars?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD thy hosts, I took thee from theⁿ sheepcote, even from following the sheep, that thou shouldst be ruler over my people Israel;

8 And^q I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies^r from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant^u them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved^v no more: neither^w shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning,

10 And since the time that I commanded judges^x to be over my people Israel. Moreover, I will subdue all thine enemies.^y Furthermore I tell thee, that the LORD will build thee an house.

11 And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will establish his throne for ever.

13 I^z will be his father, and he shall be my son; and^a I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee:

14 But^b I will settle him in mine house and in my kingdom for ever: and^c his throne shall be established for evermore.

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, Who^e am I, O LORD God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O LORD, for^c thy servant's sake, and according to thine own^e heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these^γ great things.

20 O LORD, there^θ is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 Andⁱ what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Israel didst thou make thine own^l people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be established^m for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God toⁿ Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established^o before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, hast^ς told thy servant that thou wilt build him an house; therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

26 And now, LORD, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness unto thy servant:

27 Now, therefore, ^θ let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever; for thou blessest, O LORD, and^a it shall be blessed for ever.

CHAPTER XVIII.

NOW^t after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab: and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 And David smote^κ Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven^λ thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of^μ Damaseus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria-damaseus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from^ν Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith^d Solomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 Now when^π Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah;

10 He sent^ρ Hadoram his son to king

David, to β inquire of his welfare, and to δ congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him: (for Hadarezer η had war with Ton;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

11 Them also king David dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver^a and the gold that he brought from all these nations: from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12 Moreover θ Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, slew of the Edomites,^c in the valley of salt, eighteen thousand.

13 And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 So David reigned over all Israel, and ζ executed judgment and justice among all his people.

15 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, κ recorder.

16 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and λ Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and μ Shavsha was scribe;

17 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief ρ about the king.

CHAPTER XIX.

NOW^o it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanni the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon, to Hanni, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanni, σ Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to ι spy out the land?

4 Wherefore^l Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst, hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanni and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hireⁿ them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.^o

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people, who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city; and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of θ Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me; but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be^b of good courage, and let us have ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God; and δ let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab, and the people that were with him, drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled^c before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river; and π Shophach, the captain of the host of Hadarezer, went before them.

17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand men which fought in chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host.

19 And^h when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants; neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER XX.

AND^k it came to pass, that τ after the year was expired, at the time that kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And^m Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

2 And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it ϕ to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes: even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 And^p it came to pass after this, that there ψ arose war at ω Gezer with the Philistines, at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite slew β Sippai, that was of the children of the giant: and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of δ Jair slew Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear staff was like a weaver's beam.

6 And^a yet again there was war at Gath, where was a man of great ^β stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was ^γ the son of the giant.

7 But when he^δ defied Israel, Jonathan the son of ^ε Shimca, David's brother, slew him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER XXI.

AND^a Satan stood up^ε against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring^σ the number of them to me, that I may know it.

3 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed^h against Joab: wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 Butⁱ Levi and Benjamin counted he out among them; for the king's word was commandable to Joab.

7 And ^λ God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do^l away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done one very foolishly.ⁿ

9 And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's seer,^o saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I ^μ offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, ^ν Choose thee

12 Either three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the word of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now, therefore, advise thyself what word shall bring again to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in great strait:^ε let me fall^ε now into the hand of the LORD; for very ^π great^ε are mine mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man.^w

14 So the LORD sent pestilence^ν upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented^a him of the il, and said to the angel that destroyed, is enough, stay^c now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of ^ρ Ornan^d the Jebusite.

16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel^σ of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over

Jos. 5. 13, 14.

Jerusalem: then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

17 And David said unto God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed: but as for these^b sheep, what have they done? Let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on^c me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

18 Then the angel^f of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD.

20 ^η And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; ^θ and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked, and saw David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, Grant me the place of this threshingfloor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD; thou shalt grant it me for the full price, that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat offering: I give it all.

24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy^k it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost.^m

25 So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; andⁿ he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering.

27 And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.

29 For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made^ε in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that season in the high place^ε at Gibeon;

30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God: for he was afraid,^ε because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

CHAPTER XXII.

THEN David said, This^ε is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel.

2 And David commanded to gather together the strangers^ε that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared^b iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance without^c weight;

4 Also cedar trees in abundance^ε for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

5 And David said, Solomon my son is young^a and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD must be exceeding magnific^b, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomou, My son, as for me, it was^c in my mind to build an house^d unto the name of the LORD my God:

8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thou^e hast shed blood^f abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be ^gSolomon, and I will give peaceⁱ and quietness unto Israel in his days.

10 He^k shall build an house for my name; and he shall be my son,^l and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now, my son, the LORD^m be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Only the LORD giveⁿ thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.

13 Then^r shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: be^s strong, and of good courage, dread not, nor be dismayed.

14 Now, behold, in my ^atrouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.

15 Moreover, there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and ^pworkers of stoue and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and the^t LORD be with thee.

17 David also commaunded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

18 Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he not given you rest^u on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people.

19 Now set^w your heart and your soul to seek^x the LORD your God: arise, therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring^z the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER XXIII.

SO^b when David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his son king over Israel.

2 And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty^d years and upward; and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

4 Of which, twenty and four thousand were to ^βset forward the work of the house of the LORD; and six thousand were officers^c and judges.

5 Moreover, four thousand were porters: and four thousand praised the LORD with the instruments^d which I made (said David) to praise therewith.

6 And David divided them into ^γcourses among the sons of Levi, namely, Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

7 Of the Gershonites were, ^δLaadan and Shimei.

8 The sons of Laadan; the chief was Jehiel, and Zetham, and Joel, three.

9 The sons of Shimei; Shelomith, and Haziël, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan.

10 And the sons of Shimei were, Jahath, ^ζZiua, and Jeush, and Beriah. These four were the sons of Shimei.

11 And Jahath was the chief, and Zizah the second; but Jeush and Beriah ^θhad not many sons; therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their father's house.

12 The sons of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.

13 The sons of Amram; Aaron and Moses: and Aaron^κ was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons for ever, to ^νburn incense before the LORD, to minister unto him, and to bless^ν in his name for ever.

14 Now concerning Moses the man of God, his sons were named of the tribe of Levi.

15 The sons of Moses were, Gershon and Eliezer.

16 Of the sons of Gershon, ^μShebue was the chief.

17 And the sons of Eliezer were, Rehabiah the ^μchief. And Eliezer had none other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah were ^νvery many.

18 Of the sons of Izhar; ^πShelomith the chief.

19 Of the sons of Hebron; Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

20 Of the sons of Uzziel; Micah the first, and Jesiah the second.

21 The sons of Merari; Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli; Eleazar and Kish.

22 And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters: and their ^σbrethren the sons of Kish took them.

23 The sons of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three.

24 These were the sons of Levi, after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as they were counted^α by number of names by their polls, that did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from the age of twenty^γ years and upward.

25 For David said, The LORD God of Israel hath given rest^α unto his people, ^τthat they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever:

26 And also unto the Levites; they shall no more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof.

27 For by the last words of David, the Levites were ^φnumbered from ^ctwenty years old and above:

28 Because their ^χoffice was to wait on the sons of Aaron, for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all

oly things, and the work of the service
f the house of God ;
29 Both for the showbread,^b and for the ne flour^c for meat offering, and for^d the ne leavened cakes, and for that which is bak- d in the β pan, and for that which is fried, nd for all manner of measure^f and size ;
30 And^g to stand every morning to thank nd praise the LORD, and likewise at even ; 31 And to offer all burnt sacrifices unto ae LORD, in^h the sabbaths, in the new oons, and on the set feasts,ⁱ by number, ecording to the order eommanded unto nem, continually before the LORD ; 32 And that they should keep the^k charge f the tabernacle of the congregation, and e charge of the holy place, and^m the harge of the sons of Aaron their brethren,
i the service of the house of the LORD.

CHAPTER XXIV.

NOW^o these are the divisions of the sons
f Aaron. The sons of Aaron ; Nadab, ad Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
2 But Nadab and Abihu died^p before their ather, and had no children : therefore Eleaar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.
3 And David distributed them, both adok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahieleeh^r of the sons of Ithamar, accord-g to their offices in their service.
4 And there were more chief men found the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of thamar ; and thus were they divided :
mong the sons of Eleazar there were six- ven chief men of the house of their fathers, nd eight among the sous of Ithamar, ac-ording to the house of their fathers.
5 Thus were they divided by lot,^t one ort with another : for the governors of e sanctuary, and governors of the house f God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and the sons of Ithamar.
6 And Shemaiah the son of Nethanel e scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them efore the king, and the princes, and Zaok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of biathar, and before the chief of the fa-ers of the priests and Levites : one rincipal household being taken for leazar, and one taken for Ithamar.
7 Now the first lot came forth to Je-

8 The third to Harim, the fourth to Seorim, 9 The fifth to Malehijah, the sixth to 19 These were the orderings^v of them

27 The sons of Merari by Jaaziah ; Beno,

28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, whoⁿ had no sons.
29 Concerning Kish ; the son of Kish was Jerahmeel.
30 The sons also of Mushi ; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites, after the house of their fathers.
31 These likewise cast lots over^q against their brethren the sons of Aaron, in the presence of David the king, and Zadok and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fa-

CHAPTER XXV.
MOREOVER, David and the captaius of the host separated to the service of the sons of Asaph,^s and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals :
and the number of the workmen, according to their service, was :
2 Of the sons of Asaph ; Zaceur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and^γ Asarelah, the sons of Asaph, under the hands of Asaph, which prophesied^δ according to the order of the king.
3 Of Jeduthun : the sons of Jeduthun ; Gedaliah, and^η Zeri, and Jeshaiah, Ha-shabiah, and Mattithiah,^θ six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the LORD.
4 Of Heman : the sons of Heman ; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, ^κ Uzziel, ^λ Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekahshah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth : 5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the ^μ words of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sous and three daughters.
6 All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God, ^ν according to the king's order to Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman.
7 So the number of them with their brethren, that were instructed in the songs of the LORD, even all that were cunning, was two hundred fourscore and eight.
8 And^ρ they cast lots, ward against ward, as well the small as the great, the teacher^ω as the scholar.
9 Now the first lot came forth for Asaph to Joseph : the second to Gedaliah, who with his brethren and sons were twelve :
10 The third to Zaceur, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve :
11 The fourth to Izri, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve :

12 The fifth to Nethaniah, he, his sons and his brethren, were twelve:

CHAPTER XXVI.

CONCERNING the divisions of the porters: Of the Korhites was ^κ Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of ^λ Asaph.

4 Moreover the sons of Obed-edom were, Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Saear the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth,

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issaahar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth; for God blessed ^ν him.

6 Also unto Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men ^μ of valour.

7 The sons of Shemaiah; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were strong men, Elihu, and Semaiah.

8 All these of the sons of Obed-edom; they, and their sons, and their brethren, able ^ο men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom.

9 And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, strong men, eighteen.

10 Also Hosah, ^ρ of the children of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief;)

11 Hilkiyah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23 But David took not the number of them from twenty years old and under: because the LORD had said^b he would increase Israel like to the stars of the heavens.

24 Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he finished not, because there fell wrath^d for it against Israel; neither ^β was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David.

25 And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jehonathan the son of Uzziah:

26 And over them that did the work of the field, for tillage of the ground, was Ezri the son of Chelub:

27 And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: over ^ς the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite;

28 And over the olive trees, and the sycamore trees^f that were in the low plains, was Baal-hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash:

29 And over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai:

30 Over the camels also was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the asses was Jehdeiah the Meronothite:

31 And over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagerite. All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's.

32 Also Jonathan, David's ^νnele, was a counsellor, a wise man, and a ^ρscribe: and Jehiel the ^θson of Hachmoni was with the king's sons.

33 And Ahithophel^l was the king's counsellor: and Hushai^m the Archite was the king's companion:

34 And after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar:^ο and the general of the king's army was Joab.^p

CHAPTER XXVIII.

AND David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes^r of the tribes, and the captains of the companies^s that ministered to the king by course, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards^u over all the substance and ^κpossession of the king, ^λand of his sons, with the ^μofficers, and with tho^v mighty men, and with all the valiant men, unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people: As for me, I had^w in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool^y of our God, and had made ready for the building:

3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name,^a because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed ^πblood.

4 Howbeit the LORD God of Israel chose me^b before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Judah^c to be the ruler: and of the house of Judah, the house^d of my father; and among the sons of my father he liked me, to make me king over all Israel:

5 And of all my sons (for^e the LORD hath given me many sons) he hath chosen

Solomon^a my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

6 And he said^c unto me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

7 Moreover, I will establish his kingdom for ever, if^f he be ^βconstant to do my commandments and my judgments, as at this day.

8 Now therefore, in the sight^γ of all Israel, the congregation of the LORD, and in the audience of our God,ⁱ keep^k and^l seek for all the commandments of the LORD your God: that^m ye may possess this good land, and leaveⁿ it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 And thou, Solomon my son,^o know thou the God of thy father, and serve^p him with a perfect heart,^q and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth^r all hearts, and understandeth^t all the imaginations of the thoughts: if^u thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now; for^v the LORD hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it.

11 Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat,

12 And the pattern^γ of all that ^γhe had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries^z of the dedicated things:

13 Also for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels^b of service in the house of the LORD.

14 He gave of gold by weight for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service; silver also for all instruments of silver by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service:

15 Even the weight for the^d candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof; and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of showbread, for every table; and likewise silver for the tables of silver:

17 Also pure gold for the^γ fleshhooks, and the bowls, and the cups; and for the golden basons he gave gold by weight for every bason; and likewise silver by weight for every bason of silver:
